MURRAY STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

MURRAY, KENTUCKY, DECEMBER 19, 1938

Happy New Year

NUMBER 21

Dr. Carr Celebrates His Seventy-Ninth Birthday

Dean of Murray Has Record of High Achievement

The dean of Kentucky educators, Dr. John Wesley Carr, celebrated his 79th birthday on December 13. Beginning his educational career as an Indiana schoolmaster at the age of 19, he has been a school executive for 60 years.

Dr. Carr was the first president of Murray State College when it was founded in 1923. He was president from 1923-26, dean 1926-33, president and dean 1933-36, and is now dean.

Dean Carr was instrumental in securing for the college its new stadium. He assisted in founding the College News and also gave it its name. The physical education building at Murray is named the Carr Health Building in his honor.

Through achievement as an educator, Dr. Carr's name is included in the "Who's Who of America." He has served in various educational capacities in the states of Indiana, Ohio, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Kentucky and has written several treatises on the subject of education. He is probably the oldest living ex-president of the department of superintendence of the National Education Association. He was founder and president of the Mississippi Valley Conference. To the students and graduates of Murray State College, Dr. John Wesley Carr is a tradition. He is as much a part of the school as the buildings themselves. He is in truth "The Grand Old Man of Murray."

KIAC SEEKS FROSH RULE

Wants SIAA Permission To Play Freshmen in All Minor Sports

A recommendation that the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association permit second-semester freshmen to participate in all minor sports was made at the annual meeting of the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference at Lexington, Ky., December 2.

Athletic Director Carlisle Cutchin and Head Football Coach Roy Stewart represented Murray State College at the meeting.

Other decisions included: The selection of Eastern State Teachers College as host for the KIAC basketball tournament, Centre for the track meet, Morehead for the swimming meet, Berea for the tennis tournament, and Louisville for the golf tournament.

Leaving the basketball court markings the same as last year.

BROTHER RAT IS LISTED BY SOCK-BUSKIN

Dramatics Club To Present Play At College Early Next January

Things were definitely not looking up for Bing Edwards. He was going to become a father and if old Ramrod found out he was married it would mean dismissal from VMI. Then on the eve of the big game, he is commanded to walk penalty torts.

Two cold checks written. His saber in hock. For that saber alone, 20 years pounding rocks.

Would Bing win the VMI award for the best athletic or would it go to that d-n snob Harrington? Bing needed it—for Kate even now in the hospital.

What finally happened made history and in the early part of January, history repeats itself in "Brother Rat" to be given by the Sock and Buskin Club.

The cast will be announced later.

Chorus and A Cappella Choir Present Winter Program

Prof. L. R. Putnam Is Director of Group Singing

Under the capable direction of Prof. L. R. Putnam, Murray State College presented the college chorus and A Cappella Choir in a program of sacred and Christmas music Sunday afternoon, December 11, in the college auditorium.

In addition to the choral music, special parts were presented by: Thelma Marcum, Louisville, soprano soloist; Eleanor Jackson, Paducah, contralto soloist; Eddie West, Highland Park, Ill., clarinetist; ensemble, Marcia McEwen Fox, violin; Daisy Hinkle, cello; Ruth Clark McGovern, piano.

Wells Hall Co-Eds Have Tree That's Unique for Xmas

Peals of laughter! resonant voices of gladness—meek, quiet and serene expressions but all with that hidden note of gaiety have contributed to that characteristic well being "Joy to the World—The Lord has come," as the first sign of yuletide Season makes its debut at Wells Hall.

In this modern world of initiative, new ideas do not stop in classrooms or big lecture halls. They come to dormitories and there invade some responsive mind. A Christmas tree? Certainly we shall have a Christmas tree—and we did.

What's novel about a Christmas tree? Haven't we all had them? Yes, even when we were closely cuddled in our mother's arms and gazed wonderingly at the colorful and dazzling lights.

But it is different—the huge Christmas tree in Wells Hall is new as it gradually takes on varied forms of splendor which emphasizes the prevailing spirit. Some resourceful individual had an idea. The idea worked.

Why couldn't each pair of roommates place some ornamental decoration on the Christmas tree? The name of each contributor placed on the ornament shows from year to year, as each piece is to be reused.

The mighty tree stretches forth its arms willingly unfolding to all "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men," as it constantly takes on numerous and versatile forms of splendor as each individual ties her token of gratitude to some twig.

30 ADMITTED TO SOCK AND BUSKIN

Dramatics Club Has Banquet at National Hotel for New Members

Thirty new members were welcomed into the Sock and Buskin Club by Morris Adair, the president, at the banquet held at the National Hotel Tuesday evening, December 13. Wayne Moore, representative of the pledges made the response.

Miss June Dixon, accompanied by Miss Mary Anna Jenkins, sang "Toys."

Prof. Doyle, Mrs. C. S. Lowry, and Miss Helen Thornton in their after dinner speeches prophesied a brilliant future for the club. A 1-act play, "They Criticized and How," was presented under the direction of Miss Beaman.

After the banquet the members returned to the auditorium where the formal candle light service was held.

The new members are: Martha Beaman, Lucille Pollard, Fish, Margaret Muse, Linda Sullivan, Marjorie Price, Thomas Stokes, David Boaz, Mable Wright, Dorris Church, Wayne Moore, Margaret Jones, Mary Anna Jenkins, Betty Jean Adair, Marjorie Joiner, Charles Henson, Lily Atkins, Frances Perdue, Maryne Farmer, Prudie Mathis, Virginia Ann Breckenridge, Harold Riddle, Radford Glass, Joe Fitch, Jack Bullis, Bob St. John, William Woodson, James Stevens.

This was the first program of the Community Concert Association and many from Murray, Paris, Paducah and other towns were present.

According to those who attended the program, the numbers were appropriately selected and artistically presented, reflecting the careful and earnest instruction of Mr. Putnam and the excellence of the individual and blended voices of the participants. The accompaniment was in every respect excellent.

The program: "Roll, Chariot! Noble Cain; "Hear My Prayer" (Sacred Cantata), Mendelssohn; "The Virgin's Lullaby," Dudley Buck, Eleanor Jackson, contralto—ensemble accompaniment; "O Come, Let Us Worship," Tschakowsky-Norden; "Silent Night," Gruber; "Hallelujah Chorus" (Messiah) Handel.

Special applause was accorded the presentation of "Silent Night" which was sung by two choral groups—one on the stage, the other back of the wings.

MURRAY WILL BE REPRESENTED AT MEETING OF SIAA

Carlisle Cutchin, and Stewart to Attend Session at Atlanta

EXPECT TO COMPLETE GRID, CAGE SCHEDULE

The forty-fourth annual meeting of the SIAA, one of the oldest and largest associations of its kind in the United States, will be held at Atlanta, Ga., December 16 and 17, with Dr. J. W. Province of Mississippi College presiding.

Murray will have as its representative at this meeting, Carlisle Cutchin, head coach of basketball, and Roy Stewart, head football coach. The coaches hope to be able to fill their schedules for the coming year, both in basketball and football, at this meeting.

This will be the ninth meeting of the organization since Murray became a member on December 15, 1930.

The Thoroughbreds were placed on probation at a meeting of this body at Mobile, Ala., December 16, 1929, following an application for membership.

Wrather Prepares for Interscholastic at Murray State

According to M. O. Wrather, member of the extension department of Murray State College, the annual interscholastic meet will be held in Murray in the early spring. The exact date will be made known soon, but will probably be the latter part of March.

Mr. Wrather states that he has visited Mayfield, Clinton, Wickliffe, and Benton in the interest of the meet and the principals tell him that they and the schools in the surrounding territories expect to send representatives in music and oratory to the meeting.

A great interest should be shown in this meeting since it does much in the finer development of the high school pupil and may also help in acquainting him with the college, according to Mr. Wrather.

MELTON THRILLS MUSIC LOVERS

Tenor Presents Variety of Vocal Solos for Large Audience

James Melton, golden voiced American tenor and grand opera's newest hero, thrilled a large attentive audience Saturday evening, December 3, in the auditorium of Murray State College. Singing in the easy and natural way for which he is famous, he presented a variety of classical, semi-classical and "old favorites."

When the enthusiasm for the selections of Southern melodies became so great that it looked like an all night affair, Mr. Melton smiled and said, "Don't you people ever go home?"

Tall, handsome, and possessing a sterling personality, he delighted his audience of Southern people both young and old.

This was the first program of the Community Concert Association and many from Murray, Paris, Paducah and other towns were present.

Reader Enjoys C-N Editorial

The College News, Murray, Kentucky

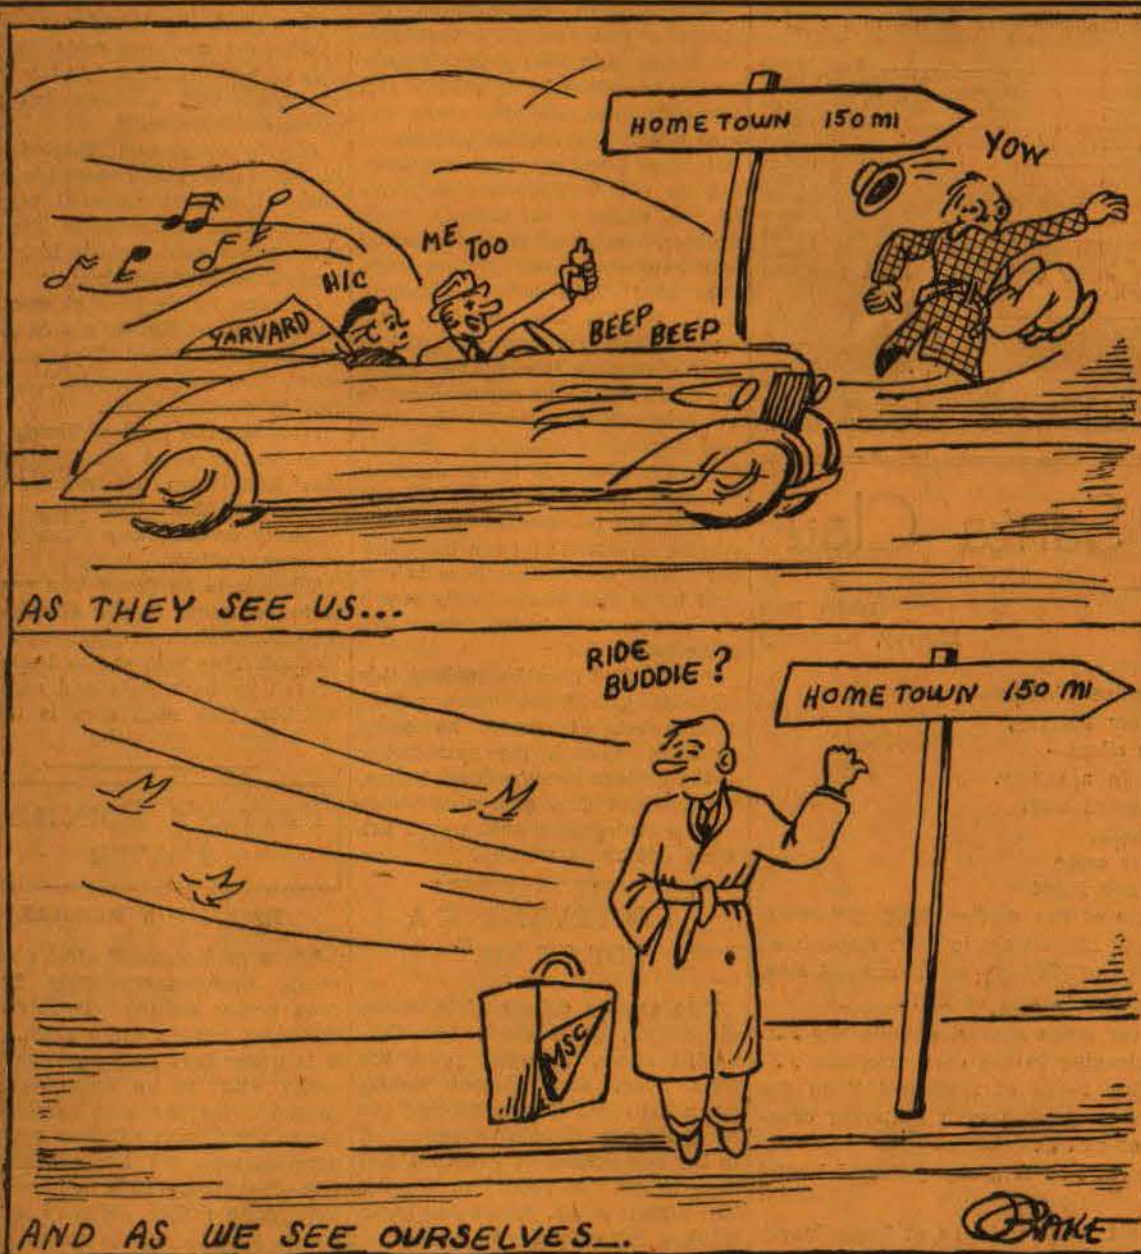

In your issue of December 5, we were pleased to see that the College News won three prizes in the state contest. Success to you!

"The Uninvited Guest" by Jerry Hammack is by far the most prize-worthy article in the "News." It teaches a wonderful lesson. May we all be helped by the inspiration contained therein.

Think what it would mean if the whole world realized the presence of the Uninvited Guest! No more wars, but hearts filled with love and brotherly kindness. Mrs. Sallie B. Samuel, Mayfield, Kentucky.

The program included: "Manx Overture," Haydn Wood; "Symphony No. 2," Brahms; four selections by the girls' glee club; "Air on the G String," Bach-Fox; "Slavonic Rhapsody, No. 2," Friedmann. Program notes were prepared and read by Edward West.

Museum Project is Opened In Library at Murray College

One of the state-wide museum projects, sponsored by the Kentucky State department of education, has been started here with offices in the basement of the library building.

It is the purpose of the project to prepare museum exhibits suitable for class room instruction and to perform the necessary preliminary reference work for the construction of displays.

Mrs. Dorothy D. Blackwell is the supervisor of the several state-wide museum projects in Kentucky.

The office was opened on November 14 under the supervision of C. Wesley Kemper, John Worth and Colonel Lucien Beckner, geologists, from the state office in Louisville, assisted in the opening of the project by classifying numerous fossils, shells, and minerals which will later be put on exhibition in the exhibit room on the third floor of the library.

Mr. Worth and Colonel Beckner plan to return later and complete their work of classifying several thousand other specimens pertaining to their field.

The state wide museum project is prepared to offer invaluable assistance to the Murray College Museum through its state wide organization which specializes in all fields of museum work.

Centered around the museum at Murray will be specimens from the Jackson Purchase.

An exhibit room on the third floor of the library has been completely redecorated. Cases are being refinished and exhibits are being prepared and every effort is being made to open the museum at an early date.

A Letter To Santa Claus

Wells Hall
Murray, Kentucky

Dear Santa Claus:

'Tis the week before Christmas, and all over Murray, Not a creature is silent—they're all in a hurry. The dorm is bedecked with traditional holly. For the season has come to be merry and jolly!

Yes, Santa, the scintillating spirit of the card-mailing, gift-swapping season has swept over the campus like an arctic draft through an open door. And Wells Hall, that mecca of "Murray-maid"-minded men, is a bright and glowing example of the "Spirit of '25"!

Windows which are blue-and-silver strips against a sable sky... Within, cheerful flames licking and leaping in the open fireplace... Cedar boughs above... and daring twigs of mistletoe! Then the masterful tree itself—tall and domineering, with each glittering ornament proudly autographed by some co-ed...

The thought that at this time next week we'll be at home leaves us wide-eyed and open-mouthed! I do hope that you can find all of us, Santa. Specially "Loopy" Loriaux, Sandy—I think it's time he had his first pair of long pants now! And Minky needs some skis to match her ski cap... Maybe a compass would help Jitterbug to get his bearings... And please, dear Santa, bring the all-girl orchestra another tune to play! I think it would be awfully nice, too, to bring Offerman's dance band just cups and cups of steaming, black coffee—they're going to need it during this madcap Tom-and-Jerry, holly-and-berry time! And if it isn't asking too much, Nicky, we'd all like to have lots of nuts and candies and A's and things...

I've gone through a most dreadful brow-knitting, pencil-chewing siege of trying to think of what to give Cousin Arbella and Uncle Cuthbert—I only hope we're forgiven our Christmases as we forgive those who Christmas against us!

Lovingly,
Kampus Kay.

IN APPRECIATION

The College News wishes to devote this portion of its space to the one person to whom it owes, to a large extent, its whole existence. December 13 was the seventieth birthday of the man who was largely responsible for the organization of this paper. It was he who gave it the name it now bears—a name the very simplicity of which makes it distinctive.

Dr. John Wesley Carr, the dean of Kentucky educators and the first president of Murray State, is that man.

Dr. Carr, the staff of the College News wishes to express to you its sincere appreciation for all that you have done for this paper.

—for the high ideals you have constantly held before us. As students of the college, we are aware of, and deeply grateful for, that untiring and devoted support of yours which has made your institution and our future alma mater all that it is today.

We wish you many more supremely happy birthdays and a very pleasant Christmas season.

Says FDR:

"Actually, I am an exceedingly mild-mannered person—a practitioner of peace, both domestic and foreign, a believer in the capitalistic system, and for my breakfast a devotee of scrambled eggs."

GREETINGS

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR

Build for a Better Year

May Christmas bring you joy and each day of the year add to your joy!

MURRAY LUMBER CO.

A Champion Needed

Often here on our campus, we see the need of such and such a project and voice our opinions and desires for the promotion of that idea. In most cases, the idea is so far along and so much agitated that it hardly needs one to champion it—just requires someone to draw together those individuals who can assemble the facts and figures and work out a plan of progression.

The Student Organization deserves a good round of applause for doing just that thing. Thanks to the president of this body and his colleagues, definite plans are now under way for the erection of two large overhead signs announcing to the traveler his entrance to the campus of Murray State College. Long needed, long wanted and long (too long) getting here.

So be it with radio at Murray State, that is long needed, long wanted, etc. But to build a radio station on the grounds where the radio itself was invented, needs not only one to assemble the facts and figures—a champion of that project is definitely in the demand! Someone is needed who is big enough to be heeded when he speaks, someone who can but show the simple truth—that there is one gold brick that is absolutely worth its entire weight in any man's monetary units!

Should that man be reading this editorial and want some values enumerated, of course, he could go back through the past issues of the College News editorial page, but couldn't that person visualize what a real project that would be? What one more worthy?

"I GOTTA THINK A LOT OF ME"

Two comely college girls, wearing bright, plaid skirts and flat-heeled shoes, emerged from the class room and tripped lightly down the steps. On the landing one of the girls flippantly remarked to her companion, "I guess I'll just have to get that report, or I won't like myself much. And I just gotta think a lot of me, you know!"

Little did the gay, young sage realize the wisdom of those carelessly spoken words. Of course, she must "think a lot of herself." Just as a salesman must have utmost confidence in the value of the product which he is trying to sell, it is necessary for an individual to believe in himself and in his real worth before he can be assured of his fellow man's belief in him.

How can he know himself? By introspection. By careful, close scrutiny he comes to realize his abilities, his talents, his possibilities. He sees his wants and desires, his likes and dislikes. He differentiates between his faults and his merits, the undesirable and the desirable. And, above all, he is frank and fair in this self-examination.

"I never can hide myself from me; I see what others may never see; I know what others may never know; I never can fool myself, and so, whatever happens, I want to be Self-respecting and conscience-free."

I don't want to keep on a closet shelf. A lot of secrets about myself. And fool myself as I come and go into thinking that nobody else will know. The kind of person I really am; I don't want to dress myself in shame!

(Author Unknown)

Yes, know thyself. "Trust thyself: every heart vibrates to that iron string." Such was the essence of the doctrines of Emerson—a higher individualism.

STEPPING ALONG!

The appointment of Mr. Moore as head track coach and the announcement that Murray will have a varsity track team will meet with the hearty approval of the students, faculty, alumni, and friends of this institution.

The College News believes Mr. Moore is eminently qualified by training and experience for this task and it herewith extends to him and his team its pledge of hearty cooperation and sympathetic appreciation.

Situated in the heart of United States, Murray should become outstanding not merely in football, basketball, and music, but in all forms of intercollegiate and intramural endeavor.

Congrats, Mr. Moore!

Anderson Named on Men's Quartet

Sam Anderson, sophomore from Madisonville, was chosen to fill the vacancy in the men's quartet left by Doris O'Dell, who has withdrawn from school to work in a department store.

"HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE"

Today an obligation is facing every student in Murray College and every citizen in Calloway county. That obligation is to pay tribute and respect to the outstanding individual that this section has ever produced.

Nathan B. Stubblefield, through his invention of radio, has rendered a positive contribution to the happiness and prosperity of men and women the world over. Misunderstood and neglected in life, this man died a martyr to the cause of intellectual advancement and pioneer achievement.

A year or so ago Marconi died in Italy and was honored with a national funeral, national respect, and national devotion. In life this same man's achievement had been recognized and exalted.

Citizens, let us look at our side of the picture. Let us see how our genius was treated. The story is short. Non-recognition in life, neglect in death.

America, the land of liberty and opportunity, must somehow erase this blot from its record. The leadership for this task falls squarely on Calloway County, and Murray College.

What is to be done? The answer is to be found in the creation of a National Park in honor of Stubblefield. This project has been approved by both state and national officials. The next step is up to us.

PEYTON'S POINTLESS PATTERN

By PEYTON RUSSELL

'Tis a sad state of affairs when youth becomes cynically bitten even before ceasing to be naive. Yet this does happen quite often. And it is queer that young people who really want to be clean and respectable are prone to admire the shady adventures of their contemporaries who are less discriminating—that there is a tendency to exaggerate rather ordinary experiences and to try to make them appear worldly-vulgar even.

This isn't a common trait of all people of our age, however, and there is a brighter side to this matter, at least.

While washing glass laboratory containers just outside the administration building, a student picked up a damaged one. "Would this break," he wonders. Being a realistic scientist, he experiments—against a brick wall. It did.

SOCIAL SCIENTIST
A social science professor instituted a system of giving "pop quizzes" for a few days to get his students to read. What were the results? One in the library at chapel hour really reading history.

STRATEGY
A freshman sent one of his teachers a note November 23 saying he was nearly drowned playing water polo. About 2 o'clock, while catching a ride to Mayfield, his conscience began to bother him. "Bet she thinks I am nearly dead by this time." (I suspect she has received such notes and excuses on the eve of holidays before.)

NICE PEOPLE
Two handsome couples on the campus usually seen together, always dignified: Wells, Applegate and Marshall, Davis. I am sure there are others falling in the same category—most could—but many do not.

BRIGHT NOTES
These are a few of the things that give variety and color to this sometimes monotonous life of a student: Miss Linn's new hair-do, Mrs. Hicks' neatly manicured and conservatively tinted finger nails, and Mr. Lowry's cheerfully crimson cravat. Also, the story I chanced to hear about some professor who intended to give a test on Friday, but forgot it. Monday he read out the grades.

INCIDENTALLY
Smythe, there was a finger bowl game this year—for high school, six-man football teams in a Texas town. Evidently I don't adhere to a policy of Odd McIntyre's, of never reading the work of another columnist for fear of an unconscious imitation of the style or phraseology of another writer.

THINGS WE APPRECIATE
The generosity of people who drive cars which causes them to waste time and gas to let us ride; the assumption of some teachers that we have a certain degree of intelligence even though our responses to questions, oral and written, seem to be prima facie evidence of the fact that we are imbeciles.

Considers Bus-Line
Wildy Berry, former student of Murray State College, told the College News today he is considering the advisability of establishing a bus-line from the city to college.

If the plan meets with the approval of the college students, he proposes to operate a 15-passenger bus, making a trip every 30 minutes. Fare, he says, would be 5c each way.

STABLE NOTES

By Marshall Wyatt

I'm an educated man now, according to my future sparring partner in the column business. Just came back from Danville and the "jitterbug" says I can continue with my debut as a columnist.

There is one thing a person should do when he talks of traveling and that is see Kentucky first. This was my first trip past the heights of Bowling Green, usually getting about to the top of Western hill and doing like the rest, falling backwards. It was an interesting trip for one of very little knowledge of his home state. Many interesting things were seen and the only blur was the wise-cracks of "plumLAD" Kellow. Of course he had made this trip several times and tried to assume the position as a tourist guide. Very good work was done by this young lad at some of the historical spots we visited or passed by.

MURRAY IS THE PLACE:

After having a look at "Life" at the great University of Kentucky I have decided that Murray State is a real State. You can get by with a "T" Model Ford here but in my opinion Streamlined Airplanes were a bit slow for the State students. Occasionally I could see with a hurried glance who went by, but that was all, a glimpse. For personal references as to how to get along at the University I would refer you to two young ladies by name of "Bibbo" and "Martha Jane," two very much learned personalities, on "How to hold your Pace". I'll choose Murray where a man can speak to a fellow student and say "I've at least seen him before."

THREE LIMELIGHTERS AT IT AGAIN:

Three of Murray's most fortunate "limelighters" have succeeded in taking the spot again from other schools in the state. "Seabiscuit" McRaven, "Jughead" Mitchell, and Coach Stewart were featured in Wednesday's, December 7, Courier-Journal, with beautiful pictures of them. Especially our coach, who most assuredly had on a hat of some description.

DOES IT EVER SNOW?

One of those dead, dead, southern freshmen ladies wanted to know if it was going to snow up heah in the Nauth this winter. She had better keep on wishing for this good weather because once it gets started had it doesn't "evah stop up heah in the Nauth".

THANKS TO THE MEMPHIANS:

Many sincere thanks should be given to the Memphis citizens who most graciously presented the Murray State band with a electric lighted, twirling baton. This baton was presented to Jim Davis, drum major, by Mayor George Hart in chapel. It was a gift for the excellent performance by the band at the Southwestern game and the meeting of delegates from Memphis by the Murray band.

FIGURES DON'T LIE, BUT...

Murray Is Doped Better Than Any Team in Nation This Year

While claims and counter-claims are being filed claiming the national championship, it might be well for Murray to enter her claim to the championship on the basis of comparative scores.

To begin with Murray tied Southwestern, 6-0; Southwestern beat Sewanee, 47-0. By these figures we can see that Murray is 47 points better than Sewanee. Florida beat Sewanee 10-7; thus Murray shows a 44 point margin over Florida. Florida tied Georgia Tech, 0-0; thus Murray is 44 points better than Georgia Tech. Notre Dame is only 8 points better than Georgia Tech, Notre Dame is only 8 points better than Georgia Tech, Notre Dame 14, Georgia Tech 6; therefore Murray is 36 points better than Notre Dame. Notre Dame beat Carnegie Tech, 7-0, so Murray is 43 points better than Carnegie Tech and 53 points better than Pittsburgh. Duke is 7 points better than Pittsburgh so Murray could beat Duke 53-7.

Other Bowl teams are also weaker than Murray as evidenced by Murray's 24 point superiority over Tennessee. Tennessee beat Sewanee 26-3 thus Murray is the difference in the comparative scores better than Tennessee. Tennessee is 14 points better than Alabama, so Murray is 38 points better than Alabama and 50 points better than Southern California, whom Alabama beat 19-7. To prove Murray is better than all the Bowl teams we have only to prove their superiority over Texas Christian recently voted the best in the nation by the Associated Press.

Murray's 53 point margin over Pitt and Pitt's four touchdown margin over Southern Methodist makes Murray 80 points better than SMU. Texas is only 13 points better than SMU so Murray has 67 points margin over the nation's champions.

Daniel Boone Enters College

American history boasts about the feats of Daniel Boone who helped to scare the Indians away and settle the frontiers of Kentucky and Arkansas. Does history have anything on Murray State? We should say not—Murray State College has a Daniel Boone even if he does drive a red truck instead of swinging around on grapevines.

In an interview, Boone, who is a freshman in college here, stated that he is from Blytheville, Ark., but is living in Murray now with his brothers.

When asked what he thinks of Murray, Daniel declined to give his personal opinion, but did say that he thinks the democratic attitude of the students' fellowship has been rather over-rated, for he thinks there are definite cliques on the campus. To him, the most outstanding characteristic of the students' relationship is the attitude on the dance floor, for this, he finds, is much more congenial.

INK SPLASHES

By Pat Wear

With one vacation over and another one coming on it is rather difficult for ye old student to settle down to studying again. It takes a week to recuperate from the Thanksgiving vacation, and then we look forward two weeks to Christmas and then it will take a couple of weeks to get back in line again and by that time final exams will catch us for all we are worth. Some future.

With the number of Bowl games being played this year the people that live across the seas think that we do not eat out of anything but bowls. Why not a platter game, etc.

Maybe our culture ain't so decadent after all as Brother Brinn and Miller fought it out against and with the Englishmen Noakes and Mayhew. Bombastic bickerings belengured both bands, bouncing blithely 'bout baby bottles, bugs and many other bodacious forms of our culture and finally ending in the fact maybe we are cultured after all.

Vivace Members Guests at Dance Given by Phi Mu

Sock and Buskin Constitution Is Approved by Club

The new constitution was presented to the Sock and Buskin by Charles Henry Stamps at the regular meeting Tuesday evening, December 6, in the little chapel. It was adopted by an unanimous vote of the members.

Wayne Moore, was elected vice-president. He will take the place of Doris Odell of Calvert City, who has withdrawn from school.

Plans for the page in the annual were also discussed.

Cutchinmen May Develop New Style of Offense Play

Tentative Trip To Louisville Is Planned

Faced with the necessity of developing an entirely new attack, Coach Carlisle Cutchin's basketball team, who will represent Murray on the hardwood during the coming season, settled down to serious work this week, in order to get ready for a tentatively scheduled trip to Louisville sometime during the holidays.

Last season's attack, built around three great stars, Magruder, McKeel, and Burdette, was founded on the Thoroughbreds' ability to handle the ball accurately in the air, while Racehorse opposition struggled to reach the sphere. This season, with a new group of goal-shooters and a much smaller team, Cutchin is forced to change the Blueblood style into a slow, deliberate offense, with a tenacious man-for-man defense. It is these things that the Murraymen are striving for at present.

The team will be built around Captain Gene Bland. All SIAA guard, and Buck Hurley, Ralph Love, Walter Murray, and Bill Carneal, all returning lettermen. Sophomores who are showing up well include Leslie "Little Mac" McKeel, Bill McMurray, 6'6" center; Lon Wright, 6'4" twist-shot artist; Ned Washer, 6'4" pivot ace; and Novice Copeland. Squadmen Bob Brown, Hastings Kenney, and Jimmy Mitchell, together with a junior college transfer, Walter Wilson, and Carlisle Wallis, make up the personnel of the squad.

Coach Cutchin expressed the view that the team would be brought along slowly this season, with an eye on the tournaments, and a halfway glance toward next season.

THREE 'BREDS' NAMED ON AP ALL-AMERICA

Gudauskas, McRaven and Deibert Honored

For the third successive year, Murray State College was represented on the third annual Associated Press Little All-America squad, when Pete Gudauskas, junior tackle, was named on the second team and seniors Captain Dale Deibert, end, and Bill McRaven, back, were given honorable mention.

Last year former Captain Elmer Cochran, guard, was placed on the first team, while Thompson, Hardin, and Deibert were listed as honorable mention. In 1936, Bill Thompson was placed on the squad.

Gudauskas, as a sophomore made the All-KIAC team, and repeated this year. He has a record of 34 place kicks in 36 attempts, missing goals in the Southwestern and Union games this year. McRaven, who averaged slightly less than 12 yards per try this year in running, averaged 42 yards in punting, and scored nine touchdowns in as many games, made the All-KIAC second team last year, and was on the first team this season. Deibert, on the KIAC second team last year, made the first team this year.

THEATRE PARTY PLANNED

A theatre party for members of the Hickman County Club was planned at a meeting on Monday night, December 12, in the administration building. The party will be December 27, at the Strand Theatre in Clinton, Ky.

8 SENIORS PLAY WITH ALL-STARS IN CHARITY TILT

Tanks Win by 18-0 in Louisville Game
December 10

4000 SEE ENCOUNTER IN DUPONT MANUAL FIELD

Eight Murray College seniors were members of the KIAC All-Stars who were defeated by the Louisville Tanks, December 10, 18-0, in duPont Manual stadium before over 4000 fans.

Applegate and Neese in the line, and Jasper in the backfield were Murray's outstanding men, with Mitchell doing an excellent job in his first assignment at blocking back. Putnam played his usual cool game at center. Several of the Murray boys were offered pro contracts, but none has announced as to whether he will consider them or not.

Gridders Are Guests of Business Men at New National Hotel

The entire squad and coaching staff of the Thoroughbred football team were guests Monday night, December 12, of the Young Men's Business Club of Murray at a banquet at the National Hotel.

The club's president, Hershel Corn, presided, and the team's co-captain, Charles T. Yarbrough, presented the individual members of the squad.

Among those called on for short speeches were Max Hurt, Head Coach Stewart, Line Coach Moore, Basketball Coach Cutchin, L. J. Horton, head of the college publicity department, T. Sledd, and C. L. Sharborough.

Mrs. Finley Is Murray Booster

In a modest garage apartment on Main street resides a newcomer to the Murray campus—Mrs. Hugh Finley, wife of the Thoroughbred quarterback and president of the Student Organization.

When asked how she read the school of Murray State, Mrs. Finley replied: "I consider it one of the best in the South. I would like to say that I think the college is very fortunate in having Dr. Richmond as its president."

A pleasing compliment was passed on the student body when Mrs. Finley stated: "The students are all very friendly and seem to have a good school spirit. You can tell that they are for Murray. They also seem to realize the value of a college education."

The 1938 Thoroughbred football team, in her opinion, was the greatest in the history of the school considering the schedule and the outcome of the games.

As for keeping house for the president of the student body, Mrs. Finley thinks that Hugh is as easily pleased as any man could be.

Before her marriage she was Miss Margaret Pate of Dyersburg, Tenn. She received her first diploma from the Dyersburg High School and later attended the Tennessee College at Murfreesboro.

TRAINING SCHOOL

A large crowd of Training School and college students attended the show given by Carl Burgess, well-known ventriloquist and magician, at the college auditorium on Tuesday night, December 6.

The Training School sponsored the show. Burgess makes schools a specialty in his tours, and built his program around local students, to some extent.

Miss Clara Rimmer entertained the first and second years' French class Thursday night, December 8, at the home of Mrs. E. B. Houston.

Fats to Fight Featherweights in Faculty Fracas Friday, 13th

Battle of Brains? and Brawn? Billed

When the "Fats" meet the "Leans" here Friday, January 13, basketball fans of Western Kentucky will have a chance to see the titanic struggle of the new year.

The two basketball teams will be composed of Murray College faculty members selected by the Agriculture Club, sponsor of the tilt.

This battle of weights—heavy, feather, and wait for shots—is designed to settle the query, "Who is better, a fat man or a lean man?" . . . And anything can happen on Friday, the thirteenth . . .

New stars and old, will flash or flop across the hardwood as the Fats will display such artists as: Capt. "Speedy" Carman, "Indiana Hotshot" Ashcraft, "Deadeye" Derryberry, "Can't Wait" Thurman, "Thoroughbreds" Miller and Gibson, and the famous standing guards, Pennebaker and Johnson.

The Leans will shoot the works with such stellar basketweavers as those two wraiths of the woods, Lowry and Fowler, Capt. "Do-or-Die" Howton, "Gloomy Stew" Stewart, "Gezill" Moore, (arch enemy of "Flash" Ashcraft), "Maestro" McGavern, "Shadow" Brown, and "Shorty-the Slug" Beale.

Headquarters for the Leans announced today they were training on fat meat, while the Fats were conditioning themselves by "jitterbugging" at the Hut and Collegiate.

Friday, the thirteenth, will be unlucky for their opponents, both teams declare.

Will the Fats be sliced like bacon, or will the Leans be tied in knots? Game time: 7:30 p. m., January 13.

MURRAY IS ONLY COLLEGE TO PLACE TWO MEN ON ALL-SIAA

Gudauskas, McRaven
Make AP First Team

Pete Gudauskas and Bill McRaven received additional honor when the Associated Press named both on the All-SIAA first team, announced last week-end.

There were 10 schools represented, out of the 30-odd SIAA members, Murray being the only school having two men on the first eleven.

Other schools represented were Morehead, Western, Centre, West Tennessee, Mississippi College, Presbyterian, Southwest Louisiana, Miami, and Centenary.

Dorm Doings By ELDRED HILL

Now after the football season is over there seems to be a lull in the usual dorm atmosphere, but sooner or later there will be the basketball season.

Familiar sights of the men's dormitory will be shown in this year's yearbook from pictures taken by Sanford Davis—The Hamby photographers have competition, Carlisle Wallis' feature snapshots.

"Any candy boys-laundry, cleaning, pressing—say when are you going to slip me a check?" will be missed from Dorso O'Dell who left us at the end of the nine weeks. . . . We have three new boys: Joe Shallebarger, Bill Carneal, and Roy Davis who moved in the dorm this nine weeks. . . .

We are wondering if Will Ben "Sugar-bowl" Jones is ready for another, classy, fifteen cent bob, the newest creation in men's haircuts. . . . Who is the disturber of early-to-bed boys? Can it be the "radioers," checker kings, or card sharks? Well we are just wondering. . . . Lucien Cornwell has hopes of receiving a patent (or maybe a big tomato) for his new dance which he practices each night. He calls it the "Hopping Jitterbug Fling." . . . Hal Saunders has acquired a new partner in the candy business, Bob Butterworth—Just who are the owners of that red-blue, orange, and what-have-you colored "Mercury" that sits out front? . . . "Draft" is giving favorable assistance to his dancing roommate by obtaining a "cracker-box" radio. . . . Hooray we've got class bells at last! Boys what will be your excuse now (being late to classes you know)? . . .

—Our little pleasant smile Bob Beale has been ill during the past two days and hasn't felt like entertaining the boys as he has in the past—Just who will take O'Dell's place in the boys' quartet? We feel that it will be a contest between Tom Atwell and Cobble Lee. Sing out boys.—

Miss Adrianna Young, a freshman of Murray State, left Wednesday morning, December 7, for her home at Neptune, N. J., where she will spend the holidays. She will work at a photography studio where she will tint photographs. Miss Young, talented in music, as well as art, chose Murray for her college training because of its high ranking music department.

TRACK PROSPECTS LOOK ENCOURAGING AT MURRAY

Track Coach

JAMES MOORE

Team To Be Tall Again This Year

The Murray fans believed this year that the Thoroughbred basketball team would have the lack of competitive height. Well, fans, look at this: Ned Washer 6'4, Leon Wright 6'3, Leslie McKeel 6'3 1/2, William MacMurray 6'5, Dale Deibert 6'2, Robert Brown 6'2, Gene Bland 6'2. So fans, we ask you not to have your hopes dimmed because you think the 'Breds will not have enough height to be in competition with other colleges. "Believe it or not" this year's 'cage team' will equal last year's team in height.

Seven Pledged to Dramatics Frat

Seven Sock and Buskin members were pledged to the Gamma Epsilon cast of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic fraternity, at the Sock and Buskin's banquet Tuesday evening, December 13.

Those pledged were: Martha Beaman, Carleen Caudill, Peggy Cox, Charles Henry Stamps, Tom Veazy, Virgil Gypson, and Lucille Pollard. These members were selected on their scholarship and their outstanding work in dramatics.

College classes will reconvene on Monday morning, January 2, 1938.

Murray State's track team looks encouraging even after two great losses such as Ross Magruder who accounted for 21 points against the Hilltoppers last spring at Murray, and Bill Thompson who set a state record in the 220-yard dash at the state meet.

The Thoroughbreds will take on Southern Illinois and Western and participate in the state meet. Coach Moore stated there are a few more meets that will be announced later to complete the schedule.

Among the several promising sophomores is Frances La Bonte. Coach Moore encourages all who are interested to come out this spring.

CO-EDS HAVE NEW RADIO FOR XMAS

Christmas Tree Is Feature of Program at Hall Wednesday, December 14

A new radio was presented to the co-eds of Wells Hall when the annual Christmas party was held at the dormitory Wednesday evening, December 14, at 9.30. The radio is one of the most modern of its type, and has a shift record victrola attachment.

A huge Christmas tree and lovely yuletide decorations in blue and silver seemed to spread the spirit of the season as the girls sang carols, and exchanged gifts. There was also a program with Miss Dorothy Norris in charge, after which refreshments were served.

A formal Christmas dinner was enjoyed by the students in Wells Hall, Thursday, December 15, at 6 p. m. This was the first formal dinner to be held at the dorm this year.

Gammas Entertain Faculty Members

The Women's Music Fraternity entertained the music faculty members in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McGovern on Sunday, December 11, at 4 o'clock.

A musical program arranged by the Pi Gammas consisted of three flute solos by Lena Frances Mitchell; "Caucasian" by Joseph Steiner; "Syrinx" by Debussy, and an "Aria" by Albert Russel. She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Katie Cost.

Miss Frances Wake sang three numbers: "At the Cry of the First Bird" by Guion, "A Star and My Heart" by Eddie West, and "The Day is No More" by Carpenter.

Refreshments were served by the Pi Gammas.

The Pi Gammas held their regular meeting on Wednesday, December 14, at the home of Miss Daisy Hinkle.

There were informal discussions and no program. Miss Hinkle served refreshments to the Pi Gamma members.

Five Games Are Listed for 1939

Murray State College's grid schedule, incomplete at present, has five games on the card thus far. Middle Tennessee, Union, Morehead, East Texas Teachers, of Commerce, and Western will be met. The East Texas game will probably be the Homecoming attraction.

Coach Stewart indicated that something definite might be known as to possible Thoroughbred opposition after the SIAA meeting is over. Four more games are definitely "under fire," and should they be placed on the card, Murray fans will see a stronger schedule than the one of a year ago.

Kellowatts

BY EDD KELLOW

Everybody seems to have an "All-Star" fever, and is comparing selections on one team and another.

Stan Radjunas, who missed the All-KIAC teams, was the unanimous choice of Murray squad members for the outstanding linesman they met all year. . . . Murray's schedule should be a whiz next season when it is released.

With Carneal back in school, Murray's basketball season should be almost as good as last. . . . Freshman prospects were never better here, either. . . . Union College has the best chance of upsetting Western's KIAC championship in basketball that any team has had in years. . . . The Toppers are reportedly as strong if not stronger than last year. . . . West Tennessee received the invitation to the coast for a New Year's Day football game, the one Murray was hoping for before November 19. . . . Arkansas State Teachers, of Conway, will play Maryville, Mo. Teachers in a post season contest at Little Rock. . . . Murray's Frosh received a bid to play a post-season game back in Florida after defeating Buzz Borries and his Pensacola Naval Base. . . . To yours truly, it is the outstanding football achievement at Murray during the past season. . . . Headlines in a Florida paper read "Murray Frosh Wallop Borries and the Navy 19-7."

Murray will put a varsity boxing team in the ring for the first time in history this year. . . . Prospects are fairly bright with Garrett, Nanney, Levandoski, Noel, Donoho, and Morris all hanging around the ropes. . . .

Add to the "13" story: 13 Murray players named on All-KIAC selections. . . .

McRaven's run of 57 yards before being yanked down from behind by McKinnon on the Hardin-Simmons 6-yard stripe, with the score 0-7, the Thoroughbreds trailing. . . . McRaven's pass interception and 71-yard runback for a touchdown in the first minute against Morehead's Eagles. . . . Jasper's 85-yard kick-off return for a touchdown in the opening play of the Union game. . . . Murphy's kick out of bounds on the 1-yard line in the first period of the Murray-Western game. . . . Cobble Lee's driving for four yards with the ball in mid-field, fourth down and four to go against Hardin-Simmons.

Bibich's 77-yard run off-tackle just as Murray appeared to be on the road to an apparent touchdown. . . . Gudauskas missing his first extra point of his collegiate career at Union. . . . Gudauskas missing his second extra point against Southwestern. . . . French misses the extra point for Southwestern with the score 6-6. . . . ## KAMPUS KALEIDOSCOPE

At last it is here—the Christmas vacation we have been looking forward to every since September. No more 7:30 classes for two weeks! No more getting up at the crack of dawn! Gosh, won't it be swell? Two weeks of perfect enjoyment!

Speaking of basketball—Our Freshmen really played a good game. But the most important thing was the discovery that the team has not only a Gene Raymond but also a Robert Taylor. We call them Jim Edd Manning and Vic Fucillo.

Congratulations to the girls' swing orchestra! It is the first successful organization of its kind on the campus. You were swell, girls, just continue. . . . just continue. . . .

"Day After Day"—all of us going to classes.

"Tea For Two"—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Finley.

Songs they DON'T remind us of: "Sophisticated Lady"—Dot Cason.

"Small Fry"—McMurray.

"Two Sleepy People"—Dot Norris and Jerry Hammack.

"Now It Can Be Told"—the students of chemistry class.

"Foot Loose and Fancy Free"—Joe Banken.

Seen around the campus: Three of our cute Freshman girls, Virginia Loyce Bealmear, Mariann Clark, and Marie Clodfelter escorted by James Allen Mitchell, Tom Stevenson, and Harold Gilbert. . . . Musicians playing football on Saturday afternoon. . . . Mr. Mellen smoking his pipe. . . . Two professional dancers, Minky Wake and "Knockout" Brown swinging at the La Hute. . . . J. I. Hosick and Nancy Omar strolling around the campus. . . .
