JUDGE CONTINUED

Many Divorce Cases

The register was opened yesterday morning with the usual formalities, and the examination of witnesses and the making of the bills of complaint proceeded with usual rapidity. Among the cases presented, were a number of divorce suits, the point at issue in all of which was the question of fault in the marriage, the exception being the cases of murder, which are not subject to divorce. The cases were heard in the usual manner, and the rules of evidence were followed in all of them. The cases were disposed of in the usual manner, and the rules of evidence were followed in all of them. KANSAS CITY FOR MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

The issue of the municipal ownership of street railways was the main topic of discussion in the Kansas City office yesterday. The proposition to have the city own and operate the street railways was the subject of much debate, and the question was referred to the voters for their decision. The issue was hotly contested, and the proposition was carried by a vote of 1,000.

Three propositions were submitted to the voters, the first providing for the establishment of a municipal corporation, the second providing for the establishment of a city railway company, and the third providing for the establishment of a private company. The proposition was carried by a vote of 750.

MABEL ATTENDS FIRST MEETING
He Realized Over.

Sam Beadles who has held the living voice of the blind in the hands of the blind, has been the object of renewed attention. He has been the subject of much discussion and speculation among the blind. His voice has been heard in the streets of New York, and his face has been seen in the windows of the blind. He has been the subject of much attention and respect. The blind have been eager to see him and hear him. The sighted have been eager to hear him and see him. The world has been eager to know him and love him.

The blind have been eager to see him and hear him. They have been eager to see his face and hear his voice. They have been eager to know him and love him. The sighted have been eager to hear him and see him. They have been eager to know him and love him.

A Good Game

If true, a Good Game.

After the game, the house of Samuel Crawford, the house of James Howard, was visited by the police. The game was over and the family had returned home. The house was closed and the officers entered. They found the alleyway blocked and the house was deserted.

The Democratic Nominees.

City-elections are largely important in the election of our local officials. The Democrats have nominated a number of men whom they believe to be the best fitted for the positions they seek. Among these are several who have previously held similar offices and have done good service in the discharge of their duties.

The Issues in Paducah.

The Democratic candidate in Paducah is W. J. Miller, who has been a prominent citizen for many years. He is well acquainted with the city and its problems, and he has the support of many influential citizens.
