A DESCRIPTION OF A "SCRUB BULL"

By J. T. Watkins

Well we get down on the farm in the country, especially in the Summer, we often have visitors. Sometimes it is a family, sometimes it is a large group of people. It was one of these groups that came to visit us this week. They were all very interested in the farm and the animals. They asked many questions about the farm and the barnyard. We showed them around and explained everything to them. They were very impressed with the size and the cleanliness of the barn. The animals were very friendly and attracted the visitors. The children were very eager to pet the animals. We had a great time showing them around and answering their questions. We hope they will come back again soon.
Gilding Your Children

Bad habits lead children astray. Good habits guide them safely into the path of character, uprightness and independence.

You can start them right by teaching them to save money. Set them an example by saving yourself. Make them admire thrift.

Once started, the saving habit helps to form other good habits. It provides experience for handling one's own funds.

Food like you get at home.

This is truly a home-like restaurant because it has endeavored to break down the prejudice based on the theory that restaurants could not serve food like you get at home.

Many patrons will testify that there is no difference between our meals and the meals they get at home. That's the reason they come here so frequently to eat.

Years of catering to the appetites of particular people make it possible for us to serve appetizing meals.

The next time you want to eat away from home, bring your family here.

In Our Community

There is no more appropriate time than the present to do as much good as we can. Every good citizen will find some time and also some thought in the planting of trees.asser, and screen at this season a man to the present, but to the future of nature and energy to the beautifying of our towns.

We can make our community a little better if we all work in harmony. This is the day to approach the city fathers and to urge the planting of trees. In every town, let there be a campaign for beautifying our streets. This will add to the beauty of our towns and will give our streets a more attractive appearance.

When Brides Are Needed

In the early days of automation, when the world was in a hurry and too busy to appreciate the beauty of nature, the planting and cultivation of such trees and shrubs as are so essential for the beauty of our homes and towns, was a common practice. Today, when we are more conscious of the beauty of nature, we realize the importance of planting trees.

Planting and transplantation is not only an aesthetic pleasure, but it is also a beneficial practice. Trees provide shade, improve the air quality, and offer aesthetic value. Trees also provide a home for birds and insects, and they help to clean the air and water.

Every day more people are becoming aware of the importance of planting trees. We should all do our part in this effort. The planting of trees is not only a way to beautify our surroundings, but it is also a way to improve our quality of life. We should all take the time to plant trees and to contribute to the beautification of our community.

The County Board of Education hopes that these teachers will continue to provide high-quality education for the students of the county.

Sunday School Lesson

Lesson for April 30

The Suffering Servant

Kingdom, Test, and Crown

I. The Coming of the Servant

Matthew 27:25-56

Jesus was handed over to the chief priests and to the scribes, who condemned him to death. They handed him over to the Sanhedrin, and after much questioning, they beat and spit on him. They took him to Pilate, who asked if he was the King of the Jews. Jesus said he was the King of the Jews. Pilate asked the people if they wanted to release Jesus or Barabbas. They chose Barabbas, and Jesus was crucified.

II. The Vicarious Suffering of the Servant

Isaiah 53:7-12

He was despised and rejected by men, a Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. He was despised and we did not esteem him. But we esteemed him not. Yet it was the will of the Lord to bruise him. He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities.

III. The Greatness of the Servant

Philippians 2:5-11

Christ humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God highly exalted him and gave him a name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth.

IV. The Final Reward

Revel 5:11-12

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing. For you were created for this very purpose, to praise the One who gave you life and called you to a holy life, to obey him through the power of the Spirit.

The lesson concludes with a discussion of the application of these themes to our own lives and the importance of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

The Clank of the Wash Tubs—

It heralds the beginning of another week. The wash boiler from this corner, the wringer from that. Clothes piled high here and there. Children to be hustled off to school. Servies on edge.

With the modern electric washer all this drudgery can be avoided. It is a small investment for the great convenience that it gives. It costs a mere trifle to operate, and you can do so many other things while it washes. Why "Blue Monday?" Why be a slave to the washboard? Let electricity make your Monday cheerful and carefree.
