W. O. Shankle In the Race For County Judge

The Advertiser is authorized to announce the candidacy of W. O. Shankle for County Judge of Fulton county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, election August 3, 1929.

Mayor Shankle is not a stranger to the voters of Fulton county. The best part of his life has been spent in this community and time and again his friends have urged him to make the race for county judge, but on account of his true friendship and loyalty to aspirants in former campaigns he preferred to sacrifice his own interests and work for the other fellow with victorious results.

When Esq. R. A. Browder passed away some years ago, and a capable man was sought to fill his unexpired term as Magistrate of the First District of Fulton county, Governor Stanley appointed Mr. Shankle to serve until an election was held, when Mr. Shankle was elected to complete the full unexpired term. How well he filled this office is a matter of public record to which the voters can point to with commendable satisfaction, and with such a record, no wonder he has been urged to make the race for county judge.

Seeing the deplorable condition of county roads and bridges, with the county treasury empty, if required a master mind with little talk and lots of hard work to handle the situation. It can well be said that was a valuable member of a fiscal court in the days of all dirt roads. His one hobby is good roads, not for a favored few, but for every taxpayer in Fulton county.

Only a few months ago when the Governor was seeking an efficient man to appoint on the State Highway Commission in the First District, Mr. Shankle was favorably considered, but withdrew in favor of a friend.

Mayor of Fulton

The people of Fulton were not blind in recognizing his executive ability and elected him mayor of the city. His achievements during his administration is a matter of public record and outstanding value to every citizen of the community. His councilmen and co-workers share the honors with him.

Wants to Serve People of Fulton County

Mr. Shankle says he fully realizes the condition of affairs in Fulton county and in seeking the office of county judge, recognizes the great responsibility resting on the one who fills it honestly, efficiently and with loyalty to the people. If elected, he promises to devote his best endeavors to serve the people faithfully and if possible make county warrants worth 100 per cent on the dollar.

He stands for faithful and honest government, good roads, good schools and churches, good health and everything else that is good, and solicits your vote and influence on August 3, with the full understanding that he will do his utmost, if elected, to serve all the people and not a favored few.

The time is limited and he may not get to see all the voters before the election, but wants you to rest assured that he will appreciate your vote on August 3.

News has reached Fulton that Wayne Thomas was recently married in Lexington.

COMING TO THE ORPHEUM THEATRE MONDAY, FOR THREE DAYS, JULY 8, 9, 10

Pathe's all singing, all talking production, "Mother's Boy," with Morton Downey, Broadway's Golden voiced tenor doing the songs and taking leading roles. "Mother's Boy" is going over big every place, and in the minds of many, out-rivaling Al Jolson, in his greatest success, "The Singing Fool." All the trade papers are giving it glowing write ups.

It has just completed a most successful run at Memphis, where many of the local people attended its showing, and they are all loud in its praise. Fulton is indeed fortunate to get this outstanding picture so early and the Orpheum should be filled to overflowing at each showing.

Dr. I. H. Read In Race for Mayor

After considering the earnest pleas of friends, Dr. I. H. Read, prominent business man and progressive citizen, enters the race for Mayor.

For the past 18 years Dr. Read has served the city faithfully on the school board and our modern institutions of learning are largely due to his earnest work. If elected Mayor his best efforts will be exerted to give the people a strictly business administration.

A BAD MIXTURE

A census taker asked the woman at the door, "How many in your family?"

"Five," snapped the answer. "Me, the old man, kid, cow and cat."

"And the politics of your family?"

"Mixed. I'm a Republican, the old man's a Democrat, the kid's wet, the cow's dry, and the cat's a Populist."

MRS. NICHOLS OUT FOR MAGISTRATE DIST. NO. 1

The friends of Mrs. Jess F. Nichols, will be glad to learn that she is in the race for Magistrate of District No. 1, of Fulton county. Fulton county has never had a woman member of the fiscal court and Mrs. Nichols, if elected, will serve the taxpayers with outstanding ability and intelligence.

BOX SUPPER

The Jordan Homemakers' club will give a box supper Saturday night, July 6, at the Jordan school house. Every one is invited.

A STATEMENT TO THE VOTERS OF THE COUNTY

On account of illness in my family and also to the fact that the duties of the office are very heavy on me, I have decided to withdraw from the race for reelection to the office of county judge. I have had the matter under consideration for some time, and have definitely come to the conclusion that my withdrawal would be best for me.

I wish to take this opportunity of thanking the people of the county for their support in this campaign, and in other campaigns. I deeply appreciate all the kindness that has been shown me.

Very sincerely,
W. L. HAMPTON.

If I Had a Million

W. J. McMurry Announces For County Judge

The Advertiser is authorized to announce the candidacy of WALTER J. McMURRY for County Judge of Fulton County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, election August 3, 1929.

Mr. McMurry was born and reared in Fulton county, near Jordan, where the best part of his life was spent on the farm, but for the past 20 years he has practiced law and stands high in the profession, not only in his home county, but throughout this great commonwealth. From the experience he has had he says he feels well qualified to fill the office for which he aspires.

In 1916 he represented Fulton and Hickman counties in the State Legislature, also during a special session in 1917. So well pleased were the voters of the two counties with his representation, they elected him again and he represented the two counties in 1924 with distinction. Today his friends are working to elect him Judge of Fulton county.

Having been reared on the farm he is naturally in sympathy with the problems confronting the farmer. He is a good roads enthusiast and is anxious, he says, to see every road improved and brought up to the highest standard, and if elected, to use his best efforts to give the people a progressive and business-like administration.

Mr. McMurry is a Spanish-American war veteran and a volunteer in the World war. In fact, he has never shirked his duty whenever his country needed him, and says he will not shirk his duty if elected county judge.

He asks that you consider his claims and solicits your support in the August, 1929, primary.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Lowe are the proud parents of a fine 9-pound boy. The young man arrived Sunday morning, June 30. Both child and mother reported getting along nicely at the Mayfield hospital.

POISON FOUND IN MRS. GARDNER'S STOMACH

Strychnine is Also Found in Fatal Medicine

Reports of Examinations Made by Louisville and Lexington Chemists

Both the stomach of Mrs. Zona Gardner and the samples of the medicine which she took shortly before her death contained strychnine, according to reports of the analysis of the medicine and stomach by Louisville and Lexington chemists. The report of the analysis of the stomach was received here Monday afternoon, and chemists of the University of Kentucky, Lexington, reported that they had found that there was strychnine in the medicine.

Examining Trial Friday
The examining trial of Miss Lola Bunch, 29, servant in the Gardner home for the past four years, who is charged with putting strychnine in Mrs. Gardner's medicine, will be held Friday, it was announced by County Judge W. H. Hampton.

Following a post mortem on the body of Mrs. Gardner on June 26 by Dr. Seldon Cohn and Dr. C. A. Wright, of Fulton, her stomach and the medicine were sent to chemists for analysis. The contents of the stomach were examined by Dr. Curry Martin, Louisville city chemist. Dr. Martin reported that when contents of the stomach were given to a guinea pig, the pig had convulsions and died within a short time. In both the stomach and medicine, it was reported that the test for strychnine poison was positive.

Mrs. Gardner died at her home near Fulton on June 16, about an hour after she had taken a dose of medicine. Suspicion was aroused when it was discovered that Mrs. Gardner had taken a dose of the same medicine earlier in the day, with no harmful results.

Arrested June 23
Miss Bunch was arrested on Sunday, June 23, and charged with murder by poisoning. She was placed in the county jail at Hickman, to await the outcome of the examination of the stomach and medicine. Miss Bunch has maintained her innocence throughout. She admitted to a News-Democrat reporter that Mrs. Gardner was jealous of her and that they had several "spats," but that she "never got mad enough to want to kill anyone."

POULTRY

By J. T. Watkins

I was talking to the new manager of the Swift plant that is being erected here, and in our conversation, we naturally drifted around to chickens. I told him I expected at least 800 entries at the show this fall. He laughed and asked, "Where are you going to get them?" He seemed to think we could not produce that many standard bred birds in this vicinity. I told him to wait and see. Now here is what I want, a big entry of chickens a big entry of ducks and geese and at least a dozen turkeys. We want every coop filled. It can be done. I am doing my part, now you do yours. No matter what breed you have, we will have a coop for it, and now it is up to you to get them in shape for the show. If you haven't very many in your flock, mate up an old pen (a cock and four hens) and a young pen (a cockerel and four pullets) and make out your entry blank and have them in the show.

Mr. Will Boydson of the Bowers community was in the office the other day and he told me his community was coming in strong with Rhode Island Reds. Atta boy, Bill, bring 'em in, I want at least 125 reds in the show.

County Agent McPherson says he will bring in a good entry from the west end of the county, of several breeds, we are glad to hear this for during the four years I have had charge of the show there has been a decided dearth of entries from Hickman and vicinity. There are some mighty good chickens over there somewhere, for last year at the little show held in Hickman, I saw some real good birds. I hope John Fethe brings over a string of Barred Rocks for he has some good ones, and he should show them. I want 125 Bared Rocks in the show. Remember, your year is out and you owe $1.00 for 1929 dues.

We want to have as many poultry raisers join the Poultry Association as there are poultry raisers in the five counties comprising this fair association. Also, if you are a booster for the advancement of anything that helps your community, join us, we need your dollar.

Fulton, in the next two years will be the center of a large poultry section. We should have at least 100 standard bred birds on every farm. It is going to take this many to supply the demand that will be made upon us for poultry, and now is the time to start your flock toward that mark. Pick out all the best pullets you have and carry them over this winter. They will pay you about two for one on every dollar you spend for feed for them.

Again, let me impress it on you, to get your birds ready for the show, and bring them in. Let's set a mark that no other show in western Kentucky or Tennessee can surpass, with the exception of Memphis.

NEW FEED STORE OPENS FRIDAY

Located at 121 Plain St.

Fulton welcomes the announcement of the opening of the Staf-O-Life Feed Store, which formally opens its doors to the feed buying public, Friday, of this week.

The management of this store advises that modern methods of merchandising will be applied in the conduct of the new store and the operation of this store will be on a strictly cash and carry basis.

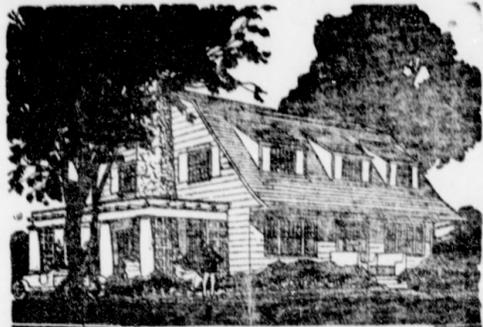

The Staf-O-Life Feed Store will handle the products of Royal Staf-O-Life Mills, of Memphis, Tenn., the South's largest manufacturer of mixed feeds. Staf-O-Life Feeds and Milk-Flo Feeds are among the oldest registered brands of commercial feeds in the United States and are known today wherever there is a demand for manufactured feeds.

The Staf-O-Life Feed Store expects to do a large volume of business through the merit of the product handled, and the low prices at which it will be in a position to sell. In addition to a complete line of ready mixed feeds, this store will also handle a complete line mill feeds and grain of all kinds.

Novel Opening Day Feature

Friday and Saturday of this week have been designated as formal opening days of this store. During these two days, 5 pounds of pure cane sugar will be given with every $5.00 purchase of feed. On Saturday, July 6, an Old Fiddling Contest will be held at this store for the championship of West Kentucky. Large cash prizes will attract the very best talent in this section. Immediately after the Fiddling contest, which starts at 3:30 p. m., there will be a championship hog calling contest. Many of our local pork yodelers are expected to be present and competent judges are going to sit in to see that hog calling honors are properly bestowed. Heretofore, it has been the practice to call hogs to bring in the hogs, but in this instance it will be a matter of calling hogs to bring home the bacon as the cash prizes offered in this contest are quite sizable.

Tuneful music will be furnished Saturday afternoon, and refreshments will be served. There will be no charge of any kind to visitors and the management extends a hearty welcome to the buying public of this territory, an invitation to be his guests on the store's formal opening day.

LIME, LEGUMES AND LIVESTOCK

By H. A. McPherson, County
Agent, Fulton County

With the dairy industry increasing daily, with more good cows and bulls being placed in the county each week, our farmers have been convinced that they must grow more and better legume hay for their cows and that they must grow a better pasture to cut down the cost of producing milk. Lime can be had at a very reasonable price. Basic slag can be delivered at $9.00 per ton, and at the above price it is the cheapest source of phosphate and lime offered for growing clover and alfalfa with wheat or oats. It looks now like there be more lime and basic used in the county this season than has been used for the ten years. Farmers in all parts of the county are getting ready to put out a good permanent pasture, which will give more returns per acre than any acre of plowed land on the farm. We have under estimated our pastures and the time has come when it is almost a necessity to have a good legume pasture.

A committee in the Sylvan Shade community is getting up an order for a car of basic slag to be used on pastures and the growing of wheat and clover. J. W. Maddox, of Sylvan Shade, used slag on ground that was seeded to red clover, and he states that he has never grown better clover. This community is going to purchase enough lime and slag to use on several hundred acres of pastures and clover.

The farmers around Cayce are planning on using lime on pastures and to grow clover. Alner Campbell has more good red clover than he knows what to do with. Mr. Campbell used a car of lime last year and has gotten an excellent crop of wheat and clover off the land.

More sweet clover should be grown as a pasture and soil builder and it can be sown early in the fall and with favorable weather it will afford a good late fall pasture and will be ready for early spring pasture. Sweet clover is the most popular clover used as pasture in America.

The bottom section of the county is blessed with a soil that will grow as fine alfalfa and clover as any section of the U. S., without the use of lime phosphate or inoculation and a large acreage is being grown this year, but the hill section of the county must have some form of lime and phosphate before a successful crop of clover can be grown.

The eastern part of the county has used more lime, therefore they have more good pastures and clovers, but the farmers over the entire county have realized that good pastures are the first essential to successful dairying and livestock growing.

FULTON LIONS AT-TEND CONVENTION

Lions Vodie Hardin and Dudley Smith represented the Fulton Lions at the District and International Conventions held in Louisville, Ky., June 17 to 21. Fulton has a wide awake club, being five years old and having had representatives at four international conventions. The delegates came back to the local club with much pep, having received real inspiration from the meetings, and assuring the ones that did not attend that they missed something really worth while, as the program was filled with speakers and performers of international fame. The 1930 District Convention was voted to Ashland, Ky., and the 1930 International to Denver, Colo. Each place offers a real treat to all delegates attending.

HICKMAN NEWS

Miss Ruth Moore and Rob. Pollack, popular members of the younger set of Hickman, drove to Union City last Tuesday afternoon and were married at the parsonage of the Baptist church by Rev. Hughes. The couple returned here, intending to keep the marriage a secret, but made it known on Friday afternoon. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore, and is one of the most charming young ladies of Hickman, and is a graduate of the 1929 class of Hickman High school. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thomas.

Lewis H. Langford, well known farmer of near Brownsville, has announced his candidacy for magistrate of District No. 3 of Fulton county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, August 3. Pat Henry, Joe Baldridge and Wood Stanley are also candidates for the office.

FLITCHING RIDES

Every mode of travel has its parasites. At sea it is the stowaway, and his tactics have remained the same from the era of sailing vessels down to the modern liner and the days of restricted immigration. On land there has been more variety. Thirty years ago the railroads were the main highways for the hobo, who was content to view the country from a freight car door. Once these wanderers were numerous enough to be a pest to train crews. Now they are heard of occasionally, sometimes being listed as "unknowns" among the victims of a freight wreck, but they have mostly disappeared.

Have they taken to the automobile? With their instinct for wandering, they may have seen that the great state and national systems of highways offer them the best opportunities. They depend on the good will of the autoist to "get a lift," and on the long stretches, away from the populous districts, they are generally successful.

The spread of this habit of accepting or soliciting rides is an imposition on the good nature of auto owners. Their real object, of course, is to save carefare home. The whole thing amounts to a petty hold-up and should be stopped. The hobo's way of stealing a ride does not differ so much after all from the more up-to-date method of begging a ride.

BENA ELIZABETH LATTA BECOMES BRIDE OF
FRANK M. BUTTERFIELD

An attractive late spring wedding took place Saturday morning when Miss Bena Elizabeth Latta, daughter of Mrs. Willie A. Latta, of Water Valley, Kentucky, became the bride of Frank M. Butterfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Butterfield, of Eaton, Indiana. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Latta, of Water Valley, at 7:00 o'clock, by Rev. D. W. Fooks, of Paducah, Kentucky.

Preceding the ceremony, the groom's sister, Mrs. Harold Talbott of Green Castle, Indiana, sang "Oh Promise Me," followed by Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by the bride's niece, Miss Dorothy Williams, of Fulton, Kentucky.

The bridal party stood in the living room before an improvised altar of greenery and pink roses. Miss Frances Bradley, of Murray, Kentucky, served as maid of honor and Mr. Harold Talbott of Green Castle, Indiana, as best man.

The bride wore a gown of chiffon of powder blue, made with a sleeveless bodice and a full skirt of uneven hem line. Her flowers were bride's roses and baby breath. The maid of honor wore a gown of yellow chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of yellow gladiolus. Only the immediate families were guests.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Kentucky, and a member of the Delta Zeta Sorority. Mr. Butterfield is a graduate of De Pau University and a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity. After an extended honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Butterfield will make their home in Lexington, Kentucky.

DAIRY FACTS

4,319 COWS ON TEST IN HERD ASSOCIATIONS

A total of 4,319 cows are on test in the 10 dairy herd improvement associations in Kentucky, according to a report of the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky.

One hundred and twenty-three cows produced 50 pounds or more of fat each during the month, and 372 cows produced 40 to 50 pounds each.

The Oldham-Jefferson association, containing 687 cows, 92 of which were dry, averaged 26.5 pounds of fat per cow last month, the highest average of any association. Other associations averaged as follows: Nelson-Henry-Shelby, 25.8; Blue Grass, 24.6; Northern Kentucky, 24.5; Ohio-Kentucky, 23.7; Christian-Todd, 23.7; Graves county, 23.1; McCracken-Ballard, 22, and Washington-Marion-Taylor, 21.5.

The herd of W. M. McCullough, in the Blue Grass association, composed of 19 pure-bred and grade Guernseys, averaged 41.2 pounds of fat, the highest for the month.

Eighty-three cows were culled out in the various associations during the month, testing showing them to be unprofitable. Forty-three cows and seven bulls were purchased by association members.

FOUR-H CLUB BOY WINS SILVER MEDAL ON JERSEY HEIFER

The American Jersey Cattle Club has announced that Harry Guier, a Calloway county 4-H club boy, recently tested a Jersey heifer that won the first silver medal ever awarded in western Kentucky.

The heifer was started on test at the age of 3 years and 11 months, and in the ensuing 305 days produced 551.97 pounds of fat and 10,659 pounds of milk. This fat yield is equivalent to 689.9 pounds of butter.

Harry Guier is a brother of Hilson Guier, the first 4-H club member in the United States to test a world's champion cow. Hilson's cow is the world champion senior 3-year-old, producing 784 pounds of fat and 12,624 pounds of milk in 305 days.

Harry and Hilson Guier are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Guier, of Calloway county. Their father is a farmer, and their cows were tested under ordinary farm conditions.

Calloway county, where P. H. Wilson is agricultural agent, is rapidly becoming famous for its dairying. Four-H club members especially are attracting national attention. They showed five Jerseys which won the highest award as a state exhibition at the National Dairy Exposition at Memphis last year.

AMONG THE COUNTY AGENTS

An average of 300 ten-gallon cans of cream are being shipped from Fulton every Saturday. Many dairy cows are being taken into the county, and two bull associations have been organized.

More than 100 Carter county farmers will use lime on their land this year, compared with less than a dozen using lime three years ago. Some of them are trucking limestone 55 miles.

Through the influence of the farmers, arrangements have been made to begin the construction of a telephone system that will serve all parts of Gallatin county.

Lovell Brothers in Cooper community in Wayne county have a good growth of red clover on limed land that has failed to grow clover for 15 years. A check plot left unlimed has no clover in it.

Montgomery county bankers will construct a limeshed at Mt. Sterling in order that farmers may have an available supply of limestone. J. O. Green, key banker for the agricultural committee of the Kentucky Bankers' Association, is heading the project.

Thirty-three members of the 4-H dairy calf club in Trigg county have secured calves at an average cost of $145. A bull costing $300 is the property of the entire club.

Eight thousand feet of tile brought back into cultivation, six acres of land that had long been too wet on the farm of Sam Lewis in Knox county. Limestone and phosphate were applied and the field sowed to soybeans.

The Nelson County Golden Hoof Club and the Bardstown Chamber of Commerce are co-operating in the enforcement of the dog law. A man has been employed to take a dog census.

WIENER ROAST

The Crutcherfield Junior Club met with Mrs. Willie Little, Monday afternoon, June 24, from three until seven o'clock.

The club was reorganized for the summer. Miss Louise Brown was elected president; Miss Emma Mae Bellew was elected vice president, while the program conductor, Miss Clella Elliott, and secretary, Miss Rachel Byrd, retained their previous offices.

After the business meeting, games and contests were enjoyed. About six o'clock, we hiked to old Woodlawn school ground to enjoy a wiener roast.

Those present were Misses Louise Brown, Emma Mae and Ione Bellew, Clara Elizabeth Boyd, Dorothy and Clella Elliott, Rachel Easley, Esther and Elizabeth Byrd, Frances and Dorothy McClanahan, Elizabeth Walker, Addie Mae Yates, Pauline Waggener, Linda Mae Elliott, Admath Brown, Nerine Veath and Magdalene and Rachel Byrd; Messrs. Fletcher

Williams, Gerald Elliott and Garth Holy.

Assisting the hostess, Mrs. Little, were Mrs. Bryant Williams, Mrs. Willie McClanahan and Miss Jackson, our club director.

At seven o'clock we thanked our hostesses for our most enjoyable evening, and adjourned to meet again Tuesday, July 9, for some real club work.

A Call to Industry

The Illinois Central System lives in a community—the Mississippi Valley—which is more than a thousand miles in length and which includes fourteen important states. To assist in the industrial development of this great territory is one of the railroad's major undertakings. Such a program is one of enlightened self-interest, for the progress of the Illinois Central System is bound up in the advancement of its territory.

Good transportation is an industrial necessity. First, therefore, the Illinois Central System endeavors to give the best service that a well-trained organization working with adequate facilities can perform.

In addition, the Illinois Central System is constantly seeking to be helpful to the industries of its territory in the solution of their varied problems. Assistance is rendered in locating raw materials, developing markets, increasing production, reducing expense and meeting the other timely demands of a fast-moving age.

The services of the entire Illinois Central System organization, nation-wide in scope, are available not only to industries already established in the Mississippi Valley but also to those seeking locations therein. The railroad has reliable information available with respect to industrial opportunities, and special surveys will be gladly made upon request.

This territory has many attractions for industries. Its great natural advantages are becoming well known. Supplementing these is an alert citizenship with a cooperative spirit.

Industry and transportation are closely related. They work together for mutual benefit in the territory of the Illinois Central System.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

L. A. DOWNS,
 President, Illinois Central System.

Lesson for July 7

THE STORY OF EZEKIEL

LESSON TEXT—Ezekiel 2:1-31; 3:1-15; 4:1-17.
 GOLDEN TEXT—As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live.
 PRIMARY TOPIC—Ezekiel, a Messenger of God.
 JUNIOR TOPIC—Ezekiel, a Messenger of God.
 INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Fruitfulness in Friendship.
 YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—A Prophet-Captive.

Ezekiel prophesied in the land of the captivity. The purpose of his ministry was threefold.

(1) To keep before the house of Israel that they were in captivity because of their sins (1:1-3). (2) To show that God is righteous in His visitation of judgment upon them (2:8-31). (3) To sustain their faith by assuring them of their national restoration, the punishment of their enemies and their final exaltation among the nations when Messiah should reign (33:18-21).

I. Ezekiel's Call (2:1, 2).

1. Command to stand up (v. 1).

He was given a vision of the Almighty God on His throne of "lapis lazuli." The purpose of this vision was to give a synthetic grasp of the execution of the divine will through the powers and forces which God had created. Before this vision the prophet fell prostrate upon his face. When one sees the diversity and complexity of the agencies employed, including the animate and inanimate creation intelligently moving forward, under the direction of the Almighty, he will be ready to face any task regardless of its difficulty.

2. Filled with the Spirit (v. 2).

By the Spirit the divine energy entered him and enabled him to execute his commission.

II. Ezekiel's Commission (vv. 3-8)

1. The moral condition of the people (vv. 3, 4).

(1) A rebellious nation (v. 3). This perhaps referred to their idolatrous practices.

(2) Impudent children (v. 4). Impudent means literally "hard of face." It means the grossest perversity which caused them to stand up in the presence of the prophets of God without a sense of guilt.

2. The charge (v. 4).

He was to deliver God's message. It was to be, "Thus saith the Lord God."

3. The difficulty of his task (vv. 5-8)

The prophet was to deliver the message of God whether they would hear or forbear. He was to fearlessly execute his commission, though the attitude of the people be as "briers, thorns and scorpions."

A faithful minister's life and testimony will run counter to the world (11 Tim. 3:12).

III. Ezekiel's Experimental Qualifications (2:9-3:10)

Before one can preach to others he must have a personal experience.

1. Eating the book (2:9-3:3)

This book contained God's woes upon the stiff-necked and rebellious people. In order to speak God's threat enings effectively to others we must inwardly digest and appropriate them ourselves. The result of this eating was that Ezekiel was made "hard of face and forehead" to go against the people who were "hard of face and forehead."

2. Ured on by the Spirit (3:10-14)

In order to strengthen Ezekiel for his task, the wonderful symbolism of God's providential agencies which had been before him in chapter one was brought to his attention, assuring him that God would accompany him to his new destination.

3. Entering into sympathy (v. 15)

In order to minister to a people one must show that the message is from the depth of the heart. Ezekiel mingled his tears with theirs.

IV. Ezekiel's Grave Responsibility (3:17-21)

Two things were required of him as a watchman over the flock.

1. To hear the Word at God's mouth (v. 17).

The source of his message was God's Word. This is true today.

2. To sound the warning (v. 17).

After he had heard God's message he was to speak it out; then his responsibility was discharged.

V. Ezekiel's Courage (24:15-18)

He was to be taught by a sorrowful experience. He was to turn his face from even natural desire. At the death of his wife he was forbidden to mourn. By this means God sought to impress upon Israel the seriousness of the situation.

The Sick Need the Physician

And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.—Matthew 10 to 13.

Route 5 News

Singing at Chestnut Glade, Sunday, was just about the best on record. Lots of leaders, singers, dinner, listeners and candidates. A quartet from Egypt sang several numbers and were enthusiastically received. Bill Matthews, with several of his pupils from Pilot Oak, were there. Mr. Wright, Pentecost and others from Palmersville; Mr. Jolley and others too numerous to mention. Singing fine and everybody enjoyed it. No singing next Sunday at Chestnut Glade. The first Sunday in August at 2:30. Come again and help us sing as is usual.

Uncle John Vincent is now confined to his bed and gradually growing worse.

Mr. Temple was able to go out to singing Sunday, after many months of illness.

The protracted meetings at Ruthville and Oak Grove both begin the third Sunday in July. At Sandy Branch and Mt. Moriah the second Sunday in August.

Mrs. Mollie Rowden, of Hickman, spent several days in this community last week, returning to her home in Hickman, Saturday.

A message from Mr. Cecil Halls family stated that Mr. Hall had an accident happen to his truck last week. He was hauling from Detroit to Cincinnati, when his truck was run into and burned up, one person being burned to death in the wreck. Mr. Hall escaped with slight injuries.

Jesse Moore, who is in Memphis for treatment, has sleeping sickness, and cure is doubtful.

Mrs. Moore's daughters, Mrs. Carl Phillips, and Mrs. Balder Roby, and their families spent the week end with her.

Mrs. Wagster has been spending several days with her daughters, Mrs. Brundage and Ward. Mr. and Mrs. Mack Ladd and Mrs. Ernest Rawles visited Mrs. Justin Nanney, last Sunday.

Guy W. Finch came home from Detroit last Thursday, stating that there were thousands of people in Detroit looking for work, and few getting it.

Mrs. Ina Pickle and Mrs. Maud Pickle are visiting relatives and friends here. They arrived from Big Spring, Texas last week.

HOT WEATHER DREAMS

While resting in the cool shade these hot days, why not let your thoughts dwell upon this town and countryside — upon what they need, what you can do for them, and upon how you can spur others to greater exertions in behalf of our community life?

They need more thought, deeper concentration, greater action.

Many a great and ennobling deed receives its inception in an idle moment. The hours of work and action serve but to expand and develop it.

It might be so with that idle thought of yours, with this community of ours.

No town is ever so perfect but what it might become a hundred per cent more so. Even ours is no exception to the rule.

Cool off in the shade if you feel so inclined.

Let your thoughts wander afield, and gather in the ideas of fancy that may later crystallize into a greater and better community development.

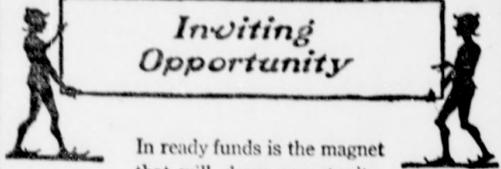

We add a new coat of paint to our house and gaze upon the finished product with pride. Its improved appearance more than justifies the labor and expense.

And if improvement is good for the home of the individual why not for the community as a whole?

Let your hours of idleness beget others of energy and aggressiveness. It ennobles yourself and enhances your value to the community. It develops the community and increases its value to you.

ELDRED-WALKER NUPTIALS

The following account of the wedding of Miss Frances Louise Eldred to Mr. Donald Eugene Walker is taken from the Lexington Herald. The bride, a granddaughter of Mrs. R. E. Pickering of this city, has often visited in Fulton, and many friends will be interested in the wedding.

The wedding of Miss Frances Louise Eldred and Mr. Donald Eugene Walker was solemnized Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the First Christian church of Lawrenceburg, the Rev. W. G. Eldred officiating. The church was beautifully decorated in palms and ferns and tiers of tall candelabra formed the background for the exquisite picture the bridal party made. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. E. W. Delcamp, of Lexington, accompanied by Miss Jessie Mae Lillard, sang, "All For You," and "Heart Secrets."

The bridesmaids, Miss Anita Overby, Miss Lois Allred and Mrs. Joe Faulkner, were the first to enter as the wedding march started. Their gowns were of orchid taffet, with trimmings of green, and they carried arm bouquets of sweetheart roses. The maid of honor, Miss Mildred Eldred, was next to enter. She was gowned in green georgette and carried sweetheart roses tied with ribbons of orchid tulle. The groom with his best man, Mr. Carson O'Brian, entered from the door of the study. The bride entered with her uncle, Mr. R. C. Pickering.

Fulton, and she was never more beautiful than on her wedding day. She wore an exquisite gown of white georgette made bouffant style and reaching to the floor. Her veil was a lovely creation of tulle with a coronet of orange blossoms and duchess lace, and she carried a small white leather prayer book. Immediately following the impressive ceremony said by the father of the bride, Mrs. Delcamp sang the Tri-Delta wedding hymn as a benediction.

The wedding was followed by an informal reception in the home of the bride's parents. Later in the evening the bride changed to her traveling dress of creme crepe, with accessories to match, and a hat of light green felt, and the happy couple left in their car for northern Michigan, where they will enjoy their honeymoon on the lakes.—From Lexington Herald.

Ford Foresees A Utopia

HENRY FORD, who completed his new "A" cars more than a month ago, thinks that there is too much drudgery in the home. Perhaps he wants people to have more time for motoring. At any rate, he writes in his new book, "My Philosophy of Industry":

"The great problem in the home today is too much drudgery. It may sound like an astonishing proposition to advance, but we shall soon find a way to do much of the cooking outside and deliver it in a hot and appetizing condition at meal time at no greater cost than that at which it is now being prepared in the workman's home."

Not So Far Fetched

Like most of his theories, as his own personal success indicates, this Utopia which he pictures is not so far fetched. The commercial canneries of today have reduced the time it is now necessary to devote to the preparation and cooking of food in the home to a minimum. That the housewife appreciates this help is proved by the fact that one billion more cans of processed foods were produced and sold in 1928 than in the previous year.

The canneries have not yet solved the problem of delivering the food hot, but they have eliminated such a vast amount of the washing, peeling, stomping and seeding of fruits and vegetables, the boiling and skimming of fish and the boiling of fowl, as say nothing of the long hours women formerly spent cooking over a hot stove, that the American housewife has acquired a new freedom.
