SHOE FACTORY PEOPLE HERE

TWO OF THEM SHOWN OVER THE CITY YESTERDAY.

It will be known within the next week or two whether the owners of the new factory on the Louisville and Nashville railroad are going to build a shoe factory within the city.

Yesterday morning both arrived in this city after a visit to Louisville. They have been in the vicinity for some time past and have been considering the possibility of locating a shoe factory here. They called on Mayor Vining and other officials of the city yesterday morning, and they were more than delighted with it.

They thought the sites very good and said that if they were located here, it would be to the advantage of the city.

They visited the territory of the proposed factory and said it was very promising.

The shoe factory will be located on the north side of the city near the factory of Messrs. McCoy and Company.

The cost of the new building will be about $50,000.

The old building will be vacated and the office of the Woodmen will be transferred to the new building.

The players were at the plate, ready to swing. The crowd roared as the pitcher took the mound, ready to deliver.

The game began, and the tension was palpable. The players were focused, determined to win.

As the game progressed, the score remained tight, and the crowd continued to cheer. The players put on a show, hitting home runs and making great catches.

FAMILY STORY

Interesting

Mrs. Effie Eversole begins information about her.

The Family History Discovered One Day, Year Ago

With His Little Daughter

Quite an interesting case is brought to our office by Rev. C. B. Bridges, who has been the church and school teacher for about ten years. The family of Mrs. Henry Lewis, who were in this city some years ago, are now living in another part of the state. The family consists of five children, three of whom have passed away. The family was living in the neighborhood of the church last summer.

At 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, the Rev. W. C. Brown will lay on the lesson for the Christian Endeavor Society.

The Sunday School class will tomorrow morning and night at the Trimble Street Methodist church.

We will not alter our regular services on the first of the month. The services will be as usual at 2:30 o'clock, but on the first of the month, the services will be as usual at 7:30 o'clock.

Medical Authorities Estimating the Spread of Cold.

The commission which was appointed last week to investigate the spread of cold in this city has reported. It has been found that the spread of cold is greatly increased by the recent cold weather. The commission recommends that all schools and public places be closed until the weather becomes warmer.

In answer to the question how he happened to speak such good English the judge said that he had learned the English language from his children, having 17 children and several wives, who had attended the American missionary school.

In order to determine the cause of death, the attending physician was called in. He examined the body and found no signs of disease or injury. The cause of death was ascribed to natural causes.

Inroads of the Fell

In order to protect the state from the spread of the disease, the commission is convinced that the more acute type of lung disease is attributable to the presence of the disease in other states. The commission recommends that the state be divided into districts for the purpose of controlling the spread of the disease.

Prevention is infinitely preferable to treatment, as demonstrated by the example of two families in the state. One family, which had taken all proper precautions, avoided the disease, while the other family, which had neglected the precautions, contracted the disease and died.

Several facts have been elicited in the course of the investigation conducted by Dr. Darlington's experts. One is that the health of their associates and neighbors. Perhaps more light on this matter may be afforded by further observation.
