News-Prints

Now back in the hands of the senders is an engraved invitation to the News Editors from the President and Mrs. Truman to attend all functions of yesterday's gala inaugural party. We were very pleased to have received such an honorable invitation, but somehow they've started charging for trains and meals and hotels, and this script we use at the News office is no good in Washington. We'll wait four years hence, maybe the next president-elect will favor us. Until then, thanks Harry and Bess.

Spis and span is the word for the new, ground floor offices of James Warren, local attorney. The offices are located on Mulberry, behind the Clarice Shop and contain two private offices and a reception room. Jimmy invites his many friends to call by and visit him in his new building. The building is owned by Maxwell McDade.

Good luck to Ouida Jewell in her new position as news editor of the Fulton Daily Leader. Ouida took over her new job yesterday morning. (Thursday).

It was like old home week in St. Louis recently when Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson went to that city to attend the wedding of Leonard Sonofsky, who at one time was manager of the local Doty Shop. It was a mighty swank affair that Russell and Inez reported with gay parties at the Club Caprice in the Hotel Sheraton.

If the local Boy Scouts "take over" the operation of the City on February 8th, we know one man who will be delighted to get a rest, even for a day... and that is the hard-working, weary, meter-ain't-right troubleshooter, G. B. Butterworth. He's had a rough row to hoe since the meters have come in, and if you don't believe it, multiply your own complaints by 1200.

Last Saturday, you may remember, Fulton had a real touch of balmy spring weather, which brought about the following incident out in front of the office:

An auto pulled up and the driver got out, scratched his back several times, twitched his neck, rubbed his arms, scratched his legs and proceeded in to see Happy Hogan next door.

"Say," he said (amid more scratching and squirming) "Do you have a place where I can change?"

"Change? Change What", replied Happy.

"Change out of this dog-goned long wool underwear I have on. I have just driven down from Wisconsin, and it's COLD up there!"

Accommodations were thereupon provided. (Note to south-bound tourists this week: the "change point" now has moved somewhere south of the Tennessee line; winter has returned to Fulton for the time being).

In case you are planning on driving any further north than Cairo anytime in the next two months, we personally recommend a pair of chains, three gallons of anti-freeze, ear-muffs for all passengers, rations for two days, a thermos jug of hot coffee, a box of aspirin and a call to the weather bureau for road information.

Christmas Eve we took off like a big bird for northern Missouri without any of the above mentioned items, hit snow at Chester, Ill., and drove through 400 miles of snow and ice at 25 m.p.h. Coming back, we chose another, sunnier route, and promptly ran into 200 miles of dense fog across Southern Missouri.

All of which goes to show that Fulton is a pretty good place to spend Christmas, even though the orchestra at the Strata Club doesn't show up.

1000 Scouts To Visit Here For June Circus

Over a thousand Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts, representing every troop in the Purchase area, are expected to be in Fulton for a gigantic Scout "Circus" on June 2, according to plans now being mapped out by Fulton's Dry Lake District executives.

The biggest Scouting event of the year will be a three-hour show at the Fulton football stadium, preceded by a late afternoon parade in which the entire personnel of the event, along with six bands, will march.

The evening show, scheduled to begin at 7 p.m., will display all of the various activities of Scouting and in addition, a model airplane flying contest and a competition among the bands represented for a substantial prize.

BANKS DO GOOD BUSINESS; ALL OFFICERS NAMED

All directors and officers of both banks were elected at recent meetings of the financial organizations this week and last. The Fulton Bank reported that it had enjoyed the largest business in its history with deposits of $1,400,000 at the close of the year. The City National Bank reported deposits of $4,694,000 for a like period.

Officers elected at each bank are as follows:

City National Bank:

N. G. Cooke, president; Joe Browder, vice president; Clyde P. Williams, executive vice-president and cashier and Bertie J. Pigue, assistant cashier.

The board of directors are Joe Browder, N. G. Cooke, C. P. Williams, L. F. Burke, L. H. Weeks, J. D. Davis and L. E. Browder.

Fulton Bank:

W. S. Atkins, president; Russell Pitchford, vice-president and cashier; Howard Shaw, assistant cashier; Ira Little, chairman of the board.

Directors are: R. H. White, Ira W. Little, W. S. Atkins, Frank Beadles, Maxwell McDade, Gilson Latta and Russell Pitchford.

WICKLIFFE WRECK TAKES ONE LIFE; TWO ARE INJURED

One trainman was killed and two painfully injured when the engine and 13 cars of an Illinois Central freight train overturned into a 30-foot fall three miles north of Wickliffe, Ky., on the Cairo district, at 9:45 Tuesday night.

The trainman killed was J. T. (Johnny) Mayfield, 27, fireman, of Jackson, Tenn. The two injured were O. P. Pearson, engineer and Charles Alexander, negro head brakeman. They received painful cuts, bruises and burns. They were rushed to the I. C. Hospital at Paducah. All three men were in the cab when the accident occurred.

Thursday, wrecking crews from Fulton and Cairo were still trying to remove the body of Mr. Mayfield, pinned in the engine turned upside down in the water with a box car on top of it.

Mr. Mayfield leaves a wife and young son.

SUCCEEDS BARKLEY

Garret Withers, former commissioner of the State Highway Department who has been U. S. Senator to succeed Alben Barkley, who became vice-president. John A. Keck was officially sworn in as Commissioner of Highways at 9:15 a. m. Tuesday succeeding Garrett L. Withers who will become U. S. Senator from Kentucky on January 20.

A final draft of plans had been previously presented to local scoutmasters and executives at a meeting of the Dry Lake District last Monday evening at the City National Bank building here.

The "Scout Circus" project was presented to executives of the Four Rivers Council at their annual meeting last night in Mayfield, and invitations sent out to all scoutmasters for the event.

'BOY SCOUT WEEK' PLANNED FEB. 6-13

National "Boy Scout Week" will be observed in Fulton February 6-12, and if the Scouts are successful in reviving an old practice hereabouts, you'd better mind your P's and J's on Tuesday, February 8th.

That's the day they are going to ask to stake over and run the City... including all jobs from Mayor down to Police Chief, magistrate and parking meter and traffic patrol. According to past performances, the boys have been reluctant to wink at even minor offenses, and have been very liberal with violation tickets... all of which will be presentable at the City Hall for payment.

Other features of Scout Week in Fulton will be a drive for funds on Wednesday, Feb. 9th and the observation of Scout Sunday on February 13th.

The Dry Lake District announces four Eagle Scouts for this year, including Bobby Joe Goodwin of Troop 40, South Fulton; James Shupe and Bill Bone of Troop 99, Fulgham; and Joe Pigue, Troop 44, Fulton.

BURNETT NAMED DIRECTOR FOR PURCHASE CLUB

An extensive program of activities will be high lighted by the annual picnic of the Purchase Parish Jersey Cattle Club, which will be held this year on July 29 at the Murray State College farm, and the annual sale which will be held at Mayfield in the late spring. Another high light will be an independent Parish show to be held, at a time and place not yet designated, to qualify entrants for the Mid-South and Kentucky State fairs.

Among those indicating they will consign animals for the sale in Mayfield is W. P. Burnett and Sons of Fulton.

W. P. Burnett was also named a director of the organization from Fulton county.

Refund Gasoline Sold Gets New Color Mark

Effective February 1, 1949 all gasoline sold to agricultural refund permit holders by licensed gasoline dealers will be identified by its purple color, the Department of Revenue disclosed with the issuance of Gasoline Tax Regulation GLR-4.

David K. Walker, Director of the Division of Excises said this action became necessary to protect the agricultural permit holders who are observing the legal requirements for the use of refund gasoline. Walker pointed out that careless and illegal use of refund gasoline could lead to repeal of the law under which tax is refunded on gasoline used exclusively in agricultural work.

Supplies and copies of the regulation are being sent to all licensed gasoline dealers and their agents in Kentucky.

STAHR IS NAMED OUTSTANDING IN NATION FOR 1948

One of the "Nation's Ten Outstanding Young Men of 1948" is the title bestowed upon Prof. Elvis J. Stahr, Jr., dean of the University of Kentucky College of Law, by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and its national magazine, Future Selection of Dean Stahr for this award was announced Jan. 16 by the magazine's editor, Raymond E. Roberts.

A native of Hickman, Ky., Dean Stahr was graduated from the University in 1936 with what was described as the "finest and best record in UK's history." He then studied law as a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University in England where he received three degrees: Bachelor of Arts in Jurisprudence (1938); Bachelor of Civil Law (1939); and Master of Arts (1943).

He practiced law with a prominent Wall Street firm from 1939 to 1947, except for four years Army service during which he was decorated four times. In 1947 he accepted a position on the UK Law College faculty and one year later was appointed dean. At 32, he is the youngest dean of a fully accredited law school in the United States.

Among the major contributions he has made to his profession are the inauguration of a number of improvements in legal training offered by the College of Law; important work toward the ultimate solution of the problem of equal educational opportunities for both whites and Negroes; and the study of methods for improving administration of justice and raising of the standards of the bar.

Basil Danner Held For Murder In Death of Rex Cross; Mother Says Son Is Mentally Deranged

FUNDS COMING IN SLOWLY FOR POLIO

Dollars and dimes are trickling in mightily slowly at the Fulton Bank, where Russell Pitchford is treasurer of the 1949 March of Dimes drive. The United States Government is NOT going to take over the research, care and treatment of infantile paralysis today or any time in the early future, so it is up to you, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Countian to see that next year's funds are collected to help unfortunate victims who fall prey to this dread disease.

More than 1200 Kentuckians have been stricken with polio in the past five years. Many of these victims require long and costly treatment. Treatment and care is made possible from funds obtained in the annual March of Dimes. This is your opportunity to join the fight against polio. Give to the March of Dimes today.

The dollar does not go so far today. More dollars are needed this year for the fight against polio. Kentucky's goal in the March of Dimes is $350,000. Join your local March of Dimes Campaign now.

Fulton Students Pledge Pershing Rifles at UK

Two Fulton students were pledged recently to the Pershing Rifles, a national military society at the University of Kentucky. These students are L. P. Browder, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Browder, and J. R. Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holland.

The University of Kentucky chapter of this national honorary was founded in 1930. Nationally, the organization was established at the University of Nebraska in 1894 by Gen. John Pershing, who was then commandant of the ROTC at the school.

A graduate of Cayce High school, Browder is a sophomore in the College of Engineering at the University. Holland graduated from Fulton High school and is now a freshman in the College of Engineering.

Farm, Home Convention Speakers

A long list of subjects of vital interest to agriculture and home-making will be discussed at the 37th annual Farm and Home Convention at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky, at Lexington Jan. 25-28. Prominent among the speakers will be Dr. Edwin G. Nourse of Washington, chairman of the President's Council of Economic advisers; Mrs. Evelyn M. Duvall of Chicago, representing the National Council on Family Relations; Charles T. O'Neill of Charlottesville, Va., chairman of the agricultural commission of the American Bankers Association; President H. L. Donovan and Dean T. P. Cooper of the University of Kentucky; Mrs. Helen Carlton-Smith of Washington, international affairs authority; Dr. O. V. Wells of Washington, chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics; and Mrs. W. K. Morris of Hopkinsville, president of the Kentucky Federation of Homemakers.

In the dank, dark atmosphere of her two-room living quarters in the Willingham Building on Church street, Mrs. Callie Danner, told of the early childhood of her son Basil, who today was charged with murder in the death of Richard Rex Cross, 61, who died Wednesday night at the Fulton Hospital as the result of wounds he received when he fell down a flight of 28-steps after an altercation in the third floor flat.

Basil Danner has been removed from the Fulton jail to the County jail at Hickman for arraignment before Judge Homer Roberts. His case will be bound over to the grand jury when it meets here Monday.

"He ain't never been to school pore thing," she told a News reporter as the grey light of a January day dimly penetrated the cloudy windows of the dreary room. "When he was six years old he was operated on and he ain't never been bright. He didn't even finish the first primer." Basil underwent an operation on his genital organs she said and further explained, that she was attacked with a severe case of measles during her confinement, causing she said, his mental derangement.

Basil 30 (although he said he was 22) was apprehended on suspicion of murder shortly after H. P. Allen discovered the prostrate body of Cross at the foot of the stairs. Lodged in the jail, he steadfastly maintained that Cross had been drinking heavily and on attempting to descend the stairs, fell. Queried by a News reporter in his cell at the Fulton jail he expressed his great fondness for Cross and said he didn't mind it when Cross spent the night at his mother's home.

Later in the interview he admitted that he was alone in the apartment when Cross came at eleven o'clock Wednesday. He said that his mother had gone to the telegraph office to pick up a check sent her by her daughters who lived in Milwaukee. While alone with Cross, Basil said that Cross made the statement that he was going to leave his mother, and used obscene words to describe her. Basil said that he swung at Cross who attacked him with a poker. He said that he then told the visitor to leave the house and followed him down the first flight of stairs. Although he previously said that Cross' drunken condition resulted in the fall, he later confessed to Police Chief Gip McDade that he pushed Cross down the stairs. On interviewed later in the day Wednesday, he said that he would do it again, if he had to.

On notifying the Martin, Tenn. police Chief McDade learned that Basil had made the statement in Martin several times that he (Basil) was going to kill that — — — meaning Cross.

On interviewed by the News, Mrs. Danner said that she was a good woman and that any statement "that poor half-wit child" made was not to be considered. She said that she divorced her husband eight years ago. "We have always been mighty good friends with Mr. Cross (she never referred to him by his given name) and that he was a fine man. The only thing wrong was he was a terrible drunkard. But he was the nicest thing to me when he was drinking. He ain't never said a wrong word in my presence, cause he know I'm a lady."

Mrs. Danner is the mother of four children. Another son is in Chicago, and two daughters who recently moved to St. Louis from Milwaukee when the waitress business got slow. "They travel around all the time, following the restaurant trade," she said. A granddaughter, Eddie Jean, 9, lives with her.

On Tuesday night of this week Mr. Cross had gone to the Bus Station to depart for his home in Martin. He came back to the Danner apartment when he said that he had missed the bus. He spent the night there in the one bedroom flat. "I let him stay out of respect for his wife" she said. Basil told reporters and police that Cross was a frequent over-night guest in his mother's home.

Mrs. Danner, who told reporters that she had no other boy friends, "at least none that come to the house" said that Mr. Cross had brought several suits to the flat intending to have them cleaned in Fulton, because the cleaning rates in Martin were too high. When found by Mr. Allen a shoe-box with a pair of shoes followed the injured man down the steps. Basil told the News that Cross told him to take his — — shoes and go home, even though he said his mother had told Cross that he (Cross) could leave his shoes at her flat all the time.

Is It True What They Say About Fulton

We are indebted to Erl Sensing, former editor of the Daily Leader for the clipping from the Hopkinsville New Era regarding the baseball situation in Fulton. From the article we gather that some folks in the State think we do a lot of crying "wolf."

Same Old Fulton

"The rest of the Kitty League does not appear concerned over a story from Fulton that the railroad town must raise about $8,000 before the start of the season if it expects to operate in the Class D loop.

"Fulton is a fixture in the Kitty and everybody seems to feel the Railroaders will find some way to raise the money and stay in the league another season. And as many seasons thereafter as anybody else does.

"Fulton claims to be the smallest town in organized baseball but isn't unless a couple of cities on the Atlantic seaboard have surrendered their franchises. Nevertheless, it is so small that financing has always been a problem and will continue to be one. Fulton has about 500 dyed-in-the-wool baseball fans who see every game, and it takes something special to get out more than 700 cash customers.

"The ball club has to ask the public for money each spring, just as the Hopkinsville team used to do before Billy Goff took over the Hoppers as a private enterprise in 1946. And often Fulton has to pass the hat at least one more time after the season starts.

"Best story of the financing methods of the Fulton club was several years ago telling of how the club put slot machines on the street corners of the city and used the proceeds from the one-armed bandits to pay the players.

"It was announced at a meeting last week in Fulton that the club in $26,000 during the 1948 season. Gross expenses were around $30,000 for the campaign. The club has a deficit of $3,000 and must raise about $5,000 more to finance spring training and put a club on the field."

Oh, Oh, What A Wonderful Time!

If planning committees of several local organizations have anything to do with it, this spring and fall Fulton will be host to more visitors during that period than any other one time in the history of the city. We know that other organizations are planning things too, but right now we know of:

1. The plans of the Veterans of Foreign Wars to stage another Army Day parade in the Spring. Last year's event was one of the most spectacular ever staged here, and knowing human nature as we do, we know Commander Aken and his boys will try to outdo even last year's performance. Events of this nature are good, mighty good for the city. Besides the publicity it gives out little town there is an untold amount of satisfaction that comes to the individual in seeing a job well done.

2. The gigantic, stupendous, colossal jamboree being planned by the local Boy Scouts when they act as hosts to more than 1000 scouts here on June 2. Six bands have already accepted the invitation to participate in the parade and there is no telling how many other groups will visit here. The jamboree is planned for the Four Area Boy Scout district, which includes the entire Purchase District. That's a lot of scouts, and just multiply them by two, because you know mama and papa, and maybe sister and brother and ah aunt or two will come along for the ride. As Uncle Remus would say: "That's mighty satisfactory."

3. Then (can't find the superlative adjectives) the County Fair. Midget auto races, dairy, beef, calf and poultry shows. Stakes races, exhibits, hot dogs, peanuts, popcorn, stick candy. Its going to be tremendous. The fair will begin on August 31 and last for several days.

Big events mean lots of people coming to town. Lots of people in town means good publicity, accelerated business and incalculably good public relations.

And that's only half of it. And perhaps only a small number of the events scheduled, but we can tell you right now, it looks like a mighty hot time in '49.

We Wonder . . .

. . . just what happened to the Mayor's power board. For weeks last year we could hardly keep up with the daily developments on the power situation, then all of a sudden . . . a silence that could be cut with a knife.

Not trying to stir up the old riggamoro, but something in our nature just revolts when we see things left undone.

THE DAY

Grace Noll Crowell

THE day will bring some lovely thing,
I say it over each new dawn,
"Some gay, adventurous thing to hold Against my heart when it is gone."
And so I rise, and go to meet
The day with wings upon my feet.

I come upon it unaware,
Some sudden beauty without name:
A snatch of song, a breath of pine,
A poem lit with golden flame;
High tangled bird notes, keenly thinned,
Like flying color on the wind.

No day has ever failed me quite:
Before the grayest day is done
I find some misty, purple bloom,
Or a late line of crimson sun.
Each night I pause, remembering
Some gay, adventurous, lovely thing.

Rotarians Receive Clever "Thank-You" From George Wilson

Fulton Rotarians are the proud possessors of a very unique plaque sent to John Earle from George O. Wilson of Newbern, Tenn., who was guest speaker at the Rotary Club's Ladies Night last year. Mr. Wilson, an after dinner speaker of great ability refused to accept any remuneration for his time and trouble in attending the club's annual affair, so Rotarian John Earle remembered him at Christmas time with a handsome blue dressing robe and a hand-painted tie.

Mr. Wilson acknowledged the gift in a very clever cartoon wherein he shows himself all dressed up for work with his dressing robe and hand-painted tie while being reprimanded by his wife for such attire for the office.

Mr. Wilson is public relations director for the Nehi Bottling Company of Dyersburg. Many years ago, when cartooning was an unheard of art, Mr. Wilson took off for Chicago to take a course in the up-and-coming profession and for 25 years has been turning out clever drawings as a hobby and profession.

Rotarians say that Mr. Wilson has a standing invitation to attend any and all functions of the local club. Its no wonder . . . he's a very jolly good fellow.

When you have read the Bible, you will know it is the word of God, because you will have found it the key to your own heart, your own happiness and your own duty. Woodrow Wilson.

A loving trust in the Author of the Bible is the best preparation for a wise and profitable study of the Bible itself.—H. C. Trumbull.

ENGINEERS NAMED TO DISTRICTS POSTS

To facilitate the new rural road building program, each of the nine highway districts in Kentucky will have one new assistant district engineer. W. J. Crouse, Deputy Commissioner of Rural Highways announced today. Seven of the nine men have been named. They are Jack Carson, Paducah; T. D. Linton, Bowling Green; William Burton, Louisville; H. R. Ditto, Elizabethtown; Jack Carr, Covington; L. A. Whitmer, Lexington and John Spurrier, Flemingsburg.

With the exception of Ditto, all of the men named have long service records within the department. Carson and Linton have served 18 years each; Burton and Spurrier, 14 years; Whitmer and Carr both have the department's 25-year service awards.

Nailling Implement Co. Demonstrates Food

Many who attended the frozen food demonstration at the Paul Nailling Imp. Co., were very enthusiastic on the proper preservation of all foods.

Don Milner, blockman of Memphis, was a guest speaker. He was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Milner. He spoke briefly on refrigeration and the deep freeze and then introduced Mrs. H. S. Thomas, home economist from the Memphis office of the International Harvester Company.

Mrs. Thomas gave many timely helps on the proper foods to freeze, the wrapping and storing of meats, fruits and vegetables. She also froze all meats, rolls,

HENSLEY NAMED TO COLLECTOR'S POST

Was Former Secretary
To Governor Clements

Robert B. Hensley, Louisville attorney has been appointed State delinquent-tax collector a news release from Frankfort announced.

Hensley's contract gives him three fourths of the 20 percent penalty on overdue taxes which he collects through legal proceedings.

Hensley gave up his post as Governor Clements' executive secretary last June 30 to take part in the nomination of Virgil Chapman, in the Democratic primary. After Chapman won that, Hensley devoted his efforts to the successful Democratic campaign last fall.

He served for years as legal counsel for the State Unemployment Compensation Commission, now a unit of the Department of Social Security, and for a time headed the commission. He resigned in 1942 for Army service and came out of World War II a lieutenant colonel. He is a native of Burlington and is 35 years old.

State Revenue Commissioner Clyde Reeves estimated that will give Hensley about $10,000 a year for his work, after he has paid for the services of attorneys and others who will assist him.

pies then baked and served a meal.

Bill Green and Mr. Dover of Memphis were guests.

Door prizes were given. 1st prize was beef roast and 2nd prize a chicken.

Light refreshments were served by the store management.

Well-Known Railroader Retires After 50 Years

H. R. Heller, train conductor on the Irvin Cobb for many years, has retired after 50 years of railroading. He had 46 years of continuous service with the Illinois Central.

Mr. Heller, whose permanent home is in Louisville, has been "running" between Louisville and Fulton for the past 10 or 12 years, and has many friends here.

When in Fulton, he stayed in the home of Mrs. Seldon Cohn, widow of the late Dr. Cohn. Mr. Heller began railroading in the days when railroads ran by "manpower."

Mr. Heller was born at Cecilia, Ky. He has a brother, Edward P. Heller, in Los Angeles, and a sister, Mrs. J. H. Kirwan of New York City.

He says he intends to "take it easy, enjoy my home and my flowers."

SPOT ANNOUNCEMENT

A spot on your new suit calls for quick, effective dry cleaning. No matter how deep-dyed the villain grime, PARISIAN spotters will hunt it out and restore the fabric to original freshness!

PARISIAN
Laundry & Dry Cleaners

Think of all the things you bought and used last year...

... Name any one of them. Then check its route from farm, mine or factory to your doorstep.

Chances are you'll find it traveled much of the way via Illinois Central.

To the Main Streets of Mid-America the Illinois Central last year delivered most of life's needs and luxuries. More than two million carloads of freight were hauled a total of 640 million miles. Passenger trains carried 48 million passengers safely to their destinations.

Accomplishing this king-size delivery service required 40,000 Illinois Central railroaders working around-the-clock with $700,000,000 worth of transportation property.

To carry forward and improve these operations, the Illinois Central last year added more than 4,100 new freight cars and a number of streamlined passenger cars. Some 200 miles of main line track were laid with new and heavier rail.

Keeping the railroad in smooth, efficient daily operation required an outlay of $135,000,000 for wages and $70,000,000 for materials, supplies and outside services.

These expenses and all others—including taxes of $32,000,000—were paid out of charges averaging about 1¢ per ton-mile for freight and 2¢ per mile for passengers.

During 1949—the 99th year of service to the people of Mid-America—the Illinois Central will continue its never-ending program of improvements, determined as always to earn the friendship and patronage of the people along its lines.

Silhouettes of folks we've met

If ever a person in our acquaintance earned the title of Lady Bountiful, that gracious lady is Bessie Shepherd Clifton, or Miss Bessie, as she is known to the hundreds and hundreds of people in this county who have been the recipients of her kindness, her thoughtfulness, her words of cheer and comfort. Miss Bessie is a lady . . . the true explanation as defined by any grammarian past, present or future. She rises to the title in fullest measure, yet she can walk with kings and never lose the common touch.

Miss Bessie lives in a castle of kindness. Her heart is as open to the joys and sorrows of others as her home Clifton is to the stream of visitors who call at any hour of the night and day not only to view the lovely surroundings of that house on the crest, but to bask in the gaiety that is Miss Bessie.

She is the daughter of the late John and Laura Shepherd and is as pure Fultonian as ladino clover for she was born near the city in the Palestine Community. She attended the Fulton schools and the McFerran school in Martin. In 1921 she married Lucius Allen Clifton not too long after he was discharged from the service in 1920. The wedding was a very pretty affair solemnized in the Episcopal Church here. After their wedding the couple moved to Louisville where they lived until 1943. Mr. Clifton was associated with the Standard Oil Company there.

A year before they moved to Fulton permanently, Miss Bessie spent several months here at the bedside of her uncle John R. McGehee, who had been in failing health for several months. Miss Bessie was his favorite niece and not only did she give comfort to him in his declining years, but she attended to his wide business affairs as well. It was for her indefatigable service and kind care that he rewarded her with the bulk of his entire estate at his passing.

It would not be a real silhouette of Miss Bessie if some mention was not made of the handsome home of the Cliftons that sits proudly on the sprawling slopes of the countryside in South Fulton. That home, with its gay rooms, genuine antiques, and warm atmosphere reflects the true character of the people that live within. The welcome mat is always there with 600 guests having registered in the guest-book since it was completed in 1946. One time, when we went out to visit the Cliftons, she proudly showed us through the house. In her characteristic charm she showed us the view from the south window and said, "Isn't it pretty. It looks like the blue-coats will come running by at any moment."

BESSIE SHEPHERD CLIFTON

She's so proud of her handiwork and rightly so. The daughter of a Virginia-born school teacher she remembers quite well the stories her mother told of the way the Yankees ransacked their colonial home in Fredericksburg, Md., and confiscated their beautiful furnishings. It may have been in the Southern tradition that she vowed to someday replace in her own home the priceless pieces the Yankees took. And she has. She tells a wonderful story about antiques.

When the Cliftons lived in Louisville they went to a furniture-maker and designed and had made a beautiful drop-leaf table. The table is in the home here, and on one occasion when an antique dealer was viewing her home he remarked, "now that table is one of the finest antiques you have in this house." She just chuckled with amusement and went on showing him the house.

Never a day goes by, we are told, but that Miss Bessie writes a note or sends flowers, or calls in person to offer cheer and comfort to those who are a-bed or who have suffered some sorrow in the family. In her generous way she remodeled the interior of the Episcopal Church here in memory of her uncle.

There are many people we know who possess the noble characteristics that today's silhouette does, but somehow it is Miss Bessie we think of first when we think of Lady Bountiful with her store of kindness and her smiling dark eyes.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT PLANS OBSERVANCE OF NATIONAL WEEK

The Music Department of the Woman's Club met Wednesday afternoon, January 12, at the club home.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. David Sundwick, who presided over a short business session.

Roll call was answered with the names of famous pianists by the members and the minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary.

Mrs. Hendon Wright, sponsor of the Junior Music Club, read letters concerning musical programs to be presented in the near future that should be of interest to Fulton music lovers.

Mrs. Sundwick stated that special programs in the schools and churches will be given in observance of National Music Week which will be in May. At this time members of the Music Department will give various numbers under the direction of Mrs. M. W. Haws.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Eldridge Grymes, quiz leader for the afternoon. Following the quiz on "Early Romanticism" Mrs. T. J. Kramer, Sr., program leader, presented an enjoyable program of music composed by musicians of that period as follows: "The Adagio Movement" from the Pathétique Symphony by Beethoven, played by Mrs. C. L. Maddox. Piano duet, "Two Hungarian Dances" by Brahms, by Mrs. Frank Beadles and Mrs. Maxwell McDade. Voice numbers, "I Chide Thee Not" by Schumann and "Hedge Roses" by Schubert, sung by Mrs. J. Carter accompanied by Mrs. Walter Voelpel. Piano Solos, "Opus 15 No. 1-F major" and Opus 10 No. 5-G flat major" by Chopin, by Mrs. Glynn Bushart.

During the social hour the hostesses, Mrs. M. T. Callahan, Mrs. Jack Carter and Mrs. David Sundwick, served tea and sandwiches to 19 club members.

MRS. GORDON BAIRD HOSTESS TO SARAH DEAN CLASS MONDAY

Mrs. Gordon Baird was hostess to the Sarah Dean Class of the First Christian Church Monday afternoon at 2:30 at her home on Second street with Mrs. J. L. Buckingham co-hostess.

The meeting opened with the devotional led by Mrs. Jake Hudleston who read the scripture and led the prayer.

Mrs. Ira Little, secretary, presided over the business session in the absence of the president, Mrs. L. O. Bradford.

Mrs. Harry Murphey reviewed the book "Disciples of Christ" which was interesting and instructive.

During the social hour a contest was held with Mrs. Jess Nichols being awarded the prize. The hostesses served light refreshments to 14 members.

Mrs. Ben Evans and Mrs. Harry Murphey will be hostesses to the February meeting.

VICTORY HOMEMAKERS HAVE JANUARY MEET AT BURNETTE HOME

The Victory Homemakers club met in the home of Mrs. Cecil Burnette Tuesday, January 18, with Mrs. James Holt as assistant hostess. A delicious plate lunch was served by the hostesses to 22 members and four visitors, Mrs. B. W. Scott, Memphis, Miss Georgia Mattingly, Mrs. Myrtle Burnette and Mrs. Gus Paschall.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Harold Copeland, president, Mrs. Cecil Burnette gave the devotional and also read the thought of the month, Mrs. Harold Copeland will be Victory's delegate to Farm and Home Week in Lexington.

The landscape lesson was given by the leader, Mrs. Herman Roberts. She urged that every member try to grow a new flower this year and have a well arranged flower garden.

Mrs. E. L. Cook gave the lesson on the minor project, better speech.

The program chairman, Mrs. J. R. Powell, led the group in singing and conducted the contest "Party of a Vatch."

The major project was given by the leaders, Mrs. L. A. Clifton and Mrs. E. E. Mount. The lesson was on mixing paints according to one's own tastes and their application and how to apply stencils. Orders were made for stools, Hongkong grass and cane, and aluminum discs for making trays.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ed Williamson with Mrs. Reginald Williamson and Mrs. Harold Williamson as hostesses.

The club enjoyed having the home agent, Mrs. McLeod, present for part of the afternoon.

BENNETT CLUB HOLDS MEETING AT BROWN HOME

Bennett Homemakers held their last meeting with Mrs. Smith Brown.

A most interesting lesson on mixing paints to suit your own tastes and needs and the application of paint was given to 18 members and one visitor, Mrs. Carey Fields. The leader, Mrs. Howard Hicks and Mrs. Vernon McAlister, also showed the group how to cut and apply stencils.

The business was conducted by the president, Mrs. Smith Brown. Mrs. O. C. Croft was chosen as delegate and Mrs. O. C. Linton as alternate to attend the Farm and Home Week.

Mrs. Croft gave the minor lesson on better speech.

The club was glad to have Elbert Johns to talk a few minutes on the Infantile Paralysis Drive. The club voted to give $5.00 to the fund.

The devotional was given by the hostess, Mrs. Brown, and the thought for the month was given by Mrs. Bill Holland.

Games and songs were conducted by the recreational leader, Mrs. Curtis Hancock.

TWO GROUPS HEAR INTERESTING TALKS AT P.T.A. MEETING

Encouraging reports from the home-room library drives were revealed at the meeting of the West Fulton P.T.A. on Tuesday afternoon. Two programs were conducted as follows:

When You Buy Meats Is It Only The Price Per Lb. That Counts?

Regardless of price, meat isn't a good buy unless it gives you your money's worth of enjoyment. That's what makes A & P famous "super right" meats such outstanding values. Every one of these tender, juicy cuts is specially selected to give you down right delicious eating, and close-trimmed of excess waste to give you more of it for your money, yet because we sell such huge quantities of "super right" meats, we're able to mark them with prices that are surprisingly low.

Even Photography In Banking

Your Bank at Work

... the Recordak

Modern banking requires modern methods, so today, a photograph which becomes a part of our permanent files is made of your checks and monthly statement. Other important records of the bank are likewise photographed and kept, resulting in our being able to provide further service to our customers in times of emergencies—such as reproduction of checks as evidence of payments.

Always progressive in furnishing outstanding facilities to our customers, our entire bookkeeping system was revised some three (3) months ago, at which time the Recordak, illustrated above, was installed. The added convenience and safety of a checking account with this bank has been recognized both by new and old customers alike. Why don't you investigate the advantages of a checking account with this bank?

ARMY WON'T DRAFT ANY MEN DURING FEBRUARY AND MARCH

Because of the high rate of voluntary enlistments, the Army announced today it will draft no men in February and March.

Voluntary enlistments and re-enlistments have averaged 35,000 a month for the past few months, the Army said. This has made Selective Service calls unnecessary for the next two months.

Army Secretary Kenneth Royall notified the Munitions

Board, which controls draft calls for all services, that the Army's previous 5,000-man draft call for February should be canceled. In addition, the Army told the board it would make no calls in March.

In explanation, Royall referred to the Selective Service Act of 1948, which requires the Army to limit its draft calls to the difference between requirements and intake through voluntary enlistments.

About 50 percent of the gains in the past three months have been re-enlistments and extensions of existing enlistments. "As long as voluntary enlistments and re-enlistments remain sufficient to maintain the strength of the Army," Royall said, "there will be no calls for inductions."

CAYCE NEWS

by
SUE and JANE

School is back in session after the Christmas holidays. The seniors lost two members, Mary Helen and Jr. Rice. The Sophomores have a new member in their class, Maurice Talley from Martin.

The Cayce FHA chapter met in the home of Mrs. Roy M. Taylor for a meeting during the holidays.

The eighth grade of Cayce have received their class pins. Everyone is glad to see Cecil Jackson back after his stay in the hospital.

WEAKLEY COUNTY TO BUILD MODEL FARM

April 9th Set As Day For Cooperative Plan

The Weakley County Demonstration Farm to be built on April 19th is a cooperative project for all the people of Weakley County. The farm will be a permanent educational project for the present and future farmers of that section. It is expected that the practices on this farm will enable the other 4410 farmers of the county to increase the production on their farms.

The idea was developed in the Veterans Farm Training Program of the Vocational Agricultural Department of Weakley County and all of the other agricultural agencies are cooperating to make it a sound and practical educational program.

The farm was purchased by the Weakley County Soil Conservation District so that it would belong to all the rural land owners of the county. The plan of the farm and the practices developed for the successful operation is the result of the cooperation of the University of Tennessee, the Extension Service of the University of Tennessee (County Agent), Vocational Agriculture, which is composed of the high school agriculture students and the veterans on the farm training programs, Production and Marketing Administration (old AAA), Farmer's Home Administration (old FSA), the Agricultural Department of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, Farm Bureau, State Department of Conservation, the Soil Conservation Service and the various civic and business clubs of the county.

The farm machinery manufacturers and business men of the county are now being contacted to furnish the machinery, feed, seed, fertilizer, and other materials that will be needed to complete this project.

As grace is first from God, so it is continually from Him, as much as light is all day long from the sun, as well as at first dawn or at sun-rising.—Jonathan Edwards.

Courier-Journal Adds Agricultural Section

A new farm department, designed to provide fuller and more comprehensive agricultural news will be added to The Courier-Journal beginning January 24. The department, made up of one or more pages, will appear Monday of each week in the regular editions of The Courier-Journal.

Editor of the new department is E. W. Kieckhefer. Farm editor for the Minneapolis Star and Tribune for several years, Kieckhefer was selected because of his excellent qualifications. Prior to working for the Star and Tribune, Kieckhefer was an agricultural expert for the United Press. He was awarded a Neiman Fellowship at Harvard in 1942 and studied agricultural economics there under Dr. John Black, noted in the field. He has won several prizes on farm editorials, and was a founder of the Minneapolis Farm Forum. He is a member of the American Farm Economic Association.

Southern Baptists Report Best Year

Almost one third of a million persons were baptized in 26,823 churches in the Southern Baptist Convention during 1948, it was reported today.

Porter Routh, convention statistical officer, said the number —312,248—is the largest for one year in the history of the denomination.

Margaret and Duncan Alexander entertained with a fish fry at their home on Vine street Wednesday January 12th. The guests were Martha and Gus Alexander Jr., and daughter, Cheryl, Ruby and Monroe Wilkerson, Della and Dub Johnson, Geneva and Charlie Niles.

After supper they spent the remainder of the evening playing pool.

Our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor on the birth of a son, Arthur Milton.

Nora Netherland is a patient in Haws Hospital.

Gladys Cannon had as her week-end guest her daughter, Beth Cannon.

Dear Patricia:

I have written you so many times and always you were right in your answers.

Will you please tell me the answers to these questions? Should I go back with my husband or would it be the same thing all over again? I don't believe I love him. Please tell me what to do.

Dear V.F.

First get rid of him then write me what to do.

Dear Miss Latane:

I met a professional ball player in October and had one date with him. Will I ever see or date him again? What did he think of me?

Dear D.L.S.

Yes, you will see him, but you won't ever date him again. He thought you were to easy.

Dear Miss Latane:

I lost my billfold and wonder if you could tell me where it is? I wonder if you could help me find it because there is a picture and my social security card in it that I would like to have.

My Dear M.E.K.

Try to get you another picture and apply for a copy of your social security card as they are gone forever.

Dear Patricia:

I am a girl 22 years old and am in love with a boy. He sometimes talks of marriages. Will we ever marry? If so will we be happy? I am very much in love with him. Will we have any children?

Dear N.J.P.

Yes, you two will marry and will be happy together and you will have three children. You is counting on it doing something. Raymond, would you like for me to tell that certain young lady just how beautiful you think she is?

Calling all outdoorsmen

By JIM MITCHELL

We don't know whether or not you included any "outdoor" resolutions among your New Year's Day thoughts for 1949, but it might not be amiss to do so now—even if it's a few days late.

We've been doing a lot of crystal ball gazing in recent weeks in an effort to forecast what the new year has in store for sportsmen. And the picture we've seen has been encouraging.

First, the waterfowl situation has a considerably brighter hue than the picture that confronted us at the start of 1948. Unquestionably the duck and goose populations are up over a year ago. True, the kill has been heavy this current season but the waterfowl still are going up and the carryover that will get back to the breeding marshes in the spring should be comparatively large.

So, as the No. 1 resolution, let's all hope that Dame Nature treats us with a helping hand in supplying a good breeding season as we had last year. That'll put more birds in the flocks winging southward next fall and winter, and assure gunners of some swell sport.

And next in the crystal ball picture is the top-of-the-cycle in upland game production. Reports trickling in from scattered parts of the nation indicate that rabbits, quail, pheasants and the other sporting animals and birds more than held their own during the current season. Here the carryover also is good and, consequently, breeding stock should be large enough to keep the fields and coverts productive with game.

And our second resolution is directed at the weatherman whose cooperation is needed in Never Climb A Fence Or Tree With A Loaded Gun!

He was carrying a 12-gauge pumpgun. In crossing the fence, the sheriff's office said, the gun apparently was discharged accidentally. Never climb over or through a fence with a loaded gun. The National Rifle Association recommends that before crossing, place the gun with "action" open—through the fence. Then climb or crawl through at another spot several feet away.

This type of accident, though not common, is reported several times each year. Don't let it be your Waterloo.

giving us the right amount of rainfall for birds and animals to raise the young, and in making the farm crops good so the game will have ample food.

There's been a leveling off, too, in the hunting pressure. Although statistics are not yet complete, early returns show about the same number of licenses the current hunting season as in 1947. So we now know where we stand and how much game we're going to have to produce to keep the hunters happy.

Crystal ball gazing is a hazardous occupation at best, but we're willing to stick out our neck and predict that 1949 will be a good year with slightly improved fishing and hunting in most places over 1948.

Gosh, oh me, girls, girls! What has come over you and the boys since the Christmas holidays? Everybody has quit their boy friends and started going with their best girl friend's boy friend. What a mix up. Believe me, you folks, do you know what I mean? I am so confused I hardly know myself. New Year's resolutions were made by the females and males, so here are a few of them:

A.M.—I will not go with but one boy at a time this year.

P.M.—I will go with anyone I can, including my best girl friend's boy friend.

A.L.—To find out who is writing that column in the Fulton County News if it takes me all year.

J.R.—To give J.H. to some girl for keeps.

H.J.—To make J.W. fall so madly in love with me that she won't look at any body else.

B.R.C.—Not to cry her heart out for T.G. as he is now going with R.F.H.

C.C.R. Jr. gave R.Y. an engagement ring for Christmas. It looks like wedding bells are just around the corner.

B. Mc. is looking for a young lady by the name of A.C. who is a junior but he didn't get to see her; he went back to Detroit without seeing her. I think he asked everyone about her, and called her home about 50 times. Could there be a link in the chain of love there? You tell me.

L. W. had a date with P.W. E.M. is either with a boy too old or one too young, and I think she was with one too young on New Year's night. His name is B.O. and he works at the, yes you guess well, it is

COW-AND-CALF PLAN POPULAR IN HICKMAN

The cow-and-calf plan of raising beef cattle is popular in Hickman county, declares County Agent Warren Thompson. There now are 78 herds in the county following this plan to the letter. The average herd size is 23 females and one bull.

D. B. Graham, Jr., has been following the cow-and-calf plan for several years. He has the calves dropped in December and January. They run with the cows until the following fall, when they are sold weighing 600 to 800 pounds, without grain feeding.

time.
A strange incident was revealed to the News by City Councilman Bill Browning on being told about the case. Browning said that two women had gone to him several times this week complaining that Basil was molesting women and children in the apartment. The police department was to take Basil in hand for the complaints on Wednesday, the day of the incident.

Basil had been employed by the Vaughn Potato house. Mr. Cross has done work with A. R. Stephens, local contractor. Mrs. Danner was not employed. "My children just don't want me to work," she said.

Asked if she ever received gifts from Cross, Mrs. Danner said "only on special occasions." Her granddaughter said that Cross gave her "anything she wanted."

Basil Danner, who said his mother was 14, is slight and bald and "never went nowhere unless I went with him," his mother said. Often Mr. Cross went with the trio to the movies. "They wuz mighty good friends," she said of Basil and Cross.

Cross is the father of two children. One daughter, and a son, whom Mrs. Cross said is "not bright, jus like Basil." He said his wife were not separated. And according to Mrs. Danner, Mrs. Cross thought nothing of Mr. Cross spending the night at her house, since they have always been such close friends.

Cross and Mrs. Danner have been life-long friends, she said, and attendants of the church at Travis Chapel, Tenn. "It was our closeness that Basil musta got mad about," she told the News. Mrs. Danner could not believe that her son could have attacked Mr. Cross, since they too, "wuz always nice when they wuz around me."
