Navy Orders Six "Blimps" For Coast Duty

Washington — A $1,290,000 order for six non-rigid "blimps" to be used for coast patrol, was placed by the Navy Department on the British Airship Company in London Wednesday.

The contract was made to the Coast Guard, who will take delivery at the New York yard. It called for the British airship. The British airship was to be shipped to this country for use by the Coast Guard.

EVENBING FOR THEe

There is a time in every couple's life when plans are made for the future, when the husband and wife decide to split living quarters and move to a new location. We are always on the lookout for these plans, for this is an opportunity for our business. During past years we have changed this town from a bedroom community to a thriving place to live. The work is still piling up, and we still have a safe and sound plan to offer. If you earn a steady salary and have the desire to live in the city, you can visit us for a consultation through our plan.
