AN EGYPTIAN
QUICK SHAVE.

‘Gives a man quick shays,” says a man who owns the largest looking barbershop in town. "He saw me take a clean razor, washed it, and put it on my face. Then he motioned for a chair, as the man took a footstool and put it under the chair. The barber, who was most exact and careful, washed my face and hands. He then left the room, and returned with a small box, containing a razor, a bowl of soap, and a small towel. He then put the box on the table, and took the razor and towel. He then took the bowl of soap, and poured some on my face. Then he took the razor, and began to shave.

“Is a very nice way of doing it,” says the man. "It's quick, and it's nice. I've never seen a barber do it this way before."

Had Been Invalided For Several Years With Tuberculosis. Complications Developed.

Yesterday afternoon at 12.00 o'clock, Mrs. Catherine Freeman Man, in the prime of her power, but for years an invalid from the effects of tuberculosis, passed away in the presence of her family. She was the wife of Mr. Man, a merchant of this city. The decease was occasioned by the further developments of a chronic disease, probably connected with the Longfellow house in the southern districts of the state, to which she had removed some time ago.
