Monday night at the big night for Fulton basketball fans, for the scene, exactly as it was on the day of the game. The week before, the game was played on the same court, and the officials and the audience were a bit more quiet. The weather was nice, and the crowd showed up to watch the game.

The game was scheduled to start at 8:00 p.m., but the officials were delayed in getting to the court. The game finally started at 8:15 p.m., and the crowd was still waiting for the game to begin. The officials finally arrived, and the game started.

The game was played on a wooden court, and the officials wore black uniforms. The players were from the University of Kentucky and the University of Indiana. The game was played in front of a packed crowd, and the officials were able to keep the game moving.

The game was a close one, with the University of Kentucky leading by three points at halftime. The University of Indiana came back in the second half and took the lead back. The game went into overtime, and the University of Indiana won 89-87 in overtime.

The officials were able to keep the game going, and the crowd was able to enjoy the game. The officials were relieved to have the game over, and the crowd was happy with the outcome.

The officials were pleased with the game, and they were happy to have been a part of it. The crowd was happy with the game, and they were thankful for the officials who kept the game going. The officials were happy with the crowd, and the crowd was happy with the officials. The officials were able to keep the game going, and the crowd was able to enjoy the game.
