Accordingly, Jantje having withdrawn with the cart and horse out of sight under the shelter of the rise, John crept on his hands and knees and crawled to the side of the road. He got on all right till he was quite close to the dead cow, and was just about to get up, when he saw a shadowy figure standing in the road. It was a man, and he was looking at John. John looked up, and saw a man in a dark coat and hat, and a white shirt. He was looking at John. John looked up, and saw a man in a dark coat and hat, and a white shirt. He was looking at John.

AYER'S PILLS. Persons who suffer from Indigestion can arrest the progress of that painful malady by the use of an after-dinner remedy, which will give tone to the stomach, prevent heartburn, rise the liver to healthy action, invigorate the kidneys, and, through the activity of these organs, promote the natural process of the blood, and thus prevent the formation of humors. AYER'S PILLS are so compounded that their action, though mild, effectually produces the desired result. They are a cure for Constipation, remove the cause of Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Kidney Troubles, Rheumatism, and many other ailments.

Forbes & Bro. AYER'S AGUE CURE. Never fails to cure every form of disorder peculiar to Malarial-infected districts. Is Warranted. In every case, when used in accordance with directions, it contains no opium, and not only neutralizes Malarial poison, but stimulates the Liver to healthy action, and gives tone to the Stomach, and promotes the appetite. "Pottersville, Texas, Jan. 15, 1884." "Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.: 'Gentlemen: For more than 40 years I have lived in localities where Malarial fevers have been the subject of their attacks in many forms, and found no remedy so reliable and safe as Ayer's Ague Cure. Taken according to directions, it will never fail to cure.' J. B. M. HUNTER."

CONSUMPTION. It is a fearful disease, and one that is rapidly increasing in prevalence. It is a disease of the lungs, and is caused by a variety of causes, such as colds, coughs, and exposure to wet and cold. It is a disease that is often fatal, and it is one that is often preventable. It is a disease that is often cured by the use of Ayer's Ague Cure. It is a disease that is often cured by the use of Ayer's Ague Cure.

Something For Nothing?

Send your name to Bassett & Co., Louisville, Ky., and they will mail you postpaid, a copy of "Old Fashioned Roses are Sweetest" (words and music), Will S. Hays' latest song.

Dolly Mitchell.

We are requested by Logan county officials to state that a girl named Dolly Mitchell, who once lived in this county with a Mr. Wheeler and who recently returned here from Logan, will be wanted as a very important witness at the July term of Logan Circuit Court. Let Dolly show up and get some witness fees.

Kimbrough Skipped.

Mention was made in Tuesday's paper of the killing of a negro named Garrett by another named Kimbrough, near Herndon.

Kimbrough was arrested and brought before Justice of the Peace, Major. The Squire put him under bond of $200.00 to appear for trial before himself and Squire Davis, on Monday at 2 o'clock. The defendant failed to appear and it now looks like the bond was not so good as it might have been. County Attorney Payne had been notified and had arranged for the trial here to-day before Judge Anderson.

Before and After.

A large and cultivated audience assembled at the Opera House Tuesday night to hear the eloquent Dr. Deems discuss "Before and After Marriage." The lecture was an inimitable discussion of a subject well understood by about one-half of mankind. It was humorous, pathetic, eloquent, abounding in strong antitheses and flashes of wit, while throughout the entire discourse was interwoven a thread of common sense that captivated the highest judgment of the audience. The lecturer advanced the theory that "matches were made in heaven" and that any boy or girl has only to wait and his or her mate would come—a most convincing doctrine. The audience applauded at decreasing intervals and everybody left the house feeling glad that they had heard the lecture.

Court Notes.

Geo. Petree, col. another violator of the prohibition law, was arrested yesterday and locked up.

At the last term of the grand jury, Walker Moore, col., was indicted for Sheriff Boyd arrested him on a bench warrant and in default of bail was committed to jail.

The above cases were called for trial Wednesday afternoon before Judge Anderson: Witness Zack Ryan testified that on several occasions he "chipped in" with others and had accused purchase a quart of whiskey for them. On several occasions he had bought it outright from them, paying ten cents a drink for it. The accused both testified that they had never sold Ryan a drop, but had bought several quarts for him and others, from dealers before their licenses had expired. Without argument the case was submitted, and both parties were acquitted of any violation of the Prohibition law.

The Excellent Qualities
Of the delightful, liquid, fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, combined in it to all who suffer from Habitual Constipation and kindred ills. Being in liquid form and pleasing to the taste, harmless in its nature, strengthening as well as relaxing in its effects, and therefore the favorite family remedy, especially with the ladies and children, who require a gentle yet effective laxative. For sale by H. B. Garner.

Local News.

Candler's stock sale next Saturday.
The Tobacco breaks this week are very large.

The largest stock in the jewelry line, and lowest prices, at M. D. Kelly's.

The tobacco market this week is very strong and active, with a tendency toward better prices all around.

Summer says there will be another wedding next week in this city, on South Main street. Wonder who it is?

Breeders of good mules and horses should examine Polk Candler's stock.

Nashville street is in a very bad condition, and the street Superintendent can do no better piece of work than to repair it.

W. E. Embury pays 35 cents for free washed wool, sells good young ewes at $2.25 and pays $1.25 per 100 lbs for early lambs.

W. E. Embury shipped last Tuesday to Tatum Embury & Co., Louisville, 150 Philadelphia lambs. The finest lot sent out in a long time.

This part of the City warehouse next to Gant & Galters, is being raised to a two-story room. The improvement will greatly facilitate the Eugene Mills Co., in handling their wares.

Rev. Fred D. Hafe, of Louisville, will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and deliver the annual sermon before the young ladies of Bethel Female College on Sunday evening.

Policeman Bill Waddlington was called on to kill a rabid dog Tuesday afternoon. It is now about time that a shot gun epidemic should prevail among the canines after the manner of the one last year.

The Church Hill Grange sale takes place tomorrow. The magnificent dinner always set by the ladies of the Grange as well as the splendid show of stock never fail to attract a large attendance.

An elegant little masculine and social was given at the hospitable residence of Dr. W. G. Wheeler, Tuesday night.

Among those present were Misses Wisdom, Venable, Warfield and others and Messrs. Hopper, Reichert, Spur, Mullen and others. A most delightful evening was spent.

Take notice of the "$1,000 reward" offered by our enterprising jeweler, August G. Reichert. Mr. Reichert keeps up with the procession in every department of his business, and he is especially fortunate in having Mr. Olvey, a most skillful, practical watch-maker, connected with him.

Hon. J. H. Powell, of Henderson, will deliver the literary address on Tuesday evening, May 31st, at the Opera House. The exercises of Bethel Female College are always looked to with interest by our community, and the concert of that evening as well as the address will be heard by many.

On Wednesday, June 1, the Southern Kentucky and Tennessee Jersey breeders will sell at the Union Stock-yards, Nashville, Tenn., about fifty choice Jerseys. The contributors to this sale are well-known breeders, and not traders. Their cattle will be at the Union Stock-yards in a few days. Parties who wish to examine them can do so.

Wm. Bradshaw, col., was tried before Judge Anderson Tuesday, for coal stealing, but the testimony was not sufficient to convict. Immediately after his acquittal for the above offense, he was arrested for carrying concealed weapons.

As he had the pistol in his pocket the proof was positive and his Honor imposed a fine of $25 and ten days in jail.

Something seems to be the matter with the supply of gas being furnished consumers in this city. For a week past it has been very poor. The night before the unavailing, the merchants were complaining that the light was entirely insufficient to light their stores.

Last night it was very difficult to light the gas at the Opera House, the blaze being about the size of a half-dime, and giving the appearance of a lot of light-bugs sitting on a limb, waiting for the moon to rise that they might "know each other there." Gentlemen, the time has arrived and past, suppose you send our gas jets and turn on the light.

Free! Gratia! For Nothing!!!
Do you want a copy of Will S. Hays' new song? (words and music), if so, send your name to Bassett & Co., Louisville, Ky., and they will mail you one.

Sold Again.
The Russellville Dispatch is about the worst "sold" newspaper we have heard of. R. Y. Thomas, Jr., started it and sold a half interest to J. E. Rizer—then in Florida—and leased the other half to two printers. Mr. Thomas then went back to Mannheim and turned his attention to politics; Mr. Rizer came up shortly afterward and took charge; two printers then absconded and now Mr. Rizer has sold back to Mr. Thomas, and says in a card in the Herald-Enterprise "should he not continue the publication of the paper, he has bound himself to meet all the unpaid unexpired subscriptions to the name."

Among the subscribers referred to there can, perhaps, be found the only person in the country who wants the paper. Thomas and Rizer are both clever young fellows and we deplore their tough luck; but then, what is there about the newspaper business that isn't "tough,"—excepting, of course, delinquent subscribers?

Free of Charge!
"Old Fashioned Roses are Sweetest," by Will S. Hays—will be mailed to you if you will send us your name.

Wedding Bells.

LONG-WILEY: Tonight at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Mr. W. A. Long will be united in marriage to Miss Maggie Wiley, Rev. A. C. Biddle officiating assisted by Rev. J. N. Prentiss. No tickets will be issued in this city.

Miss Wiley is the beautiful daughter of Mr. G. W. Wiley and is a young lady of rare culture and attractiveness. She is well known in this city and has long been a reigning favorite here.

Mr. Long is one of our leading young business men. He is eminently a success because of his industry, frugality and high character. He is a young man of ability as an architect and many of his designs have been incorporated into some of the handsomest buildings in this city.

The New Era offers them the warmest congratulations.

Syrup of Figs
Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal., is Nature's Own true Laxative. It is the most easily taken and the most pleasantly effective remedy known to cleanse the system when bilious or costive; to cure habitual constipation, indigestion, etc. For sale in 50 cent and $1.00 bottles by H. B. Garner, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Cleveland on Temperance.
The action of the President in directing that no liquor shall be sold on the National Drill camp ground is universally commended. The President, indeed, could not have done otherwise than to issue such an order, as the camp is on a public reservation, and the law prohibits the sale of liquors on such.

Representative Crain, during a recent interview with the President, incidentally referred to the temperance question. "The President," said Mr. Crain, "re-marked that the subject of temperance was a serious and difficult problem to solve." In regard to drinking customs, he observed that our people were, to a great extent, cosmopolitan. Take the state of things in Buffalo, for instance, where there are a great many Germans, and they are a thrifty people and make good citizens. There you might see on a Sunday, a German man sitting at a table in a garden taking beer, and quietly enjoying himself according to his own notion. It would seem hard to deprive him of that enjoyment. On the other hand it occasionally happens that young men get together and drink to excess, and on Monday morning are unfit for business, and go on until they lose their employment and become outcasts. It also happens sometimes that the excessive use of liquor drives men to crime, and even to the gallows. He had drunk wine and beer, and had seen no reason to object to his doing the same in moderation. There is no doubt that the man who uses liquor to excess is not equal to his duties, and he had observed this when he had men working for him."
