Bulldogs Enter House Stretch Of Present Season
Tonight the Bulldogs tackle the Tigers in the present season, with only tworapy left on the gridiron, excepting for a third game with South Fulton to be played after the season is over. This game will have no particular meaning, as the Bulldogs have been eliminated from the playoff race. However, the Bulldogs have already locked in the city championship. The date for this final game is Saturday, but will be announced later.

National Income Near 74 Billions
Average Employment For 1940 Placed At 66 Million Workers

Washington — J. B. Davis, secretary of commerce, released today that the national income last year was $72,059,000,000, an increase of $3,209,000,000.

The national income was the highest recorded in the history of the United States.

The total income was increased for the first time since the war ended.

The government also has been publishing other details which indicate that the economic situation continues to improve.

A further increase in the national income is expected this year.

A JAPANESE ARE PEVED

"During the past few days the British Empire has been quite busy with some dramatic and potent moves in the Far East. Australia, New Zealand, and the thousands, along with tanks and artillery, bomber planes, have all been reaching in British bases in Singapore and other areas, and the forces are plain that Britain is able to take care of her own in any quarter of the globe. The Home Empire may be facing a fight for life, but even so, at the same time Britain is4 pressing her influence in the Far East, clinching the Indian African Armies to peace, British ships are pouring into the Seven Seas, and now British armies are pouring into Far Eastern defense areas, and air squadrons are winging their way into those places. It is a dramatic gesture; it is something which may have far reaching effect.

The curious part of the entire matter is the shocked surprise which the Japanese now manifest. They view with extreme concern this concentration of British military might. They say that such a combination is an unfriendly act, almost an act of war. They say that such acts constitute an un

LET HITLER SUCCEED STARVING FRANCE

The English traveler, Arthur Young, touring France in the months before the French Revolution, saw clearly what others failed to see—desperate conditions, a growing desperation, too, and ugly signs of a peasant revolt nascent to the most bitter of the gods. The gods of the German Valhalla, the gods of blood and iron. Who else has brought about a condition where such people, who can live no longer than the first of April, Grain is lacking. Meat, fat, sugar, are to be had. As in that old French picture, France, as Mr. Galli predicts, will be no Reign of Terror with Germany. Frenchmen may have un
