"Heart Of The Season Sale"

At Kasnow's Store Now in Full Blossom

Super-Values for Thrifty Shoppers Fill the Store With Customers

Mr. Kasnow says, "We always give customers the best dollar's worth, but during our Heart of the Season Sale we do more. We spread a veritable bargain feast, in many cases reducing prices on some of the most staple and best selling merchandise to half."

Kasnow's "Heart of the Season Sale" started Wednesday with a rush. Super-values for thrifty shoppers attracted attention for miles around. They were here in droves. They supplied their needs with reasonable merchandise and returned home thrilled with their purchases. An hour on the opening day LL bleached domestic was sold at 5c the yard, and how they went after it was a plenty. Today the sale sweeps on and on—unaffected by the fickleness of sensation makers who cannot duplicate Kasnow's unmatched values. Vigorous and efficient activity is displayed at this store. The entire country is talking about it. Not only about the super-values for thrifty shoppers that require no talk to recommend them, but the hearty welcome and courteous treatment received from the entire sales force. We may add too, that this courtesy and hearty greeting is a factor in Kasnow's phenomenal success in the mercantile arena where competition is the keenest.

The sale is now in full blossom and a wonderful time to supply your needs with reasonable merchandise.

COURT ORDERS FINAL POOL SETTLEMENT

Hearing Reveals $2,500,000 on Hand to Be Distributed to Members

Louisville, Ky.—Final settlement with members of Dark Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association by March 1, was ordered by Federal Judge Chas. I. Dawson, Saturday.

Judge Dawson delivered his order to Reams D. Farmer, Secretary and Treasurer of the Association, after approving a supplemental report of Joseph S. Laurent, special master in the litigation involving the association.

Mr. Farmer later told newspaper men that if the court holds to the date he will resign, insisting that the work of liquidation which has been under way since 1926, could not be completed by the day set.

$2,500,000 on Hand

The hearing revealed that approximately 2,500,000 is on hand for distribution.

Mr. Farmer told Judge Dawson that he hoped to have checks aggregating $1,700,000 ready for mailing by Christmas, "Certainly not later than the first of the year."

"That is not soon enough," said the judge and told Mr. Farmer that if final settlement were not made by Feb. 1, he would entertain a motion for a receiver. "I am not going to allow salaries to eat up this money any longer," he added.

Mr. Farmer protested against the date, and Judge Dawson changed it to March 1.

Attorney fees in the litigation were allowed by the court.

High School Notes

Mr. Aubrey Nugent delivered an excellent address in chapel Tuesday, on the subject of honesty in business. Mr. Nugent showed conclusively that only fair and above board dealing is recognized as worthwhile by the world. He told the story of the purchase of a picture to illustrate his meaning.

The American History class is exhibiting certain old material of historic value this week. An old target gun, bullet molds, a ladle, an ancient Colt's pistol, a sword, some old pictures and prints are among the things exhibited.

The faculty will present as the annual faculty play this year, "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray." This will be given Friday, December 13, at Science Hall. The play will be directed by Miss Eva McKendree.

The October meeting of the faculty was held at the high school Tuesday. Supt. Smith, of the Martin City schools, gave an interesting address. Supt. Calvin, of Hickman, will be present at the November meeting.

Randolph Kramer, one of last year's seniors, now a student in Emory-Henry College, Emory, Virginia, has been elected as one of the two Freshmen of the college, to the debating team.

The Bull Dogs will journey to Murray, Friday, to meet the high school team of that place. A large crowd of local fans are expected to accompany the team.

The Murray Training School eleven went down to defeat before the plunges of the Bull Dogs here last Thursday. The final score stood 34-0. The Calloway county lads were clean and spirited players and the rather large score which piled up against them did not dampen their fighting spirit nor prevent their making the game interesting up to the very last.

Plans are on foot to organize six Junior high gym classes. This will be a welcome addition to the daily program and will enable the youngsters lower down the scholastic ladder to participate in basket ball. Some sort of physical education program should be devised which would include every child in school.

Girls' basket ball practice is now under way in charge of Miss Pauline Thompson.

The Rev. R. R. Brooks, pastor of the Church of Christ, gave a very interesting address in chapel, Wednesday. Mr. Brooks took the position that the worthwhile people would come to the top in the struggles of life. He gave an objective lesson by using a jar containing beans and walnuts. When the jar was shaken the beans would invariably go to the bottom and the walnuts rise to the top. The walnuts of course, represented the people who stand for right ideals, and are capable of doing a worthy work.

The piano club gave an interesting program, Thursday. Cordelia Hardesty gave an excellent piano solo. Martha Warren sang in a very pleasing way a vocal solo, accompanied by Neldra Marlin, while Vivian Brown gave a reading which was thoroughly enjoyed.

racks holds 148 birds.
There is the "hard chilling" cooler, where incidentally, curious visitors are subject to the rigors of a hard chill, in which surplus on hand is held for shipment. The temperature of the cooler is from 5 to 10 degrees below zero.

Absolute cleanliness marks each step in the process of killing, cooling and packing.

All eggs handled at the plant in the egg cooler room are candled before shipment.

An ice machine, driven by a 50-horsepower motor and run continuously from 12 to 18 hours a day, furnishes refrigeration for the cooling rooms. A brine tank supplies the solution pumped into the coils surrounding the cream cooling vats.

In the poultry department, the feathers are saved. Thoroughly washed, they are drawn through a suction machine and dried. They are packed for shipment for making of mattresses and pillows.

The plant is three stories in height and built so that capacity can be increased as demands justify. From the roof of the new building an impressive view of the city of Fulton and surrounding countryside is afforded.

T. F. Burns is manager of the new Fulton plant. On the opening day, September 1, last, approximately ten thousand and persons viewed the new plant.

GAS COMPANY SEEKING FRANCHISE IN FULTON

Fulton may soon be supplied with gas, if plans which were discussed Monday night by the city council materialize. A large company is seeking a franchise in Fulton, as well as in neighboring towns, and it is understood that if favorable terms can be secured a plant will be built in the city within a period of twelve months. The plan, as explained to the council last night, contemplates sending in natural gas in tanks, and then putting it through another process here and sending it through the mains.

No definite action was taken by the council, as it was felt that more information should be secured before proceeding definitely with the matter. City Engineer Hopkins was asked to take the matter up with Black & Veatch, Kansas City engineers, and after report is received, further steps will be taken.

Club Work

By H. A. McPherson,
County Agent

$50.00, making a total of $400.00. Jones has also won more than $30.00 on his club chickens.

The boy who has made more money with less work has been Craig Roberts, of Fulton community. However Craig is a "willing worker." He purchased a small Jersey heifer for $150.00 and kept her about 4 1-2 months and sold her for $190.00. He won enough at the two fairs to pay for her feed, which leaves him a profit of $240.00. Craig is going to purchase two real good Jersey heifers soon.

Billy McGehee, of Sylvan Shade, who is 13 years of age, is doing his second year club work and has probably made more out of club work than any boy in the county. Billy has won around $50.00 in prize-off his pigs during the past two years. He won first on cotton and will do much better this year. Billy has the best acre of cotton in the county, and he is saving the seed for planting. His acre is going to produce around $200.00 of cotton and seed. He is going to sell all his seed for planting, and will be able to get a good price for same.

Many other boys and girls over the county have made fine records and publicity will be given them from time to time. Some of the tobacco club members are going to make a nice profit from their projects.

LESPEDEZA

Beyond a doubt, the greatest gift that nature ever bestowed on any section was the placing of lespedeza over the South. This legume has been worth untold millions as a pasture, for hay and a soil builder. This clover is rather peculiar inasmuch as it thrives on acid land just as well as on sweet soil, and after it is once sowed it continues to come from the seed until the land is broken and placed in some other crop. The nitrogen left on an acre of land from a year's growth of lespedeza will amount to around $15.00 and the chemical analysis shows that lespedeza hay cut at the proper time is worth just a little less than alfalfa, but there is probably more variation in lespedeza hay than any other hay grown. The value depending entirely on the stage of cutting, and how it is cured. Lespedeza will produce from 1 to 3 tons of hay per acre and will produce from 8 to 20 bushels of seed per acre.

During the past six years we have had three new varieties of lespedeza introduced in the South. The Tennessee 76 was originated at the Tennessee Experiment Station at Knoxville, by Prof. Essery. This variety is well adapted for the south, producing more pasture and hay than the common. The 76 grows erect and grows much larger than the common lespedeza.

Kobe lespedeza came from Korea and promises to be the most popular for the South. It is larger than the 76 and produces more hay and the quality is equally as good. It produces a much later pasture than the Korean.

The Korean is a wonderful lespedeza, and it is about three weeks earlier than the other varieties, giving the south an early pasture.

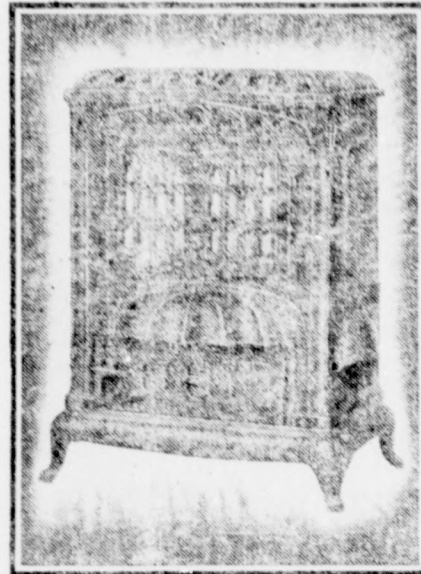

Our farmers are overlooking an opportunity to make some money growing the different varieties of lespedeza seed.

The following reports will give you an idea of what can be made under ordinary conditions, growing the improved varieties of lespedeza. The Korean is the only variety we have to report on at present, but the others will yield about the same amount of seed and the prices for seed are about the same.

E. M. Coffman, of Fulton, threshed 3,800 pounds of Korean from ten acres. He has ten acres of Kobe and six acres of Tennessee 76 that he will thresh this week.

Bright Lawrence threshed 2,700 pounds of Korean from 12 acres.

'Demand these 2 features in the Parlor Furnace You Buy!

Here is one style Charter Oak Parlor Furnace. It will fill the whole house with warm, moist air, burning any grade of hard or soft coal or wood. Comes in beautiful Walnut Enamel, the steel parts grained to imitate wood and the cast parts built. Equipped with tight check latch.

1. Coal Saver

2. Heat Deflectors

Here are the latest improvements that now give you more heat with less coal. An actual saving of half a ton or more every year is made with the new Charter Oak Parlor Furnaces.

Automatic Heat Control

The Coal Saver, included as standard equipment on every Charter Oak, not only makes a remarkable saving in coal but it gives automatic, uniform heat control. It opens a check draft when the fire burns too rapidly and closes it when the stove cools down. This checking and quickening is continuous and so well regulated that you cannot feel changes in the temperature of the room. Nothing to wind, nothing to get out of order. The Coal Saver will work automatically for years without attention.

Keep Your Floors Warm

The floor around the ordinary heater is cold and drafty, but the Charter Oak heats the floor with heat that the ordinary furnace wastes. The patented heat deflectors send out an abundance of excess heat to keep the floor warm and prevent drafts which are the cause of so much sickness.

For the health and comfort of your family, insist on getting a Charter Oak. These features don't cost you any more. They are on every Charter Oak no matter what the size or how late the cost. Used by Four Generations in Millions of Homes

We invite your early inspection.

The marriage was one of the big events of the week. But everything did not go too well.

"Yes," said Marian, "she was furious about the way her marriage was reported."

"Why, did it allude to her age?" asked Grace.

"Indirectly. It stated that M. Brown and Mr. Wallace were married, the latter being a well-known collector of antiques."

"Have you been up in an airplane?" "Not yet," answered Senator Sorghum. "There are a lot of transportation matters involved in legislation in which I can interest myself without physical risk. "What! You buying that cheaper gas?" exclaimed the owner of a cheap bus.

"Certainly," returned the owner of the straight eight, "this kind of a car doesn't need expensive gas to make it run."

"What do you regard as the highest duty of an ideal patriot?"

"To watch his politics," said Senator Sorghum. "So that his patriotic idealism can still be on the job in case an emergency arises."—Washington Star.

Beelerton News

Everyone was glad to see the sunshine last Friday, for this was the day planned for our school rally. A large crowd was present. Several of the neighboring schools came, and a nice day was enjoyed by all. The morning was filled with interesting things, such as adding and spelling contest, readings, piano solos, quartets and vocal solos. At noon everyone enjoyed their dinner and went out for the remainder of the day. The afternoon was enjoyed with races, broad jumps and high jumps. A cake baked by Mrs. Warren Latta was given away with tickets which brought $5.00. The cake was won by Mrs. Josie Phelps. We sold tickets for our ball games at ten cents. We cleared $6.50 on them. From three o'clock until sunset two snappy ball games were played between Pilot Oak and Beelerton. They won by the scores of: girls, 4-3; boys, 13-9. Early in the evening the day was completed with a contest. Many enjoyable numbers were rendered by parents and students. We cleared over $50.00. We feel that we earned and learned much on this day.

Next Friday afternoon two ball games will be played on our court between Cunningham and Beelerton.

A masquerade party will be given in this auditorium Friday night, Nov. 1. The program will be rendered by the Homemakers and the school. If you come masked the admission will be ten cents; if you aren't masked it will be fifteen cents. The funds will be divided between Homemakers and the school. Come and enjoy the evening.

Mr. Springer, of Milburn, has been for the past week painting curtains for our stage. We now have three beautiful curtains, one is a landscape scene, another an indoor scene, and last a street scene which is bordered by many peppy advertisements. The actual cost of our curtains was $170.09. We thank the Clinton and Fulton firms who contributed generously to the expense.

Going Forward

Progress is tangible evidence of business success. Judged by this standard, the railroads are unsurpassed among the nation's industries. They have made an outstanding record of progress.

Their progress is demonstrated in many ways. One is the constant improvement of service. Month after month this year has seen new records established by the railroads. Shippers and travelers are enjoying service better far than ever before. Yet the railroads keep diligently striving to do even better.

At the same time they are enlarging the scope of their activities. The possibilities of highway and air service are being explored. Seventy-odd railroads operate busses. Something like forty operate trucks. Several have co-ordinated air and rail passenger service. The Railway Express Agency, owned by the railroads, offers air express service. Some railroads operate steamships.

In the field of community service, too, the railroads are going forward. They support civic improvements. They provide a substantial share of community school funds. The economic resources of their territories are made widely known. They employ specialists who devote their services to the promotion of agricultural and industrial development. These are merely examples.

This progressiveness is a guaranty to the public that with its continued support and cooperation the railroads can be relied upon to do their vital part in insuring the country's progress.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

SWEARING NO CURE FOR PARKING ILLS

Paved Areas Must Be Built to Bring Full Motoring Utility.

(By E. E. Duffy)
Whether going or coming or not going at all, the automobile occupies a certain amount of space. Oddly, the motorist frequently experiences the greatest difficulty in finding this space when he wants to park. Somehow or other parking spaces always seem to be filled, or else two curt words on a signboard compel him to move on. Sedans are no longer bugles and the space once devoted to the "hitchin' rail" is inadequate. Parking in city and town today is no small problem, and unfortunately little has been done by municipalities to create open-air stopping places for cars. The parking problem is no joke—and one answer to it is found in a new facility, the establishment of paved parking areas.

Build Parking Space.
In Chicago, the Lincoln park board is making an effort to unscramble its traffic situation by constructing two concrete parking spaces. These will be 320 feet long by 130 feet wide, accommodating 300 cars. At Coney Island there is a concrete parking space 1,250 feet long by 705 feet wide, large enough to accommodate more than 5,000 cars.

A fair-sized city in Illinois realized that it was not getting its share of rural business. Farmers were going elsewhere to do their buying. City officials and business men conferred. Shortly a group of old buildings was torn down and a spacious parking place was provided. Not content with this, the city built a new bridge across a stream which had always been a traffic barrier. Today, probably no city of its size is getting more rural trade than this progressive Illinois community.

The handling of the automobile is a city problem and many municipalities have decided that the provision of parking places is likewise something in which the city government has a deep interest. Vacant city property of low earning capacity might well be turned over to the convenience of the motoring family, which just about includes everyone. In some cases it may be practicable for the city to purchase land for the establishment of parking areas.

Full Utility of Car.
The full utility of the automobile will not have been attained until the motorist can stop within the near neighborhood of his destination. This is something that most motorists are denied at present. The creation of municipally or privately owned parking areas naturally entails some expense which, with the expense of operation and maintenance, justifies low parking fees.

One way of relieving traffic congestion, which harnesses city governments more than any other one thing, is to get the cars off the streets. Paved parking areas will do that.

THREE INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Mayfield, Ky.—Mrs. Ruby Ivy was seriously injured, her husband painfully hurt, and a child bruised when the automobile in which they were driving plunged into a ditch after the car was said to have been sideswiped by a car driven by Sam Hendricks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivy were brought to the Mayfield hospital unconscious but soon were revived. Mrs. Ivy is suffering from a deep gash under the throat, broken ribs, an injured spine and bruises. While her condition is serious, it is not believed fatal. Mr. Ivy suffered a gash on the head, and bruises.

This is truly a home-like restaurant because it has endeavored to break down the prejudice based on the theory that restaurants could not serve food like you get at home. Many patrons will testify that there is no difference between our meals and the meals they get at home. That's the reason they come here so frequently to eat.

Years of catering to the appetites of particular people make it possible for us to serve appetizing meals.

AN EERIE HALLOWE'EN

HALLOWE'EN is the time of the year when the best of the year is over and the worst is just beginning. It is a time when the spirits of the dead are said to be abroad, and the living are warned to be on their guard.

"Round about the cauldron go:
In the poison'd entrails throw—
Toad, that under cold stone
Dove and night-hawk last thirty-one
Sweeten'd with sleep's dozing gossamer,
Boil them fast i' the charmed pot."

Double, double, toil and trouble,
Fire, burn, and caldron, bubble.
Fillet of a fenny snake,
In the caldron boil and bake;
Eye of newt, and toe of frog,
Wool of bat, and tongue of dog,
Adder's fork, and blind-worm's sting,
Lizard's leg, and ouzel's wing.

Double, double, toil and trouble,
Fire, burn, and caldron, bubble.
Scale of dragon, tooth of wolf,
Witch's mummy, maw and gulf,
Of the rovin'd salt-sea shark,
Root of hemlock digg'd i' the dark,
Liver of blaspheming heretic,
Gall of goat, and slips of yew,
Sliver'd in the moon's eclipse,
Nose of Turk, and Tartar's lips.

Double, double, toil and trouble,
Fire, burn, and caldron, bubble.
Cool it with a baboon's blood,
Then the charm is firm and good."

That will certainly provide the proper atmosphere for Hallowe'en.

and now for the setting. Instead of the conventional pumpkin head Jack 'o' Lantern, have as a centerpiece a big caldron, or cooking kettle. It would add an eerie touch if some salt and alcohol were turned in it to make blue flames. There should, of course, be a procession of witches astride of broomsticks and of black cats. These can be cut from decorated crepe paper and made to stand up by means of wires.

For the food at such an entertainment you must have dishes suitable to the occasion, decked out with fittingly gruesome names. A suggested menu, calculated for eight people, consists of:

Devil's Stew
Celery Fringes and Ripe Olives
Baked Ham Hallowe'en
Sautéed Potatoes
All-Saints' Salad
Witches' Spiced Shortcake
Orange and Black Mints
Coffee

The Recipes
Devil's Stew: Scald three cups of milk. Smooth two tablespoons of flour with one-half cup of water, add to the milk, and cook until slightly thickened. Add the contents of an 11-ounce can of peas which have been simmered three minutes in their own liquor. Bring the contents of a 5-ounce can of oysters to scalding in their liquor, and add. Season with two tablespoons of butter, salt and pepper, and serve.

Celery Fringes and Ripe Olives: Slice the celery into half-inch pieces, and fringe each end till the fringes reach the center. Let stand in ice water until well curled. Have the olives very cold. Arrange the celery fringes and olives on a shallow dish filled with cracked ice, and serve them hot.

Baked Ham Hallowe'en: Chop one cup of celery, one cup of carrots, one-third cup of green pepper and two tablespoons of onion very fine, and sprinkle over a three-pound slice of ham in a baking dish. Pour over this four cups of strained tomato juice, and bake in a moderate oven (325°) for from an hour and a half to two hours, or until the ham is tender.

Salad and Dessert
All-Saints' Salad: Remove the pits from about two dozen canned breakfast prunes and stuff the cavities with well seasoned cream cheese (or cottage cheese). Chill in ice box for several hours. Have a jar of stuffed oranges in syrup also well chilled. (You can get these at any large grocery store.) When ready to serve, cut oranges in very thin slices, and arrange three slices overlapping in a bed of lettuce. Arrange two or three stuffed prunes on top, and garnish with a little cream mayonnaise.

Witches' Spiced Shortcake: Mix and sift two cups flour, four teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon salt and two tablespoons sugar. Cut in six tablespoons shortening. Add three-fourths cup milk, roll or pat out fairly thin, and cut with a biscuit cutter into rounds. Put two rounds together with a little melted butter. Bake in a hot oven, 450°, for about ten minutes. Remove from oven, split open, and spread the following sauce between and on top:

11-ounce cans of apple sauce, four tablespoons sugar, one and one-half teaspoons salt, two tablespoons butter and four tablespoons water, and heat to boiling. Cool slightly, and spread between and on top of the above shortcakes, and serve them hot.

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. B. FIVEWATER, D.D., Doro Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, U.S. 1224 Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for November 3

RESPECT FOR RIGHTFUL AUTHORITY

(World's Temperance Sunday)

LESSON TEXT—Mark 12:12-17; Rom. 13:1-14; 1 Peter 2:13-17.

GOLDEN TEXT—Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Why We Have Laws.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Why We Have Laws.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Obeying the Law.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Making Effective the Will of the Community.

Though our citizenship is in heaven, we have obligation to the government under which we live.

I. Obligation to Pay Tribute (Mark 12:13-17).

This teaching concerning the tribute money came in answer to the question put to Jesus by representatives of the Pharisees and Herod. They would gladly have killed him, but they feared the people. Their only hope was to discredit him among the people.

2. Their question (v. 14).

Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not? The Pharisees contended that since God was the real king of Israel, it was not obligatory—yes, even sinful—to pay taxes to a heathen king. The Herodians were supporters of Herod. With flattery on their lips, they put this subtle question. For Christ to have answered "yes" would have discredited Him with the people, and to have said "no" would have made Him liable to arrest as an enemy of the government.

2. Jesus' reply (v. 15-17).

He requested a coin to be brought and inquired as to whose image and superscription it bore, declaring that those who accept the coin of Caesar should pay taxes to Caesar. Thus the Lord escapes their trap and inculcates a principle which applies to all time and conditions as to the Christian's responsibility to civil government.

II. The Christian's Obligation to the State (Rom. 13:1-7).

The believer is a citizen as well as a Christian.

1. Obedience to rulers (vv. 1-4).

This obligation is upon all Christians. Civil government is ordained of God, and rulers are His representatives. To refuse obedience to civil authority is to resist God. This does not mean that a Christian at the behest of the state should do that which is inherently wrong. The same is true of the child in its responsibility to its parents. While obedience to parents is the will of God for children, this does not imply that the child is under obligation to do that which is morally wrong, at the command of the parents. Submission to authority is the law of the believer's life.

2. The spirit in which the Christian renders obedience to rulers (v. 5).

He should regard it as his obligation because it is morally right.

3. Methods of expressing this obedience (vv. 6, 7).

(1) In the payment of personal and property taxes. The citizen who enjoys the benefits of government is morally bound to support it.

(2) Payment of duty upon merchandise, and license fees. The business exchange between nations must be regulated. For such regulations, expense is incurred, for which benefit the citizen should pay.

(3) Veneration for magistrates—"Fear to whom fear."

Those who have the fear of God in their hearts will venerate their rulers, God's representatives.

(4) "Honor to whom honor." Civil officers should be honored because of the ministry they perform.

III. The Spirit of Loyalty to Authority (1 Pet. 2:13-17).

The loyalty of the Christian to right authority should be glad and free. The Christian recognizes the necessity of social order, and will graciously submit to the authority of rulers and faithfully perform his obligation as a citizen, not through cringing fear, but as the Lord's free man, for the Lord's sake. By means of this free submission as God's servant, he puts to silence the ignorance of foolish men (vv. 15, 16).

1. Honor all men (v. 17).

He will see in every man the image of God and therefore give honor to him. A Christian will attend to the proprieties of life among all classes and in all relations.

(2) Love the brotherhood (v. 17).

The Christian has a peculiar love for those who are of the same household.

(3) Fear God (v. 17). This is filial, reverential fear.

(4) Honor the king (v. 17). This had a peculiar significance, for in all probability the wicked Nero was then the reigning monarch.

Life Is Like That

"Take your needle, my child, and work at your pattern. It will come out a rose by-and-by." Life is like that. One stitch at a time taken patiently, and the pattern will come out all right like the embroidery.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.
