GRAVES ASKS $130,000 FOR REA LINES

Graves county has been practically assured a federal grant for rural electrification in 1938. This announcement was made following a conference between REA officials and leaders of the Graves County Farm Bureau held in Mayfield Saturday. If plans discussed at the meeting are carried out, the initial electrification project will call for 170 miles of service in Graves county for at least 850 farm owners with an expenditure of $130,000.

$10,000 ALLOTTED FOR RURAL WIRING

The REA has allotted $10,000 to the Hickman-Fulton Counties Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation, to be re-lent to finance about 125 individual member's installations of wiring and plumbing. The Cooperative will determine just how the money will be available; and in general, the terms on which it will re-lend the funds. REA requires, however, that the individual notes shall not finance more than 80 per cent of the cost of any installation, and the money must be repaid in not more than five years, with at least two payments a year required.

Obion County Officers Conduct Vice Drive

Sheriff Burcham and deputies conducted a drive against vice last Saturday, raiding the Silver Dollar, just south of Troy, and the home of Lance Fox of Obion.

Thomas Lyons, owner of the Silver Dollar, where illegal liquor was found, waived examining trial to await the action of the grand jury. At the Fox home, Fox and a woman, Maureen Tidwell, were taken on a charge of lewdness.

Forty-three prisoners occupied the Obion county jail at Union City last week end. This number is unusually large, Sheriff Burcham said, and the jail will only accommodate 65.

Vote On Cotton And Tobacco On March 12

Under the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1933 all farmers who raised cotton and tobacco in 1937 are eligible to vote Saturday, March 12, to determine whether or not two-thirds of the growers of these commodities wish marketing quotas to be in effect for 1938. There will be two separate referendums altho the voting will be done for both commodities at one voting place. The farmers who raised both crops will be allowed a vote on each crop and all sharecroppers, tenants and landlords are allowed one vote on the particular crop that they produce. Even though you did not comply with the program in 1937 you are entitled to a vote.

Arrangements have been made by the Agricultural Committee and County Agent to establish voting places as follows:

District 1—Farmers living in magisterial District 1 may vote at the Woman's Club building at Fulton.

District 2—Voting will be done at Cayce school building.

District 3—Farmers living in District 3 can vote at the Farm Bureau office at Hickman.

District 4—Will vote at Whippies' Gin at Sassafras Ridge.

Madrid Bend—All farmers in the Bend can vote at the school house.

It is important that farmers vote and they should go to the proper voting place as those in charge of the voting will have a list of names of eligible voters and if you attempt to vote at some other place your vote will be challenged.

Smith Atkins Outlines Baseball Situation Here

A number of baseball fans have asked me regarding the outlook for the Fulton club this coming season. I desire to make a statement that will acquaint the public with our situation.

Last season, we sold two players for $550 and received $850 net from the playoff, making a total of $1400. If we had not sold the players and received revenue from the playoff, we would have finished the season with a deficit of $1150. Our plan is to operate on a sound basis this year.

A connection has been made with the Nashville Club of the Southern league that is a member of the Brooklyn chain of the National League. Ray Clonts, who did the catching for us last season, has been employed as manager, and contracts have been mailed to our players that we had with us at the close of the season and all preparations are being made to give Fulton a winning club.

The directors have decided that for us to continue in the Kitty league, it will be necessary to install lights. The light equipment installed ready to play will cost from $3,000 to $3,400 and it will cost an additional $500 to build bleacher seats and other improvements that are necessary. A forfeit of $500 must be placed with the President of the Minor leagues by April 1, 1938, but we expect to raise this money from the sale of reserved seats. We have a balance of $240.00 on hand which we expect to use for training expenses and the balance of training expenses we expect to raise from exhibition games. A from exhibition games. A $1000.00 drive will be made beginning March 8th, and every effort possible will be put forth to secure the necessary funds for the lights and improvements unless the people of Fulton are interested enough to finance this project, it will be necessary to dispose of our franchise to the best advantage as several towns are interested. The situation looks to me, "Lights or no baseball for Fulton in 1938." We can raise the necessary funds if we want baseball. We plan on selling stock in the Fulton Baseball Association at $10 per share to raise the money.

Baseball is a good advertisement for our town and I trust that the people in Fulton will co-operate and sufficient funds for lights will be subscribed.

It's "no lights, no dice."

FARM LEADER SPOKE AGAINST VOTE BILL

Representing himself as speaking for organized farmers of Kentucky, Ben Kilgore, executive secretary of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, opposed the administration's registration-purification bill in an open hearing in the Senate Monday. Kilgore urged more deliberate consideration and suggested that the bill be the subject of the special session.

Caught in the usual last-day legislative jam Tuesday, the Kentucky General Assembly rushed through to enactment also one hundred bills before recessing for a night meeting that threatened to run into the morning. Activities included completion of legislative registration and purification bill.

Calling a special session of the General Assembly Wednesday afternoon, Governor A. B. Chandler listed fifteen subjects for consideration, including legislation to provide for financing needy county government, to permit the state to take over the Louisville municipal bridge, to ban the sale of beer and whiskey on Sunday and to re-define the Department of Revenue's functions.

'NEWS' CAMPAIGN GETS GOOD START

The News $3,300.00 Trade Extension campaign which opened last week is progressing in fine shape. The offer of 40 prizes and commissions is so unusual that many people cannot believe it. It is true that in a few weeks time the Fulton County News is to give to active men and women, rich rewards for their spare time. This campaign is not like the several "contests" that have been conducted in this territory before. It is strictly a competitive proposition, in which anyone who applies themselves in their spare time can profit in a big way. There is only one way to win this campaign, that is to have at least one more vote than anyone else working. The only way to get those votes is through subscriptions. There is published in last week's paper and on each subscription book the vote schedule which everyone must go by. These votes decrease as the campaign progresses instead of increasing.

Entries are still open for those who wish to take advantage of this fine offer. There are a few who have entered so far, and yet there are many towns and neighborhoods who as yet do not have anyone to represent them in this campaign. If you yourself are interested or if you know of someone you think would be interested, do them the favor of contacting the Campaign Manager either by phone or in person. He and his assistant are glad to explain at any time the details of this offer. The office of the Campaign Department of the Fulton County News is open every evening until 8:30. On Wednesday and Saturday nights the office will be open until 9:30. The purpose of the campaign is not only to pay up and extend the present subscription list but it is to add as large a new list as is possible. Each subscription counts many votes. New subscribers are the biggest counters. They amount to around ten times the votes given on old subscribers.

Candidates who enter in the beginning will naturally have an advantage. Make up your mind now. Get in. It costs nothing but a little time. Either phone, write, or call in person at the Campaign office located at the News office, and get the information which will speed you on your way to be a winner of one of the grand awards. $750.00 or a new 1938 Plymouth 4-Door Deluxe Touring Sedan. The second award is $400 in cash. And a 20 percent commission is given to every candidate. This commission is paid each time the candidate reports. You cannot lose. Enter today.

Cayce Plans Banquet For Casey Jones Memorial

Citizens of the Cayce community met at the high school auditorium Wednesday night to lay plans for a Casey Jones banquet to be held there Friday night, April 8, at 7:30 o'clock. The program committee plans to have present at the banquet, Mr. Law of Memphis who was fireman with Casey Jones the night before the fatal accident and knew him well; and Sim Webb, colored fireman, with Casey the night of the crash. ## J. J. REYNOLDS GAVE SERMON SUNDAY

The sermon below was given by Elder J. J. Reynolds at the Church of Christ Sunday morning:

We shall use as a text for this study 1 John 5:4, which states that the victory which overcomes the world is faith. Hence, in the scheme of human redemption, faith is a necessity. Faith is necessary because we cannot please God without it. Heb. II:6. It is also necessary because our hearts are purified by faith. But there are two conditions of faith: active faith, Jas. 2:18 and inactive faith, or dead faith, Jas. 2:26. We understand, of course that dead faith (faith apart from works) cannot give spiritual life.

So this brings us to a discussion of the question: Is a person saved at faith? Or, in other words, is justification by faith only? The Bible nowhere says that we are justified by faith only. It does say that justification is by faith. In Rom. 5:1, Paul said, "Being therefore, justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." The words "only" and "alone" are absent from the texts that teach justification by faith. If men are justified by faith only, why are they going to be judged according to their works? And if they are justified by faith only, why are they going to be rewarded according to their works? "The Son of man shall come in the Glory of His father, with His angels; and then shall He render unto every man according to his deeds." Salvation by faith only would save devils. Jas. 2:19 says, "Thou believest that God is one; thou does well; the demons also believe and shudder." Abraham was justified by faith. Rom. 4:3. But he was not justified by faith alone, for James said: "Was not Abraham, our father, justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac, his son, upon the altar?" (Continued on Page 2)

Wester, assistant merchandise manager; Oscar Kunkel, lighting engineer; F. I. Fairman, engineer; Harry Hutchins, safety director; C. B. Hanna, district manager of Danville; J. H. Bailey, division manager of Pineville; C. B. Waltz, district manager of Maysville; J. G. Jones, division manager of Lexington; E. P. Williams, Batts, and Thomas who played the first quarter, then substituted Lovelace, Lane, Parker, Allison and Underwood who finished the game 40-7. They will play Fulghma Friday night. Clinton and Fulgham were winners of the other games played Wednesday night.

SERMON

Thou seest that faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect; and the scripture was fulfilled which saith, "And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness; and he was called the friend of God! Ye see that by works a man is justified, and not only by faith." But according to the apostle Paul there is a kind of works that will not justify, and that is the works of the law of Moses. However, there are works (commandments to be obeyed) given us by the Lord Jesus Christ, in the New Covenant, which every one must do to be saved. If justification is by faith alone, how can we deny God by our works. Paul told Titus that there were some who professed to know God, but by their works they denied Him, being abominable and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate. If justification is by faith only, why should the Lord desire perfect works? He said to the church at Sardis, "Be thou watchful and establish the things that remain, which were ready to die; for I have found no works of thine perfected before my God." Not the hearers, but the doers of the law of Christ are justified. James said, "Be ye doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding your own selves." Rom. 2:13. Paul said, "Not the hearers of the law but just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified." If a person is saved by faith alone, then he is not saved by grace, for Eph. 2:8 says, "For by grace have ye been saved through faith." And Rom. 5:2 states that we have access by faith into this grace. But faith must express itself in acts of obedience for the apostle Paul said, "Through whom we have received grace and apostleship unto obedience of the faith among all the nations for His name's sake."

Hence, we are justified by faith when we obey God's commandments—the command to be baptized as well as the one to repent along with all the others. Acts 10:47, 48.

South Fulton Loses In District Semi-Finals

After battling through to the semi-finals, South Fulton Devils lost 40-25 to the Palmersville quintet Saturday afternoon. Saturday night the Devils played a consolation game preceding the finals between Palmersville and Gleason, and defeated the Martin team. Palmersville won out by a close margin over the Gleason basketballers to cop championship honors in the district tournament.

South Fulton played their first game in the tournament with Troy Thursday night to win a victory. Then Friday night the local team walloped Obion 59 to 27.

The Red Devils line-up was: Omar and Jolley at forward; Watts at center; McKinney and Smoot at guard. Frankum, Creson, Moss and Allen played as substitutes. The judges selected Omar and Jolley on the all-district team.

FULTON BOYS FACE CAR THEFT CHARGE

Russell Tucker and Edward Falls who were arrested here last week end, charged with stealing an automobile belonging to Garland Buckingham last Thursday night, when it was parked on Mears-st, were tried before Judge Lon Adams and bound over to await the action of the grand jury.

The car was recovered by local police Friday where it had been left on McCombs-st in East Fulton.

THE EDITOR'S DUTY

The editor of a newspaper is often hard pressed to select suitable subjects for the editorials that he must write for his journal.

Contrary to much popular opinion the average editor does not sit in his office, thinking up something to denounce. As a matter of fact, most of the time he shrinks from the role of critic although very often it becomes his duty, as he sees it, to warn the public against possible evils. The editor knows how well the average person likes soft soap and the easiest way to fortune and good feeling is to keep his mouth shut regardless of what goes on.

Editorials have a distinct place in any newspaper that claims the right to circulate among thinking people. It is their function to inform, to educate, to stimulate thought and whenever possible, to express public opinion or check emotional outbursts that threaten sound public performances.

The editor of the News doesn't expect everybody to agree with opinions expressed in these columns. That would be too bad, because even the editor doesn't know it all. The chances are, however, if the editor is alert and keeps up with events throughout the world, that he can add something to the discussion of most subjects. It can do no harm for readers to get the viewpoint of a writer who, at least, should be sincere, disinterested and unselfish in discussing current topics.

We have no idea that we are right on everything that we think. Very often, it happens that a given community overemphasizes one phase of a proposition and an intelligent article can present other factors that should be considered. Naturally, when selfish forces are trying to put something over, for their own profit, such an article causes feeling. While there are exceptions, in most cases where one hears a citizen denouncing a writer the cause is hidden in the selfishness of the critic.

Readers of the News are invited to send in their views on topics of general interest. They are asked to be brief, to confine themselves to legitimate discussion and not to use the newspaper as a vehicle to air private grudges and proclaim personalities. Whether the writer of such an article agrees with the views of this newspaper is immaterial. If the letter is of general interest it will be published.

WASHINGTON AND LINCOLN

The birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington, coming close together in this month, suggest the greatness of these eminent Americans, and the thought that the News might well recommend the example of their lives to the younger generation.

It is not our intention to attempt any eulogy to their memory. That has been done by better writers, but the youth of this country will make no mistake in familiarizing themselves with the lives of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington.

ADVICE TO FARMERS

Farmers all over the United States are beginning their 1938 crop year. Few of them have any idea as to the value of the crops they will raise this season, and none of them can do more than guess as to the yield of their fields.

The only fairly definite factor in farming is expense. Yet, the picture is not altogether bad. The new farm bill may be able to achieve something for the agriculturalist. Our advice to farmers, however, is not to wait for outside assistance. Every man can do much for his own advancement, on the farm as elsewhere.

heard for years throughout the one-crop sections. It is good, sound advice. Every farmer should have more than one money crop every year. Foods for man and beasts should be raised, as far as possible, on every farm, and farmers should fight hard to become self-supporting, prosperous and intelligent in every human activity.

BEAUTIFY YOUR YARD

Every year, about this time, there is a resurgence of the idea that Fulton ought to be more beautiful. There is discussion, elaboration and sometimes, committees, with an occasional splurge of accomplishment.

The News would do nothing to interfere with other plans, except to call every reader's attention to the obvious fact that beautifying the town is a question of beautifying individual plots. Every freeholder can do much to make his or her premises more attractive, and, without waiting on committees, let's get busy, as individuals, and proceed to do so.

ONCE UPON A TIME

Once upon a time there was a man, who lived in a town, and spent all his money away from home. He was sure that he could take care of himself, and that his town didn't mean anything to him.

After a few years, his business wasn't as keen as he had hoped it would be, his friends didn't seem to think he was quite as important as he thought he was, and trade seemed to flow by his doors.

He began to watch his competitor, who he found was an intelligent advertiser, a contributor to the public purse, a man anxious to give some of his time and thought to community projects, and a believer in the fact that it pays to keep money at home, where it can keep floating around between the stores and businesses there.

And after noting all these factors, he continued to wonder why some of his old customers went to the newcomer, and why almost everybody had the idea that he was a tightwad and his competitor a public spirited leader of community life.

THE ONLY CHILD

Not long ago we noticed a couple in a public gathering, and between the husband and wife there sat their only child, almost an adult.

We wondered at the time if this young person realized the importance of his (or her) relationship to the older couple which had carried life's burdens for all three up to that time?

For the older couple, life is almost a thing of the past. Except for a brief interest in a few remaining years all that life still held was wrapped up in and centered around the activity and the future of their child.

Yet, as we all know, these parents, and others, are now powerless to affect the child's destiny very much. Unless character had been built in earlier youth, no amount of love can inject it now. The child is out of the parental range for all time.

The moral of this, if any, is twofold. Parents whose children are young should not neglect the training of their boys and girls. It is a task which can not be delegated. And, children, as they enter life on their own responsibilities, should not overlook their power to wreck and make miserable the closing years of their parent's lives.

PEACE, THE WORLD AND THE U. S.

We have been much interested in recent efforts on the part of some members of Congress to secure direct information concerning possible alliances, agreements or understandings with other nations.

It seems to be feared by many of them that this country is about to enter into some commitment with Great Britain. Why this should be a crime, if the interests of the two nations coincide, we have no idea but, at any rate, the statement of Secretary Hull, endorsed by the President, should reassure the worried statesmen.

As a result of our policy of isolation the United States now finds itself compelled to face the problem of self-defense in the event of any possible future emergency. Certainly, it is plainly possible that Germany, Italy and Japan may act in concert in international affairs that involve the United States just as they have acted together during the past year or so.

If this is possible, then it is necessary for the United States, proudly isolated, to be able to defend herself without seeking assistance from other powers. Surely, if we do not look to Great Britain or to France for assistance in the event some combination of powers attack us, we must be able to defend ourselves without help. This, believe us is a big order for warships.

Naturally, if we are not willing to make any agreement with any other nations, involving joint action or mutual assistance, we look to no other nations, involving into action. We will stand or fall by ourselves, giving or taking a licking as the fate may determine.

Regardless of whether we do so or not, however, it is plain to see a homogeneity of interests and purposes between the three democracies of the world and a similar unity between the three strong dictator powers. We regret very much to see the world thus divided into two armed camps but it will do no good to shut our eyes to what stands in the light for all to see. That such a grouping of world powers means war in the future, and possibly the near future, is a conclusion that we reluctantly accept.

Frankly, the people of the United States proclaim their love for peace and their hope to escape the horrors of war. There are some who believe that this can be achieved if we treat all other nations alike, making no difference between nations that would cooperate economically and those who do not. They may be right in their belief that other nations will respect our hemisphere if we meddle not in their hemisphere. Again, it is possible, that these people may be entirely wrong. Nobody knows with certainty and that is what makes it hard for the people, as a whole, to formulate a decisive foreign policy.

We realize that there are many people in this vicinity who dislike what they call foreign affairs and regret to intrude upon their security of thought. However, the day is coming, and it is near at hand, when they must make a decision, whether they want to or not. In world affairs indecision is delusive. While we hesitate events force the trend and others take positive action that compels us to decide.

Does Britain's Plan Mean Peace?

The world awaits with abated breath the outcome of the diplomatic moves made in Europe during the past few weeks. Are these recent moves indicative of peace? To look at it one way the answer may be yes. We in America are, of course, because of geographical reasons, if none other, vitally interested in the moves made by England. Will this offer of England's bring rest to the minds of Europe and the remainder of this tempestuous globe? From England's past record as a bargainer we should have little fear of her success. Will that success mean peace?

Could this be England's intention? To recognize Italy's Ethiopia on the one hand and to tell Hitler to help himself in Central Europe and in the meantime England will take a sterner stand in the Sino-Japanese situation that is indeed a sore spot to England (and everybody) economically and diplomatically, at present. If this could be accomplished it would mean trade and friendship. Of if that is not the plan, is it this? England will play Hitler and Mussolini back and forth giving to one and rebuffing the other until they ultimately split the alliance of major dictators in Central Europe. This would surely be a victory for democracy, for it can be handled much better when they can be reasoned with, and you cannot reason with an enemy if he is one the end of a bayonet. (Ever trying arguing with a man that was mad and hungry?) The great advantage of creating friendly relations with those nations will be to open trade channels. The hearts of nations, like those of men, can best be reached through their stomachs. Strong commercial ties are strong peace factors.

At least these plans are peaceable possibilities, ways of reckoning with the mad clamor of the world for arms—Fascism, Nazism, Communism, Islam ad infinitum. Further they are plausible as the meaning of England for they put England in a much better standing commercially, as well as the rest of the world. Which, if it works, will add some semblance of order to this millennium of distrust which is so characteristic of our world today.

HOLLYWOOD HI-LITES ON BEAUTY

Here's real news—and something we've all been wanting for years! There has just arrived in Fulton, an entirely new beauty aid that will be a boon to every member of the fair sex from sixteen to sixty or more. How many times have you looked in your hand mirror and exclaimed: "Oh, what a dirty face!" And then must follow all the fuss and bother of creaming or washing applying of foundation cream, etc. before you're ready for your make-up again.

All this bother has been ended forever by the invention of an entirely new kind of cleansing pad. They're little round disks saturated with a cleansing agent that not only removes dirt and makeup but tones and stimulates the pores as well. You can carry them in a little compact (one especially designed to keep the pads moist while in your purse comes with your purchase.) All you have to do is open your bag, take out a cleansing pad—and presto! in a jiffy you're ready to refresh your makeup and start looking lovely again.

Just think what a boon they will be when traveling—either when shopping or on a longer trip. They are a real time saver at the office, too, and students are delighted at the convenience they offer—no need to carry cream, tissues, etc. They are very moderately priced—in fact you get over a hundred pads and also the special compact for less than a dollar. If you'd like to know their names and where you may buy them in Fulton, call Connie Smyth at 470.

SPARKS OF WISDOM

There are college presidents who make more $25,000 a year—they must know many things.

We see where an expert says that taxes are hard to understand. Worse than that, they are hard to pay.

Business will pick up if you advertise in THE NEWS.

No matter what you do or how you do it there will always be wiser methods that friends will point out.

It is much better to prevent a boy from becoming a criminal than it is to put him in prison after he violates the law.

You might as well trade with the merchants and business men of Fulton if you expect to live and prosper here.

Puzzle: So what do you think we think? By the time we get automobile travel safe people will risk their lives in the air.

Then there are people in the United States who insist that the monopolistic industries work for the benefit of the consumers.

Maybe we can guarantee peace in the Pacific if we transfer the fleet to the Atlantic and blow up the Panama Canal.

DANGEROUS

It is dangerous to sell a Substitute for 66¢ just to make three or four cents more. Customers are your best assets; lose them and you lose your business. 66¢ is worth three or four times as much as a Substitute.

The Plan in Brief

The object of the big distribution is several-fold. Primarily it is intended to increase the subscription list of THE NEWS in the Fulton territory and also to extend the present circulation of THE NEWS. The plan proposes to gather subscription payments from present and new subscribers and at the same time to afford friends and readers an unparalleled opportunity to profit in a big way through their spare time, during the next several weeks. So it is a plan that works both ways and to the ultimate good of all concerned.

In order to gain this end quickly and advantageously, the most valuable and attractive list of prizes ever offered by a newspaper in this section of the state has been made ready for distribution among those who participate most heartily.

Ambition and energy are the main requisites for success. The plan adopted is the fairest and most impartial conceivable. There will be no extra votes given whatsoever, other than as outlined in the Rules and Regulations which appear elsewhere in this announcement. Neither will there be any long term subscriptions accepted. The plan of the campaign is straight-forward and simple and it is fully outlined in this announcement.

Let it be understood at the very outset that this is neither a "beauty" nor "popularity" contest, but a strictly legitimate competitive proposition for enterprising men and women, and boys and girls, one in which no element of chance enters. One feature of this competition is the fact that there will be no losers in the race.

HOW TO ENTER TRADE CAMPAIGN

The first step in order to become a candidate and compete for an award is to clip the entry blank appearing in this announcement, fill in your name and address and mail or deliver in person to the Campaign Department of THE NEWS. This coupon entitles you, or the person whom you might nominate, to 10,000 FREE votes. These votes are given you as a starter, and they speed you on your way to win. Only one nomination coupon will be accepted for each candidate entered.

HOW VOTES ARE SECURED

The next step is to call or write the Campaign Department for full information, an official receipt book, sample copies of THE NEWS and other details relative to launching an active campaign.

Thus equipped you have but to go to your friends and neighbors, relatives and acquaintances and have them to pay up a subscription to THE NEWS through you. THAT IS ALL THERE IS TO IT.

However, you will never win unless you make the start, and while it will not be a very difficult matter to capture one of the big prizes, nevertheless it is necessary that you start early. You must, above everything else, plan your campaign the same as any successful business man plans his work for a season.

Let no one discourage you; STICK TO IT and FINISH! Anything worth having is worth STRIVING FOR. A few short weeks of active work and you can have a bank account of $750.00 to spend in any way you wish or a beautiful new 1938 Deluxe Plymouth Sedan. Anyone would like to be the proud owner of this wonderful automobile.

It takes votes to win and votes are secured in this way. On each subscription there is a certain number of votes will be issued as the "period" in which they are received by the Campaign Department. See the schedule of votes elsewhere. So you see, the more subscriptions you can secure now, the better your chances are to win one of the capital prizes.

AN EARLY START MEANS AN EASY FINISH

The advantages of an early start are manifest. Not only do you have FULL TIME in which to secure the winning votes, but now and up to April 5th, you will receive the maximum schedule of votes on subscription. Then, too, the first in the field will undoubtedly get the "cream" of votes and subscriptions, while those who put off entering until a later date will have to take what is left.

ADVISORY BOARD

It is the sincere aim of this newspaper to conduct the election, from start to finish in a fair, honorable and impartial manner. Every precaution has been taken to safeguard the interests of participants and absolute fairness in all dealing is guaranteed. However, not all wisdom lies with any man or institution and for that reason an Advisory Board has been decided upon whose functions shall be to decide any question of sufficient moment that might happen to arise during the competition and from that board a committee shall be selected to act as judges and count the votes at the close of the campaign.

This Is Your Opportunity

As a leading feature of a program of extension and expansion of trade territory THE NEWS today announces a startling and amazing offer through which to reward its friends and readers in its trading territory. This newspaper is offering in return for spare time and effort, cash of a total of $3,300.

This general undertaking is launched and will be conducted upon a plan worthy of the integrity of THE NEWS. While there will be competition for size and value of awards, yet the plan does not provide the old "contest" idea of winning or losing. It is a business proposition from start to finish, one in which each participant will be rewarded in direct proportion to the effort and results obtained.

OVER THIRTY-THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS in prizes!
Thousands of Dollars in Currency and Silver—in fact, just as many awards as there are participants—have been made ready to award among the men and women and boys and girls residing in Fulton county and surrounding territory, within the next few weeks by THE NEWS. It is predicted that this great trade expansion campaign and prize distribution—the liberality of which will surpass by far the most successful in the annals of newspaperdom in this vicinity.

THE NEWS today extends to its friends and readers the opportunity to participate in this extraordinary event. An early start means an easy finish. This two-page announcement explains the plan in detail. Read every word of this announcement. Then telephone, write or come down to the Campaign Department and signify your interest. Ask to have the details explained to you. This will obligate you in no way. Then, when you know the facts regarding your opportunity, make your decision, secure the knowledge that you will be well rewarded, that every participant is compensated for good effort in sums of currency and silver—REAL CASH.

"THE NEWS" WEEKLY SCRAPBOOK

WEEK'S BEST RECIPE—

VIRGINIA BAKED HAM—Select a small ham and boil. Let cool in water in which it was cooked. Remove the skin and trim the excess fat. Put into the ham the following mixture: 1 and one-fourth cups brown sugar; 1 teaspoon allspice, nutmeg and ginger; 2 teaspoons cinnamon. Lift to a baking pan and place in a hot oven. As the ham commences to brown, baste with one cup brown sugar, 1 cup molasses, 1 cup vinegar, 1 cup water. Bake until nicely browned, which usually requires about one hour.

ON WASH DAY

If a garment is streaked from a strong bluing solution soak it in strong ammonia water—A rusted wash boiler may be made to give further service by lining it with unbleached muslin—A handful of salt added to the rinsing water in the winter will keep the clothes from freezing to the line.

KITCHEN KINKS

Baking powder biscuits may be mixed and cut several hours before baking and placed in the ice box. The easiest way to grease pans for baking is to use a small brush dipped in fat—Sprinkle salt over the food which has run over in the oven or on the stove and it will not smoke—Do not open the oven door for at least ten minutes after a cake

YUM-YUM

The purpose of this article, he said honestly, is to make your mouth water when you remember the things you used to eat. Few poets have sung of the things we old-timers liked. Poets are a bit snooty, anyway, and are afraid to talk about eating except when dainty foods are served. Now very few of us are artistic, and least of all in eating. What we liked, and enjoy remembering with watery mouths, may not have rivaled the celestial ambrosia and nectar celebrated by the ancient poets; but we would not trade our memories for any amount of ethereal stuff like ambrosia and nectar.

Since we were taught, even on the farm in the old days, to eat in courses, I must begin with the meat course. Now, 'possum-and-taters would be a good starter. Real 'possum, real gravy, real 'taters! Unless you have a cast-iron system, you had better take warning from me and go slow until you get adjusted to this rather solid diet. But when you can take it, yum-yum! Now 'taters are good enough alone, especially those cooked in ovens with coals of fire above and below. Hog's jowl and turnip greens form a reasonable substitute for 'possum and 'taters if you must give up your first choice. Specify plain corn hoe cake or cone pone. A cup or bowl of potlicker would do no harm as a side dish. Crumble your plain cornbread into the soup and eat in any manner approved in your community. Some home-made lye-hominy would help along.

All this first course is to fill; the real meal for a boy begins with the sweets. All boys have a sensitive tooth for sweets. Sweet muffins, fried pies, gingerbread, teacakes, green-apple pies, fried cakes (we never called them doughnuts)—why can't a fellow get enough of these? Even in memory my mouth waters frightfully, almost enough to warrant a bib such as those we used to wear. On my birthday I always wanted sweet muffins; I usually got them, or as much of my share as I could get before my older brother started on them. After school it was great to stop that mid-afternoon starvation feeling by eating three or four fried-apple pies. Gingerbread, cut into long strips and cooked as gingercakes, was my favorite kind. If and when there was cider, how the two blended! Cider and gingerbread! Blessed pair, ranking with turkey and cranberries, ham and eggs, liver and onions!

The old standby for afternoon lunches was jam. We had a supply, that somehow lasted from season. Cold biscuits and blackberry jam may not sound palatable to rightly aesthetic ones, but if you have lived on the farm in other days and come home from school starved to death, you know why jam and bread even now can stir memories.

A sweet tooth was often satisfied with molasses candy. Just how to make it so it will have the proper hardness is a secret I never acquired, partly because I always ate my candy up before I got through pulling it. Pop-corn balls made with molasses candy can also remove starvation a few more paces.

has been placed in it or the cake may fall.

REMOVING STAINS

Coffee stains are often removed in the regular laundry, but a good method is to pour boiling water through the stain, as for berry stain. Coffee stains may be removed from an unwashable garment by sponging with a cloth wrung out of clear warm water, using a pad of clean cloth under the spot. The last traces of a coffee stain may be removed by drying the spot in the sun.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR

A good remedy for constipation is to drink one or two glasses of water before breakfast, and follow a diet of coarse cereals, green vegetables and large quantities of fruit. Honey is good for constipation. A tablespoon of whole flaxseeds washed down with water is also an effective remedy. Sages of constipation may often be cured by chewing the food finer.

AN INSPIRATION

"A good deed is never lost. He who sows courtesy reaps friendship, and he who plants kindness gathers love."

SILO SIMPKINS SAYS

It took nature many years to build that inch of top soil that will leave thousands of farms during the winter and spring rains. Shooting in the dark seldom gets result. Farming without keeping records amounts to about the same thing.

A considerable increase in sweet potato acreage is indicated for 1935 and with average yields this would mean a large crop and lower prices. Land rich in nitrogen, phosphoric acid, potash and humus should be chosen for the tobacco plant bed.

Tobacco plants grown on the south side of a slope are ready to set from ten days to two weeks earlier than those grown on the north hill side.

The world supply of cotton is the largest on record, following the large crop of 1937. Although consumption is also heavy, the situation of American cotton producers calls for decided caution this year's planting.

High quality in seed is worth more than it costs.

Fruit trees should be pruned before they are sprayed.

Breeding is the foundation and feeding the framework upon which successful dairying is built.

It is cheaper and thrifter to prevent erosion while there still is good soil to conserve.

The new farm bill provides power to control surpluses and improve farm income, and to continue soil conservation payments.

You must feed your soil if your soil feeds you. Cover crops, lime, phosphate and green manure crops are its most productive diet.

Improve farm practices carried out in detail will not give success unless the farmer keeps the cost of production to a minimum.

Proper care of the herd bull is of primary importance. Plenty of exercise and the right amounts of feed are the main factors in keeping the bull strong and vigorous.

Over 90 percent of the crop land in Tennessee is too sour to grow alfalfa and other legumes and legume and grass mixtures successfully, unless limestone is applied to the land.

Lambs should be given a bit of corn or sweetened feed to nibble on when they are eight to ten days old. A private compartment separate from ewes is advised. Feed twice daily and keep troughs clean.

GIVES TEN WAYS TO MAKE POULTRY PAY

Ten ways to make money from chickens are suggested by Dr. J. Holmes Martin of the Kentucky College of Agriculture in advocating the following of the national poultry improvement plan. He suggests that farmers check on the following points:

- Start with production-bred, healthy chicks.
- Start chicks in time to have fall and winter eggs.
- Keep clean, sanitary surroundings.
- Feed a balanced ration the whole growing period.
- House only the strong, vigorous, large pullets.
- Don't allow parasites, either inside or on the chicks.
- Keep the ration balanced, even for full grown birds.
- Keep an ample supply of fresh, clean water.
- Provide a laying house that is comfortable and clean.
- Cull often, and sell unprofitable birds.

There are many protective features in the interest of buyers who patronize hatcheries following the national plan, the poultry expert advises. This includes regular inspection of the plant, honest advertising, all chicks hatched from eggs weighing 23 ounces or more

Fulton Children To Star In Movie To Be Made In City Soon

Melton Barker of Hollywood will arrive in Fulton soon to produce a two reel comedy, Malcolm Gilbert, manager of the Fulton theatres, announces. The local play will be a kidnap story and will be shown at the Fulton Theatre when completed.

Barker has the distinction of having discovered Spanky McFarland, who is now starring in "Our Gang" productions. Barker and his camera crew are shown in the picture above.

The entire picture will be made in Fulton and around 75 local children will be used in the cast. Some singing and dancing will be used, but it will not be necessary for the child to be able to sing and dance to get a good part as all types of children are needed to fill out the cast.

After the cast has been selected there will be three or four days of rehearsals, teaching them to act before the sound camera and to talk over the microphone. There will be a small charge for this training, however, there will be no charge for registering and tryouts.

Children between the ages of 3 to 12 years wishing to try out for parts must register at the Fulton, Orpheum or Strand theatres at once. When the casting director arrives he will get in touch with those who have registered and arrange for try-outs. Rehearsals and shooting of the picture will not interfere with school work.

"Snow White" Comes To Fulton Theatre

For years movie-goers the world over have been borne on the wings of fantasy by Walt Disney's animated characters for from eight to ten minutes at a time, but now, in "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," his first full length feature, they are enabled to forget the world of realism and revel in the beauties of an idealized drama for an hour and a quarter.

For the first time a producer has evinced the daring to bring to the screen a fairy tale in the spirit in which it was written and beloved. "Snow White" has been visualized magnificently in more than 7,000 feet of film.

Compared with "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," the "Mickey Mouse" and the "Silly Symphonies" produced by Disney are little short of chapters of stories instead of the entire tales. And the producer now feels that the public will welcome a full-length feature from his studio.

"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" is made in its entirety of drawings animated into living action, but the drawings are infinitely different from those of Disney's short length output. In the first place, with the exception of the seven funny little dwarfs, there is scant caricature in the picture. "Snow White" herself is a charming little lady with "skin white as snow, lips red as a rose and hair black as ebony." And she has a charming singing voice with which to deliver four of the eight songs in the picture.

"Snow White" is showing at the Malco Fulton Theatre here day and date with Memphis, starting Friday and continuing through Tuesday of next week. Fulton is fortunate to be the second city in Kentucky to present this remarkable film.

near Cayce.
