WARM WEATHER HELPS BUSINESS

The period marking the end of May and the beginning of June brought no decide change in the retail trade picture throughout the country, according to reports to the Department of Commerce from 36 key cities, just received by its Louisville District Office. These activities held about even with the levels of recent weeks, although in a number of cities there were some slight signs of improvement over the previous week. All reporting cities, however, with the exception of Dallas, registered decreases from the comparable week last year. In many cities, the margin of decrease had been narrowed down, but in others, where poor shopping weather still prevailed, it had risen, and the average still hung around 15 percent. Most of the reports seemed to indicate that the advent of a few days of warm seasonable weather would result in a decided increase over recent levels and bring about considerable Summer buying.

Louisville reported that unseasonable weather continued to retard Summer good sales. Wholesale trade reflected retail trend.

I. C. railroad shops in Paducah recalled 20 employees to supply increased demand for materials. Bank clearings were 22.06 percent under last year.

Intense activity throughout tobacco area with weather very propitious for young plants.

Carloading for L. & N. railroad for May ran 4 to 5 percent ahead of April.

Tentative contract signed by Kentucky Highway Commission for purchase of 2 toll bridges across Ohio River for $7,500,000, cost to be liquidated for toll-paid bonds.

Final estimates of 1937 cash income from Kentucky crops, livestock and government payments, show 27 percent increase over that of 1936.

MALCO WINS CASE VS LEVI CHISHOLM

Malco Theatres, Inc., in a hearing last week before Judge L. L. Hindman of Clinton, won a favorable decision in an injunction suit brought by W. Levi Chisholm, owner of the Orpheum theatre building, restraining the theatre company from using the show house for exhibition to negroes.

The plaintiff contended that use of the theatre building would damage the reputation of his property as a theatre. The defendant pleaded that as long as white and colored people were properly segregated, and that their lease made no provision of admitting negroes to the balcony.

In handing down his decision Judge Hindman said, "The lease does not prove the defendant from admitting negroes to a show house. Mr. Chisholm has a perfect right to incorporate that in his lease if he sees fit to do so. He has not done so. When a circus or tent show comes to town negroes are admitted to certain portions of the of the tent or places of amusement. They are permitted to go to ball games and other places without hindrance. If they want to go to a picture show and are properly segregated so that they will not be intermixed with the white people, I see no reason why they should not be permitted to do so."

R. T. Smith, represented the plaintiff and Steve Wiley represented the defendant.

U-Tote'Em Grocery Company Opens Modern, New Store Here

GROCERY HEADS WHO DIRECT ITS DESTINY

Four men direct the destiny of the U-Tote-Em Grocery Company: B. T. Everett, now retired; Glen A. King, sales manager; R. H. Freeman, buyer and advertising manager; S. J. Adams, district supervisor. The success and progress of this widely-known firm rests upon their shoulders.

B. T. EVERETT RETIRED

Up until January, 1937, Mr. Everett was quite active in the business having charge of all purchasing, but at that time, he resigned although he still retains his interest in the concern.

GLENN A. KING SALES MANAGER

While comparatively a young man as years go, Mr. King is respected throughout the South for his knowledge of the grocery business. Mr. King's many friends in Fulton and vicinity are proud to congratulate him on the new building in Fulton.

R. H. FREEMAN
BUYER AND ADVERTISING

With the retirement of Mr. Everett in January, 1937, Mr. Freeman was promoted to Buyer. Prior to that time, he had been assisting Mr. King in the sales department. His work has included that of clerk, Store Manager and Supervisor. Many in Fulton will remember him as Supervisor in this district for several years.

W. M. Hill & Sons Have Built Many Of County's Buildings

W. M. Hill & Sons, which firm has been doing general contracting work in Fulton and vicinity for nearly half a century, received the contract for the construction of the new U-Tote-Em Grocery store building on Lake Street. The modern, brick structure adds a beautiful and much needed building to the business district.

The firm of W. M. Hill & Sons was first established here in 1893 by the father of Don and Clyde Hill, who are continuing the operation of the business today. The late W. M. Hill took his sons in partnership back in 1917.

This well known contracting firm has built many of the business and residential buildings in Fulton and vicinity over a period of years. The court houses here and at Hickman were constructed by W. M. Hill and W. H. Spradlin, as were a number of other buildings, including many of the downtown business buildings.

It was pointed out by Don Hill this week that many of Fulton's older buildings are in need of repair and remodeling. Some of the older business blocks could be materially improved, he stated, by addition of new and modern fronts, such as have been innovated by Little Clothing Co., Doty Shop, Franklin's and Hotel Fulton.

Pepsi-Cola Company Serves Wide Area

The Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company of Martin, Tenn., which was established there in 1926, serves a wide area in this territory, states Paul Clark, manager. This bottling concern, formerly known as the Orange Crush Company and which had been in operation 33 years, was first established by W. P. Ward and son, right across Lindell street from the present location of the plant. It was reorganized by Paul Clark, I. W. Little and H. C. Wilson.

On May 30, 1937, new machinery was installed throughout. Then on October 15, 1937, Wilson sold his interest to I. W. Little, Smith Atkins and Paul Clark. The capacity of the new plant is 300 cases a day, while the old plant had a capacity of only 266 a day.

The Pepsi-Cola plant in Martin serves Weakley, Obion, Henry, Carroll and Benton counties, in Tennessee, and Fulton and Hickman counties, in Kentucky. The personnel of the plant is as follows:

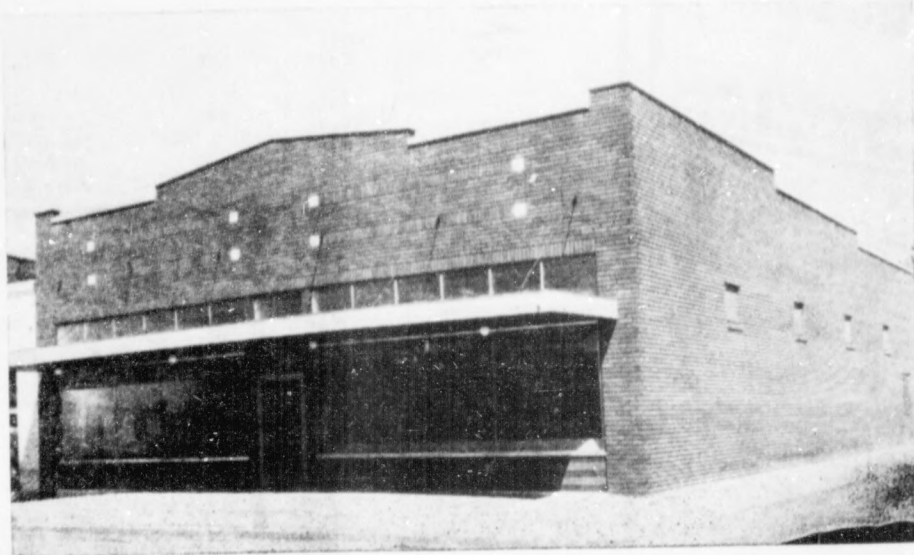

Jesse Tuck, manager in charge; Ford Maxey, bookkeeper; Clyde Corum, salesman in Fulton and Hickman counties, showed a big increase in volume last year; W. Y. Vineyard, sales in the Paris division; Allen Mann, salesman at Huntington, McKenzie and Camden; Carter Cox, Union City, Obion, Troy, Greenfield and Sharon division; R. S. Sandefer, bottler; C. M. Sandefer, city salesman in Martin.

DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

Mr. Adams' first position with U-Tote-Em was as a clerk in their Humboldt, Tennessee store. From that position he has steadily climbed until he was rewarded with his present one in January of 1937. Mr. Adams has been in Fulton all this week arranging the new store.

I. B. COOK IS PROUD MANAGER OF LOCAL U-TOTE-EM STORE

I. B. COOK

Mr. Cook is one of the oldest employees, both in the point of service and age. His first position with U-Tote-Em was in Dresden, his native home, but he was transferred to Fulton in 1927 and since that time, has made a host of friends, both for his company and himself as well.

I. B. Cook, manager of the Fulton U-Tote-Em Grocery, has been with the organization for thirteen years, beginning as manager of the No. 4 store in Dresden, Tenn. He came to Fulton in June, 1927, as manager of Store No. 8.

For a while two stores were in operation here, Store No. 8 and Store No. 18, the latter being moved to Hickman in 1935.

Mr. Cook, who was born and reared near Dresden where he spent his earlier boyhood, moved to Martin where he attended school. He is well known throughout this territory, and numbers his friends by his acquaintances. Being a man of pleasing disposition, always friendly and courteous, he has made hundreds of friends. He is very proud of the new store building, and states that they will now be able to serve their many patrons even better, featuring as usual high quality merchandise at money-saving prices. The personnel of employees of the new store, which is located directly across Second-st. opposite the old location follows:

J. W. Thompson, Leroy Latta, regular clerks; Mrs. Etwell Turbeville, Joe Bazzel, Robert Davis, Jr., Gene Bynum, Felix Gossum, Randall Willey, Henby House, extra clerks; and Cecil Maddox, porter.

Manager Cook is well versed in his profession, having engaged in sales work practically all his life.

For several years he was employed by the Ryan-Hampton Tobacco Co., at Martin, until it moved to Louisville; then he opened a grocery in partnership with the late J. C. Brooks, which was known as the Cook Grocery Co. Mr. Cook sold out his interest in the grocery and in 1909 made the race for register of Weakley county, being defeated by a small margin by Buford Swain. Then he took a position as traveling salesman for M. Livingston & Co., working in Kentucky and Tennessee.

For four years he was employed with the Kentucky Consumers Oil Company of Louisville, sent to Jackson, Tenn., to open a distributing point. But he soon joined S. H. Kress & Co. and worked with them for three years, then for a while with Metropolitan Insurance Company. Returning to Weakley county he became supervisor of the county farm. From that position he joined the U-Tote-Em Grocery Company, with which concern he has been ever since.

NOW HAS 37 STORES IN IN OPERATION IN 3 STATES

The U Tote 'Em Grocery Company opened its fine, new store in Fulton Thursday, and the people of this vicinity hailed the event with much gusto. This concern purchased a lot at the corner of Second and Lake-st, and erected a modern store building directly opposite their old store. The new business building is modern in every respect, and the investment indicates the faith and good-will this company holds for Fulton.

The growth and development of U Tote 'Em Grocery Company is without parallel, insofar that its present position in the grocery field was not visioned by its founders, Glen A. King and B. T. Everett, when on February 10th, 1921, they opened a small cash grocery store in McKenzie, Tennessee.

They were not financially able to do a credit business, such as was customary in those days, but instead, were compelled to sell for cash. A cash grocery was looked upon as an experiment by the folk around McKenzie, but in spite of obstacles, their business prospered and from that humble beginning seventeen years ago, a business today scattered throughout Western Tennessee and Kentucky stands as a monument to the foresight of these two men.

The present organization consists of thirty-seven retail stores, one large warehouse and one flour and feed mill. The headquarters are still located in McKenzie. The U Tote 'Em Stores have always catered to the flour and feed buyers, and to care for this department, it was decided a few years ago to build a plant of their own. Just before you enter McKenzie, you will find this large, modern mill, which has the distinction of being the only all-electrically operated mill in this part of the country. The very latest of equipment and machinery was incorporated in its construction, and it was quite a nice addition to the business.

The growth and success of U Tote 'Em Grocery Company is nothing abnormal or sensational. The owners from the very beginning adhered very rigidly to the principle of buying in large quantities and selling to the customer at just as close a margin as possible, thereby moving a large tonnage and gaining a rapid turnover.

After the first store proved a success, and another was opened in Humboldt, Tennessee, a warehouse stock was carried in the basement and upstairs of the original store and from that source, all stores were serviced for quite a number of years. However it was very evident that larger quarters must be had, and shortly thereafter a small warehouse was rented and they moved all supplies into it and named it the Cash Economy Wholesale Grocery Company. By this time the small chain was gaining recognition quite extensively in Tennessee and in 1926, their first Kentucky store made its appearance in Fulton.

With the opening of the wholesale house, it was decided to enter into a cash and carry wholesale business. For quite a few years that venture was both successful and paying, but more stores were being added along, and the owners were compelled to give up their wholesale business and devote their entire time to their stores.

By 1929 the small warehouse was fully outgrown, and to house the rapidly growing business a large warehouse was constructed on the outskirts of McKenzie, which is today still in use. This large warehouse is one of the most complete and modern to be found anywhere and is a milestone in the march of progress of U Tote 'Em Grocery Company.

Good roads played an important part in the growth and development. In talking to Mr. Everett a few days ago, he recalled the difficulty they experienced in early years of getting a truck to Fulton in the winter months. He told us it was often the case that two trucks were sent together, one loaded and the other empty. The loaded truck would go in front and when it became stuck in the mud, the empty would pull around in front and the drivers would then have to transfer the load from the mired truck onto the empty and

STORES HAD THEIR ORIGIN IN McKENZIE

Above is pictured the wholesale warehouse of the U-Tote-Em Grocery Company, which is located in McKenzie, Tenn., the birthplace of these cash economy stores. The growth and progress of this enterprising firm testifies to the foresight and able management of its founders and directors. The present organization comprises thirty-seven retail stores, a large warehouse and one flour and feed mill. The headquarters of the concern are still located in McKenzie. In 1929 the warehouse shown above was erected to replace a smaller one as the business grew and more stores were added over the territory. The first Kentucky store was opened in Fulton. For a while two stores were operated here, but later one was moved to Hickman to serve the west end of Fulton county. Good roads played an important part in the expansion of the concern, it is pointed out by Mr. King. With the coming of better roads, stores were opened at various points in Tennessee, Kentucky and Mississippi. Now big trucks make daily deliveries of fresh merchandise and produce to these places.

John Brannock Was Electric Contractor For New Fulton Store

John Brannock, proprietor of the City Electric Shop on Walnut St., was the electric contractor for the new U-Tote-Em store building on Lake St. Mr. Brannock is a well known electrical contractor and dealer here, having taken over the City Electric Shop August 15, 1937, from E. M. McBride.

Among the electrical jobs he has handled during the past six months are: the new home of Mrs. Chas. Brann, Dr. M. W. Hawes, Clyde Fields, Ray Graham, Paul Turberville, the Baldrige house on Park Ave., and the home of Clardie Holland, county court clerk at Hickman.

proceed until the loaded truck became mired again and transfer the loads as before. He stated that quite often it was necessary to transfer a load as many as four times before getting to Fulton.

So it might be said that the expansion of U Tote 'Em Grocery Company, followed good roads, for today their system is quite extensive for locations of stores. Some of the farthest being located in Dickson, Tennessee, within 40 miles of Nashville, in Brownsville, Tenn. near Memphis, Selmer, Tenn. near Cornith, Mississippi, and Benton, Kentucky.

"Our Little Group", as Mr. King calls it, has grown because we gave the people service", and we have always trained our employees to meet their customers as friends to friend, man to man, and to take active part in the civic and church life of the communities in which we are located."

All Fulton joins hands in welcoming U Tote 'Em into their new home, for it is one of the most modern food stores in the entire state and an added distinction to the business district of Fulton.

HISTORY OF OBION COUNTY

The Fourth Tennessee Confederate Regiment was raised in the counties of Dyer, Obion, Lauderdale, Gibson, Tipton and Hardeman, and was organized May 18, 1861 with R. P. Neely, colonel. It moved to Memphis May 20; thence up to Randolph, thence to Fort Pillow, July 18; thence to New Madrid and November 7 at Belmont, served as a reserve. Feb. 4, 1862, at Island No. 10, it was under fire of the Federal gunboats. It reached Memphis March 20, thence moved to Corinth and on April 6, began the brilliant fight at Shiloh. In one charge, when it captured a fine battery, it lost 31 killed and 160 wounded and during the battle nearly half of those engaged. The Fourth was reorganized April 25, with O. F. Strahl, colonel. In July it moved to Chattanooga and August 17, started on the Kentucky campaign passing thru Sparta, Gainesboro, Munfordsville, Bardstown and Harrodsburg.

At Perryville, in the afternoon of the 8th, it participated in a brilliant charge on the Federals, losing about one third of those engaged. It moved south via Knoxville and Tullahoma to Murfreesboro, where it was hotly engaged December 31. In July, 1863, A. K. Kellar became its colonel. At Chickamauga, Sept. 18 and 19, the Fourth fought valiantly, losing nearly one-third of its men. Beginning at Dalton in May, 1864, the Fourth was under fire 60 days in the movement toward Atlanta, fighting at Dug Gap, Mill Creek Gap, Resaca, Ellsberry Mountains, Kenesaw, Atlanta and Jonesboro, suffering severe loss. At Spring Hill and Franklin and Nashville the Fourth fought gallantly. After this the regiment moved to North Carolina, fought at Bentonville and April 26, 1865, surrendered at Greensboro.

Fifth Tenn. Regiment was raised in Henry county, organized at Paris May 20, 1861, with W. E. Travis, colonel, with twelve companies. Occupied Humboldt and Union City until Sept. 4, 1861, then moved to Columbus, and at battle of Belmont supported the artillery. It formed part of Stewart's brigade. Cheat-ham's division, Polk's corps. When Donelson fell the regiment moved to New Madrid.

Sixth Tenn. Regiment composed of troops from Madison, Haywood and Fayette counties, organized in May, 1861, W. H. Stephens as colonel. Moved to Union City where it was thoroughly disciplined. Moved to Columbus, but was not engaged at Belmont. After Fort Donelson fell the regiment moved to Corinth.

Ninth Tenn. Regiment—Haywood, Fayette, Tipton, Hardeman, Shelby, Lauderdale, Weakley and Obion counties—organized at Camp Beauregard, Jackson, May 22, 1861 with H. L. Douglas colonel. Disciplined at Union City where many died of measles. In August moved to Columbus, in October to Mayfield, thence back to Columbus and in May, 1862, to Corinth.

Twelfth Tenn. Regiment was raised in Gibson, Dyer, Carroll, Fulton, Hickman and Graves counties, mustered in at Jackson May 28, 1861, R. M. Russell becoming colonel. Thoroughly fitted for the field at Trenton and Union City, in September moved to Columbus and on November 7 took active part at Belmont. T. H. Bell commanding, losing about thirty killed and wounded. Soon after the surrender of Fort Donelson it was transferred to Corinth and April 6 and 7 participated in the headlong victory at Shiloh with severe loss. Col. Bell receiving dangerous wounds. In May, 1862, it was reorganized with Bell as colonel and was consolidated with the Twenty Second. It was moved to Chattanooga thence detached to Kirby Smith at Knoxville; thence marched into Kentucky, where at Richmond it defeated the enemy with loss. It joined Bragg at Harrodsburg, was in reserve at Perryville's, returned to Knoxville and was consolidated with the Forty Seventh. It was then transferred to Murfreesboro where it bore a gallant part, leaving its gallant dead thick on the field. At Chickamauga, in September, and at Missionary Ridge, in November, it distinguished itself on the field by impetuous charges and adamantine stands. Again in 1864 at Rocky Face Ridge, Resaca, Adairsville, New Hope Church, Kenesaw, Dead Angle, Peach Tree Creek, Decatur and Atlanta, it bore its heroic part. At Jonesboro and Lovejoy Station it suffered severely and in the dreadful slaughter at Franklin and in the dogged and desperate fighting at Nashville it fought with its accustomed dash and courage. It made the dark and sorrowful march to the Carolinas, participated at Bentonville and surrendered at Greensboro, N. C., April 26, 1865 with fifty men.

Thirteenth Tenn. Regiment—Fayette, Shelby, Gibson, McNairy and Dyer counties of Tennessee and Marshall county, Miss.—mustered in at Jackson, June 3, 1861, J. V. Wright colonel. After occupying various stations moved to Columbus where September 10, it was brigaded with 12th and 21st regiments under Col. Russell. November 7, at Belmont, it was desperately engaged driving the enemy back to his boat, losing 149 killed and wounded out of 400 engaged. A. J. Vaughn succeeded Wright as colonel.

Fifteenth Tenn. Regiment—Shelby county, it was raised at McKenzie, organized at Jackson on June 7, 1861, Charles M. Carroll as colonel. Later several companies withdrew and were succeeded by others from Shelby county and Paducah. After occupying various positions participated in the battle at Belmont, where it suffered slight loss. In March, 1862, it moved south from Columbus to Corinth.

Twenty-First Regiment—Shelby and Hardeman counties—organized last of April, 1861, Ed Pickett colonel. Reported to General Cheat-ham at Union City, going later to Columbus, participating at Belmont then moved back to Union City and on to Corinth, being consolidated with Second Regiment to form the Fifth Confederate Regiment.

Twenty-Second Regiment—Gibson, Carroll, Dyer, and Hardeman counties, Tenn., and volunteers from Kentucky and Louisiana—was organized at Trenton July 1, 1861, Thomas J. Freeman colonel. Operated in West Tennessee, moved to Columbus, fought in the Belmont battle, losing about 75 killed and wounded. Returned on South with army located near Corinth, Miss.

Twenty-Seventh—Benton, Obion, McNairy, Haywood, Weakley, Carroll, Decatur and Henderson counties—organized at Trenton late in July, 1861. Felix Rebels colonel. Moved to Columbus after Belmont battle.

Thirty-First Tennessee—Weakley, Haywood, Madison, McNairy and Decatur counties—summer of 1861 with A. H. Bradford, colonel. It moved to Columbus November 29 after the Belmont fight. Thence southward to Corinth.

Thirty-Third Tennessee—raised in Weakley, Obion, Madison and other counties—organized at Union City, October 18, 1861, with A. W. Campbell colonel. January, 1862, marched to Columbus where it wintered, then moved south to northern Mississippi; and in April met the enemy on the field at Shiloh, losing nearly 200 men killed and wounded, with about 500 being engaged. The regiment moved back to Corinth and later via Chattanooga invaded Kentucky under General Bragg and at Perryville in October, fought with magnificent bravery suffering heavy losses. After this it moved south with Bragg and at Murfreesboro bore an honorable part, losing many men. At Chickamauga it assisted in the awful charges which beat back the Federal hosts. It fought at Missionary Ridge and retreated south, wintering at Dalton and 1864 participated in the series of bloody battles from that point to Atlanta, shedding the blood of its bravest boys in the defense of the cause which to them seemed right. It marched north with Hood; was at Franklin and Nashville, then marched south and surrendered in North Carolina on April, 1865.

Forty-Sixth Tenn.—raised in West Tenn., mostly from Henry county—in 1861, J. M. Clarke as colonel. Participated in the movement of General Pillow up the Mississippi, was at Columbus and No. 10 Island and later at Port Hudson. For a time it was a part of Stewart's brigade. Many of the regiments were captured and died in prison at Camp Douglas and elsewhere.

Forty-Seventh Tenn.—Obion, Gibson and Dyer counties—late in 1861, M. R. Hill, colonel. Participated in General Polk's movements succeeding the battle of Belmont. Moved southward and engaged the enemy at Shiloh and participated in actions around Corinth, finally marched with Bragg into Kentucky fighting at Richmond and skirmishing elsewhere. Returned to Tennessee and just before the battle of Murfreesboro was consolidated with the 12th regiment.

In days of old every school child in the nation had a slate. Now only the politicians use them.

Uncle Sam is finding it a tough job to induce people to own their own homes. All most of them want is a new automobile.

Free the Railroads!

Too greatly burdened for their own and the nation's good, our American railroads today seek:

Freedom—

From subsidies to competing carriers; restrictive and expensive railway legislation; perpetual rate reductions for early land-grants; toll-free and unregulated water transportation; government operated barge lines; excessive taxation; expense of separating grades and changing bridges to benefit competitors.

Freedom—

To make rates that will move more traffic; revise rates of pay to increase employment; carry through labor hearings on full equality with employees; consolidate and co-ordinate by negotiation; operate equally with others on highways and waterways.

The complete program thus summarized is available in booklet form. Write me at Chicago for your copy.

The sensational Firestone Convoy Tire hits a new all time high in value for it has everything you want—safety, mileage and blowout protection. You will have to see it to appreciate all its extra value features and when you do, you will agree that the new Firestone Convoy is the tire sensation of 1938.

New High Quality—First choice rubber and cotton selected that conforms to Firestone's high standards and rigid specifications.

Long Mileage—Safe, silent tread design made of tough, slow wearing rubber that assures long mileage. Sturdy bars and rugged notches give protection against skidding.

Blowout Protection—Nine extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord by the Firestone Patented Gum-Dipping process. Every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber which counteracts internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

Puncture Protection—Firestone's patented construction of two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords under the tread protects against punctures.

NEW LOW PRICES—because Firestone saves money by controlling and securing rubber and cotton at the source and by more efficient manufacturing and distribution. These savings make possible the extra values at these new low prices.

Don't miss this opportunity to save money. Let us put a set of the new large size, rugged, long wearing Firestone Convoy Tires on your car today.

Subscription rates radius of 20 miles of Fulton $1.00 a year. Elsewhere $1.50 a year.

TIME TO TUNE UP.

There are many Fulton motorists who think that so long as the car runs when he starts it and keeps running as long as he presses his foot on the accelerator it is in good shape and all is well with it. They don't stop to consider that there are different grades of oil for different temperatures, and that failure to change at the proper time can easily ruin a motor, or that after running through the hardest motoring months of the year batteries lose much of their power and need refilling, or that bolts or screws that hold vital parts of its mechanism together may have worked loose and rendered the car unsafe until readjustments are made. Just because it will run doesn't mean that it will safely, and no man should risk his life or the lives of his family because it does so. Heavy repair bills later on—maybe a fatal accident—rests upon the entire car being in perfect shape for summer driving. Tune it up now and be on the safe side.

IT'S HERE NOW.

If you are wondering when the fly season starts, the answer is—it's here right now. It is an almost hopeless job to keep the house free of these pests if the doors and windows are not screened before they get in and settle in hidden nooks and corners. A few flies in any home in Fulton now will multiply to many millions before the summer season is over if they are not eradicated. Swatting them and screening against them is one of the surest ways to prevent disease in the neighborhood. Being born and reared in filth, it is easy to see why this is one of the dirtiest of all insect pests. Their bodies and feet are fitted to carry filth and germs, scientists having declared that as high as 6,000,000 germs having been found in the body of a single fly. You can profit by early screening. Let no home in the community go unprotected up every rubbish pile, every spot where flies can breed. And don't put off for another day the important matter of screening the windows and doors.

CASH OR WHAT-HAVE-YOU?

Nobody gets very far in the way of thrift these days, or lays up a very pretentious savings account until he learns that it costs just as much to have anything charged as it does to pay cash for it. It may hurt to take the money right out of your pocket and buy a suit of clothes or a hat; but having it charged only relieves the "pain" temporarily; and the chances are that next month will find it no easier for you to pay than it is right now. The man who finds it difficult to make both ends meet should try the "cash-and-carry" system while and see if that makes it easier to stick to his budget. Laying down the cash may not seem any more sensible than having it charged, but just try paying cash and see if there is any difference. There's two sides to the question, and in your case the same thing may not work that works for the other fellow. Pay cash for a month and see for yourself.

THE TOURIST VISITOR.

This month officially opens the motoring season and for the next four months Fulton people will have occasion to extend the glad hand to tourist visitors in, we hope larger numbers than during any previous season.

It may be your town cannot boast of many historical attractions as some other has to offer. Perhaps, from a noisy, hilarious night-life standpoint, your town doesn't meet the competition set up by another in its appeal for tourist business. But it should be remembered that there are thousands travelling over the country by auto who are seeking to dodge such entertainment. Today, what is meat for one motorist may be poison for another. Taken as a whole, there are more people seeking comfort and quiet, fresh air and sunshine, simple but health-giving exercise that can be found outdoors, than there are those hunting exhilarating pleasures and dissipation.

No matter what the tourist who stops in this community is seeking give him the glad hand of fellowship and welcome. Tell of the advantages he will find here for a quiet, restful vacation. He will move on if this does not appeal, but whether he stays or not, the sort of welcome he receives on arrival will govern his conversation as he drives on to other towns. Make him feel that his presence here is appreciated and that his stay will be equally so. If he chooses to remain your welcome will have added just one more reason why he will want to return next year.

JUNE GRADUATES

Following a custom they've carried out for many years, at this time of year, your editors in all sections of the country, are paying their respects to the June graduate. They refer to the responsibilities that come with manhood and maturity, the foundations that are to lead for the future in a world upset by economic and social problems, and the conquering of independence and maintenance. The youngster of today is the man of tomorrow but a man who will need a helping hand.

The present day graduate looks on the event with intelligence and good, common sense despite the fact that there is much facing him to discourage him and make him afraid. Today's graduate knows that getting a diploma is one thing and getting a job another. And it seems that each new crop of graduates finds the task more difficult each year. You will find that most young folks around Fulton are looking on life more seriously and planning for the future more carefully than is usual with youth. Today's graduate knows the conditions awaiting him are not to be easily solved but he is willing to tackle the problem. Many graduates have been led to believe there are no longer opportunities for pleasant, profitable and helpful service, but they will find there is always an opportunity to serve.

Of these many young people who are soon starting in to find employment, most of them being willing to take any kind of honest labor, are paying the way, in part, for the general support of their families, and in some cases they will be able to lighten the load on our relief rolls. They are deserving of all the aid and co-operation our local citizens can extend them. Do not let any boy remain idle who has a desire to work, if you can help him in any way. The wish to work instead of loaf is a characteristic which deserves the encouragement of the older generation in every possible way.

The average Fulton may take pride in a new pair of shoes but he still gets most enjoyment out of an old pair of house slippers.

Picked-Up About Town

According to Abe Thompson the dollar-down plan works everywhere except in a hotel and there it's usually three-dollars up.

Sam Winston wants to know if hugging changed because girls changed or because there were too many pins sticking out in the old days.

A third party in politics is believed by most people to be as non-essential as a third party in a hammock.

"What I've never been able to understand" says Pat Gourley, "is why a dog is so much more affectionate when he is shedding than he is at any other time."

According to Doc Hughes only a few people buy autos on the installment plan. The others borrow money and pay cash.

Nature has rare some mistakes and one of them was when she didn't make a rose as hardy as an onion.

"Marriage is sure to teach one thing," asserts Cap Maddox. "It teaches that is a darned sight easier to follow a woman than it is to lead her."

A woman's best test of her husband's devotion is to ask him to go to the store and macth a piece of ribbon for her.

"The old-fashioned girl who used to faint away," says Roy Adams "can now run the family auto into the ditch, tear down nine rods of fence and still laugh at a tire hanging from the cross-arm of a telephone pole."

"It doesn't matter much whether the world is round or flat," says Bailey Hudleston, "the main thing is watch your step and keep your balance."

Some fellows seem to think that the way to settle the farm problem is to get a job in town.

Thomas Wilson wants to know if you ever noticed that sometimes a little man will come up to your expectations and a tall one will fall short.

Since you have to look close nowadays to tell whether a girl is wearing stockings or not, what difference does it make if she's not.

Frank Wiggins says the old-fashioned man who used to worry about wearing out his shoes thru walking now has a grandson who wears his out on the accelerator of an automobile.

"Home," declares Robert Graham, "is still a boy's idea of the best filling station, and he patronizes it three times a day."

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

J. B. Williams
SOIL BUILDING PAYMENTS

In addition to the payments for not planting more corn, wheat, cotton and tobacco in 1938 than was allotted to the farm a payment will be made for doing good farming practices which are listed below.

When all of the soil depleting allotments have been determined these figures will be mailed to the producers and then a figure will be given to each producer showing the number of units that he can earn by sowing seed, using limestone, phosphate and turning over green manure crops.

For each acre of the following practices done, one unit credit toward earning the soil building goal will be allowed.

1. Application of 240 pounds of 20% super phosphate or its equivalent to, or in connection with the seeding of perennial or biennial legumes, perennial grasses, winter legumes, despedeza or permanent pasture.

Farmers may apply for 47% phosphate through the program this year and have the cost of the fertilizer taken out of the payment.

When any phosphate is applied to soil conserving crops that are grown in combination with small grain or other soil depleting crops only half the phosphate will be counted.

2. Application of 500 pounds of basic slag, rock phosphate, or colloidal phosphate to, or in connection with the seeding of, perennial or biennial legumes, perennial grasses, winter legumes, despedeza, crotalaria, or permanent pasture.

3. Construction of 200 linear feet of standard feet of standard terrace for which proper outlets are provided.

4. Reseeding pastures 10 pounds of seed.

5. Application of the following quantities of ground limestone or its equivalent when applied at a rate of not less than 1000 pounds per acre for each 2000 pounds.

6. Application of 1000 pounds of finely ground limestone (at least 90 percent to pass through a 30 mesh sieve and all finer particles obtained in the grinding process to be included) except to commercial vegetables, such limestone to be applied at the rate of not less than 500 pounds nor more than 100 lbs. per acre.

7. Each acre seed to kudzu, alfalfa, sericea, approved red clover, alsike clover, sweet clover, white clover, crotalaria, blue grass, orchard grass, reed canary grass, vetch, Austrian winter peas, crimson clover, annual lespedeza, annual rye grass, or mixtures of such legumes and perennial grasses other than a mixture consisting solely of timothy and red top.

8. Each acre of green manure crops—soybeans, velvetbeans, cowpeas, crimson clover, Austrian winter peas, vetch, rye, barley, wheat, buckwheat, oats, sudan grass, millet, sorghum, sown corn or mixtures of any two or more of such crops of which a good stand and a good growth is plowed or disked under as green manure, a good stand and a good growth of soybeans, velvetbeans, cowpeas, sweetclover in orchards, or rye, left on the land as a temporary much. Clinic Held At South Fulton Last Thursday

The Summer-round-up Clinic was held by the Obion County Health Department at the South Fulton High School. The Clinic was sponsored by the school Parent-Teacher-Association. Dr. Harrison was in charge and assisted by Misses Crook and Davis, county nurses. Thirty-one children between the ages of six months to six years attended. The meeting was the most successful in the county.

VACATION CAMPS FOR HOMEMAkers

Five district camps for members of homemakers' clubs are announced by Miss Myrtle Weiden, of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture. They will offer to women in about fifty counties a week of recreation, music, reading, handicraft and rest.

Camps will be held as follows: Mountain District, Quicksand, week of July 4; south-central district, at Elkton, week of July 11; Pennyrile district, Elkton, week of July 18; Purchase region, Columbus, week of July 25; north-central district, at Frankfort, week of August 1.

GRAVES COUNTY GETS $150,000 IN SOIL CONSERVATION CHECKS

Within the past few weeks Graves County has received a total of 2,995 checks amounting to $150,844.67 as payments to farmers who participated in the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program. The county AAA office has 4,299 work sheets listed for Graves for the 1938 program.

UNCLE JIM SAYS

Improving permanent pasture will, in most cases, mean the planting of desirable grasses and legumes, fertilizing and terracing or contour furrowing on some types of land to check erosion.

A thin cover of grass or weeds does not hold much water on pasture soil and will not supply much feed for the livestock. Over grazing will destroy a part of the grass plants and result in a poor stand. Ask your county agent for a copy of Extension in Publication 208, "Lime, Phosphate and Legumes".

A total of 170 purebred rams will be offered sheep growers in a series of three cooperative sales to be held in Knoxville, Nashville and Union City in July.

The money farmers spend for seeds in Tennessee each year averages approximately 50 percent more than the annual amount they spend for fertilizers.

Many Tennessee farmers are finding the growing of capons for market a profitable phase of poultry production. They sell for higher prices than cockerels and in most cases bring more than turkeys.

Good size and fairly rapid growth are the characteristics most sought in determining the best breed of chickens for caponizing.

Breeds with yellow legs and skin are preferred, such as Plymouth Rocks, Jersey Giants, Rhode Island Reds and Wyandottes.

In 1937, for the first time in eight years, farmers' gross income, including Government payments, exceeded $10,000,000,000 according to estimates released recently by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Laws have been passed to prevent people from making fools of themselves, but not all of them are enforced.

Isn't it disgusting how your neighbors brag about themselves when they could just as easily be bragging about you?

... like the Sno Sheen cakes in the Motion Picture Cooking School?

When a cake appears in the movies, it has to be beautiful! It mustn't show any defects when it looms up large on the screen; must be so tempting that the audience will long to taste it. Cakes made with Sno Sheen Cake Flour please the most critical eye. And their perfect appearance is an assurance that they are wonderfully light—wonderfully delicate in texture. They're as good to eat as they are to look at!

Your cakes, too, will be a delight to the eye and to the palate if you use Sno Sheen—the super-fine cake flour that's featured in the Motion Picture Cooking School. Try a package—and you'll want to use it regularly for all your fine cakes!

Pillsbury's SNO SHEEN Cake Flour

The story of "Star in My Kitchen" wouldn't ring true if flour of uncertain quality were used in the baking scenes. It takes a flour like Pillsbury's Best to assure the fine baking results that give point to the story.

And in your own kitchen, it's just as important to use fine flour if you want your baking to turn out perfectly—every time.

Pillsbury's Best gives superior results because the wheats that go into it are tested and blended with scientific precision—and because its quality never varies.

Why take chances when Pillsbury's Best Flour costs so little more per recipe? Ask your grocer for Pillsbury's Best!
