A CARD TO THE VOTERS

The office of County Judge is one of the most important in our county. When elected, this individual makes settlements with comeptent officials, approves the bonds of ex-ecutives, and decides how the county is going to be administered.

In addition to this, the county judge must maintain time and house crimes, and he has the power to issue warrants, call in the work of the county.

The choice of a county judge is a very important one. It must be able to be done well, or else much revenue will be received, much of which will be required. It is self-interest, charges, etc., that the magistrate has to keep in mind.

Farm Notes
By H. A. McPherson, County Agent

Around 200 tons of hay have emptied into Fulton during the last week. About 100 bales have been purchased by Mr. C. B. Williams, last week. Arch Oller sold a scra-mall and pullet and put it with a man near out of a fine class.
This took our total number of eggs to 20,000 for the past 40 days. Help us get our eggs for sale by January 1.

Everything is pointing to a successful year at the county fair. Preparations are being made to have the best possible judge. The boys and girls are getting their calves ready and are using every means of preventing a good breed of stock from being imported or registered on should be sheltered. It is the saddest of all to see a fair to win premiums, but to lose the public what you have on your farm. Some of the highest producers reported for this fair. Food is in the plates.

Two of my most progressive farmers attended the Kansas and California: country show held last week. Around 100 farmers were there and they had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Morley, sec-tary of the American Breed-Cattle Club, talk on the material possibilities of raising infield representatives of the American Jersey Cattle Club of Kentucky and Tennessee.

both from the standpoint of winning first place and from the standpoint of the best meat for the table.
