The electric-lighting proposition becomes of interest to the public because of the many complaints made of it. The lighting company's president claims that the electric-lighting proposition cannot succeed because of the experiment itself.

The electric-lighting proposition is not on the ballot. However, the lighting company is permitted to Acid. and bid, and it has just been announced that it will bid on the franchise at $850,000. It means that it is prospective to bid away franchises. The Lighting company's president has been quoted as saying that his company will make the electric-lighting proposition a failure. But this is a statement that is proved to be false.

The electric-lighting proposition is a failure because it is being worked by the Lighting company, and the Lighting company has no intention of making a success of it. The Lighting company is not interested in making a success of the electric-lighting proposition. Its purpose is to fail the proposition and to keep the Lighting company in control of the franchise.

The Lighting company has done this before. In the past, the Lighting company has failed other propositions because it wanted to keep the Lighting company in control of the franchise. In the past, the Lighting company has been successful because it wanted to keep the Lighting company in control of the franchise.

The Lighting company is planning to fail this proposition. It has already failed other propositions because it wanted to keep the Lighting company in control of the franchise. It will fail this proposition also.

The Lighting company has no intention of making a success of the electric-lighting proposition. It has the money to do it, but it is not interested in making a success of it. The Lighting company is interested in keeping the Lighting company in control of the franchise.
