FIRE UNCONTROLLED FINISHES DESTRUCTION BEGUN BY EARTHQUAKE.

THE CITY OF SAN FRANCISCO ABANDONED TO THE SWEEPING FLAMES AND INHABITANTS FLEE TO PLACES OF SAFETY—OTHER CITIES AND TOWNS IN CALIFORNIA DEMOLISHED.

Los Angeles, April 18—The city of San Francisco was abandoned this evening, as its inhabitants have decided to desert their homes. The city is believed to be doomed.

OFFICIAL RECORD OF THE GREAT EARTHQUAKE

Washington, April 19—The San Francisco earthquake is of course one of the most memorable earthquakes of modern times. It was felt in many parts of the United States and in other countries as far away as New Zealand.

Great Earthquakes of Modern Times

Among memorable earthquakes of modern times may be mentioned those of Lisbon in 1755, Calabria in 1783, Ceylon in 1811, Naples in 1814, Panama in 1846, Oregon in 1868, and Guatamala in 1874.

The Charleston Earthquake

Among recent earthquakes that have occurred within the last few years, that of Charleston, S.C., in August last, is perhaps the most remarkable. It was felt at a distance of 500 miles and caused great destruction of property.

The San Francisco Earthquake

The San Francisco earthquake is one of the most remarkable earthquakes of modern times. It was felt in many parts of the United States and in other countries as far away as New Zealand.

Facts About San Francisco

The city of San Francisco is located on an island in the Pacific Ocean and is bounded on the north by the Golden Gate and on the south by the Pacific Ocean. It is the commercial and financial center of the Pacific Coast and is one of the largest cities in the United States.

FIRE EXTENDS IN VARIOUS AREA

Washington, D.C., April 19—The San Francisco fire has now extended to the following areas:

- San Francisco Gas & Electric Co.
- Pacific Union Club, Post and Stockton streets.
- St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Van Ness Ave.
- San Francisco Gas & Electric Co.

Fighting Warrant

Henry W. Smith was fined $50 for fighting a fire at Depot Street on May 4.

More Trouble for Police

Chief James Collins yesterday said that he thought the city had “more than enough” trouble but that the chief would not “break loose” the police force.

Fires Continue

The fires continue to burn around the city, and the fire department is doing its best to contain them. The fire has now spread to the following areas:

- San Francisco Gas & Electric Co.
- Pacific Union Club, Post and Stockton streets.
- St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Van Ness Ave.
- San Francisco Gas & Electric Co.

OFFICIALS INDICTED

By the Grand Jury.

The grand jury, appointed on the 10th instant, met in the Campbell County Court House Tuesday afternoon, and proceeded to call the names of: Perry and J. H. Shultz for alleged violation of the county and city liquor laws; Dr. W. W. Eubanks for violation of the city liquor laws; Judge S. A. Ford, for acts of misconduct in office; W. E. Monroe, Sr., a juror, for the act of misconduct in office, and Secretary Rodney C. Davis of the Paducah Baptist Association, for violation of the Paducah Baptist Association's rules and regulations.

The indictment of the above-named persons was based on the evidence adduced against them by the state's attorney, W. A. Burkamp, and the county attorney, John Heuver.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—The members of the Chicago Clearing House Association, by special telegram, expressed their sincerest sympathy with the entire German people and told them how they had contributed $5,000 for the sufferers.

Bankers Offer to Aid San Francisco

Bankers of San Francisco, as has been the custom, left this city yesterday afternoon to confer with the city officials and to investigate the condition of affairs in San Francisco. The banks are offering to aid the city in every way possible, and they are ready to take any action that may be necessary.

GERMAN NEWSPAPERS

BERLIN, April 19.—The following newspapers are making special telegraphic reports describing the terrific effects of the earthquake on buildings, street, houses, etc., in the city. The reports are vivid, and give an insight into the state of the city, as it is, activities, etc. With regard to the city's destruction, the following is quoted from the Berliner Volkszeitung: "The city is a complete ruin. The once beautiful and spacious streets are now in ruins, and the buildings that were once so fine are now in ruins. The fire has spread so rapidly that it is feared the whole of the city will be destroyed. The firemen have been fighting the fire for three days, but with little success. The city has been destroyed by an earthquake, and the firemen are doing their best to save some of the buildings."
DESERVED TO BE KILLED.

Man Who Made Two Girls to Die is Convicted of Homicide.

State of Iowa, v. LEONARD T. BROWN.

Saturday, January 12, 1895.

The second murder of the same kind within a few days, was carried out in Des Moines, Iowa, yesterday morning, a man named Leonard T. Brown, being found guilty of the murder of a young girl, and sentenced to death.

The case was tried before Justice F. H. JENKINS, of the Supreme Court of Iowa.

The trouble arose over a quarrel between the two girls and the man, the latter being overpowered and stabbed to death with a pair of scissors.

The deceased was identified as ETHEL J. MILLER, a young girl living at 111 East Washington Street, Des Moines.

The man who killed her was last seen in the company of a young girl, and is believed to have been in the vicinity of the scene of the crime at the time of the murder.

It is believed that the man who killed the girl will be arrested in the near future.

In a certain town in the province of Milan, West Indies, a eminent public character was impeached. He was about to be tried by a jury of twelve citizens, and was found guilty. One day, in a street, a man saw an old man waiving a white towel in the air, and a crowd of people was gathered around him. The old man said: “I am accused of witchcraft. I am innocent, and I will prove it by magic.” He then cast a spell and the crowd disappeared. The old man was acquitted.

REWARD FOR MISSING MAN

JAMES McFADDEN OF JERSEYVILLE, OHIO, WANTED.

Chief James Collins yesterday received word from Mollie McFarland of Asheville, Ohio, asking that he look for Jerome McFadden, who disappeared from that city on Monday past.

Mr. Collins said that, so far as he knows, this young man is not likely to return to this section of the country, and it is feared that he has probelly possibly been found in this captain. A reward of $250,000 is of-
