Pluto. Comic Opera.

In its bright and harmonious tone, "Pluto," demonstrated that students of this branch of the theatre were not in England, but in the United States. The work was the creation of Mr. N. F. Payton, and was acted with much spirit and success.

UNCLE SAM WANTS MATERIAL FOR NICKELS

The price of copper has been advertised as high as 120 cents a pound, according to State mint officials at Philadelphia. The demand for the small coins is said to be unprecedented, and it is feared they may have to be made of some other material.

HOMES ARE ASKED FOR BRIGHT CHILDREN

Louisville, Ky., March 7.—The Kentucky Children's Home society desires that any children of good character and of ages between 4 and 12 years, for whom their friends cannot arrange home, be placed in the institution. It would be much brighter and much better for the children than to be committed to mental hospitals. The society is anxious to have these children in their care as soon as possible.
