HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 1887.

NUMBER 88

A Sad Death.

News reached this city Monday morning of the death of F. M. Fonda, which occurred at Savannah Sunday afternoon. Mr. Fonda was formerly assistant Superintendent of this division and was only recently transferred to Savannah. The details of his death were not learned, but it was reported that he was killed by the accidental discharge of a pistol. He was an exceedingly popular gentleman and his death is deplored by many friends in this State.

Since writing the above for the account has been received: SAVANNAH, Ga., April 17.—This morning Col. John F. Gayer, the contractor on the Government work on the Savannah River, invited a few friends to make a trip on his tug down the river with him. Mr. J. A. Abrams, one of the most prominent lawyers of this city, urged Frank M. Fonda, Superintendent of the main stem of the Georgia Central Railroad, to accompany the party, and Mr. Fonda eventually rather reluctantly consented.

The tug started from the city at 10 o'clock and on the way down the river the party used Winchester repeating rifles in firing at alligators. During a lull in the sport Mr. Fonda left the pilot house for the lower deck, leaving his rifle lying on a seat in the pilot-house. Messrs. Abrams and Anderson and the captain of the boat remained in the house. Messrs. Abrams and Fonda had been as playful with each other as two boys, and when Mr. Fonda started up the ladder to return to the pilot house on the upper deck he called out to Mr. Abrams, "Jack, I'm coming."

"No you ain't," jokingly replied Abrams, snatching up the rifle which was lying on the seat in the pilot-house at the moment the boat lurched. The rifle slid along the window sill. Mr. Abrams, who was lame, partially lost his balance and the weapon was discharged the bullet striking Mr. Fonda at the inner corner of the left eye, passing entirely through his head and coming out back of the right ear and without uttering a word Mr. Fonda fell backward to the deck below, and before anyone could reach his side, had expired, death probably being almost instantaneous. Mr. Abrams is utterly unable to explain the exact cause of the discharge of the gun, and was so overcome by the tragedy, that the others of the party first feared that he would attempt to take his own life. The remains were brought to the city and will leave for Nashville in the morning.

Late to-night the coroner's jury rendered a verdict to the effect that the killing was an accident. The witnesses were Messrs. Abrams, Anderson, Molina, Gayer and the captain of the tug. The testimony was in accordance with the facts already given.

Forest Fires.

Friday afternoon the woods near Gordonsville caught fire and quite a number of children living in the neighborhood became alarmed at the rapidly withering and fire spread endangering several houses and other property. One man had nearly a mile of fencing burned. It was only after a spirited fight with the flames that the fire was extinguished.

Tom King, of the Pon neighborhood, was burning a brush heap Friday when the fire became uncontrollable and burned 150 panels of fence. This seems to be a bad season for fires.

CROFTON.

CROFTON, Ky., April, 17th 1887

Editor New Era:

Mr. Emsinger has just received from Pembroke a car load of No. 1 wheat.

The long drouth has been productive of a great many wood fires and owing to the indomitable nature resulting from the dry weather they are hard to check and considerable burning has been done.

Mr. Kilroy from Earlington was here yesterday procuring subscription to complete the Catholic church at that place. The managers propose to have a gift concert in Sept. to secure funds for that purpose.

There are several cases of chicken pox in our town and vicinity.

Rev. Thomas Moore of the Christian church will preach here next Saturday night and Sunday at 11 o'clock. An effort will be made to secure his services as pastor of that church here.

You may talk of natural musicians and playing by ear and all that sort of things but when it comes to music to prodigies our town reaches up on the top shelf and takes in the conglomeration of Sultan Paul and 4000 molasses.

At a recent ball here it was discovered that by an oversight no musician was present. A gentleman with no knowledge of the manipulation of the violin volunteered to undertake the difficult task of furnishing the music. After getting an amateur violinist to tune the fiddle he struck out and in less than five minutes the sweet notes of Jawsbone were to be developed, and in ten minutes more by close attention the wonderful symphony of Sugar-in-the-gourd could be detected in emanating from an olin, and in a half an hour merry dancers were whirling in the mazy waltz of Delchies Dog and the spirited Virginia hoe down of Backwater. Nothing like it was ever known and offers from ten cent side shows have been pouring in on that wonderful musician at the rate of forty per day ever since.

Mr. T. F. Frit has purchased from the Crofton heirs the farm known as the D. S. Croft place in the Fruit Hill precinct.

Nus Miller, Denton farm near Norcrossville was here visiting relatives the latter part of the week.

Tom and Bill Long conveyed to H. C. McCord & Bro. a lot on Princeton street this week.

Men may discuss immortality as much as they please, but until the "oldest inhabitant" are disposed of, there is one class that is immortal at least.

A goose is regarded as a silly fowl but will come to explain that when an old hen lays an egg that is only worth 75c per dozen and the goose lays one at 50c per dozen why this hen should not be relegated to the position now held by the goose.

The Best Method.

The most agreeable as well as the most effective method of dispelling Headaches, Colds and Fevers or cleansing the system is by taking a few doses of the pleasant California liquid remedy, Syrup of Figs. It acts gently yet effectively, strengthening the organs on which it acts, so that regular habits may be formed. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal. For sale in 50 cent and $1 bottles by H. B. Garner.

Robbery at Herndon.

Bud Brane and Robert White, two colored boys, spent Friday last at Herndon. During the day a cigar box containing two hundred dollars in checks and fifty dollars in money was taken from a drawer in the store of Jackson & Gossett. As the two colored boys were in and about the store all day, they were suspected of having committed the deed, and they were arrested and brought to jail Friday night. Their trial has been set for Tuesday next. The accused stoutly denied the charge. They are aged respectively about 13 and 15 years.

Increased Assessments.

The State Board of Equalization has raised the value of lands in this county 6 per cent, and personality 7 per cent. This makes a difference of $200,421 in the value of land as fixed by the Assessor and $77,610 increase on personality. This will make the county pay nearly $2,000 of the $6,000 required to be raised by the State. Our Assessor raised the value of property in the county over $1,000,000, and this additional increase is rather burdensome. The County Court never contemplated any such action and fixed the rate of taxation at 95 1/2 cents on the hundred dollars. Now our people will have to pay for 1887 about $1.00 per hundred on all property except town lots, and that too on an increase upon values as fixed by the Assessor.

A Fishing Expedition.

On Monday, April 11th, in company with our esteemed friend Mr. A. W. Pyle and a small colored boy as our body guard, we left the beautiful little city of Hopkinsville in our rear and started over the rough roads of North Christian to Pond river, the place where fishermen are wont to go in early spring to gather from that clear and sparkling stream their many victims from the finny tribe.

When we left town our minds were filled with doubt as to whether or not our trip would be attended with success. Every one of the so-called fishermen, who are only fishermen in theory, had declared to us that our trip would be in vain, for the water was too clear, the sky too bright, the fish never bite until just before a full moon. A. W. Pyle, however, was of a different opinion. He declared that he had been successful in catching many fish under the same conditions. He declared that he had been successful in catching many fish under the same conditions.

Every hand. Every hand seemed to be full of life. The birds sang upon the tree tops, the murmur of the little streams as they run through the dense forest, the sweet music that we had heard in many a day, even the balmy southern breeze as it fanned our faces seemed to carry with it renewed life and vigor, and we listened to these voices from nature, it seemed that the murmuring streams, the swinging trees and the sighing wind all mingled together in a sweet symphony, and we felt that the God who had created them, was with us. We would that our pen could do justice to the many sublime and beautiful scenes which we saw but we feel that it is beyond our power. While on our way to the river we stopped at what is known as Williams creek to procure minnows. To tempt the palate of the bass. While there we had the pleasure of seeing our body guard, Henry, fall over the slippery rocks and get a good soaking. Every one also had the pleasure of feeling his pedal extremities gradually going out from under him and permitting him to experience the joy which one feels in cold water. After procuring our minnows and driving four miles we had the pleasure of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pepper, at their home. We have often visited friends in the hospitable Blue Grass region of Ky., yet the hospitality which we received from Mr. and Mrs. Pepper was far superior to anything we have before met with. We were thoroughly convinced of the fact that many of God's noble men and noble women reside upon the banks of old Pond River, and we will ever look back upon our stay at Mr. and Mrs. Pepper's as one of the things which can not slip from our memory.

Before we left we were thoroughly convinced of the fact that many of God's noble men and noble women reside upon the banks of old Pond River, and we will ever look back upon our stay at Mr. and Mrs. Pepper's as one of the things which can not slip from our memory. Upon Tuesday night the writer had the pleasure of trying to sleep in a stable near the mill. We were not crowded with very good success, however, for we found soon after we had closed our eyes, that a dozen geese and about twenty chickens, (most of them roosters) were trying to occupy the lower floor of our quarters. It is sufficient to say that before the night was over, if wishing could have done it, that those animals would have been in a place, where hogs graze not, where deer do not seek pasture, and where roosters never crow. However, we managed to get a few minutes sleep during the night and next morning left ready for the day's sport.

We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. P. B. Robinson at the mill. Wednesday morning and found him to be a perfect gentleman and as spry as a "sixteen year old." We attempted to break our friend Mr. Pyle, of eating so much, but found that our efforts were all in vain, for he ate everything near him on the table and Wednesday night at supper he caught him trying to slip a biscuit and an egg in his back pocket. Tuesday afternoon we had the luck to meet Messrs. Sam and James Weathers and the company of these gentlemen added much to our pleasure. We had a splendid trip and caught between sixty and seventy pounds of fine fish and came back perfectly satisfied with our work.

Mail Pouch Robbed.

LOUISVILLE, April 15.—It was discovered this morning that the New Albany closed pouch, which left the Louisville post office at 8:40 o'clock last evening, was robbed at the Jeffersonville, Madison depot last night. The pouch was found upon the platform open and rifled of its contents. The extent of the loss is not yet known.

The National Drill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—T. C. DeLeon, manager of the national drill, has addressed a circular to all of the Southern companies that have made application to participate in the drill to know their present location in the drill, and has requested an answer by Saturday night next. He has done this in order to ascertain just how many of them will attend. He has been officially informed as yet of the withdrawal of but three companies, two from Montgomery and one from Atlanta, but there have been telegraphic rumors to the effect that other companies would withdraw, and it is these rumors that he is trying now to verify.

Gettysburg Monument.

RICHMOND, Va., April 14.—On July 3, the twenty-fourth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, the survivors of Pickett's division, which took such a conspicuous part in that conflict, will erect a monument at the point where they made the most gallant charge of any Confederate command during the war. This monument is to be of virgin granite and similar in shape but much larger than the base upon which the statue of Stonewall Jackson in the Capitol Square stands. It is to be erected near Zelger's Grove, Cemetery Ridge, near Taneytown road, and intended to indicate the point where the division pierced the Federal line. The base of the monument will bear the following inscription: "They did all that that men could do.—Gen. Lee."

Mormon Missionaries in North Carolina.

RICHMOND, April 15.—A party of Mormon Elders came from Tennessee to the western part of the State some weeks ago. They at once began work in the county, converting, particularly among women. This created great indignation on the part of people in parts of Buncombe and Henderson counties. An organization, fully organized, has been effected for the expulsion of these Mormons. The latter have been duly notified to leave immediately. If they do not do so, war and feathers will probably be resorted to or something worse. The people are in earnest and determined to expel them. Parties of Mormons have been at work in the mountain section here and there. Some of them were nearly beaten to death, and driven into Georgia by the indignant people.

Contracts for Indian Supplies.

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, April 15.—The awards of contracts for supplying the various Indian Agencies was made by the Indian Commissioners. The bids ranged from 10 to 15 per cent. lower than those of last year, which will result in a saving of fully $50,000 to the Government. John N. Thompson, of Texas, gets the contract for the Rosebud Agency, 5,000,000 pounds; also the lower Brule Agency, 1,500,000 pounds; Wm. A. Jackson, the Pine Ridge Agency, 1,500,000 pounds; Thos. C. Power, the Standing Rock Agency, 4,000,000 pounds; D. R. Flint, the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Agency, 3,000,000 pounds, and the same quantity for the Kiowa, Comanche and Wichita Agency; Joseph L. Smith, the Cheyenne River Agency, 1,500,000 pounds; Joseph H. Harpison, the San Carlos Agency, 1,800,000 pounds; Isaac G. Baker, the Black Feet Agency, 1,000,000 pounds; Robt. C. Terry, the Crow Agency, 1,000,000 pounds; John H. Conrad, the Fort Peck Agency, 1,000,000 pounds.

A perfectly sound body and a mind unimpaired are possible only with pure blood. Leading medical authorities endorse Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood purifying medicine in existence. It vastly increases the working and productive powers of both hand and brain.

To Shelve Blaine.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—A rather significant paragraph was published in one of the papers here a day or two ago, though this might mean something. There has been talk all along, you know, that Blaine was favorable to Allison for second choice, or perhaps for the vice presidential place on the ticket, but this looks as though Sherman may have captured the Allison force for his support, with a slight agreement in behalf of Allison for second choice. Allison has a very strong following in the west, especially in the Mississippi valley, where Blaine is supposed to have a good deal of strength, and if Sherman has succeeded in capturing this Allison influence he has apparently given Mr. Blaine a pretty bad eye in the preliminary bout. A combination of the Allison strength with the Sherman force would make it pretty hard to knock Sherman out of the next time. It looks now as though the fight in the next campaign would be Sherman against Cleveland.

METZ & TIMOTHY,

A Valuable Suggestion.

Louisville Commercial: "Mr. Tomple Bodley, at the Board of Trade meeting yesterday, suggested that one of the best means of advertising Kentucky was through the Geological Survey, and urged that the Legislature make large appropriations for that purpose. The Geological Survey has done more to benefit Kentucky than nearly all the other institutions in the State put together, and yet at Frankfort last winter a crowd of ignorant Legislators cut down the appropriation for that purpose and seriously effected the bur-reau."

This is a suggestion the importance of which our people are just beginning to appreciate. A false idea of economy has obtained with our moss back Legislators and they have let the Geological Survey on such scarce diet as to hardly keep it alive and almost to destroy its efficiency. With the recent boom in mineral property in this State our people might have accomplished, but our law makers, regarding it as a polite attachment to the State Government, treated it as a mere pretension. Consequently our people are really informed as to our mineral resources. Here in Christianity county it is seldom you find a man who has a clear idea of the extent and importance of the coal fields in the county. Even the owners of coal lands are doubtful of their possessions, and there is no reliable source of information. The outside world takes the reports of the Geological Survey, and when capitalists at a distance send in their reports to investigate the fragments we have ignored, they beat us out of our riches by buying our valuable land at ridiculously small figures.

The reports of the Geological Survey, meagre as they necessarily are, are brim full of valuable information that every land owner ought to possess, information that could have saved and yet save our property holders from suffering from the ignorant. And yet our Legislature have uniformly said that it is all to pay to a lot of scientific men to furnish the people correct information about our soils, timber and mineral resources. The people are having their attention called to this matter in a striking manner. Only recently a New York syndicate purchased all the mineral lands in several counties in this State from the ignorant. They bought cheap the forest, coal and iron deposits in the State, the Geological Survey should be well sustained by large appropriations and the work of advertising and developing our natural resources should be pushed with vigor, and the people of this county will not only expect our next Representative to encourage the Survey but will hold him accountable for his disposition towards it.

The Democratic Party in Kentucky.

Henderson Journal.

It is a common thing to have uninformed Democrats say that it would be good thing for the good old State of Kentucky to have a single case of Republicans for one term. This comes of the patient efforts of the enemy who have misrepresents things so woefully wrong. But the Democratic party in Kentucky, so far as its administration of State affairs is concerned has proven all the good things that has been attested to by the most disinterested extension of its purposes and principles.

and to whom he was married in 1858.

His second wife, whom by his death he leaves a widow, was Miss Rose Courtney Barnes, the daughter of Miss Rose Byington and Mr. David Barnes.

They were married April 11, 1881, and have enjoyed a very happy life since since Mr. Raymond was of a very domestic nature and fully enjoyed his only child, a boy now 4 years old.

Mr. Raymond's original name was John T. O'Brien. When he first went on the stage some one told him that O'Brien was not a good stage name, so he changed it to Raymond. He was a very good actor, and he achieved success in 1881 he petitioned the authorities and Chief Justice Tully gave him the right to assume the name of Raymond.

He has been a chronic invalid all his life, but he took good care of his health, and he was a very good actor.

Keep Your Eyes Open.

Owensboro Messenger.

It is to our interest to invite foreign capital here and we must do it if we would reap the benefit of the advantages nature has bestowed upon us with such a lavish hand. We have not the money necessary to do everything that needs to be done, nor have any of us the experience necessary to the successful management of large enterprises that are entirely new to us and which are certainly about to spring up in our midst. It seems to us, then, to use every endeavor to bring foreign capital to work among us. Let us mean to do it, and we will soon see the various means of doing this will suggest themselves to an intelligent public.

There are many things, however, we can do for ourselves. The establishment of great iron works and some other enterprises call for foreign capital but when it comes to boring a hole in the earth and will go to work very soon to see what the bowels of the earth have in store for us.

But this is neither here nor there to the purpose this article started out to accomplish. The point intended to be covered is that while we are inviting it we must be sure we do not let the wrong sort of capital. Everybody knows what a sort of monopoly the Standard Oil Company is, but few know how it works in this country. It is a monopoly of certain sections of the country. The company now has all the territory it can work, and it has full control of the markets.

It is now in a position to compete with every kind of oil, and whenever it finds an agent who works up leases on every corner of the globe, it is sure to have a monopoly of the oil business. It is a monopoly of the oil business. It is a monopoly of the oil business. It is
