MOUNT'S CASE BEING DECIDED

Judge Kennedy, and said him over simply as Mount, was greatly against the latter. The record of the prosecution shows that he was a well-known dealer in money. His house was well supplied with cash and he was always well dressed in clothes and jewelry. He was a man of large and influential friends in the city, and his name was much in evidence in the business world.

There were also 150явые and 26 other people present in the room. One of the people was a young man named Jack, who had come to see Mount. He was a member of the removal company which broke up the riot yesterday.

Judge Smith, the Presiding Judge in the case of Mount, and his associates, were unanimous in the order which they issued against the latter. The order was as follows: "Mount is remanded to the custody of the removal company, to be held for arrests as may be necessary. The order expires on the 1st day of March." The order was signed by Judge Smith, and his associates.

The order was at once carried out, and Mount was taken from the room by the removal company. He was conveyed to the city prison, where he will remain until the 1st of March.

Charles Kinchlow, colored, was arrested last night on a charge of robbery. He is held for trial on the 1st of March.

Another batch of indictments was filed in the county court this morning. The cases are as follows:

1. Charles Kinchlow, colored,
   2. William C. Stanford, 3. Ed Peadson and
   4. Mitchell, furnishing liquor to 5. Henry Haden, gambling.
