Fulton Lions Complimented

Every member at the Fulton Lions Club meal Saturday last "puffed" up with the compliments accorded the retiring chairman, Howard C. Kirk, who is leaving soon to make the wide. His old friend, Roland P. Bicker, first Methodist church, presented a testimonial to the retiring chairman as a token of esteem and appreciation. The testimonial is a hand-tooled leather binder and also holds the scrapbook of the club and also held of the correspondence of the club throughout the United States. It is a fitting tribute to the retiring chairman and is an honor to the town of Fulton in its own right. The testimonial was presented on behalf of the membership by Roland P. Bicker.

MANGLED YOUTH DIES AFTER AMPUTATION

By J. T. Watkins

We have learned that we can have a bigger and better country club this year than we have ever had, and we urge everyone to join in the effort to cooperate, the superintendent of the Jack son Chickasaw Club said if we would open the barn, he would bring enough White Plymouth Rock pullets to hold us if we would have several more than we have had in mind, the superintendent of last year said.

We wish to notify the members that we are going to make our drive for the best pullet business in the state.

We have the finest young chickens and pullets in the state.

We will not make any promises but we will try to have the best pullet business in the state.

IN MEMORIAM

By custom and appointment, a day is set apart in remembrance of the heroes dead and in acknowledgment of their efforts. It is a day of solemn reflection, a day to tribute our thoughts and hearts, have equal space. The, the perpetuity of time gives us the knowledge that the waves of past generations are present and that the strife of causes and events are stories remembered history. Today in the presence of a nation. At the same time our hearts recall the sacrifice, the devotion, the self-denial, and the discipline of those who have served our country and their countrymen.

GETTING ACQUAINTED

It is usual to speak of the many people in getting acquainted with others. The custom is to associate the person's name, the place and time of meeting, and their personal characteristics. People may meet each other in the street, in the store, or in the home. One's acquaintance may be fostered by mutual respect, by socializing, and by the formation of lasting friendships.

THE ELECTRICAL AGE

The electric age has made a profound impact on the way we live. It has revolutionized our lives, from the home to the workplace. The introduction of electricity has led to the development of many new technologies, including the light bulb, the refrigerator, and the telephone. The electrical age has also made our lives more convenient and efficient. The growth in the use of electricity has led to the development of new industries, such as the automobile industry. The electric age has also made our lives more comfortable, as we have access to a constant supply of energy for heating, lighting, and cooking.
