"On fame's, eternal platform stand They silent feet are upon The Bloom of the deal. The first railroad in the west from Lexington was built for J. D. Buck on a plot between West and Fort Street in West Fulton. This is a quiet corner with little traffic.

In the west Fulton, on the Matron Hill, a brick house is being built for Mr. Latta. When completed, it will probably be one of the most modern homes on the state. The house is being built by Mr. Latta in the further business district.

FORTY AND EIGHT NAME OFFICERS

At regular monthly meet- ing held at the homes of Ls. L. de la. B. and Mrs. E. W. de la P. Corr. Co. The meeting was in order as called for by the by-laws.

After the business was transacted, the program was started with the recitation of a piece by Mr. J. J. de la P. The piece was about the war and its results.

The next meeting will be held in the same place. The name of the next meeting will be announced later.

It is the opinion of Dr. Bushart that there is a great need for the cultivation of the maple tree, which is the source of the sweet sap that is used in making maple syrup.

The Advertiser接着stated that the maple trees in Kentucky are being destroyed by a disease, and that this is causing a great loss to the state. The Advertiser recommended that steps be taken to control the disease and save the maple trees.

President Encolts in Red Cross

The President of the Red Cross was in Kentucky last week. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. de la P. and other members of the organization.

The President spoke to the members of the organization and encouraged them to continue their work.

He also spoke about the importance of the Red Cross and the work that it does.

The meeting adjourned at 9:00 p.m., after which the members went to dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. de la P.

OUR MESSAGE OF SERVICE

There is going to be a lot of activity in the building line this year. Architects and contractors, carpenters and masons all, are busily sharpening up their pencils and their tools, and getting set for business. It is not the unoccupied folks alone who are going to build homes—who dream dreams of happiness in homes of their own—but many others who have long, long, been renting the roots over their heads are going to try this year to realize their desire to have a home of their own.

Whatever you plan to do by way of BUILDING—REMODELING—REPAIRING we want you to feel perfectly free to come in and consult our service department without the slightest obligation. Whether it's a big house or a bungalow, a new garage, new roof or new floor, a sun parlor or a sleeping porch, an alley fence, or built-in fixture—we are prepared to give you unsolicited service and fair prices on Quality Material.

LET US HELP YOU MAKE YOUR DREAMS COME TRUE.

Agents Assist 521 Commissions Organize to Improve Conditions

County agents assisted in building improvement programs at the Kentucky State Fair last year. Heavy emphasis was placed on the report of the extension division of the University of Kentucky.

More than 6,000 farmers equipped to be cutting at least 100 acres of alfalfa. The University is encouraging the use of improved varieties. There were 2,000 square miles of improved varieties demonstrated at better methods were made in 20 counties last year. The average acreage was increased by 10,000, the alfalfa had in the office was prevent for ten, to be released in time for them to reach their destination before Christmas. The local post office desiring to do this will pass them in to the clerk.

The local post office wishes to call attention of every one who mails Christmas cards in lots of 20 or more to their stamps on the outside of the envelope. It is inadvisable that they be marked as parcel post. The office would prevent for ten, to be released in time for them to reach their destination before Christmas. The local post office desiring to do this will pass them in to the clerk.

One of the leading newspaper offices in the state was mailing out 5,000 papers to the address of the cards with the announcement that they are free of charge. This is a very new design and is being shipped by rail, and 10 cents each.
