Ir. J. R. Harlan, in the age of 72, who was a prominent resident between the city and the county, has passed to the great beyond.
We have been directed by Mr. Harlan to furnish books for the students at this school. We are indebted to the Monitor for this information.

Dr. M. McKee, a well-known and respected citizen of this place, passed away last week.

Miss Jane Holland, Mrs. Peter J. Thacker, and Mr. James Shafer are among the teachers of the county.

Miss Lula Staton, of Clay, is leaving this place this week.

The balance of trade for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893, is as follows:

A recognized school of the Memphis Conference, M. E. Church, so named, has been in operation for many years. They are the best schools for years. They are progressing very nicely, there w

We have been running the BENTON TRIBUNE for over a year now, and we have tried to publish a good county paper, and please the people.

We have received a few suggestions and expectancies, and hope that we have made our paper better. We have had our share of errors, but we hope that we have done our best to
