Syrup of Figs

Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal., is the most easily taken and the most pleasantly effective remedy known to cleanse the system when bilious or constive; to dispel headaches, colds and fevers; to cure habitual constipation, indigestion, etc. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles by H. B. Garner, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Stonewall Jackson.

Geo. R. Wendling the matchless orator will lecture on this subject at the Opera-house on Friday evening the 24th inst.
Persons of intelligence cannot afford to miss this lecture, both on account of the subject and the distinguished orator who treats it.
The object of the lecture is a charity to the Masonic Widows and Orphans Home, and the price of admission only fifty cents.
To have not heard Wendling after this opportunity is to be confess, alike your lack of appreciation for the intellectual, and your uncharitableness. Admission fifty cents.

Winfree-Anderson.

Our celebrated contested election, County Judge case, has at last been settled. Mr. Feland's petition for a rehearing, filed last Thursday, has been overruled and the mandate will be issued next Thursday. It is now a question as to whether Judge Winfree can qualify and take possession of the office at once, or will wait until Circuit court begins in July. Judge Winfree is not decided as to whether he will apply for his commission now or wait. There will probably be a suit over the salary and fees. Judge Anderson will claim the salary—$800 allowed by the last Court of Claims—for the first year and the fees up to the time of Judge Grace's decision. Judge Winfree claims that he is entitled to the whole of the salary and fees from the time of the election.

O. V. R. R.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the O. V. R. R. was held in the Company's office in this city on the 13th inst. S. S. Brown, of Pittsburg, P. G. Kealey, S. H. Lambert and Gordon Giles, of Henderson, and Arthur Carey, of Louisville, were re-elected as directors P. G. Kealey as president and Gordon Giles secretary. It was determined to push the work of construction rapidly and to extend the main stem to Florence or Birmingham. It is also probable that a branch of the road will be built to Nashville by the way of Hopkinsville and Clarksville. The company already has 56 miles of road completed from Henderson to Marion, and expect to finish to Princeton before the first of September. The directors expressed themselves well satisfied with the work so far and with the outlook.—Henderson Journal.

There are about fifty cases of measles at the Asylum, but they are in a mild form and no danger is apprehended by the Superintendent. The sanitary condition of that institution is so perfect that the disease will soon be stamped out.

The Board of Directors of the Public School met Saturday morning last, for the purpose of electing teachers for the next scholastic year. The present corps were all re-elected, with the exception of Miss Sarah McKee. The vacancy will be filled at the next regular meeting of the Board, July 2nd.

You can go on a four days trip in search of a suitable place in which to celebrate the "Glorious Fourth" in the Chesapeake and Ohio Route as the excursion tickets to all C. & O. Stations July 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th, good to return until July 6th, at one fare for the round trip.

Prof. J. W. Rust and wife were in the city Monday the guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Sears.

Prof. J. W. Rust was for years prominently connected with the educational interests of Clarksville and his labors are well remembered. For the past twelve years he has been President of Bethel Female College at Hopkinsville, Ky., and many of the most accomplished and best educated young ladies of the country have received diplomas from that institution. Recently it had a brilliant commencement. Nine young ladies graduating. No doubt about the excellency of this school, and the friends who have daughters to educate could do better than to send to this established institution.—Clarksville Tobacco Leaf.

We are under obligations to Prof. C. H. Dietrich for the following compilation of statistics, giving the number of school children in our city, which we think will be interesting to our readers.

Sunday's Storms.

The heavy clouds that passed around and over us Sunday afternoon, did considerable damage in and near Trenton.

Lightning struck the barn of Dr. R. R. Grady and burned the barn, three bays, of tobacco, a lot of corn and farming implements. It struck and burned Mrs. Stegar's barn, and completely demolished the brick-kiln of Henry Fox.

Besides the above mentioned damages, the hail which accompanied the storm played havoc with vegetation and the wind blew down a great deal of fencing.

Escaped Convicts.

The authorities of the branch penitentiary, at Eddyville, telegraphed Monday to the Chief of Police here the description of three convicts, who escaped Saturday night. Those who escaped are Pleasant Whitmore, white, 35 years old, 6 feet high, weight 175 lbs., hazel eyes, red hair, smooth face, scrofulous face affection. A. L. Harks, white, 40 years old, 150 lbs., grey eyes, dark hair, dark complexion and dark moustache. W. H. Sanders, colored, 38 years old, 5 feet 8 inches high, weight 170 lbs., yellow. A liberal reward is offered for the capture of any or all of these men.

After Thirty Years.

Quite a family re-union was held in the city this week. T. C. Ballard, of Paducah, H. C. Ballard, of Hopkinsville, B. C. Ballard, of Lyon county, Mrs. Muscogee Wildenuth, of Birmingham, Ala., and Prof. T. H. Scates, of Eddyville, all met here for the first time for thirty years. All are brothers and sisters, and have reached ripe age and have been reared within the walls of this city. This is the first time all have met for the above length of time and it was a happy occasion, bringing up many vivid recollections and reminiscences of the long ago. All are related to our townsman, Ed. Gregory. Mr. R. G. Ballard being his father-in-law.—Princeton Banner.

Death of a Virginia Lady.

Tuesday, June 14th inst. the inevitable hand of death invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Watt, and took from the spirit of their aged and Christian daughter, Mrs. Mollie O'Neil, the demise of this estimable lady caused deep sorrow to spread its sable plume over the entire happy home.

Mrs. O'Neil was born in Prince Edward county, Va., August 31, 1836, and was therefore, at the time of her death, 50 years of age. She was a lady of many noble and lovable traits. Her kind, generous and agreeable disposition, the invaluable qualities of both head and heart, endeared her to an unlimited circle of admiring friends. It is a beautiful and impressive thought to believe that the spirit of this charitable lady has winged its flight upon the fair bays beyond of the paradise of old Long live her memory.

South Kentucky College.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 17, 1887.

At a meeting of the Faculty of South Kentucky College, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, President S. R. Crambaugh has chosen to sever his connection with South Ky. College;

(1) Resolved, that Prof. Crambaugh, in leaving this institution, carries with him the good wishes and esteem of his colleagues; and that we highly appreciate his untiring energy, labor and self-denial, both in and out of the classroom, in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the College.

(2) Resolved, that he has our wish for his success and prosperity in all his future undertakings and that we richly deserve, in whatever field of labor he may choose to enter.

By order of the Faculty of South Ky. College.

ALBERT J. DARNEY, Sec'y. of the Faculty.
