

CHRISTMAS!

Evilena Filbeck Barrett

Christmas is crunching through the snow
Christmas is helping the skeptic to know...
The beautiful season he tries to forget
When the truth is this, IT'S THE LOVELIEST YET...

Christmas is lifting our voices to sing
Christmas is wrapping presents to bring...
Decorating the tree with red and green balls
Hanging mistletoe in the entrance halls...

Cooking the turkey and baking the cake
Entertaining relatives or maybe a date...
Sewing a red outfit, a Santa Clause suit
Stuffed with a pillow and wearing red boots...

Tie a red bow to the driveway post
See who on the block can decorate most...
Drape the porch columns like peppermint sticks
String the bright lights and turn 'em on quick...

Forever be thankful, our blessings to enjoy
Be happy and carefree, as a child with a toy...
Come January one, the lovely season will be
Already gone to e-ter-ni-ty...UNTIL NEXT YEAR!

Copyright © 1988 by Evilena Filbeck Barrett