Primary Dope For Candidates

July 2 is the last day allowed by law for filing declarations with the county clerk and we need not be surprised to see several new candidates throw their hats into the political arena and make announcements. Up until now the campaign has created little excitement. The candidates announced for various offices have been making a friendly campaign, tooting their own horn and letting their opponent do the same thing undisturbed. However, the campaign is warming up with weather conditions furnishing most of the heat and the voters the hot air. The candidates themselves will add to the intensity of July heat and with a few new entries in the race, things will get sizzling hot.

Many of the voters have already selected their man to win, but the only sure winner at this time is the candidate who has no opponent.

Many a candidate has lost a race when he slowed down in the campaign, thinking he was a sure winner.

July 7 at 2 p. m., is the time set by law for drawing for positions on the ballot. This drawing will take place at the office of the county clerk and it is desired to have as many candidates as possible present, so that recommendations for election officers may be submitted to Board of Election Commissioners of the county.

On July 22, pre-election expense account will be filed. Candidates are warned if they do not file declarations on or before July 2, their names will not appear on the ballot.

Miss Effie Bruer, county clerk, has all necessary blanks and can give details.

CANDIDATES FILE FOR LEGISLATURE

Many Put Names on List for Party Primary to Be Held on August 3

Frankfort, Ky., June 24. — The primary election lists for the Kentucky Senate and House were closed today for candidates from districts composed of more than two counties. Candidates from the 67 legislative districts composed of only one county file their declarations in their home districts, but candidates in the remaining 23 districts had to file with the secretary of state. Only two senators, those from Louisville and Jefferson county, can file in their home districts. The other candidates filed with the secretary of state.

The primary, to be held on August 3, is to nominate selections for the 100 legislators and twenty state senators to be elected this year. Of the Senate elections, nineteen are regular and one is a special election to fill the Seventeenth District vacancy caused by death. Senators from the odd-numbered districts will be held over at the 1930 general assembly.

The 18 senate districts file primary candidates for declarations, four had no democratic candidate. Of the 33 legislative districts composed of more than two counties, nine are without republican candidates, and nine are without democratic.

Following is a partial list of the candidates:

Senate
Second District: Ballard, Carlisle, Marshall and McCracken counties. Democrats—Edgar T. Washburn, Paducah; C. D. McCaw, Paducah. Republican—None.
Fourth District: Crittenden, Livingston and Union Counties.

Democrats—Marion F. Pogue, Marion; T. F. Harris, Tolu. Republican—Albert Likens, Carrsville.

Sixth District: Christian and Hopkins counties. Democrats—Charles G. Franklin, Madisonville. Republican—Thomas E. Finley, Madisonville.

House

First District, Hickman and Fulton counties. Democrats—J. D. Via, Clinton; Wee L. McNeill, Hickman. Republican—None.

Second District—Ballard and Carlisle counties. Democrats, Jackson F. Harrison, Kevil; W. A. Downs, Wickliffe. Republican—None.

Fifth District—Crittenden and Livingston counties. Democrats—John C. Kemper, Carrsville; H. Walter Pierce, Salem; Clavis R. Hamilton, Sheridan. Republicans—L. Roy Johnson, Marion; Ora Suits, Lola.

Eighth District—Lyon and Marshall counties. Democrats—E. S. Allison, Lyon county; Republican—W. G. Marshall, Calvert City.

McNEIL AND VIA FOR REPRESENTATIVE

What promises to be a lively race in the 1929 campaign has just started between Dee McNeill of Fulton county, and J. D. Via, of Hickman county, in the Representative contest.

As a campaigner, Dee McNeill is said to be one of the shrewdest young politicians in this end of the state and if elected, will represent Fulton and Hickman counties with credit to himself and satisfaction to the voters. He is a 100 per cent Democrat and a World War veteran, endowed with all the qualifications so essential to make a faithful and loyal fight should occasion arise, for the people of this district whom he desires to represent at Frankfort. In other words, he is alive to the interests of this district. He has been tried and not found wanting. As county attorney he distinguished himself with his brilliant mind and we predict that the voters of his home county will give him the largest vote he ever received in any previous election.

THE MASTERPIECE OF THE SCREEN IS COMING TO THE ORPHEUM, MON- DAY, JULY 1

"In Old Arizona" Billed for a Run of Three Days

"In Old Arizona," is not only infinitely better than the usual crop of films, but is significant because it is the first outdoor talkie and really the first one to combine the technique of the screen and the stage, and the first one to make me forget the mechanical sound device. It has all the gentle satire and irony of that great short story writer, O. Henry, and the stretch of desert country is so gorgeous and the mountainous country so effective that you would be content just to look at some of the magnificent scenic effects. Warner Baxter as the bandit has never been presented with so much feeling. Edmond Lowe is again a hard-boiled sergeant, the same kind that won him plaudits in "What Price Glory." Dorothy Burgess' performance of Toria Maria is a classic. There is credit enough for both Raoul Walsh and Irving Cummings for the direction of the picture.

Take my advice and see "In Old Arizona." It's well worth your time and money.—Louella Parsons, Los Angeles Examiner.

Goalder Johnson Out For Sheriff

In this issue will be found the formal announcement of Goalder Johnson for Democratic nominee for Sheriff of Fulton County.

For weeks there has been a strong demand, so it is said, among Goalder's friends for him to enter the race, and he has been considering the matter very carefully for some time.

This announcement on his part, is a source of much satisfaction to his many friends scattered throughout the County.

Goalder needs no introduction to the voters of this county being known to practically every man, woman and child, and he on his part not only knows them, but recognizes them when he meets them, which is an inborn and characteristic habit of his.

He is recognized as a most tireless worker for the Democratic party in the County, and no matter who might be the nominee for any office under the Democratic emblem, he would be found actively supporting them, working and exerting himself, to the utmost to secure their election.

Goalder at one time held the office to which he is at present an aspirant, and at no time during the tenure of such office violated the confidence imposed in him by the people of this county who elected him. While sheriff he fulfilled his duty, and mostly personally, by serving papers placed in his hands, whether civil or criminal, and in the case of the latter he had the reputation of bringing in his man without injury to any concerned.

One of the duties of a sheriff is to collect taxes and an inspection of his record in respect to this will show, he fulfilled this duty to the satisfaction of the County as well as the State, and in doing this, his sworn duty and properly accounting for same, he met the will of the people who elected him. As an unusual thing, the Fiscal Court at the end of his term as Sheriff, went on record as stating that he had, each year, accounted for all taxes charged and collected in a way better than any sheriff during their experience, and his quietus or receipt from the State shows he settled with the Commonwealth each year in full on or before date required.

Some people are cut out for or adapted to a certain kind of work and we do not believe this could be better illustrated than in this instance, for Goalder is a natural

W. O. SHANKLE URGED TO ENTER COUNTY JUDGE RACE

Friends of W. O. Shankle throughout the county, learning that he would positively not seek re-election for Mayor, are urging him to make the race for County Judge. During the time Mr. or Shankle served as Magistrate he cemented friendships that have patiently waited for the opportunity to support him for county judge and are anxious for him to enter the race.

The Mayor is considering the earnest appeals of his friends, and we may not be surprised at any time to see him throw his hat in the ring and announce as a full fledged candidate for county judge.

Paul DeMyer In Race For Mayor

The Advertiser is authorized to announce the candidacy of Paul DeMyer, for Mayor of the City of Fulton, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary, election August 3, 1929.

In 1925 Mr. DeMyer was elected councilman and during his term of office has served the public faithfully and to the very best of his ability. As chairman of the street committee, much of his time has been given street work with outstanding results and general satisfaction.

Mr. DeMyer says that numerous friends urged him to make the race for Mayor some time ago, but he had given little consideration to the matter until recently, when friends placed a list of signed names a yard long in front of him, assuring their support should he announce and make the race for chief executive of the city. Now he has thrown his hat into the political arena for keeps and will expect every signer of that long list to loyally support him, not only in his election, but in giving him their cooperation in making Fulton one of the best cities to live in on the map, if elected.

Mr. DeMyer is appreciative of your support in his race and promises if elected, to do his utmost to maintain the progressive spirit prevailing in the city during the present administration. He is pleased to share the honors and most respectfully solicits your vote and influence in the primary, election August 3.

FARM NOTES

By H. A. McPherson

Crops are looking well and prospects point to a good crop in this section of the country. We are fortunate in being blessed with such ideal conditions this season, as there are many sections of the south experiencing the same conditions we went through last spring.

Large quantities of fine alfalfa, red clover, alsike clover and timothy have been stored away, and if conditions continue favorable, more good hay will be harvested in Fulton county than has been for several years.

E. J. Kilpatrick, director of Extension work in Western Kentucky, had the following to say in a published report regarding clover in Fulton county:

"Fulton county literally has 'oodles' of red clover this spring. In one day with County Agent McPherson recently the writer saw more clover than he had seen in any other county visited this spring. Fulton county broke all records in the state up to 1918 by using 10,000 tons of limestone that year under the leadership of former County Agent Morris Gordon. The county dropped out of the ranks of county agent work for a few years following the 1920 deflation, but the good work done by the County Agent has continued. (The clover is so big that even McPherson can get lost in some of the fields.)"

Several of our best clover growers have agreed to save their seed this fall. I am anxious to get this project started, as clover seed is getting higher every year and we are not able to secure as many home grown seed as we need. If you are thinking of saving seed we would like to place you on the list. If you know of a clover hiller in the county I would appreciate knowing who has it.

What are you doing towards getting your farm products and livestock ready for the fair? Have you saved any clover, alfalfa or other hay? Have you started getting your hogs and cows ready by giving them the proper attention? I might say that the fellow who goes to the pasture and drives up a cow or hog and brings it to the fair is going to stand a poor chance winning because competition is going to be keen this year. And, what about the chickens? Now is the opportune time to get your chickens ready for the fall fairs. Pick out the most promising ones and give them special attention and be sure they have the proper growth by fair time. A bird from one-half to two-thirds grown never shows up well at a fair.

Several of the calf club boys have already made halters and blankets for their calves and are teaching the calves to lead and are keeping them blanketed. I have a tattoo outfit and will be glad to tattoo all Jerseys in the county that are to be registered. As you probably know, all Jerseys registered after January 1, 1929, must be tattooed in the ear. I have plenty of application blanks, transfer blanks, etc.

I also have access to a farm level outfit since the boys won the Bostrum Farm Level at the State Club Camp last week, and I will be glad to assist any one in the county who has any kind of drainage, terracing or tiling work to do. Of course, you know it is not possible for me to do all such work, but will be glad to assist you in any way possible.

MATERNAL AND CHILD
HEALTH DRIVE

There is a $50,000.00 drive being made in the state of Kentucky this week for the purpose of financing the Maternal and Child Health Bureau of the state for another year. This is made necessary by the expiration of the previous allotment from the U. S. Government and Legislature on July 1, and since there has been no budget set aside by the state to finance it for this year, we must do our part for it means life to our babies.

Statistics show us that the percentage in the infant death rate has dropped twenty points since the Bureau of Maternal and Child Health took a hand.

The drive is being conducted in Fulton by Mrs. W. R. Butt and assisted by the local health department. There will be a street canvass made on Saturday for your contribution. You are urged to give liberally.

Lesson for June 30

REVIEW: PROPHETS AND KINGS OF JUDAH'S DECLINE

GOLDEN TEXT—I have loved thee with an everlasting love, therefore with loving kindness have I drawn thee.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Stories Retold.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Learning to Serve God.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—
The Old and New Testaments.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—
God's True Prophets.

The quarterly review always brings its problems. No set method can be prescribed. The grade, the aptitude of the pupils and the genius of the teacher are determining factors of the problem. For seniors and adults, two methods are suggested.

I. Character Study of the Kings and Prophets of the Period.

Biography is always fascinating and profitable. In the use of this method, assignments should be made a week ahead. As to the kings of this period, a study should be made of their strong and weak points, and suitable lessons be drawn from them.
As to the prophets, the nature of the ministry of each should be studied.

II. The Summary Method.

This method involves the terse statement of the salient facts of each lesson with its central teaching. This method, to be effective, calls for assignments to be made a week in advance. Different minds will greatly vary. The following statements are offered as suggestions:

Lesson for April 7.

Either at the beginning of Isaiah's ministry or later when called to a deeper experience, he had a vision of the majesty and holiness of the living God. The leading lesson is that a real sight of the living God discloses the sinfulness of man.

Lesson for April 14.

In leading the people back to God Hezekiah proclaimed a passover. The passover was a memorial of the nation's deliverance through the shedding of the blood of a sacrificial lamb.
The lamb typified Christ. The only way for a sinning and divided people to get back to God and be united is around the crucified Lord.

Lesson for April 21.

Isaiah sought to comfort the people by assuring them that the living God as the Messiah was coming to reign over the earth, and deliver them from bondage, and shepherd them.
The only possible deliverance from the world is the coming of Jesus Christ and the establishment of His Kingdom.

Lesson for April 28.

Salvation of God's people was to be accomplished through the suffering of their Messiah. At Christ's first coming He suffered the penalty of our sin.
His suffering resulted in a spiritual progeny. Life out of death is the law governing the universe—natural and spiritual.

Lesson for May 5.

While the temple was in process of renovation, the law of God was found and read to the king. This brought great disturbance to his mind as he realized the enormity of the nation's sins. God's Word has power to convict of sin and effect a revival.

Lesson for May 12.

God called Jeremiah before he was born, overcame his timidity, and sent him to warn his people of coming judgment. Though violently opposed and persecuted, God delivered him.

Lesson for May 19.

Jeremiah called the people to obedience to God's Word. The only way to avert God's judgment is to return unto Him and render obedience.

Lesson for May 26.

God will restore Israel to Palestine.
Israel will return and possess the land. Jesus Christ will then come and enter into a new covenant, writing the law of God in their hearts.

Lesson for June 2.

Because Jeremiah faithfully declared God's law, he was hated and cast into a dungeon. Those who faithfully declare God's law shall suffer.

Lesson for June 9.

The Rechabites out of filial loyalty to their father abstained from the use of wine. Jeremiah gave them a public test as an example to Judah.
Obedience to earthly fathers brings blessings, but obedience to God brings greater blessings.

Lesson for June 16.

Judah went into captivity according to God's Word, which cannot fail.

Lesson for June 23.

Psalms 103 is entirely devoted to praise to God. Those who have experienced the life of God in the soul will bless Him with all their being.

God Knows All

I will govern my life and thoughts as if the whole world were to see the one and to read the other, for what does it signify to make anything a secret to my neighbor, when to God who is the searcher of our hearts, all our privacies are open?—Seneca.

Religion Is Necessary

Education without religion is worth very little, just as cleverness without character is very barren.—Ald. Lee Owen.

the manner herein set forth with specified interest. Forms for such agreement may be ob-or City Clerk of said city.

In all cases where such agreements have not been filed with the City Treasurer within cash without interest before the expiration of said thirty days; and such tax not paid within said thirty days shall

The News Editor
turned to the Telephone

When floods isolated southern Alabama, and press time approached with little definite news of the disaster or the extent of the damage, the news editors of the Birmingham, Alabama, Age-Herald naturally turned to the long distance operators.

They knew from experience that the telephone service would not fail if loyalty, courage and human ingenuity could maintain it. The story of what happened is told in this letter from Harry C. Frye, assistant managing editor of the paper:

"May I express the appreciation of the Birmingham Age-Herald for the one hundred per cent cooperation and effectiveness of the long distance service during the southern Alabama flood disaster. . . In twenty-five years' experience in the newspaper business I have found that I can meet and overcome most any difficulty in gathering news beyond the local borders simply by turning the responsibility over to the telephone operators. They have never failed me, and in the flood crisis your operators performed not only true to form, but met and overcame new problems with an ingenuity that is beyond all understanding of a humble newspaper man."

The telephone organization appreciates this tribute which encourages them in their determination that service shall not fail.

POULTRY

By J.T. Watkins

I don't know whether any of you were disappointed last week when there were no poultry dope articles in the paper, but I was, for I thought I had some real good stuff and now I don't know what I wrote. However, Mr. Williams said he didn't see the article, so it is lost forever.

Well, the premium lists will soon be out, and can be had at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, or at the Owl Drug store, and possibly will be placed in a few other places so there will be no excuse for you not getting yours.

You will notice an article about the free rabbit show. This is something new for this show, but I wanted something new so made arrangements with the Sunset Rabbit Ranch to put on the same exhibit they had at the "made in Memphis" show last winter.

Now a word about why I am having a rabbit show in connection with a chicken show. Rabbits are one of the easiest pets to raise and derive a profit from them. The Chinchilla rabbit furnishes the best fur of any of the domestic or tame rabbits, it comes closer to imitating the famous chinchilla of South America than any other animal. This rabbit was brought into France from Siberia during the early days of the war, and was imported into America late in 1918. The fur, when properly cured, brings from $1.00 to $3.50 each, and the flesh for meat, around 50 cents per pound. The flesh is white and firm like the breast of a chicken.

We want a bigger show than we have ever had. We want 800 or more birds in the show. We want the western part of this county to come in strong with at least 100 birds. We want Hickman to bring almost that many. We want you to show us that you appreciated what we done for you last year. Remember, we came over there real strong with our chickens, and also furnished you the coops free to coop your show.

We also should have an entry list of over 200 birds from Obion county. Don't let Fox be the sole exhibitor from Obion. Mate up an old hen and a young pen at least and bring them over, more if you have them and Graves county, what is the matter with your birds, are you afraid of them? Weakley is also weak on entries. They should bring in at least 200 birds.

Don't forget the dues for 1929 are now due and must be paid before the judging begins. Fees are $1.00 per year and we should have at least 100 members.

HOMEMAKERS CLUB ORGANIZED AT BOAZ CHAPEL

Miss Myrtle Jackson, Fulton County Home Agent, announces the organization of a Homemakers Club at Boaz Chapel, on Friday, June 21.

Mrs. W. V. Little, of Crutchfield, and who is Vice-President of the County Homemakers' Association, and Mrs. W. S. Waggoner, of the Crutchfield club, accompanied Miss Jackson to the home of Mrs. Wesley Batts, where ten women enrolled with the prospects of getting several more to enroll.

The following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. Clyde B. Howard; Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Wesley Batts; Program Conductor, Mrs. Newman Croft; Foods Leaders, Mrs. John Binkley and Mrs. Dorsey White; Clothing Leaders, Mrs. W. Batts and Mrs. Sam J. Reed.

The Boaz Chapel club is the eighth Homemakers club to be organized in Fulton county, and will meet the needs of the homemakers east of Fulton in Fulton county and those of the adjoining counties who are not within reach of a Homemakers club are invited to join the Boaz Chapel group.

KENTUCKY OUTLOOK FAVORS DEMOCRATS

Hoovercrats Are Returning to Party Ranks

REPUBLICANS ARE SPLIT

Women Hoover Supporters Are Incensed Over Recent White House Tea — Democratic Comeback Foreseen in Next Election

Louisville, Ky., June 26—In the vernacular, the political situation is "looking up" for Kentucky Democrats who seem to be getting the "breaks" following the party catastrophe of last fall. In a corresponding measure the outlook appears to be less rosy for the Republicans now engaged in factional strife.

The local primary campaigns now are in progress throughout the state and reports from every section are to the effect that following the declaration of party amnesty by the Democratic state organization the Democrats who bolted Smith for Hoover last fall have returned to the party in droves and are identifying themselves with the campaign. What happened in the special congressional election in the Third District the party leaders assert is taking place all over Kentucky.

Reapportionment is Issue
Interest in the pending Kentucky campaign has been intensified with the passage by Congress of the Apportionment Bill. Under its provisions Kentucky is expected to lose two congressmen, and in any event the Legislature to be chosen this year will be called upon to redistrict the state in conformity with the 1930 census. That is one job Kentucky Democrats of every shade of standing are hardly willing to entrust to the Republicans. It is being used as a lever to prize the most recalcitrant Democrats into action and it is having the effect of solidifying the party as nothing else could. Naturally the chances favor Democratic control of the Legislature and every effort is being directed to make party ascendancy most effective in the next state law-making body.

Added interest attaches to the selection of the next Legislature, since with the taking of the federal census in April the Kentucky Legislature would have to meet later in special session to redistrict the state. Otherwise Kentucky's representatives in Congress, chosen in 1930, would be elected from the state at large. That is a contingency that has all hands guessing.

Another large-sized Republican row threatened to develop in connection with the appointment of E. S. Helburn to succeed Robert H. Lucas as collector of internal revenue for Kentucky. Helburn, a Sampson adherent, was chosen when Lucas, the Sackett ace, was named commissioner of internal revenue. Helburn's selection, generally credited to a compromise between Senator Sackett and Congressman John M. Robison, spokesman for Governor Sampson, was opposed by H. Green Garrett, prominent in the Kentucky G. O. P., who took the task of opposing the Helburn confirmation by the U. S. Senate.

In protesting Helburn's confirmation, Garrett, who formerly was cheek by jowl with Governor Sampson, declared that the appointment of Helburn would disrupt the party in Kentucky. He wanted a Senate hearing after the Department of Justice had made a full investigation. Garrett charged Helburn with being under fire as a member of the State Highway Commission; that he was identified with the so-called interlocking bipartisan machine and that he was a pronounced "wet." The Senate committee, however, gave scant attention to the Garrett protest and by so doing saved the spectacle of the washing of a lot of Kentucky Republican dirty linen.

Senator Sackett stood by Helburn, although many believed he would have shown more deference to the Garrett protest, and even could have been reconciled to a rejection of the Helburn appointment, considering that he hardly could expect any help from Collector Helburn in the coming senatorial race. In its political aspect the general opinion prevails that in the Lucas-Helburn compromise, the Sampson crowd got the ham and Senator Sackett the sausage.

The Sampson administration is beset by more troubles and all is not rosy with the governor's political adventure. The free schoolbook measure, his paramount campaign issue, was knocked into a cocked hat by the lower court and is now before the Court of Appeals on the question involving its constitutionality. Meanwhile, the governor is tied up with a court injunction preventing him from putting his recent schoolbook adoption into effect. An adverse decision by the highest court would be a decided reverse to the Sampson political fortunes.

All that is water on the Democratic mill and pleasing to some Republicans not allied with the Sampson machine. Another thing that was not lost upon Kentucky voters as a whole was a recent White social event with a dual color scheme. The whole state is agog over that and particularly among Kentucky women is the incident a lively topic. Admittedly Hoover drew most of the Democratic support in Kentucky from the women voters, and the White House tea certainly did not strengthen the Hoover position among them.

The incident has brought a chorus of "I told you so" from regular Democrats that is having its effect upon those who wavered last fall, and it is being used against the contingency of a Republican-controlled Legislature in Kentucky. It is one "argument" that counts in Kentucky, and it may be added that the Democrats are playing it for all it's worth.

Since the Waterloo last fall, Kentucky Democrats undoubtedly have retrieved much of the lost ground while the Republicans have a 178,000 majority for Hoover, for president. With even the "Hoovercrats" leading in the anvil chorus against the G. O. P., the situation is made more pleasing to the regular Democracy that every indication would seem to warrant the belief that the party in Kentucky is likely to stage a comeback in the state. Generally summarized, the political philosophy is that it took a good beating to bring Kentucky Democrats to their senses, and admittedly they underwent that experience.

The most serious Democratic weak spot is in Louisville, where the party seems to be hopelessly split and divided with a municipal and county election coming on in the fall. The Democratic situation is offset somewhat by factional division in the local Republican machine ranks that may bring developments in the August primary.

Kentucky is having a decidedly lively campaign for an "off-year."

PARTY TOURS CLUB DISTRICTS

Chamber of Commerce Encourages The Work

MANY FINE JERSEYS SEEN

Tuesday, Secretary Joe Davis and a committee from the Chamber of Commerce composed of Enoch Browder, A. M. Nugent and T. F. Burns, Manager of Saitt and Company's Plant, along with County Agent, C. L. Cleland, toured the 4-H Clubs of those places. They started from Bowers school and inspected the Jersey heifers the chickens and the growing crops of all the boys and girls in the two clubs. Some very interesting demonstrations were seen and words of enthusiasm were gathered. These club members will have their exhibits at the Fulton County Fair, and the people will have an opportunity there to see what our own boys and girls have done. Some fourteen exhibits were visited during the day.

At noon a feast was spread at Bowers school by the parents of the boys. The people of this community know how to cook good things to eat and they left nothing out yesterday. After the meal the club meeting was held. Reports of committees were had, and work for the members outlined. Enoch Browder and T. F. Burns complimented the boys and the girls for their work. County Agent, C. L. Cleland, urged all the boys to attend the annual club week at Jackson, Tennessee, July 15th to 20th. The Chamber of Commerce promised to transport the boys to and from Jackson for this event. The boys and girls were taken to Mr. Browder's home place on State Line road for the last demonstration, and there they were shown the best demonstration in all this country. Here was to be found an abundance of alfalfa and sweet clover growing on fields which a few years ago were about worn out. On a pasture of sweet clover were some of the best Jersey Cows to be found. These cows are making money because they are the right kind of producers and because the farm is producing their feed. A practical cow barn with a clean and convenient milking room has been provided. Pure well water is available instead of the stagnant pond water usually found. Every farmer in this country should visit this farm and then go and do likewise.

The following people were on the tour: A. M. Nugent, T. F. Burns, Enoch Browder, C. L. Cleland, Joe Davis, Will Boydson, Columbus Williams, Claude Williams, Eugene Speight, Malcolm Smith, Marvin Waester, Paul Smith, Chas Williams, Tom Counce, Dyer Counce, Mrs. Claude Williams, Mrs. G. G. Smith, Mrs. Will Boydson, Mrs. T. B. Lannon, Mrs. Willie Morris, Mrs. J. A. Howard, Miss Blanch Howard, Miss Mildred Cook, Miss Anna Caldwell, Miss Sarah Williams, Miss Hattie Lou Stubblefield, and Miss Lucile Caldwell.

Woman Held On Murder Charge

Miss Lela Bunch, 29, Charged With Murder of Mrs. Jim Gardner

MRS. GARDNER DIED SUNDAY, JUNE 16, NEAR BEELERTON

A servant girl, Miss Lela Bunch, 29, is held in jail here on a charge of administering poison to her mistress, Mrs. Jim Gardner, 49, who died suddenly at her home near Beelerton on Sunday, June 16. Mrs. Gardner, so it is charged had been taking a certain medicine for some time, and on Sunday June 16, she took another dose from the same bottle, and died within an hour. At the time nothing was done about the matter, but later relatives became suspicious and had officers investigate the occurrence. Records were searched at local drug stores and it is claimed by officers that the record showed that Mrs. Gardner's husband Jim Gardner, purchased one eighth of an ounce of strychnine three days prior to the death of his wife. No record of a purchase of any poison made by the servant girl was found. She denies having placed any poison in the medicine which Mrs. Gardner was taking.

Local officers went to the Gardner home Sunday and conducted an investigation. It is claimed that the bottle of strychnine was found on a table in the barn. Gardner was quoted as saying he purchased the poison to kill crows.

The bottle of medicine which Mrs. Gardner was taking has been sent to Lexington for an analysis, but has not been returned. The warrant against Miss Bunch was sworn out by Mrs. Moody Cook, a sister of the dead woman.

County officers were here Tuesday in connection with the case, and Judge Hampton set the examining trial for Friday afternoon, at 2:30. A post mortem on the dead woman was also ordered this being asked by Mr. Gardner, and it was thought that this would be conducted today. Mrs. Gardner was buried in Wesley cemetery.

The Gardner home is located some four or five miles north of town. Mr. Gardner has living with him two sons, one being about 24 years of age and the other about eight years of age. A married daughter lives in Detroit, but is now here.

Mr. Gardner is fairly well to do farmer and has a reputation of being a hard working man. The servant girl, who is accused of the murder, had been working in the home for some three or four years. At one time she lived in this city.

CRYPTIC ENOUGH

Educated Egyptian—You have no wonderful hieroglyphics in America, no mysterious inscriptions, no indecipherable relief of an ancient literature whose secrets the wise men have tried in vain to discover.

A Loony Couple
"They say Boggs is crazy on the subject of golf and his wife is equally crazy over auction sales."
"Yes, and the funny part of it is they both talk in their sleep. The other night a lodger in the next flat heard Boggs shout 'Fore!' and immediately Mrs. Boggs yelled 'Four and a quarter!'"

WHY MINDS ARE CLEAN

She—Women's minds are so much cleaner than men's.
He—Yeh? Because they change them so often.

Chiggers Bite

Aches to scratch,
Dust to dust;
If the tourists don't bite
The chiggers must.

Irrational Rations

Laundress—I couldn't come yesterday, Miss Johnson, I had such a pain.
Mistress—What was it, Melissa, dyspepsia?

We cannot make bargains of blisses. Or keep them like fishes in nets; But sometimes the things our life misses Help more than the things that it gets.

Be Swamped With 'Em

"Too bad you ladies are not giving a ramming sale right now," remarked Mr. Grouch.
"Why?" asked his wife, suspiciously.
"Because I know a lot of men who gladly would contribute smoking jackets, bathrobes, bed-room slippers and boxes of cigars to it," he growled.

Nor Put Out the Cat

Chaplain—And are you comfortable here in prison, my good man?
Convict—It has its drawbacks of course, but I don't have to get up in the middle of the night to see if the door is locked.—Everybody's Weekly (London).

"Why are you late for breakfast?" demanded Father as Johnny stole in to the room.
"Well, Dad," replied Johnny, "when you called me I was having a very funny dream and I just slept a few minutes longer to finish it."

Mrs. Jonah—I want to know what you were doing in the whale?
