How They Voted.

At the recent meeting of the county court the following vote was had which will be of interest to the people of the county: On motion to lay the county levy at 37 1/2 cents, making with the state tax of 47 1/2 cents, the total tax 85 cents, in the Court of Claims, the ayes and nays were called and resulted as follows:

Election Echoes.

We have found it impossible to get returns from many of the precincts in the county, but enough is now known to confirm the belief that the county is solid for Buckner, Bryan, Richards, Hewitt, Corbett and Tate. The race for Superintendent is not settled, but Boring has the lead.

Since our last report we have heard from Crofton which went for Buckner, Richards, Rodgers, Tate, Boring and Corbett. There was no instruction for Lieutenant Governor.

Union School House No. 2 went for Buckner, Bryan, Hewitt, Richards, Corbett, Tate and Taylor.

Scotch Mill instructed for Buckner, Bryan, Richards, Hewitt, Tate, Corbett, and for Superintendent Goodnight first, Boring second.

Garrettsburg went for Buckner, Richards and Pickett.

Casky instructed for Buckner, Bryan, Hewitt, Tate, Richards, Corbett and Boring.

Since our last report we have been informed that Longview did hold a convention and instructed for Buckner and Hardin. Lafayette did not instruct, and we are reliably informed that Bennetts-town went for Richards instead of for Hardin.

The latest news from the other counties that held primary conventions Saturday is that Mason went for Buckner and Hines, instead of Harris and Hines.

The Best Method.

The most agreeable as well as the most effective method of dispelling Headaches, Colds and Fevers or cleansing the system is by taking a few doses of the pleasant California Liquid Remedy, Syrup of Figs. It acts gently yet effectively, strengthening the organs on which it acts, so that regular habits may be formed. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal. For sale in 50 cent and $1 bottles by H. B. Garner.

There are rumors afloat of several weddings which will occur in the near future.

Little Minor Latham fell off of the porch at her father's residence Tuesday and received several painful wounds.

Abernathy & Co. sold Wednesday a hhd. of tobacco for Mr. E. H. Fritz, for $15.25. They sold a hhd. last week for Mr. Fritz for $17.25.

Mr. John Logsdon attended the funeral of F. M. Fonda at Nashville, Tuesday. Mr. Fonda was one of the most popular railroad men in the South.

Wm. Thompson was called to Cadiz Monday because of the critical condition of Purdy, the man whose life was so nearly taken at Cerulean Springs.

The tobacco market this week is firm. The prices have been surprisingly high and it is an undisputed fact that the home market is now the best in this country.

THE DIAMOND ICE CO. will deliver ice at your residence. Make your contracts for the season. Dealers supplied at lowest factory prices. Call on W. G. Perry, manager, office on 7th, or Old Bridge Street.

Wheeler, Mills & Co., have erected a large corrugated iron shed, fifty by one hundred and fifty feet, on a lot across the railroad from their warehouse. They now have as much storage room as any warehouse in the city.

We publish in another column the Republican conventional vote in this State. Our Republican friends will do well to clip out this table and keep it where they may watch intelligently the vote of their convention.

We were shown a deed by Mr. W. T. Radford, drawn on the 10th day of July, 1745, in which King George, the Second, grants to William Walton 400 acres of land in Goodland county, Va. The deed is written on parchment and it is a real curiosity.

Deputy Collector Gus Moore left yesterday for Metcalfe county where he goes to arrest some moonshiners. It will probably be a perilous expedition, and we trust he will acquit himself as handsomely as he did in the raid on the Grayson county Wild Cat still.

The committee on music for the unveiling ceremonies will engage the Evansville band of twenty pieces in addition to Elchorn's band, of Louisville. It is intended that nothing shall be omitted to make the occasion one of the grandest in the history of the State.

Bud Brame and Robt. White, colored, charged with robbing the store of Jackson & Gossett, at Herndon last Friday, were tried before Judge Anderson Tuesday and acquitted. The only evidence against them was that they were seen around the store several times that day.

We are requested by Mr. T. L. Graham, Chairman of the Casky Grange Stock Sale Committee, to state that owing to the unveiling of the Latham Monument being on May 19th, that the date of the Grange Sale has been changed from May 20th to Friday, May 13th.

Mr. James M. Howe is actively at work preparing the speakers stand and seats around the Confederate Monument. Specifications will be drawn up in a day or two, and it is intended that the work shall be first class. An artist will be hired from New York to decorate the stand in the most elegant manner.

County Superintendent Renshaw and the New Era have conceived the plan of holding a popular mass meeting of the teachers of the county and the friends of popular education in this city on some day in the near future. When the day is selected prompt publication will be made. Already a strong list of speakers has been engaged and the occasion will be one of unusual importance.

Capt. John Feland issued a circular letter appealing for aid in behalf of Company D, that his boys might repurchase the brilliant uniforms formerly worn by the company. One of these letters lodged in Bowling Green, and the rascally officers of the military company there made it a pretext for a letter in behalf of the Third Regiment band.

The Times publishes the spicy correspondence which graphically illustrates the disposition of the boys to guy the handsome captain of our local organization.

Dr. Sears Accepts.

Rev. A. D. Sears, of Clarksville, who has been invited to make a prayer at the unveiling ceremonies, accepts in the following kindly manner.

Messrs C. F. Jarrett, Hunter Wood and Joe F. Ford.

GENTLEMEN—your invitation for me to be present on the unveiling of a monument erected to the memory of the "Unknown Confederate Dead," was duly received. It was my sad privilege to witness most of the sufferings of those dead heroes, and to perform religious services at many of their graves, and I cordially accept the invitation to be present on the occasion. No adverse providence intervening I will be with you on the 19th of May.

Fraternally,
A. D. Sears.

April 18th, 1887.

The Assessor Again.

The people to whom an appeal lies in regard to every official act, must decide whether the defense of those members of the Court of Claims who voted against increasing the pay of the Assessor out of the county levy is satisfactory or not. At least the funny argument of the majority that because the Legislature calculated the pay of the Assessor upon the basis of the property assessed, instead of upon the basis of the number of lists taken, the county was receiving from him "something for nothing," seems to have been abandoned.

It seems also to be admitted that the court assumed a jurisdiction unauthorized by law, as no statutory enactment has been referred to from which it could derive power in the premises. These advocates of the action of the majority however still cling to the doctrine of county sovereignty and still maintain that the Court of Claims has power in certain cases in opposition to the Legislature. This is a difference of opinion between them and the Court of Appeals, and they may settle the point with that learned body. But my object in again writing, is to protest against the word "liberal" being used in connection with any giving away of other peoples' money. The county funds are derived in a great part from the poll taxes, wrung in some cases from the citizen by levy of attachment. The Assessor was not compelled to become a candidate and knew or had an opportunity of knowing the duties required of him and the compensation allowed him by law, and as it may be safely estimated that one half of my constituents do not realize in two years as much money as a judicious Assessor could, even with his reduced pay, make in two months, to take their money to give to the Assessor, and then to call this gift, "liberality," is adding insult to injury.

When Robin Roughton suddenly came into a large fortune he swore there should be no hungry people in his neighborhood, for he would feed them; there should be no orphans for he would father them; there should be no widows for he would marry them. But generous Robin proposed to be liberal on his own money and not on that of other people. The widow cast her two miles into the treasury voluntarily, but if they had been wrung from her taxation and donated by the Pharisee, there would not have been so much commination due. Whatever other term may be employed, let not the word "liberal" be used in connection with the expenditure of somebody else's money, no matter how lavish that expenditure may be. Indeed, let the Court of Appeals be pronounced wrong; let the principle of county sovereignty be admitted; let the Anarchist doctrine of disregard for law and official obligation be established; but do not let an unauthorized appropriation of the peoples' money—poll taxes collected in disregard for law and official obligation—be claimed as "liberality."

Maxey Terrill.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., April 17.—Maxey Terrill, who was caught in the Indian Territory by the late Governor, several weeks ago for the murder of William Russell in Stewart county, last fall, was brought to this city by Sheriff Turner, of Dover, this evening, and confined in the Montgomery county jail for safe-keeping. The removal was at the suggestion of the Stewart county grand jury, who recommended his removal for safe-keeping. The grand jury sustained Judge Mumford in removing Terrill to the Houston county jail two weeks ago from that county. Terrill was carried back to Stewart, hence the action of the grand jury in recommending his removal to this place. It seems that an attempt to rescue Terrill by his friends is feared, and the jailer of Stewart county, being also sheriff, is necessarily absent from the jail much of his time, when Terrill's rescue by his friends of Russell would be an easy matter.
