A Message of Confidence

Day and night the signals along the Illinois Central System send a message of confidence and cheer to those who man the trains.

These signals of safety stand unsummoned over millions of lives and billions of dollars in goods and property.

The version at the "spoke"—with its arc, arc, easy, its maintenance of speed and safety—is a long gasp for the trustworthy operation of these wavelike signals and the intelligence and alertness of the men who read their meanings and translate them into action.

In all the operations of the railroad, safety comes first.

Why CHIROPRACTIC?

Pain and posture stand for health or disease, Indigestion, colds, tuberculosis, melancholy and many other diseases, according to latest authoritions, may be traced to bad—poor, not in sitting and standing. This leads to distress of the spine.

Few people know how to sit. They sit on the end of their spinal column, instead of having the weight even

GENTLEMEN OF JURY
THE GREAT AMERICAN FAUX
What trait Americans do with its American problem? For the past several years much has been done and more has been said about the American youth problem. Children are growing up that young people are going to the dogs. That is not true.
But good schools cannot be known new and is a specialty.
