FULTON's smartphone during the meeting is beautifully given, conducted by Mrs. M. W. Haws, program leader for the afternoon. Business was Mrs. R. D. Williams, Mrs. M. L. Parker and Mrs. George Hester. The business meeting was held, and the meeting adjourned. The committee, consisting of the secretary, Mrs. George Hester, and appointees, presented the roll of victories and the new member, Mrs. Robert Hagan, One visitor, Mrs. T. A. Parham, was also welcomed. The meeting was then given to the program and the first feature was Christmas carols sung by the entire group. They were "We Three Kings," "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing," and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." Mrs. Dudley received an appreciation card from the members and a delighted plaque from "Dear Viewers." The eternal carols, accompanied by Mrs. Haws, sang "Christmas Carol," "Peace on Earth," and "Holy Night." After getting 20 bushels of corn per acre from hybrid, "Cayuga," Madison county, has decided to discontinue corn cultivation. In last month, 1,000 pounds of corn have been used as cover crop.

Dear Santa: The calendar says it’s only the middle of November, but I know it’s just about time to send in a list of the things I want for Christmas. I’ve got a list of presents I’d like to see under the tree in the front room. I’ve been good this year, so I know you’ll have something for me.

First, a pair of skates that I can use to go sledding and ice skating. I’d also like a new sled and some snow toys to play with. And of course, I need some new winter clothes—coats, hats, and gloves.

Second, I hope to get a new bike with training wheels and a helmet. I’ve been saving my money to buy one, but I don’t think I’ll make it by Christmas. Maybe Santa can help me out.

Third, I want a new set of books for my collection. I’ve been reading all the books I have, and I need more to keep me busy during the winter months.

Fourth, I’d like to get a new remote for my robot. It’s been herding my siblings around for months now, and I think it’s time for an upgrade.

Finally, a big box of chocolate chip cookies from Grandma’s kitchen. I could eat them all in one sitting, I’m sure.

Thank you, Santa, for all you do. I know you’ll take care of me this holiday season.

Sincerely,
