Fulton Lions Complimented

Every member of the Fulton Lions Club should feel "puffed up" after hearing District Deputy Governor, Howard C. Kirk, of Owensboro, at Friday's luncheon at the First Methodist church.

Lion Kirk was generous in his complimentary remarks regarding the work of the local club and also told of the marvelous growth of Lions Clubs throughout the United States. During his talk he featured the Lions Convention at Louisville in June and stressed upon the members who will attend to make reservations early. It is estimated that 10,000 will be in attendance and that 4,500 reservations had already been made. The program was briefly outlined and in the parade at least a dozen bands will furnish music. The boy scouts band of a western city will be in the parade with their band of 350 pieces.

The Lions' Convention at Louisville promises to be one of the best in the history of Lionism and Fulton will be well represented.

Lion Kirk was highly pleased when ten or fifteen members accepted his invitation to accompany him to Greenfield, Tenn., to organize a club. Monday evening.

Lion Mack Roach was in charge of the program at Friday's luncheon and was happy in having his brother, Marvin Roach, of Princeton, Palmer Smith, of New Orleans, District Deputy Governor Howard Kirk of Owensboro, and R. S. Williams, editor of the Advertiser, visitors.

Those who attended the Lions' banquet at Paducah, Friday night were W. L. Roper, Warren Graham, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Atkins, Miss Clarice Powers and Dudley Smith.

FIVE DAYS OF ENTERTAINMENT

Redpath Chautauqua Will Open Their Engagement in Fulton, May 28

Redpath Chautauqua opening its first year in Fulton, officially presents on Tuesday, May 28, the first program of the big five-day entertainment, when the Remos Mexican Orchestra and Capt. Sigurdur Gudmunson appear on the Chautauqua platform in the big tent auditorium to be erected on the "old Chautauqua grounds" in Carr Park.

On Tuesday, final plans were completed and the actual ticket selling campaign inaugurated, when Harold D. Baker, Redpath's campaign director, met with the ladies of the Warner-Blackard Missionary Society who have agreed to handle the advance ticket sale in Fulton. Following the establishment of headquarters in the Fulton Chamber of Commerce offices, it was learned that the drive for the sale of 540 season tickets would be carried to every corner of the city throughout the campaign week.

J. D. Davis, of the Fulton Chamber of Commerce, active in the promotion of general plans, stated, "Redpath has a total of ten programs at a general average of 25 cents a program when a season ticket is purchased. Adult season tickets at a price of $2.50 and all school children at $1.25 make an attractive appeal to all lovers of good clean entertainment and at the same time pave the way for the return every year to Fulton of educational and inspirational entertainment such as Redpath offers."

According to H. D. Baker, Redpath Representative, there will not be a dull moment throughout the week for Chautauqua patrons. Along with three 1929 plays, "Skidding," "Sun-up," and "Rip Van Winkle," three musical attractions, the Aemos Mexican Orchestra, the Garay Sisters and the John Ross Reed Company, with artists of the highest professional calibre and three outstanding lectures in Capt. Gudmunson, Lethe Coleman and Chancellor Bradford, Redpath offers "Junior Town" for the kiddies, under the direction of the Junior Supervisor, who will conduct daily programs for the kiddies immediately following each afternoon performance.

Redpath presents two programs daily, starting promptly at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon and 8:00 in the evening, respectively, and it is hoped Fulton citizens will come and enjoy, the same as is done in other towns in the Redpath family.

LUNCHEON AT COUNTRY CLUB

The music department of the Woman's club honored three of its active members, Mrs. Clarence Maddox, Mrs. Don Taylor and Miss Blanch Waggener, who are leaving soon to make their homes in other cities, with a buffet luncheon at the country club Wednesday, at one o'clock. The club rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers artistically arranged. The luncheon table had as its center decoration a bowl of pink radiance roses, a delicious luncheon was served to 35 guests. The members of the music department of the Woman's club will greatly miss the activities and association of these charming club members.

After the luncheon, Mrs. Lee of Chicago, the guest of Mrs. Maddox, delighted those present with several songs. Mrs. Lee has a beautiful voice and her numbers were warmly appreciated.

The acting hostesses for the day were: Mrs. R. S. Williams, the retiring chairman of the department; Mrs. Hardeman Howard, the newly elected chairman, Mrs. Guy Gingles, Mrs. Chas. Brann, Miss Doris Huddleston.

FULTON HAS EXCELLENT WATER AND PLENTY OF IT

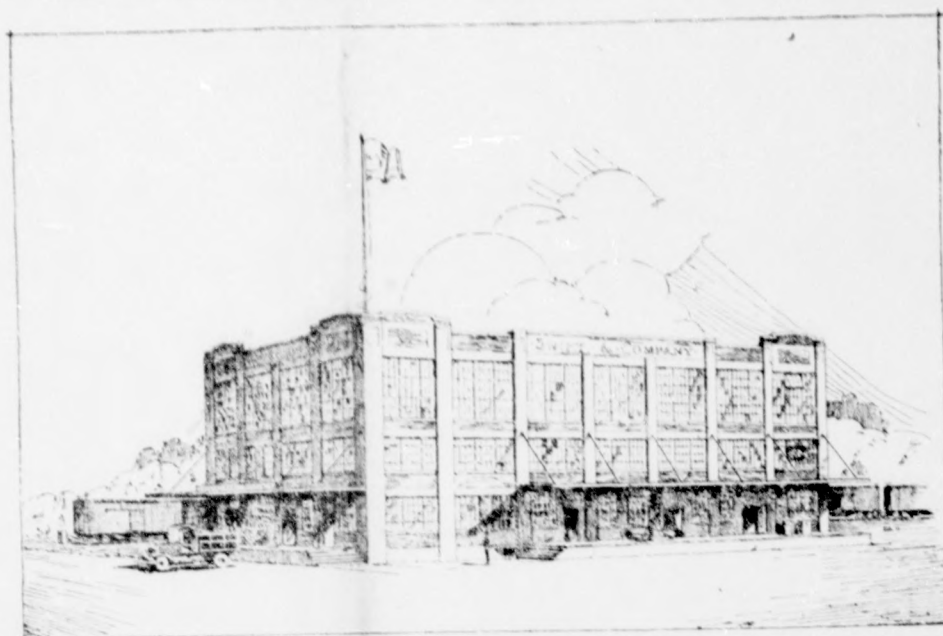

Contractors are at work installing the new strainer in the old well at the water plant. When the work is completed, this will give the city two first class wells of pure water and sufficient supply in any emergency. The city is making no mistake in equipping the old well and bringing it up to the highest standard of perfection. Fulton can justly be proud of its excellent water.

MANGLED YOUTH DIES AFTER AMPUTATION

James Fernstrom Injured in Father's Bakery at Martin, Tenn.

His left arm and side mangled when he was caught in a bread mixer in a bakery, James Albert Fernstrom, 20, of Greenfield, Tenn., died at 8:20 a. m., Saturday, at Baptist Hospital in Memphis.

The boy was at work in his father's bakery at Martin, Tenn., Wednesday when his arm was caught in the mixer. His arm was crushed to the shoulder and his side injured. The arm was amputated in an operation Thursday, but infection developed, causing death. The youth is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fernstrom. Burial took place at Greenfield.

Swift Plant In Fulton Will Be Gigantic Institution

Let's Celebrate Swift Opening

The editor was a visitor at the Rotary luncheon at the Usona Hotel last week, and when called upon to make a talk, said he would not make a speech, but would offer a suggestion which could be taken up with other organizations and worked through the Chamber of Commerce.

The suggestion was to get busy now and provide an appropriate program for the opening of the Swift Company's plant and make the event one of the biggest occasions ever witnessed in Fulton. Also to offer about $200.00 in cash prizes to our farmers as a stimulant for them to assist in making the opening day a record breaker for a Swift opening in the South.

First, second and third prizes could be offered to the truck driver bringing in the largest load of milk; prize to the person delivering the largest number of eggs; prize for the largest load of poultry; prize for the largest cockerel delivered; prize for the best laying hen record of the 1929 season; prize for the largest load of roosters; prize for the largest number of hens delivered; prize to winners of 4-H club boys and girls; prize for best essay on poultry development by 4-H club boys and girls; prize for best trap nesting record for 1929 season; chicken dinner for largest number of friers delivered, and prizes for any other things that may be worth while.

While it will be several months before the Swift plant now in course of construction, on State Line, in Fulton, will be ready for the opening event, the above suggestion is timely and each and every citizen of Fulton and surrounding country should get busy now and make the opening of this new market in our midst, a glorious success.

This Swift plant, the largest poultry and produce plant in this entire section of country, will mean much to the agricultural interests of this section, to the producers of dairy and poultry products of Fulton and adjoining counties, if we will only avail ourselves of its marketing facilities and support it with an ample production of milk, cream, poultry and eggs.

Let us celebrate the opening of this new market in our midst in an appropriate way. Now is the opportune time to begin work and outline the program. It will require time to work out the details the occasion demands.

Our farmer friends should begin now with their activities.

HON. H. T. SMITH ELECTED DELEGATE

Will Represent Fulton Rotarians at International Convention, Dallas, Texas, May 27

At their luncheon last week at the Usona Hotel, members of the Rotary club elected the Hon. H. T. Smith to represent the local organization at the international convention at Dallas, Texas, May 27. Mr. Smith will probably join the Louisville delegation Sunday, enroute via Memphis, where their extra cars will leave on the Sunshine Special of the Missouri Pacific, arriving at Dallas, at 11:45, Monday morning.

By J. T. Watkins

Well, we have decided we will have a Bigger and Better Poultry Show this year than we have ever had, and we want the help of all chicken raisers in this vicinity to cooperate with us to put it over.

While it was impossible to secure a new poultry house in which to hold our show, we have been promised more room and more coops by the fair association, and as that is all we were hollowing for, we are going to get busy and put on a show. And when I say "show," I mean SHOW.

Mr. Gordon, president of the fair association, has promised us he will order 175 new coops, so I don't think there will be any shortage of coops, and he has also promised us he will extend the present poultry house large enough to insure us plenty of room, so let's get busy and show our appreciation by entering 800 birds in the show this year. This will only be 110 more than we had last year. And we had the largest entry list for any show within a radius of 100 miles of Fulton.

There should be at least 125 birds entered in the following classes, White Wyandotte, White Leghorn, Barred Rocks and Rhode Island Reds, with about 300 from the other classes.

We will start on our part of the premium list right away, and will have some real good prizes to offer on all breeds.

We also have some new features which we will spring at the fair this year, that we think will add zest and pep to the show, but we are not ready to tell you about them at the present. Will let you know at a later date.

We wish to call your attention to a fact, and that is, when a poultryman sets his head to win he generally wins. We have in mind, Paul DeMyer, who has been a member of this association from the very beginning, and has made a good member, and now I hear he is going to run for mayor of Fulton. Well, if he has made up his mind to win, he will.

I have had several requests from breeders who live outside of the territory prescribed by the Fair Association, to let them come in with an entry, but I told them, nothing doing. Kelly, of Brownsville, wants to bring about 50 barred rocks, and the same number of reds; Dr. Graves, of Memphis, wants to bring a string of reds, and Judge Luttrell, of Paducah, says any time he can, he will ship six pens of down-to-the-minute Brown Leghorns, so you see the outside world is beginning to take notice of our show and we are becoming known all over the country. Oh, yes, the superintendent of the Jackson show said if we would open the bars, he would bring enough White Plymouth Rocks to make us a sure enough show, I told him we had 80 more birds in our show than he had in his, so guess we had a sure enough show, what?

We wish to notify the merchants that we are going to make our drive at once for funds to put over the best poultry show in western Kentucky, so when you see us coming, don't hide out on us, nor tie up your purse strings too tight. We need the money, and your business will get the benefit from what you turn loose.

Also, the dues for your membership for 1929 is now due, and must be paid to the secretary before the opening day of the show, or you cannot win any of the special cash premiums offered by the Poultry Association, although you may win any of the money paid by the Fair Association. This money is open to any breeder in the following counties: Fulton, Hickman, Graves in Kentucky, and Obion and Weakley in Tennessee. But the Specials are limited to members of the Association only. You may become a member by paying the annual dues of $1.00 to the secretary.

Decoration Day Sunday, May 26

Proclamation

Know all men, women and children by these presents:

That, Whereas, the season of year has put forth new life and the blossoming flowers are at their best, it is becoming of us to commemorate and honor our dead.

Now, therefore, be it known that Sunday, May 26, is the day set for Decoration Day at Fairview. This is an opportune time to express with flowers the love and esteem for our dead. With reverence let us beautify our city of the dead with choicest blossoms on this memorial occasion.

W. O. SHANKLE, Mayor.

WILL DRILL FOR OIL NEAR HICKMAN

With a firm belief that oil flows beneath the earth near Hickman and not satisfied with the test wells drilled in the Reelfoot section some years ago, J. M. Todd, an expert oil driller of the Texas oil fields, has been secured to go after oil. The machinery to drill the oil well on the Ethelbert Rogers farm, eight miles southwest of Hickman, arrived last week. Erection of the derrick was started and the drilling of the well for oil will be rushed with all possible speed.

Many believe that oil flows beneath Fulton and while the test well drilled on the Terry farm several years ago proved to be a dismal failure, if they are successful in striking oil near Hickman, an attempt will be made to go after a gush in the Fulton vicinity.

Fulton is getting nearly everything else that is good for the community, why not have a few oil wells scattered around the town? That's no pipe dream either.

FULTON ELKS TO ATTEND PADUCAH CONVENTION IN JUNE

A large delegation of Fulton B. P. O. Elks will attend the annual convention of the Kentucky State Association of Elks in Paducah, June 3, 4 and 5. It is estimated that 600 Elks will be in attendance from Louisville, Lexington, Ashland, Covington, Newport, Frankfort, Bowling Green, Owensboro, Henderson, Madisonville, Hopkinsville, Mayfield, Fulton, Hickman and other Kentucky cities.

MISS MARY BELLE WARREN GRADUATED WITH HONORS

Miss Mary Belle Warren received her degree from Union University Monday night, graduating with honors, ranking fourth in grades in a class of eighty. Miss Warren was awarded the Elizabeth Tigrett medal which is given to the most valuable member of the Senior Class as judged by the faculty. This is the highest honor that can be given a member of the Senior Class.

Miss Warren well deserves this honor. She has taken a leading part in the activities of the school during her four years' stay there. This year she has had a leading part in the U-Club Minstrel, a stellar role in the Senior Play and represented the Euphrosynean Literary Society in the annual Inter-Society oratorical contest.

She is a member of Hypatia, an honorary English club. She will be greatly missed by both faculty and student body.

LETHE COLEMAN

An American girl regards the world! And having regarded it from many angles and in many parts she has some interesting things to say about it. A wide-awake young person with the energy and imagination to sail around the world alone just to see what was going on, should have many interesting things to tell about, and this particular young person exceeds vastly the quota of normal expectancy in that connection.

Miss Lethe Coleman, the young lady in question, has just returned to America from a long and leisurely trip around the globe. She is a charming and cultured young woman, and she tells delightfully her vivid impressions of her trip. The amazing awakening of China, Japan's new civilization, Uncle Sam's Philippines, strange Siam, India's restless millions, Egypt the inscrutable, Mussolini's New Italy, are some of the interesting subjects upon which she touches.

Popular Mexican Orchestra to Open Redpath Chautauqua

RAMOS MEXICAN ORCHESTRA

From sunny Mexico, the land of song and flowers, come the Ramos family to give their popular concerts at the first afternoon and night of the Redpath Chautauqua here.

Heading the company is Hesiquio Ramos, well-known pianist and composer. With him are his son Rafael, violinist, and three daughters—Rosa, Concepcion and Lupa—who play artistically on the mandolin, mandocello, and other instruments popular in their native Mexico, and sing delightfully.

High School Notes

The new science hall was the scene of a gala event on Wednesday evening of last week, when the Junior class of Fulton High School gave their annual banquet to the seniors. This is a time-honored custom, and is always looked forward to with eager expectation.

The gymnasium was converted into a reception hall and the girls and boys gathered there at six o'clock. Then all the students and guests marched down to the dining hall.

The Home Economics class had very attractively decorated the dining hall in the school colors, blue and white. The lights were draped in crepe paper and the blue and white place cards were attached by a small ribbon to a favor-fortune which was concealed in a large loving cup. The tables were arranged in the shape of the letter "S."

After Bro. C. H. Warren returned thanks, the 55 seniors, and an equal number of juniors and their guests, including faculty members, board of education members and others, were seated to a lovely meal.

The dinner was well prepared and was enlivened by the happy conversation of the guests, and victrola selections. Miss Elizabeth Williamson acted as toastmistress in her gracious manner.

The first number on the program was a vocal solo by Annie Laura McWhetter. R. V. Putnam then toasted the seniors, and Mary Bowers gave a toast to Miss Royster of the faculty.

ultly, Jack Maddox toasted the faculty as a whole, to which Mr. Swann replied. Little Miss Ruth Knighton rendered a charming dance. Stella Scates toasted Mrs. Thompson, who was responsible for the dinner. two readings, "Cremation of Sam McGee," and "Willie's Sweetheart." Frances Moss toasted Miss McMinn and the Home Economics Girls. Adeline Homra gave a toast to Miss Crittenden and Louise Huddleston to "Our Hero, Mr. Myers." Mr. Myers replied to this toast in his usual entertaining manner. Miss Royster and Miss Crittenden expressed their thanks to the classes for their hearty cooperation.

Joseph Williams concluded the program with a piano selection.

This banquet will be remembered by all present as a bright spot in their memory.

Baccalaureate Sermon
On Sunday night, May 19, the annual baccalaureate sermon was held at the First Baptist church.

The house was filled to overflowing and at 8 o'clock the graduates marched single file, to their reserved seats. The following was the program:

Processional—Miss Doris Huddleston.
Hymn—Selected.

Invocation—Rev. J. T. Wade.
Anthem—Blessed Be God (Petrie)—Choir.

Scripture.
Solo—Closer Still With Thee (Rolle)—Mrs. C. B. Lea.

Sermon—Rev. B. J. Cantrell.
Quartette—Remember Thy

People (Bell)—Mrs. Chas. Brann. Miss Annie Lucille Goldsby, Messrs. Steve Wiley, C. H. Warren.

Benediction—Rev. C. H. Warren.

Rev. Cantrell took his text from the passage which speaks of a "house not built with hands, eternal in the heavens." He portrayed two types of houses which the youth of our country has. One great building is the United States of America, and Rev. Cantrell asked the graduates to do our part to keep it the great nation that it is now. The other building which we must build for ourselves is that of our character, and we must put the very best materials in this house, that is possible. In closing Rev. Cantrell quoted from Holmes' "Chambered Nautilus."

The services were simple, but very impressive and may truly be said to have been an inspiration to all present.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE FOR SOUTH FULTON HIGH SCHOOL

The baccalaureate service for the graduating class of South Fulton High school at the First Methodist church, Sunday night was largely attended. The Rev. L. R. Neill, of Troy, delivered an impressive and inspirational sermon, and the musical program was a pleasing feature.

The program was as follows:
Prelude—Mrs. Paul Hornbeak.

Invocation—Rev. H. B. Vaughn.

Solo—"How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" (Gomer) Mrs. R. S. Williams.

Scripture Lesson—Rev. H. B. Vaughn.

Ladies' Quartette—Be Thou My Guide (Lowell) Mesdames L. H. Hindman, George Alley, Misses Frances Galbraith, Ivora Cantrell.

Sermon—Rev. L. R. Neill.
Anthem—The Radiant Morn Hath Passed Away—First Methodist Choir.

Benediction—Rev. L. R. Neill.
Postlude—Mrs. Paul Hornbeak.

Route 4, Fulton Ky.
(New Hope Community)

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Wood and family, of Wheeler, Texas, who have been visiting relatives in the Croley vicinity, spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Finch.

Mr. R. T. Drysdale, of St. Louis, visited his brother, Mr. R. L. Drysdale, a part of last week.

Misses Serrilla Phillips and Dorothy Lee attended church services at Mt. Moriah, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Benedict and sons, of Clinton, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gwynn.

The New Hope Ladies' Club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Veatch, Friday at 1:30 p. m.

JUD BUCHANAN WINS JUDGESHIP IN OBION

Defeats Open Choice Candidate of Sen. Bratton

Union City, Tenn., May 20.—Jud W. Buchanan was elected county judge of Obion county today over two opponents, receiving 29 out of a total of 37 votes cast. He succeeds the late Judge Stansfield, whose death occurred several weeks ago.

Buchanan overwhelmingly defeated J. F. Gregory, the open choice of Sen. Sam R. Bratton, and C. P. Wilson, each receiving four votes in the county court.

VITAPHONE PICTURES.
"HOME TOWNERS,"
ALL-AMERICAN HIT

At Orpheum Theatre Next Monday for Three Days

If the crook play has begun to make you feel that you are rather fed up with that sort of cinema fare, then remember that a play is coming to the Orpheum Theatre next Monday, that will make up tenfold for all that you have had to suffer at the hands of the yeggs and such critters. The screen special that is to do all this magic is none other than Warner Bros.' version of George M. Cohan's tremendous stage comedy success, "The Home Towners."

George M. Cohan has the reputation on Broadway of being the cleverest of comedy-makers and comedy-stars—and producers, too, for that—Broadway is lost without two or more Cohan plays in full swing. Then by way of variation, George dashes off a song like "Over There," that sells by the millions, and better still, is on millions of lips everywhere. And "The Home Towners" is George M. Cohan at his chuckling, twinkling, flag-waving best. It has to do with a middle-aged small town man who comes to the city to fix up the troubles of a boyhood pal, whom he believes to be in imminent danger of being hoodwinked by a young adventuress. For what follows—come to the Orpheum next Monday.

RELATIVE OF FULTON PEOPLE DIES IN HUNTINGDON, TENN.

P. J. Shankle passed away Monday at his home in Huntingdon, Tenn., aged 69 years. He is survived by five children all grown and married. His wife preceded him to the grave. He was an uncle of Mayor W. O. Shankle, T. L. Shankle, and Mrs. W. E. Cayce of this city, and the last one of their father's family. The funeral service was held Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Antioch church near Paris, Tenn., and burial followed in the church cemetery. The Advertiser joins with other friends in sympathy for the bereaved relatives.

IN MEMORIAM

By custom and appointment, a day is set apart in memory of the brave dead and in acknowledgment of their enduring service to the living. In this tribute our thoughts and hearts have equal share. The perspective of time gives us to know that the wars of the past have won us the peace of the present and that the strife of causes and convictions now scarce remembered bears fruit today in the greatness of a nation. At the same time our hearts recall the sacrifice of those who died in war for a victory they would not see.

It is not the nature of heroes to look ahead to the gratitude of posterity. Nor do those who have played their gallant part in history now need our praise or tribute. It is ourselves who need the day of observance, with its brief recall of how hardly has been won our present peace and prosperity. It is for our own sake that we confess again that in a great cause men will fight and die. It is in acknowledgment of our country's right to our strength and devotion that we salute those who have served her without stint or measure.

In countless communities throughout the land Memorial Day will draw our citizens together to lift again the flag of national faith. In countless homes will be recalled a bitter loss, mercifully mellowed by time and by the belief that brave men do not die in vain. Briefly our memories awake the past, from which we turn again to the hopeful future, pledging the strength of the present to the service of the land of our fathers.

GETTING ACQUAINTED

It is astonishing how slow many people are in getting acquainted. Not merely do strangers find it hard to make friends, but old-time residents will not speak to each other. People may meet each other on the street for years and never give any sign of recognition. They know each other perfectly, and would like to get acquainted, but they have not been introduced.

These unbending people may be charming in their own circles and full of kind thoughts toward others. Their attitude does not necessarily mean that they are proud. It frequently comes from an exaggerated feeling of propriety or bashfulness, an idea that they will be considered forthputting if they disregard strict etiquette.

A town where this spirit exists has a cold pall of distance stifling its people. They cannot form friendships they need for their own welfare and the development of the community. People get false ideas of each other and look on each other as haughty. They draw back in their own little shells, and no neighborly spirit is developed.

It is a good rule here in Fulton when two men or two women have met each other enough so they know each other by sight to get acquainted. As isolated strangers they are an obstacle to the unity of the city. When they get to know each other, and discuss their common interests, they become good neighbors and a force for community progress.

THE GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME

Strawberries are about to go, but watermelons will soon be coming in. The cherries are reddening on the trees and delicious raspberries will soon be on everybody's table. The dietist has had his quota of rhubarb. The small boy looks longingly on the green apple.

The cold spring has passed away, and now some folks who complained of the chilliness of early May are groaning and sweating under the blistering sun. The beaches are open; roads are inviting. Even on Sundays, the patience and good nature of the automobile tripper survive the dangers and crowds of the main highways. The delights and burdens of the warm season are accepted generally with joy and fortitude that augur well for the philosophy of the American people in general.

The vacation season is at hand. The lucky ones among us will hie themselves to the beaches or the mountains. Truly the "good old summer time" is here. Nature's glad, and so should we be.

The most serious mistake on earth is being too serious.

The height of ignorance is thinking you know everything.

Most persons who are in a hurry to get somewhere probably do not know why.

The old toll gate has nearly passed, but the highways still take their toll.

We are reminded, sadly, now and then, that the aviation stunt has not been perfected.

As the world grows wiser and wiser, it finds more and more ways to make a fool of itself.

It would increase the volume of knowledge if a man knew at 25 what he thought he knew at 18.

Lots of men think they are tolerant simply because they haven't character enough to form convictions.

The man who depends more on cleverness than old-fashioned honesty is usually headed for an awakening.

Perserance is merely keeping on doing what you decided to do even after you decide that maybe you shouldn't.

News that radio lessons during sleep have proved satisfactory will mystify professors who have lectured to drowsy students.

THE ELECTRICAL AGE

Rural Dwellers Everywhere Now
Provided With Electrical Energy

The growth in the use of electricity all over the country, even in the far away rural districts, has been prodigious.

Gone are the days of household drudgery. Electricity is providing heat, light and power and even education everywhere by radio. Just by simply tapping the current. It does the cleaning, sweeping, cooking, heating, freezing or any other work necessary in the home. It is the millennium for mother.

The latest achievement in this field is electrical refrigeration. Today it is possible to obtain all steel, foot proof, perfect working, electrical refrigeration at a reasonable price and furthermore on easy terms, made possible by the vast General Electric Co., whose engineers have perfected the Electric refrigerator.

It is indeed a wonderful age and refrigeration is simply just a further electrical adjunct to the modern home, making it possible to store and keep foods in a sanitary condition until used, with sparkling cool drinking water ready and right on the hottest days with tinkling ice cubes in the glasses when desired.

The G. E. electric refrigerator is not an ice box as this term is generally understood. It is simply an electric refrigerator that maintains a continuous, even cold temperature in foods, desserts, salads that are stored therein, and makes ice at the home when it is wanted. All at a slight expense. Hauling, cutting or storing ice is not at all necessary in these modern days.

Lesson for May 25*GOD'S LAW IN THE HEART

LESSON TEXT—Jeremiah 31:1-40;
John 1:12.

GOLDEN TEXT—The word have I hid in my heart, that I might not sin against thee.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Knowing God.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Knowing God.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Can We Know God?

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—God's Law in the Heart.

I. Restoration of Israel (vv. 1-14).

1. Time of (vv. 1-5).

This points to the glorious future. Not only the children of Judah, but the other tribes as well, shall be restored to their land. They shall be drawn by Jehovah's everlasting love (v. 3). God gave them the land. The peculiar distinctions of the chosen nation shall again be manifest. The time is coming when not only shall peace spread over that land, but it shall again be filled, and fruitful.

2. The Lord will conduct them to their own land (vv. 6-9).

(1) The cry of the watchman (v. 6). This will be the signal for return.

(2) Exultant prospect (v. 7). The prospect of deliverance will call forth a song of joy.

(3) Prayer of the Jews (v. 7). God inclines all true prayer, moving the people to pray for that which He is about to do unto them.

(4) The returning remnant (vv. 8, 9). They shall come from all parts of the world whence they have been scattered. When they shall look upon Him whom they loved, their consciences shall be smitten, causing them to repent of their sins.

3. Appeal to the nations (vv. 10-14).

(1) Sound forth the good news (v. 10). The one who scattered them will now gather them in and shepherd them.

(2) Ransomed by the Lord (v. 11). Their deliverance is preceded by the provision of the ransom.

(3) The exiles shall flock back to their land to enjoy God's goodness in it (v. 12).

(4) Their mourning shall turn to joy (v. 13).

(5) They shall be satisfied with God's goodness (v. 14).

II. The Desolate Condition of Ephraim (vv. 15-20).

1. Rachel weeping for her children (v. 15).

This pictures Rachel, ancestress of certain of the tribes, weeping for her banished children.

2. Ephraim will surely return (vv. 16-19).

The nation is seen showing penitence for sin, requesting divine help in turning back and in confessing sin.

3. Their tender reception (v. 20). In spite of chastisement, God loves Israel and will with open arms receive her back.

III. Action Urged (vv. 21-24).

Something is required of Israel. Before the prodigal could enjoy the blessings of his father's house, he must return thereto.

1. Israel must return and take possession of the land (v. 21).

2. Israel was to take the initiative (v. 22).

This is expressed by the declaration that the Lord hath created a new thing in the earth, namely, "a woman shall compass a man." It is usual for the man to take the initiative—to make overtures to the woman, but in this case God shall create a new thing. The custom will be reversed. The woman "compassing" the man pictures Israel with eager affection approaching her divine husband.

3. The land shall be made righteous (v. 23).

The people are responsible for the restoration of prosperity and the righteous rule of the land.

4. A satisfied people (v. 24-26).

IV. The New Covenant (vv. 27-40).

1. Freedom from the power of heredity (vv. 27, 28).

Those who are joined to Jesus Christ are in possession of a new law of life superior to the law of heredity.

2. The law within (vv. 31-33).

Through regeneration the heart has within it not only the desire but also the power, by the Holy Spirit, to rise above and to be free from carnal impulses.

V. The Source of the New Covenant (John 1:17).

Through the incarnation the Son of God identified Himself with the race by the incorporation of Himself with it. Those in Christ are new creatures.

A limestone club has been organized in Rowan county, and a cooperative limeshed built to make limestone available at all times.

Twenty Hickman county merchants donated prizes in the recent rat killing campaign.

Fifteen Boyd county farmers are using their first tile drainage. They plan to drain 80 acres of fertile land.

A total of 110,000 Latham red raspberry plants have been set in McCracken county.

MANY HIGH PRIZES AT ANNUAL JUNIOR WEEK

Lexington, Ky.—One thousand dollars, several cups, trips to Chicago and other prizes will be awarded during the ninth annual Junior Week at the University of Kentucky, June 10-15. Five hundred boys and girls will attend the week. They will be selected from among the 20,000 junior agricultural club members in 100 counties.

A large number of counties will be represented with teams in the farm and home practice demonstration contests during the week. The Stewart Dry Goods Company, of Louisville, will divide $300 in cash among the home practice teams and give a cup to the best team, and the Kosmos Portland Cement Company, of Louisville, will give $300 to the farm practice teams.

There will be a style show, in which girls from many counties will exhibit gowns of their own making. The winner will receive a trip to the eighth national boys' and girls' 4-H club congress in Chicago, the gift of The Courier-Journal of Louisville.

Ballard & Ballard Company, Louisville, will give a trip to Chicago to the best judge of baked foods, and the Louisville Board of Trade a trip to the best judge of canned fruits and vegetables.

The boy and girl winning the health contest will receive $25 each on their expenses to the national health contest in Chicago.

In a terracing contest for county teams, the prizes will be graders, ditchers, levels and other terracing implements and tools, and cash, contributed by the Southern Brick & Tile Company, Louisville; Owensboro Ditcher & Grader Company, Corsicana, Tex.; Keuffell & Esser Company, New York, and Rostrom & Brady Company, Atlanta, Ga.

AWARD CONTRACT JUNE 7

Union City, Tenn.—Contract for the construction of the overhead bridge and approaches over the Illinois Central Railroad at Rives on the Union City and Kenton highway, is to be let by the state highway department June 7. The roadbed and bridges on this highway are all now completed and with the completion of this overhead bridge, State Highway No. 5 will be ready for surfacing. It is thought that the contract for the surfacing will be let during the summer. Highway No. 5, the Union City-Kenton Road, is one of the most important roads from a trade standpoint leading into Union City, and is an important link in through highways.

KENTUCKY HISTORY

Men Who Have Occupied the Governor's Chair Since 1792

Frankfort, Ky.—Forty Governors have sat in the gubernatorial offices of the Commonwealth of Kentucky since this territory was admitted to the Federal Union in June, 1792. Four of these governors served more than one term. Five died in office, and two resigned to take other political offices. Six former chief executives of the state are alive today, and are engaged in business and professional affairs. These six former governors are J. C. W. Beckham, Augustus E. Wilson and W. J. Fields, who are practicing law in Louisville; Judge James B. Black, banker, of Barbourville; Edwin P. Morrow, a member of the Federal Labor Board with headquarters in Chicago; and A. O. Stanley, who is practicing law in Washington.

The list of Kentucky governors, and the dates on which they took office, follows: Isaac Shelby, June 4, 1792; James Garrard, June 7, 1796; James Garrard, June 1, 1800; Christopher Greenup, June 1, 1804; Charles Scott, June 1, 1808; Isaac Shelby, June 1, 1812; George Madison, June 1, 1816; Gabriel Slaughter, June 1, 1819; John Adair, June 1, 1820; Joseph Desha, June 1, 1824; Thomas Metcalfe, June 1, 1823; John Breathitt, June 1, 1832; James T. Morehead, June 1, 1834; James Clark, June 1, 1836; Charles A. Wickliffe, June 1, 1839; Robert P. Letcher, June 1, 1840; William Owensley, June 1, 1844; John J. Crittenden, June 1, 1848; John L. Helm, June 1, 1850; Jazurus W. Powell, September, 1851-55; Charles S. Morehead, September 1855-59; Beriah Magrofin, September, 1859-62; James F. Robinson, September, 1862-63; Thomas E. Bramlette, September 1863-67; John L. Helm, September, 1867; John W. Stevenson, September, 1867-71; Ureston H. Leslie, September 1871-75; James B. McCreary, September, 1875-79; Luke P. Blackburn, September, 1879-83; J. Proctor Knott, September, 1883-87; Simon B. Buckner, September, 1887-91; J. Young Brown, September, 1891-95; William O. Bradley, December, 1895-99; William S. Taylor, December, 1899 to January 31, 1900; William Gobel, January 31, 1900 to February 3, 1900; J. C. W. Beckham, February 3, 1900 to 1907; Augustus E. Wilson, December 10, 1907 to 1911; Jas. B. McCreary, December 12, 1911, to December, 1915; August O. Stanley, December 7, 1915 to May, 1919; James B. Black, May, 1919 to December 9, 1919; Edwin P. Morrow, December 9, 1919 to December, 1923; W. J. Fields, December 11, 1923 to December, 1927; and Flem D. Sampson, December, 1927.

Route 5 News

Miss Arlin Halladay and Mr. Lacy Barnes surprised their many friends, May 9, by getting married.

Mr. Barnes is a brother of Mrs. Skink Halladay and met Miss Halladay while visiting his sister. His home is at Parkins, Ark., about 30 miles west of Memphis. Miss Halladay is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Halladay. We join their many friends in wishing them happiness. They left the 10th, driving through Memphis to Parkins, arriving that afternoon, where they will make their home.

Wednesday, the neighbors and friends met at Mr. Moore's and cut enough wood to run them several weeks. Wednesday, the 15th, they met with team and tools, broke and planted corn and cotton, and fixed part of the potato ground. Just about the first planting done in this community. Truly neighborly kindness and cooperation in a community is a wonderful thing.

Mrs. Balder Robey and Mrs. Carl Phillips spent last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Moore.

Welfare Workers met Thursday with Mrs. Orr. Thirteen members and six visitors were present. The executive committee suggested the sale of "Elizabeth Wade" flavoring extracts and an ice cream supper as financial measures. Both were approved by the club, and date set for ice cream supper, June 7, at Ridgway school house. Everybody invited to come. "How Shall We Entertain Our Young Folks?" was discussed, and it was suggested, and approved that we entertain young and old about once a month with socials, sings, suppers, stunts, plays or picnic.

Mrs. John Coffman read quite an interesting article on "How Can a Club Make a Success Unless Its Members Pull Together?" Our next program will be on canning.

Scripture—Mrs. Nettie Henderson.
Lord's Prayer in concert, led by Mrs. Ora Coffman.
"The Kaufman County Canning School," read by Mrs. Watts.
Canning in Tin—Mrs. Nettie Parmenter.

"How I Sell My Garden by the Quart"—Mrs. Jim Kingston.

Mrs. Ellis will probably demonstrate the use of the pressure cooker, using the 18 quart cooker recently bought by the Welfare Workers. We hope to get up enthusiasm enough to buy a sealer for tin cans before the canning season opens. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Halladay, at the call of Mrs. Ellis.

The graduation at Chestnut Glade was enjoyed by a large audience.

The program presented was a Duet by Relma Reed and Thelma Golden.

Invocation—Malcolm Johns.
Salutation by Gertrude Moore.
Class History by Thomas Vowell.

Valediction by Howell Oliver.
Vocal Solo—Clay McConnell.

The graduation address was given by Mr. C. P. Claxton, dean of Junior College, Martin, Tenn., which was strong, forceful, inspiring and spiced with humor.

Miss Garrison, county nurse, made quite an interesting talk and distributed certificates to a class of high school girls, to whom she and Miss Liep had given ten lessons in nursing. She also presented health badges to eight pupils who met all health requirements and made a plea for a greater accomplishment in the health work next year.

Friday evening the high school presented the comedy, "That's One on Bill," to a large and appreciative audience.

Mr. Barrax's mother spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Barrax, attending the commencement exercises.

Baccalaureate sermon was preached at Chestnut Glade auditorium, Sunday afternoon, by Rev. Warren, of Fulton Baptist church, on the subject of "The Race of Life." These points were stressed.

The race well worth running. Run in meekness, in patience, laying aside all impediments with a goal in view. It was well delivered and beautifully illustrated.

Uncle John Vincent is gradually growing weaker from day to day.

Water Valley, Ky. (Route 1)

In spite of the continued rains and cool weather, farmers are making headway for big crops.

Mr. W. A. Stewart is finishing setting his tobacco crop. The earliest out in this neighborhood that we've heard of.

Little Charles Robert and Harold Gardner spent Sunday with Charles and Lee Stewart. They had a great time.

Mrs. Jessie Allen had very bad luck with her incubator chickens. She lost a large number of them because of the bad weather, which forced her to keep them up so much of the time when they needed to be out.

Mrs. Bessie Stewart has a nice bunch of young turkeys.

Those who had planned to attend decoration at Wesley cemetery, Sunday, were sorry to see the bad weather.

Beclerton News

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Crisp have moved to Arlington, where Mr. Crisp will be principal of the school next year. Mr. and Mrs. Crisp did some splendid work in our school here, and we were sorry to have them leave.

The Junior Missionary Society met at the church last Tuesday afternoon, with most all the members present. The nice program was enjoyed by all.

Messrs. Eutis Hardin and Oscar Weatherspoon have returned from Detroit, after a two weeks' visit with friends and relatives there.

Misses Pauline Brown, Zelma Pillow and Mary B. Walker were the guests of Miss Ima Fite, Sunday.

Decoration Day was observed at Wesley Sunday, but on account of the very disagreeable weather, the crowd was not so large. We are very proud to see that our new section has the cemetery looking so nice and well kept again.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Hicks spent Sunday with Mr. Auzie Phelps and family.

The Homemakers' Club met last Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Richard Mobley. The ladies were glad to hear that Miss McGill will be with them another year, as they feel that she has been a wonderful help to them, since she has been here as county home demonstrator.

Mrs. Sarah Howell is spending the week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Will Gayn.

Mrs. Susan Johnson of Spring Hill is visiting relatives in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dixon, of Shiloh, have moved into the teachers' home here. Both of them will be members of the faculty of Beclerton school next year.

Mr. Will Davis and family spent Wednesday in Murray.

Beulah May, the little grand child of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Underwood, has been very ill with pneumonia, but is some better now.

Messrs. Ray Pharis and Royall Bennett have gone to Detroit, where they hope to find employment.

Miss Jewel Robey, who is teaching in Paris, Tenn., has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robey.

Miss Katherine Mobley, who is attending school in Murray, spent the week end with home folks.

We are glad to have Mr. Leon Wright and family back with us after having been in Detroit, for several months.

Why Keep Your Nose to the Grindstone?

An electric motor will power for all kinds of farm operations.

SPARKS fly as the stone goes round and round—cutting its way into the edge of the tool. Each man is at his post, doing his part of the job.

A simple task—but consider the waste of manpower and time.

This happens not only on the farm, but in the home and in industry.

The electric way is the better way.

Electric power is now available to the smallest user. It is quick, cheap, reliable and convenient. It gives more time for pleasure, more time for recreation and rest, and promotes good temper. Why keep your nose to the grindstone? Use Electricity!

OUR MESSAGE OF SERVICE

There is going to be a lot of activity in the building line this year. Architects and contractors, carpenters and masons all, are busily sharpening up their pencils and their tools, and getting set for business. It is not the young married folks alone who are going to build homes—who dream dreams of happiness in homes of their own—but many others who have long, too long, been renting the roofs over their heads are going to try this year to realize their desire to have a home of their own.

Whatever you plan to do by way of
BUILDING — REMODELING
REPAIRING

we want you to feel perfectly free to come in and consult our service department without the slightest obligation. Whether it's a big house or a bungalow, a new garage, new roof or new floor, a sun parlor or a sleeping porch, an alley fence, or built-in fixtures—we are prepared to give you unequalled service and low prices on Quality Material.

LET US HELP YOU MAKE YOUR DREAMS COME TRUE.

DAIRY FACTS

FIND SOY BEANS MAKE GOOD FEED

Increasing Interest in Hay Crop for Dairy Cows.

Reports coming to the college of agriculture at New Brunswick, New Jersey, indicate an increasing interest in soy beans as a hay crop for dairy cattle. The heavy yields, amounting to two tons on fairly good land, and the high feeding value, are believed to be the reasons for the popularity of the plant.

The crop is sown at the rate of about five pecks per acre if drilled, or six pecks if broadcast by hand. Farmers have found that if the field has never raised soy beans before it is highly desirable to inoculate. This is easily done by the "seed and soil" method described in Extension Bulletin 22, issued free by the state college of agriculture at New Brunswick. If soil from another soy bean field is not readily available a commercial culture is used. The purpose of either treatment is to inoculate the seed with certain bacteria that are necessary for proper growth of the plants.

An application of 200 to 300 pounds per acre of a complete fertilizer high in phosphoric acid and potash has generally been found profitable when applied to this crop. Wilson is the favorite in this territory but other varieties such as Haberlandt, Virginia, and Pekin are well adapted to hay making.

Soy beans are legumes and therefore leave the soil in excellent condition for sowing wheat or rye after harvest. Though prompt action is necessary after harvest to prepare a good seedbed for winter grain, disking the soy bean stubble is all that is usually necessary. Extension Bulletin 23, also issued free to farmers by the college of agriculture, gives more detailed information on the raising of soy beans in this state.

Practice Essential in Making Grain Mixtures

Since there is seldom a deficiency in carbohydrates and fat when the dairy cow has all the roughage that she can eat, a roughly balanced ration may be obtained by balancing the protein of the grain mixture to go with the roughage and disregarding the carbohydrates and fat. For low to medium-producing cows good alfalfa hay and corn meal make up a reasonably good ration. To go with alfalfa hay, some grain mixtures are as follows: Mixture 1—200 pounds corn, 100 pounds oats, 100 pounds wheat bran, and 100 pounds linseed oil meal. Mixture 2—100 pounds barley, 100 pounds oats, 100 pounds wheat bran, and 200 pounds corn oil meal. Mixture 3—200 pounds corn-and-cob meal, 200 pounds oats, 100 pounds wheat bran, and 100 pounds cottonseed meal.

If prairie hay is used as roughage the ration may be as follows: Mixture 1—100 pounds corn, 100 pounds oats, 100 pounds wheat bran, and 250 pounds linseed oil meal. Mixture 2—100 pounds barley, 100 pounds alfalfa meal, 100 pounds corn oil meal, and 200 pounds linseed oil meal.

Minerals Are Often Fed When There Is No Need

"Mineral feeds are being sold to many farmers who have no real use for them," says Dr. C. H. Eckles, chief of the dairy division of the University of Minnesota. "If a dairy herd is fed legume hay in winter together with a fair grain ration, and is on pasture in summer, the owner is wise to forget all about minerals unless his herd shows abnormal conditions, such as chewing bones or gnawing boards. Bonemeal alone, or mixed with ground limestone, supplies the minerals usually needed when a deficiency occurs."

Dairy Facts

Sell and buy cows on the basis of butterfat production.

Feeds should be palatable so a cow will have a liking for them.

Off-flavors in milk can usually be avoided by milking the cows before feeding them instead of after.

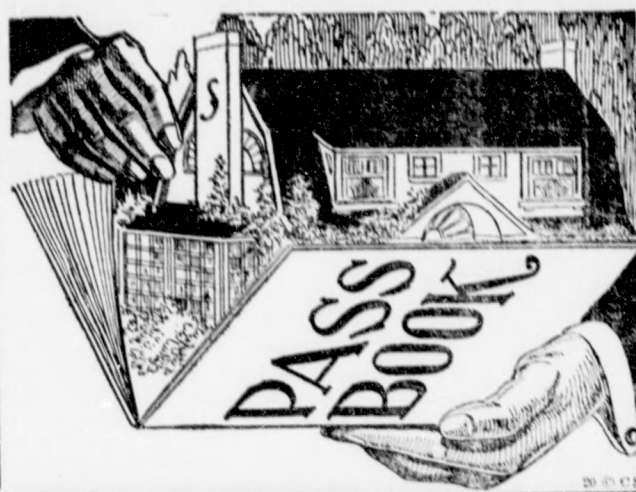

Insufficient feed and a ration lacking in protein are the most common faults in the feeding of dairy cows.

Use your milk house only for the care and handling of milk, not for storing tools and implements. Milk needs all possible care to keep it clean.

A half-gallon cow is as expensive as a half-hearted farm laborer. They should both be sent down the road.

Cows are improving every day but we haven't found any cows giving dry milk, and they know better than we how to water their milk.

A tubercular cow is not always noticeably poor in health or unprofitable. Some vigorous-looking beasts are rocking with the disease. A good veterinary and a good serum test will soon tell you the truth.
