No matter what some folks say to the contrary, there certainly is a lot of sentiment in business. Friendship, for instance, makes much satisfaction on all the cleverness and argument in the world.

You like to trade at a certain store—not because its goods have any special advantage, but because the folks who serve you are always friendly and helpful.

Just that very thing—FRIENDLY SERVICE—is the power that draws people together into communities like this, where everybody can enjoy the many benefits of neighborhood cooperation.

And FRIEnDLY SERVICE is the sentimental reason why you find it so much to your advantage to trade with your advertiser, whether he be your grocery store or your clothing store or dry goods store, where your friends will see that you are well satisfied.
