Wheeler Denies Saying That Nazi

Rule Of Europe Is Inevitable

WASHINGTON -- Senator W. B. Wheeler, D-Ore., declared today that he had been misquoted in a speech regarding the Nazi threat to Europe.

Sen. Wheeler, speaking before a packed house of否定 the statement that "Nazi rule is inevitable in Europe," said today that he had been misquoted.

Sen. Wheeler, speaking before a packed house of否定的 the statement that "Nazi rule is inevitable in Europe," said today that he had been misquoted.

Wheeler said that the Nazi threat was not as inevitable as some people believed.

"I deny that I said that Nazi rule is inevitable in Europe," Wheeler said.

"I am not denying that the Nazis are a threat," he added. "But I am saying that the Nazi threat is not as inevitable as some people believe."

Wheeler said that the Nazis were a threat, but that the United States and its allies could stop them.

"The Nazis are a threat," Wheeler said. "But we can stop them if we work hard enough."

Wheeler said that the United States and its allies must work hard to stop the Nazis.

"We cannot afford to let the Nazis win," Wheeler said. "We must work hard to stop them."

Whee
16 Years Ago

(Peb. 3, 1925)

Auditors from Memphis have just finished another book of the city of Fulton and found that the only item out of balance was the sum of 18 cents which appeared to be due T. H. Chapman, city clerk. In other words, he was "long" that much.

Hazel Fay won the county spelling match held in Hickman over a field of 36 contestants.

The Chamber of Commerce was arranging for its annual meeting for the election of officers. The Fulton brass band was to play and at least 200 were expected to attend the affair, which was to be held at the Union Hotel.

Alber Baldwin was president, but had announced that he would not serve another term.

Floyd Collins is still alive in Mound, Ill., and bids fair to drive him out of his home. He had accomplished it, probably Hitler when he had the chance.

Hitler has never adopted such roundabout military methods. His way is a thrust at the center of any surprise. No one can know what Hitler has in mind but it is safe to say it is not to march—or attempt to march—an army of conquest clear around the shores of the Mediterranean sea. When he strikes, it will be directionally, and far more immediate results in mind—Mayfield Messenger.

HIS WARNING WAS NOT UNEXPECTED

Adolf Hitler's warning that America, for Britain, "will be torpedoed" came as no surprise to the American public. It was not a new threat. Time and again he has declared that any who seek to help the British will be made to suffer.

The whole program of the national administration, endorsed as it has been by such a large part of the American public, has been formulated with the understanding that it would not meet with the approval of Adolf Hitler and his Nazi terrorists.

If he thinks he can scare the United States into withdrawing aid from Great Britain, he is the surprised one. However, we have no idea that he hopes to frighten the United States. Rather, we believe he was talking for home consumption, for the effect his warning would have on his own people.

They like to think of him as a grand leader, a conqueror who has pitted himself against the world and will destroy all who oppose him. Hitler likes to keep this picture alive. It is easy for him to do so, because once the German people find that their hopes are empty, he has pledged ahead of that far, that he has been reasonably honest in his claims, then he will be more than a foe of the “sort” that will lead to complete downfall of the British.

If you're interested in the high prices for early buyers, we suggest you follow this plan: Begin feeding all LSU Starter the first day and continue until the chicks are six weeks old when switch to all LSU Grower. Of course, your grove has these feeders available today.
