Loudest sizzle in the nation dept: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barnett of Chicago, with Smith's Sizzling Steaks popping in their ears, decided to make a hurry up Sunday trip for more of the same, dropped the local cafe a postcard saying they were coming, jumped on the City of New Orleans at Chicago, arrived in Fulton with a 2-hour layover, filled up on sizzlers, hopped back on the Northbound City of New Orleans and were back home in Chicago that evening.

"Hope we won't be disappointed," they said on the advance postcard. "They weren't," stated the gleeful Smith's team of Neal and Edwards.

You're only as old as you feel dept: A. L. Drerup, president of the Bay-Bee shoe company at Dresden, jumped astride a 3-wheel motor scooter last week at Glasgow and rode to Nashville and back for a 250-mile round trip. Return trip was made in 6 hours. The surprised Dresden Enterprise remarked in awe that "he's no youngster, there are numerous white hairs all over his cranium!" to add to the amazement of it all.

Sidelights of the sidishows: The Denton carnival pulled out of town last weekend but not before a few extra attractions were thrown in: (1) An operator of a gambling concession jumped the fence with table proceeds, jumped into a car with a lady driver, jumped back out as the screaming started, hired a cab to haul him to Hickman, started

SERVICES FOR BELOVED MRS. HORNBEAK HELD ON SUNDAY; BURIAL AT HORNBEAK

Fulton County lost one of its most beloved citizens last Sunday when Mrs. Martha Moultrie Hornbeak passed away quietly at her home on Carr street. Meeting death with the humility and peace with which she lived, this wonderful woman of 90 years possessed the traits that come with a retiring character. She lived for her children and her home, and most of all she loved to sit among her cherished possessions and enjoy the Bible, of which she was an avid reader. She was a member of the Fulton Methodist Church for fifty years. In her later years she was unable to attend services, but preferred to stay at the home she loved to read and relax.

Being widowed when her children were growing into young womanhood and manhood, she was mother and father to them. It was with the strength of the ruling matriarch that she disciplined her children when they were in difficulty with their playmates. She punished her children and forgave the offenders, because she explained she

POLIO MONEY LOW; NEW DRIVE NEEDED

"At the present rate of expenditure, the Kentucky Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has enough money to take care of polio victims for only about four more weeks," Merle Robertson, Louisville, treasurer of the Kentucky Chapter declared this week. Robertson said the Chapter's balance as of August 31 was $48,884.20 with incurred expenses exceeding this amount.

Robertson said a total of 514 persons had received treatment since January 1 of this year. This includes persons stricken this year and those receiving continuing treatment since 1942. Of the total, 144 were stricken in 1948, 220 were stricken during the years since 1942. Of the more than 300 cases reported so far this year, a major portion have received Chapter assistance.

In commenting on NFIP President Basil O'Connor's statement that an emergency fund-raising drive will be necessary, Robertson pointed out that Kentucky was one of 38 states in which the funds have been exhausted. He said Kentucky could not look to the National Foundation for help because their epidemic aid fund has also been depleted.

to Tiptonville and was caught; (2) The death of one of their clan threw the Carnival Gypsies into a hysterical uproar at the Fulton Hospital, with police required to restore order; (3) One of the carnival trucks sheared its top off on the Lake street underpass, leaving town; and (4) One George Cole, carnival employee, is lodged in the local calaboose pending arrival of California authorities with a Federal charge against him.

Backward glances dept: (from the Dresden Enterprise): When a trailer carrying four full-size almost nude female dummies hove into Dresden Tuesday forenoon—

All business was practically suspended, stores emptied of both sales forces and customers, work halted on the court house and creation of traffic jams all around the square.

A salesman was peddling the dummies for modeling women's wearing apparel—and many of the town's old-timers were observed cleansing eye glasses, while others crowded for close-up view. Two of the figures were standing upright, while in the rear of the trailer two were seated. They looked so perfectly natural that Tom Covington, Dick Brooks, Ferrin Riggs, J. C. Vaughan, James Glasgow and Robt. Jeter all greeted them—"Good morning, lady!"

In some parts of the world they swim the English Channel to stir up excitement; around Fulton just keep your eyes open and hang on to your chair.

ELECTION HEARING NEXT WEDNESDAY

Hearing of charges in the election "irregularities" charged by both Harry White and Elmer Murchison in the recent race for County Tax Commissioner will be heard beginning September 14 in Hickman, Justice Atteberry clerk of the circuit court announced today.

White, defeated by 54 votes in the August primaries charges irregularities in the voting procedure at Madrid Bend, which precinct voted overwhelmingly for Murchison. The incumbent Mr. Murchison, counter-charged irregularities at other County precincts.

If Mr. White is successful in throwing out the Madrid Bend box it would put him in the lead in the commissioner's race.

The hearing will be held before Judge Elvis Stahr.

LOOKOUTS' TIE-UP WITH RAILROADERS REQUESTED AGAIN

K. P. Dalton, president of the Fulton Baseball Association, stated today that he will recommend the continuance of the current working agreement with the Chattanooga (Tenn.) Lookouts, and the Washington Senators, for the 1950 season.

A new contract with the Lookouts has been received, and represents an increase in the terms over the past year. The Board of Directors of the local Association meet tonight (Friday) to hear a report on this year's finances (good, stated Dalton) and to take up business for the coming year.

Dalton stated that he will ask the Chattanooga club to name the Fulton manager for 1950, so if they desire any change, they may so indicate.

Pitchers Grossman, (with 18 wins), and Bohna, Bishop, Collins, Bickering, and Conovan will be returned next year, along with Peterson, Waldrop (22 homers in a half-season), Tobe Fisher and Tex Brown, and perhaps several others, Dalton stated. Outfielder Fraser has been recalled by the Emporia (Va.) club, and Catcher Coker has been recalled by the Concord (N.C.) club. Several others will probably be sold, he stated.

Although the 1949 agreement with Chattanooga called for their selection of several players from the local club, they have indicated that they will make no selections, leaving the teams intact for a 1950 pennant winner, Dalton said.

The "good financial shape" of the club results from an increase of 7,324 in attendance in 1949 over 1948. This year 29,942 adults and 3,121 children paid admissions, against 24,278 adults and 2,461 children last. This increase is despite the fact that Fulton produced a 6th-place club this year, against a 5th-place club last, with road games given a highly-touted radio broadcast all last season.

Increased attendance produced an increase in concession receipts in 1949, with the club netting around $2300 from this source.

The Senior class also voted against having an annual this year.

Miss Mozelle Khourie spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Fred Khourie and family in Cairo, Ill.

What Drastic Blow Will Hit Papa's Purse This Year? Junior Woman's Club Cooking Up Fashions To Kill

As the Fall season approaches and a woman's fancy turns to clothes, while the male contingent seeks a fox-hole, members of the Junior Woman's Club are again making plans for its annual fashion show. Mrs. Morgan Omar, general chairman of the event said that this year the bridge party, usually held in connection with the show, would be discontinued so that nearly two hours of fashions and other entertainment could be enjoyed by the patrons.

Eight firms with 45 models will be represented in the show. With the drastic changes being made in milady's wardrobe, the event this year will be even more interesting than in the past.

Suitable script for the occasion is being prepared by Mrs. Edward Benedict.

Mrs. Hendon Wright, popular young matron will act as mistress of ceremonies for the occasion.

Names of the models, firms entering fashions and ticket sellers will be announced at a later date.

LANE SPENCE WILL BE RETURNED TO ST. LOUIS FOR BURIAL

Mr. and Mrs. Rice M. Spence, Route 4, Fulton have been advised by the Department of the Army this week that the remains of their son, 2nd Lt. Lane E. Spence, are to be returned to the States for burial in the Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery in the near future.

Lt. Spence, B-26 pilot, was shot down over Achen, Germany on December 23, 1944 and six of the crew of seven perished. The Department of the Army has advised Mr. and Mrs. Spence that individual identification of each member has been impossible to establish, hence all are now interred in a group burial at the U. S. Military Cemetery at St. Avoird, France, and are to be returned for re-burial in the same manner.

The Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery at St. Louis is one of the Nation's shrines for heroes whose individual identity cannot be established and perpetual care is accorded this area.

Lt. Spence was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Spence. He enlisted when he was 18, as a student of the University of Kentucky, and was 20 at the time of his death.

He was a graduate of the Fulton High School, an honor student, and captain of the basketball team for two years.

Meeks Is Speaker At Walnut Grove

Members of the Walnut Grove Methodist Church invites the public to be present at 10:00 a.m. Sunday September 11th, to hear Paul Meeks, president of U. T. Junior College, Martin, speak to the Adult Sunday School Class.

Rev. Thomas Y. Smithmier, pastor, announces the revival meeting begins Sunday night at 7:45 p.m. with Rev. J. F. McMinn, visiting minister. Services will continue throughout the entire week with afternoon services at 2:30 p.m. and 7:45 p.m.

Congressman Gregory, Senator Waggoner, Speaker Doran, Bill Curlin, et al Enjoy Interesting Fair Events

At the invitation of the Distinguished Guests Committee of the West Kentucky-Tennessee Fair, district, State and national dignitaries star-lighted the occasion, boosting gate receipts and the morale of the men and women who worked to make the Fair the tremendous success that it was. Governor Clements came on Saturday to view the exciting races in the afternoon. He was accompanied to Fulton by Adron Doran, prominent legislator, speaker of the house during the past session of the Legislature and a close friend of the Governor; Fulton County's own Bill Curlin, Senator Charles Waggoner of Mayfield and Vincent O'Brien, who piloted the twin-motored Cessna, which brought the Governor and his party from Frankfort.

At the Fair on Thursday, accompanied by Senator Waggoner of Mayfield was Hon. Noble J. Gregory, popular Congressman from this district, who probably was responsible for the unprecedented adjournment of Congress so he could attend the Fair. Congressman Gregory assisted the Distinguished Guests Committee in extending an invitation to the President as well as to the First District's beloved Alben Barkley. President Truman was in attendance at a national convention of veterans, while the Vice-President was in Paducah, getting ready to do a little highly interesting visiting in St. Louis. The Vice-President sent his regrets as did the President, both of which were accepted with regrets.

Governor Clements and his party drove to Fulton from Mayfield after having landed on the new airport there; a signal distinction for that airport since the Governor and his party were in the first plane to land on that field. The party was met at the Coca-Cola plant by: Bob White, chairman of the Fulton Horse Show committee; Smith Atkins, president of the West Kentucky-Tennessee Fair Ass'n.; James Warren, Commander of the American Legion and official representative of the City of Fulton as designated by Mayor Boaz; R. E. Sanford, manager of the Coca-Cola plant; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gregory, friends of Governor Clements and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Westpheling, publishers of the Fulton County News. Mrs. Westpheling was chairman of the Distinguished Guests Committee. Foad Homra, General Chairman of the Fair was unable to be in the reception party.

Switched from the car in which he drove to Fulton to a convertible, Governor Clements was whisked to the Fairgrounds where a tour down Lake street. Seated in the center of the box seats he raved back in his chair and took in the fair with full enjoyment. His enjoyment was intensified with welcome interruptions from his hundreds of friends who came to wish him an added welcome to the Fair.

Come Again, Governor Clements!

It is with a feeling of deep appreciation and gratitude that we thank Governor Earle Clements for his attendance at the Fair on Saturday. Mastro Foad Homra and the men and women who worked with him left no stone unturned to make the fair a great success. The visit of the Governor added just the finishing touch to round out a very complete celebration.

Governor Clements likes Fulton. He thinks our city "Strictly on the ball" and has seen it grow from a little community of less than four thousand to the fine little city that it is now. He thinks that such things as the five-day fair celebration are good and wholesome for community growth, an opinion with which we heartily concur.

The Governor was indeed sorry that he was not able to view the live stock exhibits. He said that Fulton County ranks among the finest in the Nation for the production of pure breed cattle, and being a cattle-breeder himself (short-horn variety) he wanted to see for himself the products for which we are gaining fame.

With that in mind we just said: "Governor, right now plans are being made for a bigger and better fair next year. Just consider this your official invitation for 1950."

Thank you for coming, Governor Clements. We were glad to have with us your encouragement composed of Senator Charles Waggoner, our own Bill Curlin and Adron Doran and Vincent O'Brien who piloted you safely to Mayfield via the airways.

A Word To Parents

In most cases hereabouts, school is about to start; in some, it has already started.

To the perennial, and important word of caution to drivers to be careful of the youngsters in the streets on school mornings and afternoons, we would like to submit another—to the parents of these children.

"It is your duty, as their parents," says Dr. Bruce Underwood, State Health Commissioner, "to see to it that these children enter this phase of their lives as well equipped, physically, as possible."

Smallpox vaccinations are required by law for school entrance, but has your child also been immunized against diphtheria, typhoid, whooping cough and tetanus? A pre-

Tidbits of Kentucky Folk-Lore

Nothing is so obvious to a folklorist as the obtuseness of the fold in certain fields of observation. Within bounds there is a remarkable sort of observation, but beyond that all is blank. It is very appealing to me, personally, to find some very typical person who has transcended the usual experiences of his class and has seen and heard what are normally in another world to many of his kind. Not long ago I found such a person, a man who has been pretty limited in his experience, whose formal education stopped almost as soon as it began, but whose remarkable powers of observation rank him with many of the better-trained ones. His range seems to an outsider just about as narrow as that of his average neighbor, but there is something almost startling in his freshness of mind.

Many times I have remarked about the blindness of the average man to the forms and flights of birds. When I was asked by a great ornithologist who is also a great philologist for a list of folk names for birds, I was struck with the shortness of any list I could make. I have known always a few folk names that I like and had supposed until I went through the complete list of birds found in Kentucky that there must be a long array of strange names. In reality I could recall only about twenty such names. I soon discovered why. All woodpeckers are just Peck-er-wood's all small brown birds are Sparrows, all good sized hawks are Chicken Hawks or, maybe, Rabbit Hawks. Warblers, except the school examination by your physician is a good idea, even though your child has had the benefit of regular visits since his birth. Particular attention should be given to eyes and ears; the brightest child is unable to progress properly in school if he cannot see or hear what is taking place in the classroom. A well balanced diet is most important at this time when new experiences are making new demands on the child's body.

Remember, too, that one examination before entrance to kindergarten or first grade will not last the child through his high school graduation. A good practice is to have every school-age child in the family examined by your physician before the end of his summer vacation. If the doctor discovers any physical defect, no matter how trivial it may seem to you, have it corrected at once. It may be affecting your child's performance in school, his general health and happiness.

Farm Family Life Changes

Dr. Ward Bauder, University of Kentucky rural sociologist, recently made some observations on the way things are going with farm families.

In the first place, he notes that farm families are smaller than they used to be. There are only about half as many children in farm families as there were 150 years ago and about two-thirds as many as there were 50 years ago.

Because of automobiles and good roads and movies and other outside attractions, families spend less time in the home. Members are more likely to get out and go places than to join in the family circle. At that, farm families stay closer together than do members of city families, Dr. Bauder said.

Smaller families and increased conveniences have taken some of the drudgery out of the farm home and eased life for the mother and wife, was another observation of this sociologist. Fifty years ago he said the woman of the house had so much work to do she didn't have time to leave home. But today the situation is different and many farm women belong to homemakers clubs and other organizations and take active interest in community affairs.

These changes mean to some extent the end of patriarchal rule of husband and father in the family, Dr. Bauder admitted, but at the same time they make for greater democracy in family life, which he considered good for everybody concerned.

Pardon Us, Suh!

We could not help wonder at the Mississippi publisher, who, in his paper last week, lamented that "we (Dixiecrats) have been unceremoniously thrown out of the political party that the South has claimed so positively for more than 80 years."

It seems to us that such talk, suh, has long since been contradicted by your last year's barrage of condemnations of the same party; any "positive claim" last year was to the effect that you wanted nothing to do with it.

Blind leadership often has its faults.

STRICTLY BUSINESS

Turning Back The Clock

September 13, 1929:

On September 18 the Browder Milling Company will open its doors to visitors and show them through the newly-completed unit of its mixed feed department. The new 3-story building has been completed and equipped with modern machinery for manufacturing mixed feeds and it is a pleasing sight to see the plant in full operation. The business was established in Fulton by Messrs. Enoch and Joe Browder twenty years ago.

On Sunday afternoon, at the home of her parents of West street, Miss Frances Sophia Moss was united in marriage to Mr. Clyde Howard Smith of Martin, Tenn. Miss Mary Louise Smith was the bride's only attendant, and Mr. James Warren acted as best man. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. H. B. Vaughn of the First Methodist Church.

An 80-story skyscraper, to be called the Empire State Building is to be built in New York City. Al Smith, construction company head, announced today.

Hickman was mourning the loss of its "piggy train" today. The name is affectionately given the morning passenger train on the N.C.&St.L., which, along with the evening train, was discontinued Sunday. Loss of revenue to automobiles and buses was given as the reason for the discontinuance.

Work on hard surfacing the highway from Paducah thru Mayfield and to Fulton is now almost completed; a survey of the Union City road and the Cayce-Jordan road will be made this year.

The South Fulton schools opened Monday morning with an enrollment of 240 elementary students and 96 high school students. A new building, accommodating the first and second grades Supt. H. W. Moss stated. Now showing at W. Levi Chisholm's Orpheum Theatre: "The Man in Hobbes" — "the heart throb drama of a man who fell in love with a girl and married her whole family." "Being the answer to why husbands leave home, why men prefer orphans, and why home ties are knots."

Those listening over the radio Sunday afternoon were pleased to hear the Rev. C. H. Warren, Pastor of the Fulton First Baptist Church, deliver an address at the BYPU convention in Union City, broadcast over WOBT. Every word came in clear and distinct.

Ewing Galloway:

Kentucky On The March

If you haven't decided definitely to attend the State Fair at Louisville, I can assure you that the exhibit of the Committee for Kentucky alone will be enough to justify the trip.

The exhibit has the main spot in front of the main building. The trailer used over the state by Mr. and Mrs. James W. Armstrong and Maurice D. Bement, with motion picture lectures will entertain thousands and send many home determined to make their own communities better places to live and work in.

J. Stephan Watkins, president of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, writes that he wants me to feel free to "write us any time giving your views on what our Chamber should be doing to make a better Kentucky."

This column certainly will cooperate with Mr. Watkins' organization in everything for the industrial and commercial development of the State. None of the Chamber's work should conflict with that of the Committee for Kentucky, and vice versa.

Mr. Watkins and the Chamber's executive secretary, George Mascott, can help me a lot by passing along information about industrial and commercial progress. If they do, they'll be the first organization to remember me when they have news that should interest readers of the 100 or more newspapers that print "Kentucky on the March." Two publicity bureaus send weekly newsletters to me, but both of them are faraway and their stuff doesn't belong in this column.

Incidentally, now is the best time of the year for farmers to sow bluegrass seed on sod. Fall rains give the grass a start while other grasses are drying up, whereas in the spring young bluegrass has a tough time bucking rapidly growing established grasses.

In the western half of the state, 1949 has seen more land sown to grass than in any previous year. More farmers are realizing that a cow sustained mainly on grass and producing a 400-pound calf at weaning time makes more clear profit than anything else farmers in Kentucky take to market.

It is likely the cattle show at the State Fair will be the best in many years.

Hello Paul,

How's the news business? I have been missing my paper but I get a few that people send me; you're still doing a good job.

Here is a little item from the Denver Post (Picture of Milton Callihan having some fun at the Legion convention in Cincinnati . . . now on display at Smith's Cafe . . . ed).

Tell Milton and all his Legion buddies hello for me; I see he is still full of fun.

My Friend,
Does you all know who own the land south of Fulton, Ky., railroad?

Would you do me a favor; ask the men and women would they sell me and my friends some acres to build on this fall or winter, and write back and tell about the business.

Ask them will they sell me two acres and give two years time to pay all the balance. I will try to do my best to please you.

A LOOK AT THE BOOK

BOB JONES UNIVERSITY

GREENVILLE,
SOUTH CAROLINA

There is one sin greatly condemned in the Bible, which you almost never hear preached against. It is the sin of flattery, and how largely it is practiced these days. Some flatter with no malicious intent. They desire popularity and want people to like them, so they cultivate the habit of saying that which will please the hearer without regard to its truth. Or, they have read some popular book on psychology, which tells them that the way to make friends is to flatter, and they put into practice this advice with never a thought that they are being dishonest.

Others flatter for more malicious reasons. Politicians have discovered that the surest way to cause an opponent to make a fool of himself is to flatter him into doing something which in an uninflated state of mind he would have better judgement than to attempt. Others indulge in flattery to get something from the object of their flattery. They are like the fox in the fable who flattered the crow on his beautiful voice. When the crow, full of vanity, opened his beak to sing, he dropped the piece of cheese he was holding, and the fox gobbled it up.

Some people flatter for sheer cowardice. They lack the courage to speak the truth. They will say what another expects of them rather than what they know to be so. There are preachers who are guilty here. Instead of preaching against the sins of unregenerate human hearts, they flatter their hearers with smooth sounding messages on the greatness of the human race. Sinners lost and undone feel no conviction as they sit under their ministry, but go out full of a self-satisfaction to continue in the sin. They are trapped and pinioned in a net of smooth words, when if they had been told the truth about themselves and their own sinful condition and pointed to the Lord Jesus, they should have found in truth and in Him who is the Truth, freedom from the chains of sin. Truly, "a man that flattereth his neighbor spreadeth a net for his feet" (Proverbs 29:5). There is no flattery of the Adamic nature and of sinners in God's Word. Unregenerate men hate and despise the Word of God because it tells them the 'truth' about themselves. Men prefer flattery, but it is only in the truth that freedom is found.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Substance" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, September 11, 1949.

The Golden Text is: "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit." (1 Cor. 2:9, 10).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." (Heb. 11:1).

Cheer-up card salesman could do a land-office business in the many little provinces of Siegel City. In fact, they would have to be comic cards of the hilarious variety to overcome the sadness that the workers feel in not seeing the smiling face of Manager Leo Greengrass every day.

With the speeded up production at the Siegel plant popular Leo is doing more and more administrative work and of necessity must forego seeing his faithful employees as often as he would like.

Employment at the Siegel factory is at its highest peak and production is humming. The Siegel plant with its workers is one of Fulton's finest assets and greatly appreciated by its businessmen and other groups.

Roundhouse Round-Up

By Alice Coleman

Well folks, we have now passed the first week of the 40-hour work week and gosh everyone thinks they have been on a vacation, and as for myself believe me I really did enjoy my two days off.

Nearly everyone you see is buying shoes for school, dresses or jeans, etc., even one little boy I know by the name of Jerry went in a beauty parlor here in town and announced to give him a permanent wave, that he had to have one before school started.

Let's all remember that when you are driving anytime near the schools during school hours, to drive as slow as possible as you never know when a child will run out from between cars; sometimes they come from no where into the path of your car. Let's be sure that our brakes are in A-1 condition and that we drive slow, for the child that may run out in front of your car may be your own child.

Let's all be sure and tell the children that have to pass by the railroad trains to be careful and not walk down the track that is too dangerous, and never try to beat a train as you can never judge the speed he is making.

MILK INDUSTRY IN RUSSIA FAR BEHIND, SAYS EX-SOVIET

It is next to impossible to buy a glass of fresh milk in the Soviet Union, says George Agudov, a Russian displaced person who was an agricultural engineer and a major in the Soviet Army. Milk is sold in State Stores where it is dipped out of a metal can by means of a dipper, and refrigerated trucks and railway freight cars are almost unknown.

"When a small milk truck drives up to the door of my house in a small American community and leaves for me cool, fresh milk in a sealed bottle with cream floating on top, Major Agudov said, 'I drink it with great pleasure.'"

"The pleasure is soured only by memories of when I stood with a kettle in my hand literally several hours in a queue in one of the central cities of the Soviet Union to get milk for a sick friend. The milk I got in a state milk store came from an old battered milk can, dipped out with a rusty half-liter dipper. I carried it home as quickly as I could fearing that it would sour."

"Only a few receiving points and some distribution centers in large cities pasteurize their milk. Delivery of milk to the consumer is thus a major problem, a problem which cannot be solved in the near future."

"Private initiative has not been allowed to work and there is a low average production per cow with a lack of direct incentive to the men and women handling cows. Lack of effective sanitary controls, lack of good equipment—milk bottles, refrigerators and pasteurization equipment keep down quality." Private ownership is limited to one or at the most two cows per family "and even this concession to the desire for ownership is a farce" he says, "as private owners must supply the State with a specific percentage of milk which ranges from 75 to 85 percent. State control determines prices to farmers and consumers and the quantity each district must deliver, also punishing those who fail to fulfill plans."

Major Agudov's article is in an international issue of the American Milk Review which also carries reports that outside of North America, Australia, and a few small European countries fresh, safe milk of the kind familiar to everyone in the U.S. is a rare commodity.

In India milking utensils are washed in water used to wash cattle, the "publication declares and employees and their families live over the cattle on platforms slung from the roof. In China cows are more valued for their manure than for milk. The Hungarian dairy industry was left in a shambles by the war with its leaders in communist jails and in Turkey cows find greater demand for their strength as draft animals."

FRAUD IN CLAIMS BEING PROSECUTED

Cracking down on illegal claims for unemployment insurance benefits, the Division of Unemployment Insurance, Department of Economic Security, is instituting criminal action this week against 13 claimants whom the division charges have benefits fraudulently drawn.

The suits are being filed in six counties of the state with more to come as rapidly as they can be processed, O. B. Hannan, unemployment insurance director said. All of these cases involve fraud against the State of Kentucky. Fraud cases against veterans who illegally draw 52-20 benefits are tried in federal court, Hannan explained.

Pointing out that the recently established field investigations unit is intensifying its drive against frau, Hannan said,

Calling all outdoorsmen

By JIM MITCHELL

Regardless of where or when you fish, most always there are "favorite" lures that are recommended as being the best for a particular stream or lake.

"It was with this in mind that recently I made a study of a report on the lures that caught the most fish in an experimental lake of the Illinois Natural History Survey, a research organization that devotes some time to wildlife problems. The tabulations on lures covered five years in this experimental water and, possibly, reflects a trend in the productivity of artificials and live baits."

From a bait casting standpoint, the underwater types of plugs and spoons proved the best fish takers, with a battling average of .42 fish per man-hour of fishing.

"Frauds disclosed by the unit have predominantly been instances of claimants drawing benefits while working part-time and not reporting earnings which would have reduced the amount of unemployment insurance to which they were entitled, or drawing full-time wages on another job while claiming unemployment benefits." The 13 suits name amounts drawn illegally ranging from $8 to $205 for a total of more than $700.

ing. Surface lures, on the same basis, took .36 fish. These tests were made only on bass.

It was interesting to note, also, that the ratio of under size bass taken to legal fish was one legal to 23 under size for the under-water lures and one legal to .69 for the surface variety of artificials used in bait casting.

What live baits proved most effective? The minnow was the most widely used, but it had to play second fiddle in the average catch to the worm and crayfish. Anglers using worms managed to outwit 1.21 fish per man-hour of fishing; crayfish users took .81 fish per hour and minnow dunkers averaged only .25 fish per hour. Grasshoppers were last in the parade with .10 average per hour.

The tabulations above show that live bait still will outfish artificials in some waters. Whether this is true in all waters is debatable. Certainly when fish are taking artificial lures it frequently is easier to catch a larger number than on live bait. By the same token, live bait often produces the largest fish.

Fine Cattle Exhibited at Dairy Show; Champions Named

Herd Development Shows Great Promise

Four grand champions were chosen from their breeds at the close of the West Kentucky-Tennessee fair's dairy show last Friday, and are pictured on this page. We are pleased to mention a word about each of these, to stimulate further interest in good cattle breeding in this area:

George Ray Gunter, whose Holstein won the grand championship in its breed, is in his first year of 4-H club work. He and his father are doing a splendid job in dairying. They have a wonderful herd of Holsteins that is as good as any herd in the South.

George Ely Burnette has owned his Champion Jersey for three years and has shown her at nine different shows. She has won five grand championships; in the nine shows Sybil has total winnings of $257.00. (Her purchase price was $300.) During the three years she has dropped three calves and produced over 1200 lbs. of butterfat that has brought over $1200. George Ely keeps Sybil in the herd of his grandfather, C. N. Burnette, who has a large herd of Jerseys and produces grade "A" milk for the Fulton Pure Milk Co. Sybil will be shown in the National Jersey show at Memphis.

Neal Rushton and his Champion brown Swiss staged a repeat performance here this year, having been a previous winner. Neal has been in 4-H club work for several years.

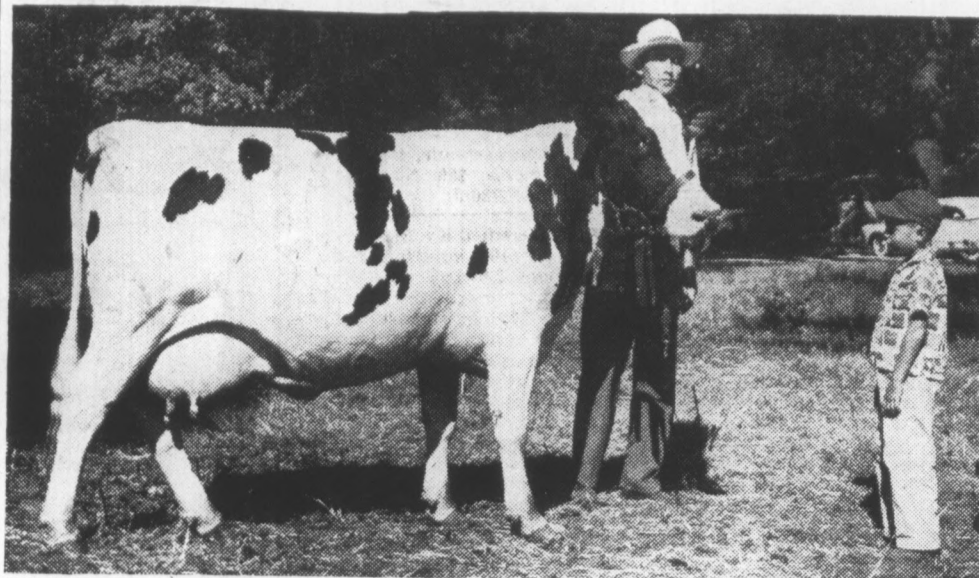

Cecil Burnette, whose Guernsey won the grand championship, lives on Highway 94, five miles west of Fulton and has a large herd of registered Guernseys. His herd is as good as they come; his cattle have been winning at every show they have attended this year. From this herd comes good grade "A" milk, sold through the Fulton Pure Milk Company.

This is Robert Gattus' first year in club work and he is doing a splendid job. Look for this boy next year, because he is very fond of his heifer, which he bought last May for $180. He has already won many prizes with her, including 1st prize Sr. Yr. at the Graves County Fair. Robert and his father, J. F. Gattus produce grade "A" milk for the Fulton Pure Milk Company.

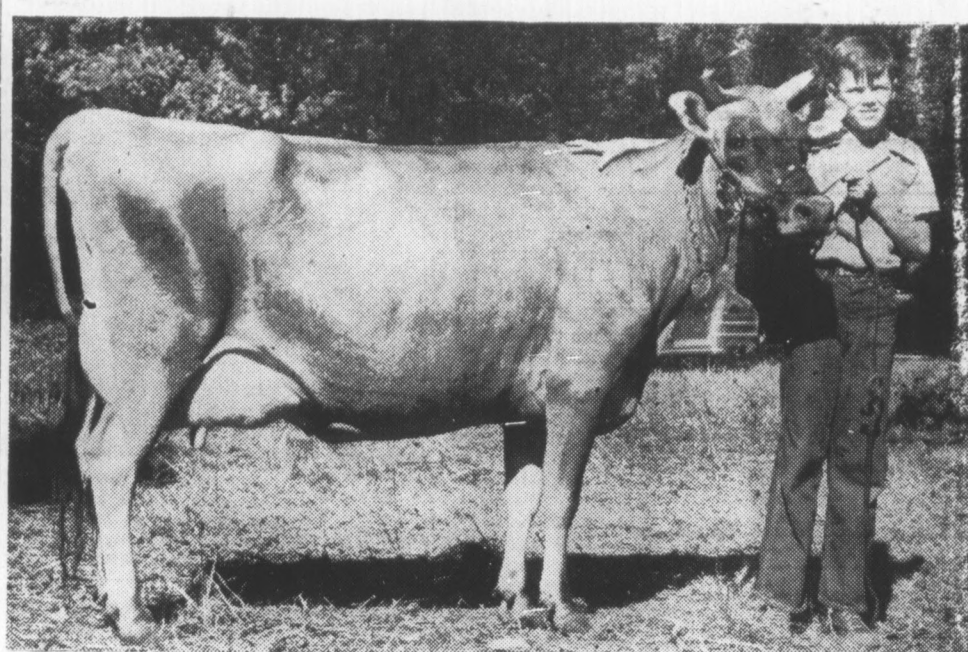

The show was one of the largest and best held in this area. Newell Thompson, of Trenton, Tennessee was the judge. He was assisted, unofficially by the Hickman County judging team which is preparing to enter the state cattle judging competition.

The winners in the holstein division were: Class I heifer calves 1. George Ray Gunter, 2. Fletcher Gattus; Class II yearling calves 1. Robert Gattus, 2. Fletcher Gattus; Class III two to four year old cows 1. C. P. Freeman 2. C. P. Freeman; Class IV cows over four years 1. George Ray Gunter, Junior champion, 1. George Ray Gunter 2. Senior Champion 1. IC ADOPTS RADIO FOR YARD WORK

A new 2-way radio installation will go into operation at Mays Yard, New Orleans, La., September 1, it was announced today by J. M. Trissal, superintendent of communication and electrical engineer of the Illinois Central Railroad. The system will include the use of lightweight "walkie-talkies" in addition to a main base transmitter.

The effective range of this equipment embraces the entire New Orleans area. Each "walkie-talkie" unit is comparable in size to a small portable radio and weighs less than ten pounds. Such equipment will enable men in any part of Mays Yard to communicate with the yard office by merely turning a switch. Units are powered by small storage batteries that last a full 8-hour shift and can be recharged before the worker returns to his job on the following day.

The new radio installation will be used principally to check cars in the huge classification yard, a job normally requiring a great amount of footwork.

Laundry & Dry Cleaners

Only one word fits it — Wonderful!

You know how it usually is—slow and steady is the rule in automotive progress.

But every now and then it happens. Along comes a car that's new all over—like this one—and headlines sing the news.

Take the styling of it—fresh and smart and really exciting from its non-locking bumper-guard grilles to the jet-plane look of its fenders.

Take the outward size of it—handy in traffic, easy to garage, actually more room and a sweeter ride in fewer over-all inches.

Step inside—and stretch yourself in the biggest interiors ever found in a Buick Special, with a full twelve inches added to rear-seat hiproom.

Try the power of big 110 or 120 hp high-compression Fireball engines—sample the restful levelness of a ride that sets the standard for the industry.

Check controls—and note really big news: The luxury of Dynaflo Drive*—newest, simplest and smoothest of all modern transmissions—is optional equipment, available now at the lowest price level yet!

*Optional at extra cost.

Finally, look at the price tag. Measure its figures against others—and see if any car, even in the lowest-price field, gives you so much of what you want for each dollar you invest.

Tops in style, tops in room, tops in lift and life and traveling ease, a trip to your Buick dealer will show you this is wonderful in value too!

For the biggest buy of this year—and many a year to come—better go now and get your order in!

DRESDEN NATIVE, KILLED IN TEXAS, BURIED SUNDAY

Services for Michael H. (Mac-con) Byars, 32, Air Force veteran, who was killed by L. M. Fisher, Calhoun county, Texas sheriff Thursday were held at Dresden Baptist Church Sunday at 5 by the Rev. T. N. Hale and the Rev. Cayce Pentecost. Burial was in Palmersville Cemetery with Bowlin and Riggs in charge.

The body arrived at Fulton Sunday, and was brought to the home of his father, E. J. Byars of Dresden. Byars was a graduate of Dresden High School, and served through the war as aviation instructor. He leaves his father; his stepmother, Mrs.
Virgie Byars of Dresden and a sister, Mrs. Robert Beard of Sharon.

Sheriff Davis of Weakley county was notified Thursday that young Byars had been shot by the sheriff at Port Lavaca, Tex.
Thursday when the officers went to Byars' jail cell to take him to court for preliminary hearing in an assault charge upon a Port Lavaca woman. Byars jerked the officer into his cell, and was shot, it was reported.

He was out on bond while his conviction on a murder without malice charge in his wife's death was pending according to Texas authorities. Byars' wife's body was found after a cabin they had at the Harlingen, Texas airport burned Aug. 11, 1948. He was accused of strangling his wife and setting fire to the cabin. He was first charged with murder with malice, but the charge was reduced.

ONE OF KENTUCKY'S TRADITIONS

A Hearty Handshake

Meet a Kentuckian and you'll receive a bone crushing grip... the hearty, honest kind that says "glad to know you, neighbor". It speaks of long, hard toil, of an enjoyment of living that is traditional in Kentucky.

Yes, and beer is a tradition in Kentucky, too!

Like a hearty handshake, BEER BELONGS in Kentucky.
You'll find them together time and again, for Kentuckians enjoy beer, the beverage of moderation.

Copyright, 1949, Kentucky Division, U. S. Brewers Foundation

It Pays To Advertise In The NEWS!

Will you leave these to your children?

MEN HAVE died to leave you these 4 symbols of freedom.

A Holy Bible—symbol of your right to worship as you wish. (First Amendment, U. S. Constitution).

A door key—your right to lock your door against government force and government prying.
(Fourth Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

A pencil—freedom to speak or write what you think, whether you agree with the government or not. (First Amendment, U. S. Constitution).

And a free ballot—your right to choose the kind of government you want—your protection against government tyranny. (Article I, U. S.
Constitution)

These things have no meaning in countries where government controls all—for there the individual man or woman controls nothing.

But there are people—both in and out of government—who are trying to give the U. S. government control of more and more. "Let the government start," they say, "by taking over the basic industries and services—the doctors, the railroads, the electric light and power companies."

These people don't say they want "Socialism."
They give other reasons for government control, because they know most Americans don't want Socialism. But when government, moving step by step, gets enough control, what you want won't matter. You'll be controlled, too! What freedoms will you be able to pass on to your children?
