Council Delays Action On Gas System Plan

Benton's City Council has delayed until Nov. 1 its final decision as to ordering a survey made here to determine if it is feasible to install a municipally-operated natural gas system.

Councilmen discussed at length the problems of installing and operating a natural gas system in Benton at their meeting Monday night at City Hall.

William Turner, of the engineering firm of Albert Switzer and Associates, Jackson, Miss., attended the Council meeting and offered city officials a contract for conducting the survey and installing the system.

Mr. Turner told officials his firm would conduct the survey and if such a survey showed that it was NOT feasible to install a natural gas system here there would be NO cost to the city for the survey.

If the survey showed it was feasible to install a gas system, Mr. Turner said, then his firm would install the system for a fee of 7 percent of the total cost of installing the system.

He said that the 7 percent fee included work toward obtaining permission from the Federal Power Commission to install a gas system in Benton, detailed plans and specifications

Charles Ray Downing and his wife, Wanda Mae Downing, were indicted by the Marshall County grand jury this week on a charge of wilful murder in the death in 1951 of Mrs. Downing's daughter by a previous marriage, Nancy Jo Clover.

The indictment charged that the Downings killed the 13-month-old child by "assaulting, striking, beating and bruising said child with hands, fists and instruments."

Benton Men Fly High, Land in Corn Field

Osborne was piloting the single-engine craft as they left Kentucky Dam Village airport. They told their wives they would be back in Benton by dark Tuesday.

Late Tuesday, Osborne telephoned his wife from Columbia, Tenn. It seems that Pilot Osborne and Phillips got lost. Osborne said they ran into cross winds, and also that the "compass wouldn't work."

As a result, he said, he landed the plane in a corn field near Columbia. In landing, the propeller was damaged. Osborne and Phillips, however, escaped injury.

LET'S TALK FRANKLY ABOUT NOVEMBER 2nd

The issues before Kentucky voters at the Nov. 2 election can be boiled down to these simple terms:

- 1 The Republican administration at Washington has been surrendered to ruthless, big business tycoons who have little sympathy for the average man and woman.
- 2 John Sherman Cooper is a Republican, and the Republican strategy is to keep that crowd in control at Washington.
- 3 Alben W. Barkley is a Democrat — "Mr. Democrat" of the nation — and his record is proof that he believes in government for the people.
- 4 Republican policies during the past two years have produced widespread unemployment, brought back the bread lines, and threaten the economic well being of the nation.
- 5 There are too many hard-hearted men in control at Washington who feel as Defense Secretary Wilson does that many working men are "kennel-fed dogs".
- 6 The Republican lack of firm foreign policy has undermined the prestige of the United States abroad, and divided us at home.
- 7 The Benson farm program is wrecking progress made for the farmers through the 20 years the Democrats worked for them.
- 8 Cooper has little influence at Washington. At a critical time during the last session of Congress, President Eisenhower would not even talk with him. He was not consulted about the appointment of the new TVA chairman. He cannot get Republican senators to vote with him.
- 9 Barkley has the greatest influence of any living Democrat. His opinions are valued and respected, especially in the Senate.
- 10 Cooper voted against giving individual taxpayers relief by raising their exemptions $100 a year, but voted for tax relief for the big corporations.
- 11 Barkley has always voted for a tax program to protect the little man, and against the theory that big business will let benefits "trickle down".
- 12 Cooper voted against a bill for 90% parity for tobacco, wheat, corn, cotton and other basic crops; against dairy supports; against increased support for REA and Soil Conservation; against beef cattle supports.
- 13 Barkley has waged the fight for strong agricultural supports throughout his career.
- 14 Cooper voted for final action to approve the notorious Dixon-Yates contract that gives a private power combine undeserved profits.

Rescue the Nation from the grasp of the Special Privilege Crowd

ELECT ALBEN BARKLEY

A GREAT KENTUCKIAN FOR GREATER SERVICE

Kentuckians can be proud that their state produced a statesman of Alben Barkley's stature. Throughout his public service he has never deviated from his belief that what is best for the people is best for the nation.

Today, Barkley is needed by the people of Kentucky more than at any time in his life. His unmatched experience, his vision, his dedication to the interests of the many rather than the privileged few... all combine to make him the hope of his state and his nation.

VOTE FOR ALBEN BARKLEY
and the STRAIGHT Democratic TICKET!

4-H Achievement Day, November 13

Poultry raising, a 4-H project popular with both boys and girls, is portrayed in this reproduction of the 1955 National 4-H Calendar painting as one of many 4-H programs. Because 4-H Club work is so varied, it holds wide appeal for young people between the ages of 10 and 21. Through their 4-H projects, club members know the pride of personal ownership. At the same time they learn important lessons of responsibility. On National 4-H Achievement Day, November 13, 4-H boys and girls will receive deserved congratulations for their outstanding accomplishments.

The Farm Front -

By J. HOMER MILLER
County Farm Agent

Had a wonderful trip to Salt Lake City and saw much of the country that I had not seen before. It was a wonderful convention with a number of outstanding speakers including Ezra Benson, secretary of agriculture, C. M. Ferguson, administrator of extension service; and other national figures.

Met several hundred agents from all states of the nation. Rains have helped pastures and newly seeded grasses and small grains. Many pastures that seemed to be completely burned up are now furnishing excellent grazing.

Miss Sunshine Colley, Mrs. A. N. Duke, Mrs. Anna Brandon, Mrs. Guy Chester, and Mrs. A. N. Lawrence will attend the National Home Demonstration Council meeting in Washington, D. C., next week.

The 4 families in the Farm and Home Development Club will meet at the Community Building Saturday, Oct. 23, to report on progress made during the year. New families may enroll in the program for meetings starting in November.

Federal tobacco graders will be in the county four days helping with proper stripping and grading of dark air cured tobacco. Oct. 21 and 22 they will meet with high school agriculture classes, and Oct. 25 and 26 they will spend with growers in their barns.

It is not too late to seed wheat and rye as cover crops. They could be used as grazing next spring and would have a lot of soil and plant food this winter. Special payments may be received through the ASC office. Inquire at that office for details.

Take soil samples now from fields to be cultivated next year. Why use plant food that is not needed? Find out what is needed and only buy the ones that will give increased crop yields.

Mrs. Rosella Kelley is spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Era Van Norton at 2737 Adams Street in Paducah.

Mrs. Oda Starks was a recent visitor of her brother, Don Starks in St. Louis, Mo.

"Nothing is impossible to the man who doesn't have to do it himself!"

For God hath not given the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.—II Timothy 1, 7.

God is all good, and naught but good comes from Him. How good He is to us, giving us the choice of living miserably and afraid with the doubts and fears which are of our own creation, or of rejecting evil and putting all our trust in Him and in His love, thus to live in full joy and confidence.

Mrs. Gallemore and Mrs. Dunstan Tell Of Vacation Trips

The Benton Homemakers met Oct. 18 with Mrs. John Rayburn and Mrs. Mark Clayton, demonstrating how to cook a meal for special occasions.

Mrs. Paul Gallemore gave an interesting talk on her trip through Canada and New York City. Mrs. William Dunstan also gave a short talk of visiting in Canada.

Mrs. Lucille Cooper is back with the homemakers as the new vice president. Mrs. Billy Peek having resigned this office.

Members attending were as follows: Mrs. Errett Starks, Mrs. Katie Faughn, Mrs. B. L. Trevathan, Mrs. A. N. Duke, Mrs. Ruby Walker, Mrs. Alice Combs, Mrs. Charlie Cone, Mrs. Billy Peek, Mrs. Robert Dublin, Mrs. Clete Phillips, Mrs. Wayne Powell, Mrs. William Dunstan, Mrs. C. G. Morrow, Mrs. C. E. Fields, Mrs. Mark Clayton, Mrs. Paul Cross, Mrs. Katie Landrum, Mrs. Lillie Cooper, Mrs. John

... But this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before.—(Philippians 3, 13.)

The past cannot be forgotten as long as one has an uneasy conscience, and it will lie heavily upon his soul until he knows, in a flood of God's love, that he has been forgiven, through earnest prayer. Then, forgiving himself and forgetting, he can press forward into the abounding joy that comes from living in godliness.

Cross-Bred Calves Will be Exhibited At Princeton Show

Farmers have been invited to the Western Kentucky Experiment Substation at Princeton, Oct. 27 to see the results of an experiment in using a purebred beef bull on 10 Jersey cows, 10 cows of half dairy and half beef breeding and 10 Hereford cows.

The same bull was used in all three lots and the cows and calves handled in the same way.

The calves were born from December to March and some of them now weigh around 600 pounds. They will be sold immediately after the October 27 meeting.

Farmers who attend the Princeton meeting will see how a good bull will improve calves from dairy cows and from cows of cross breeding. They will be able to make a direct comparison of such calves with calves from beef cows.

The cattle will be exhibited and the experiment explained at 1:30 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 27.

Ed Rendleman of Calvert Completes Gemology Course

Ed Rendleman of Calvert City recently was awarded a diploma in the theory of gemology by the Gemological Institute of America, Los Angeles. Holders of these diplomas are recognized as specialists of the gem field.

The courses offered by the Institute teach its students the know-how and why of all precious stones and gem minerals. It is the only course of its kind which offers a complete study of the diamond, of silverware and of all colored gemstones.

The Institute's correspondence course requires, on the average, three and one half years of study.

Mr. Rendleman is also a graduate of the Southern College of Watchmaking and Jewelry.

He is Calvert City's fire chief, head of the P-TA safety committee, and a teacher in church school.

He saw six years of active Army duty and had two tours of overseas service in Europe and is now a captain in the reserve.

New Social Security Law Is Explained for Farmers

Approximately 125 thousand self-employed farm operators and about 75 thousand additional farm workers in Kentucky will be affected by the new social security law which becomes effective Jan. 1, it is announced by the College of Agriculture and Home Economics of the University of Kentucky.

Farm operators who made as much as $400 profit a year, as well as farm employees who earn as much as $100 cash pay in a year from any one farmer, will have old-age and survivors insurance protection under the new law. Monthly payments in old age and monthly payments to survivors in case of the breadwinner's death are some of the benefits for which such workers will now be eligible.

Under the new law, workers and their employers and self-employed people contribute to a fund while they are working. When earnings stop because of the death of the worker or because of his retirement at age 65 or later, payments are made from the fund to the worker and his dependents or to his survivors. The tax for employees is 2 percent of their pay up to $3,600 in 1954, and $4,200 in 1955, the amount paid to be matched by the employer. The tax for self-employed people is 3 percent of their earnings.

Farmers employing workers whose annual earnings total more than $100 from any one employer will deduct 2 percent of each worker's pay, add an additional 2 percent, and send the total amount to the director of internal revenue along with a list showing the wages and social security account number of each employee. Self-employed farmers pay their 3 percent tax once a year along with their income tax return. First payment for farm operators not previously covered under Old Age and Survivors Insurance will be due in 1956 for 1955, and will be a part of the income tax return.

The Basic Idea Behind the All-New 1955 PONTIAC

On Display October 29 and 30

ABOUT 30 years ago General Motors Corporation presented to America a new car called Pontiac. This new car was the direct result of a very specific idea.

The idea was this: to create a car which took its style, its engineering principles and its features from the very best and most expensive in America—and to build these into a car priced just above the very lowest!

Naturally, such an idea produced a wonderful and highly popular car—a car which millions of satisfied owners have driven with outstanding pride and pleasure.

Now, nearly three decades later, an entirely new Pontiac has been created for 1955—a car completely new from the ground up!

One thing, however, about the 1955 Pontiac remains unchanged—its basic idea—to offer the American public the very finest car that can possibly be built to sell at a price within easy reach of any new-car buyer.

When you see the new Pontiac on Friday or Saturday—Oct. 29 or 30—you will be immediately impressed by its remarkable new styling. No other car in the world looks like this new Pontiac!

When you drive it you will be astonished at its performance. For the 1955 Pontiac introduces the powerful new Strato-Streak V-8, an all-new engine that has already been proved in more than 3 million test miles!

When you price the new Pontiac you will come face to face with the basic Pontiac idea—you will be agreeably surprised that so much luxury, so much sparkling newness, so much car, so much downright goodness can be priced so near the very lowest.

We cordially invite you to come in on Friday or Saturday and see for yourself what a superb all-new General Motors masterpiece has been created to carry the wonderful name "Pontiac" for 1955.

Homes Needed

Lesson for October 24, 1954

THE wonderful thing we know as the "Christian home" is never described directly in the Bible, and certainly not in the Old Testament, for you cannot have a Christian home without Christians, and there were no Christians when the Proverbs were being written. Nevertheless the Christian home has its roots in the Old Testament. Dr. Foreman home, and the book of Proverbs has many things to say about homes without ever using the word. (The very word "home" in its full meaning is a Christian discovery.)

Homes Are Needed

The most scientific students of humanity are telling us what Christians knew all the time: that good homes are the foundation of a good community and nation. The chief probation officer of the city of Louisville, Ky., has said that in his experience he has seen delinquent children and youths from every kind of home—rich, poor, educated, illiterate, every kind you can think of, except one. He has never seen juvenile delinquents coming out of homes where the father and mother lived a life of harmony together. Psychiatrists who deal with emotional disorders, those sicknesses of the personality which can be so devastating in middle life, have found that in probing for the causes of disturbance, they always have to inquire into the kind of home in which this person grew up. For security and stability of character and personality, what is most needed are Christian homes. Further, homes are needed for training in that most difficult and "tricky" of all arts, the art of living with other people. We get a successful democracy about as fast as we get citizens who have been learning democracy as they have lived in their homes growing up,—not much faster.

What Makes a Home?

The Proverbs give many valuable hints and directions showing what is needed for successful home life. One thing, spelled out in chapters 6 and 7, is fidelity between husband and wife. Christians know that this is not the whole story. We have all seen "homes" where there was no question of infidelity involved; no ground for divorce as the church sees it, and yet where the marriage was unsuccessful and the home no home at all. For all that, fidelity lies at the base of the successful home. The wife can't cheat the husband, nor the husband the wife, without damaging all their relationships together. As the Proverbs point out, the unfaithful one hurts himself even more than he hurts his partner. Another thing needed is peace. A home that is full of quarrels is not a home but a madhouse. For some reason the Proverbs refer often to quarreling wives, seldom to quarreling husbands. Some one has said that "It takes two to make a quarrel" isn't true. One nagging person can make enough quarrels alone and unassisted, to break up any home. The man who "deserts" his wife, or the other way around, may turn out not to be a deserter but a refugee, as one of them said. A third thing that makes a home, as Prov. 31 shows, is work. Homes do not run themselves. "Goldlocks, Goldlocks, wilt thou be mine? Thou shalt not wash dishes nor yet feed the swine; But sit upon cushions and sew a fine seam, And feed upon strawberries, sugar and cream." So runs the nursery rhyme. But it is safe to say that Goldlocks and her husband would never make a happy home with that no-work program.

Who Makes a Home?

What the Proverbs say has been tested many thousand times, and is true: the home is made successful by father, mother and children, all of them. One good mother working against a husband who doesn't care and children who never cooperate, can maybe keep the home from the rocks but it will never be what it might have been. We hear so much about "home and mother" that we get the notion that one good mother is all a home needs for success. Many a sad mother could tell you this is not true. Then sometimes sentimental people say that "love" is all that is needed. That is false or true depending on what you mean.

Soil and Water Conservation Loans are Available Now

Soil and water conservation loans are available to eligible farmers in Kentucky. Earl Mayhew, state director, Farmers Home Administration, said this week.

The loans may be used to carry out measures for soil conservation, water development, conservation, and use and drainage. This will include the construction and repair of terraces, dikes, ditches, ponds and tanks, the establishment and improvement of permanent pastures, basic application of lime and fertilizer, tree planting, well drilling, and the purchase of pumps and other irrigation equipment.

The new loan program was made possible by legislation recently passed by the 83rd Congress.

Applications for all loans, insured or direct, will be made at all the full time county offices and all part time county offices of the Farmers Home Administration.

The 3-member county committee of the Farmers Home Administration will certify the eligibility of applicants. Applications from veterans will receive preference in processing.

Loans will be made to carry out only the types of soil and water conservation practices that are in accord with the recommendations made by the Extension Service and the Soil Conservation Service.

Soil and water conservation loans will not be available for annually recurring costs that are generally considered as farm operating expense.

To be eligible for a soil and water conservation loan, a farmer must have sufficient experience or training to indicate that he has reasonable prospects of conducting successful farming operations and be unable to obtain the necessary credit on reasonable terms and conditions from private and cooperative sources.

Individuals can borrow amounts up to $25,000. It is expected that the average loan to a farmer will be less than $5,000.

Water facility loans last year averaged $4,500. Loans to associations have a ceiling of $250,000. All loans will be secured by the best lien obtainable on chattels or real estate to the extent necessary to adequately protect the government's investment.

The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.—(Romans 8, 2.)

BUICK BONUS — Record-making allowance in October

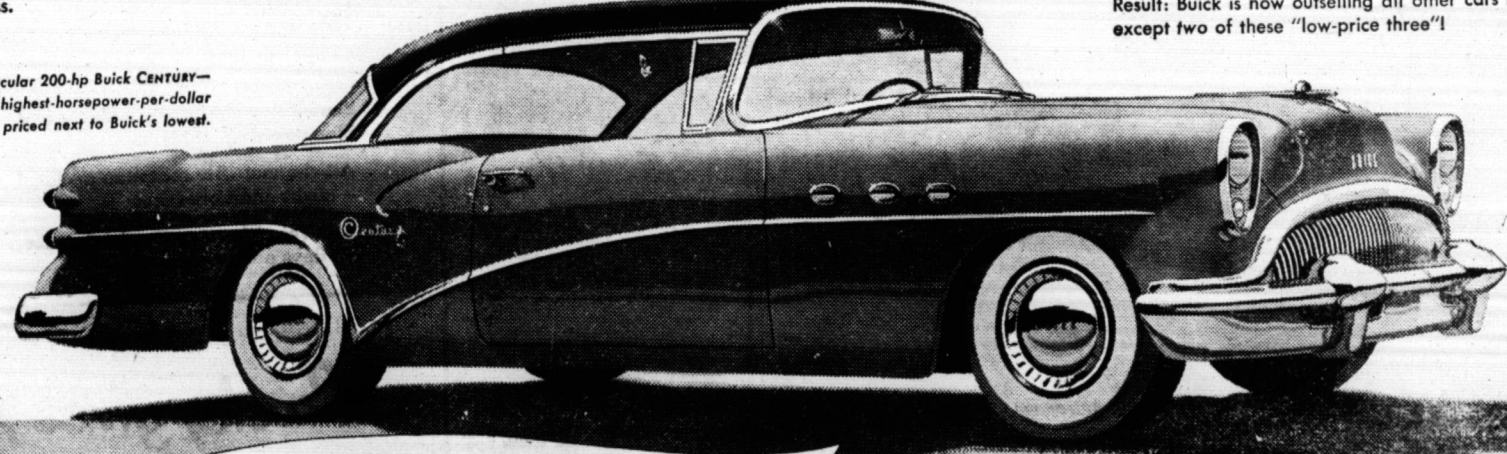

BUICK BONUS — Higher resale value

BUICK BONUS — Tomorrow's styling today

One look at the national sales figures tells you this: Buick is outselling every other car in America — regardless of price class — except two of the "low-priced three." And just to keep sales soaring — we're willing to give a whole of an allowance this month — to keep success rolling in high. So come in — get a car and a deal that are too good to miss.

Year after year, Buicks have always carried a high resale value. But the 1954 Buick has an even bigger edge in its year-ahead styling. It will still be fresh and new-looking when other '55 models come out. So the new Buick you buy today will keep you plenty of dollars ahead when you trade it in.

You can see it on every new Buick on the road — glamorous new-day styling keynoted by that broad panoramic windshield that most other cars won't have till 1955 or later. And with this advanced styling, you get Buick's record-high V8 power, luxurious room and comfort, that famed Million Dollar Ride — and all for prices that start just a few dollars above those of the so-called "low-price three." Result: Buick is now outselling all other cars in America except two of these "low-price three!"

Buick Sales are Soaring so Buick "deals" are bigger than ever right now!

29 Attend Session Of New Harmony Homemakers Club

Twenty-one members and nine visitors attended a meeting of the New Harmony Homemakers on Oct. 11 at the home of Mrs. Clarence Thompson.

Program subject was "Meals for Special Occasions."

The club's food leaders, Marie Barker and Laura Jane Portis, after attending the county demonstration on meals for special occasions, cooked and served a delicious lunch from a menu that could have a few interesting touches of flavor, color or decoration to make the company, holiday, birthday or anniversary menu somewhat different.

Simplicity is the keynote in planning these occasion meals, and gives the housewife more time to spend with the family or guest.

The food leaders also gave a demonstration on making cookies. Mrs. Ruth Walters conducted the business meeting and gave a rocking chair tour of her trip to Lexington. Mrs. Marie Barker led the recreation hour. The next meeting will be held Nov. 9 at the home of Mrs. Wilson Portis.

Tatumville Club Hears Mrs. Bryan, Mrs. O. E. Darnell

A table loaded with food is not a sign of hospitality but an indication that the housewife wishes to show her ability as a cook or outdo her neighbor. So stated the foods leaders of Tatumville Homemakers Club on Thursday at their October meeting.

The lesson, given by Mrs. Edgar Bryan and Mrs. O. E. Darnell, was the first of the series on "Meals for Special Occasions."

As installation of the electric range at the clubhouse was incomplete, the meeting was held at the home of Mrs. L. L. Higgins. Mrs. Carl Turner and Mrs. Higgins were hostesses for the day.

This special meal, which featured baked country ham, was served at noon to 14 members and two visitors.

During the afternoon business session plans were made for the annual community Halloween party. Everyone is invited to the party at the clubhouse Friday night, Oct. 29.

Anti-Freeze Panties

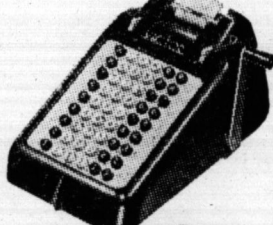

A warmer, softer and absolutely non-scratchy type of knitted underwear for men, women, and children is now available in leading department stores. Improvements are due to a new ingredient, dymel, the synthetic fiber. Used in a harmonious blend with cotton, this fiber contributes cozy, comfortable warmth yet is feather-light in weight. It is cashmere-soft and positively will not scratch the most sensitive skin. The underwear washes easily, dries more quickly, without shrinking or stretching, and of course needs no ironing. It's very, very durable and then too, moths dislike the taste. So for winter sports of all kinds or for just everyday living, make dymel-cotton undies your personal anti-freeze this winter. They come in long johns, knee-length panties, briefs, and vests in assorted sizes and colors at a miniature price.

RULES AND REGULATIONS COVERING CONTRACTS FOR LOCAL EXCHANGE TELEPHONE SERVICE

1. Rates, other than for short term service, and private branch exchange service, are based on monthly contracts and bills therefor are rendered monthly in advance.

2. The company reserves the right to discontinue service without further notice unless prompt payment of bill is made.

3. If service is suspended on account of non-payment of account, service will be restored only upon payment of a restoration charge as shown in the tariff in addition to payment of the bill in full.

CLASSIFICATION OF AREAS AS THE BASIS FOR FURNISHING TELEPHONE SERVICE

1. The Base Rate Area of any exchange shall be a radius of one mile from the central office, or the city limit, whichever is the longest.

2. The Telephone Company does not undertake to furnish any desired class of service at any desired location, nor does it undertake to extend its facilities to remote sections where such extensions are not warranted by public necessity as distinguished from personal desire, except where protection is afforded. The company will extend its facilities to provide service if the cost of construction does not exceed five times the annual exchange service revenue to be derived on account of the new construction. If the construction costs exceed that ratio a construction charge equal to the difference between five times the annual exchange revenue and the actual construction costs shall be made.

3. The Telephone Company's obligation to furnish telephone service is dependent upon its ability to procure and retain suitable facilities and right of way for the construction and maintenance of the necessary circuits.

MOVING OF EQUIPMENT

1. Subscribers wishing to have equipment moved from one location to another should give written notice to the Commercial Office of the Company as far in advance of the date of change desired as is possible.

2. The Company will, subject to the usual charges, change the location provided it has facilities available, at as near the time prescribed by the subscriber as it is practicable and the conditions under which it is then working permit.

RESPONSIBILITY OF PAYMENT

1. The subscriber shall pay monthly in advance or on demand all charges for exchange service and equipment, and shall pay monthly or on demand all charges for toll service. The Subscriber assumes full responsibility for all charges for exchange service and for toll service originating at the Subscriber's station, and for toll messages received at the Subscriber's station on which the charges have been reversed with the consent of the person called.

2. In the event of abandonment of the station, the non-payment of any sum due or any other violation by the Subscriber of the Telephone Company's rules and regulations applying to the Subscriber's contract, or to the furnishing of service, the Company may, without notice, either (a) suspend service until all violations have ceased, or (b) terminate the subscriber's contract without the suspension of service, or (c) following suspension of service, sever the connection and remove any of its equipment from the Subscriber's premises.

3. When instrumentalities have been removed for non-payment, the contract is considered to have been terminated. Re-installation of the service may be made only upon the condition of a new contract.

DIRECTORY LISTINGS OR OMISSIONS

1. It is desirable that all subscribers shall be properly listed in the directory. Errors or omissions should be promptly reported to the Commercial Office of the Company. The Company assumes no liability whatsoever for damages accruing from such errors.

UNAUTHORIZED USE OF THE TELEPHONE

1. Telephone facilities and equipment are furnished for the use of the Subscriber, members of the Subscriber's domicile or establishment, employees or agents of the Subscriber, only, except as the use of the service may be extended to joint users.

2. The use of obscene, lewd, abusive or threatening language over the telephone is forbidden. Subscribers shall be courteous and considerate of the operators and other Company employees at all times. Use of the telephone in making or assisting illegal transactions is forbidden.

3. All equipment furnished by the Company shall remain the property of the Company. Such equipment shall not be used for any toll or consideration to be paid by any other person than the Subscriber, nor for performing any part of the work of transmitting, delivering or collecting any messages, where any toll or consideration has been or is to be paid any party other than the Telephone Company, without the written consent of the Company.

4. Subscribers may not disconnect or remove or permit others to disconnect or remove any apparatus installed by the Telephone Company, except upon the written consent of the Company.

5. In the event of a violation or infraction of the rules and regulations, or any part thereof, of the Telephone Company and service is denied or discontinued by the Company as a disciplinary measure and the violator reapplies for service to be established in any area served by the Company, the Company reserves the right to decide whether or not the service applied for shall be provided.

UNAUTHORIZED ATTACHMENTS

1. The telephone equipment, apparatus and lines furnished shall be carefully used and no instrument, appliance or device of any kind not furnished by the Telephone Company shall be attached to or in any way connected or used in connection with such telephones, equipment, apparatus or lines. In case any instrument, apparatus or device of any kind other than that furnished by the Telephone Company is attached to or connected with any part of the Company's property, the Telephone Company reserves the right to remove such instrument, apparatus or device and to suspend service without any claim on the part of the Subscriber. The use of any cover, sticker, insert or attachment of any nature not furnished by the Telephone Company on or in its directories issued by it is prohibited.

NUMBERS MAY CHANGE

1. The Subscriber has no property right in the telephone number or any right to continuance of service through any certain switching exchange and the Telephone Company may change the telephone number or the switching exchange whenever it deems it desirable in the conduct of its business or when the exigencies of the business require.

PARTY LINE SERVICE

1. When party line service is furnished, the Telephone Company reserves the right to cancel any party line contract, upon thirty days' notice, whenever in the judgment of the Company the use of and by the Subscriber holding such contract is such, from continuous use or other causes, as to interfere with the reasonable use by other parties connected to the same line.

ACCESS TO SUBSCRIBER'S PREMISES

1. For the purpose of inspecting, repairing or removing any part of the Telephone Company's equipment, apparatus and lines on Subscriber's premises, the Company's employees shall have access thereto at any reasonable hours.

2. No liability shall attach to the Telephone Company by reason of any defacement or damage to the Subscriber's premises, resulting from the placing of the Company's instruments, apparatus and associated wiring on such premises, or by the removal thereof, when such defacement or damage is not the result of negligence on the part of the Company's employees.

TELEGRAMS BY TELEPHONE

1. Telegrams may be transmitted to or received from telegraph offices by telephone. Special arrangements between Western Union Telegraph Company and the Telephone Company provide that any telephone subscriber may have charges for messages sent or received through Western Union office charged to his telephone and collected with his telephone bill.

PUBLIC PAYSTATION TELEPHONES

1. The Telephone Company will install and properly maintain telephone instruments with associated coin boxes at locations which it considers convenient to the general public if, in the Company's judgment, there will be sufficient revenue to soundly support the investment in such public telephone. In the event the Company receives an application for the installation of a paystation telephone at a location where, in the Company's judgment, insufficient revenue would be generated to soundly support the investment in such a public paystation telephone, the service applied for will be installed only on the condition that the Subscriber guarantee revenue in such an amount as is specified in the general tariff.

CONVERSING WITH OPERATORS

1. Subscribers are prohibited from conversing with operators. Difficulties in getting the service desired should be reported to the supervisor or to the manager. Operators do not have sufficient time to discuss such matters with subscribers, and to do so impairs the service to others.

2. Telephone operators are forbidden as agents of the Telephone Company to repeat messages for subscribers. In instances where the repeating of messages seems desirable to the Subscriber, the operator may, of her own volition, assist the Subscriber solely as his agent without liability of the Telephone Company.
