BRIERLY ESTATE

Report of the Commissioner on the Division.

The commissioner's report in the division and settlement of the estate of Edward Briery was filed at the joint session today. Edward Briery, a butcher, died in December 1899, leaving an estate valued at $200,000 or $250,000. He left a very complicated will, containing four codicils, dividing the estate among testators nephews and nieces. The commissioner divides the estate into sevenths, and distributes it as follows: To Edward Briery, Jr., Josephine Sprowle, Mary P. Riggs and Alfred N. Nelson, four sevenths; to Edward Briery, Jr., Josephine Sprowle, Mary P. Riggs, Alfred N. Nelson, Lizzie Briery Stephenson, and Julia Briery and James C. Nelson, three-sevenths. Lizzie Briery Stephenson and Julia Briery are allowed $15 per month for life. James C. Nelson is given $1,000 in cash. The estate is said to have depreciated until it is now worth about $150,000. Deputy Commissioner D. T. Buckwall figured out the settlement.—Louisville Times.
Mrs. Lizzie Briery Stephenson is Mrs. L. O. Stephenson, of this city.

CLOSED DOWN TALMAGE DEAD

Police Stop Game at Fourth and Broadway.
Woman Operator Warned to Suspend Operations or be Arrested for Gambling.
Noted Divine Passes Away in Washington.
The End Comes Peaceably, After a Long Illness—Interment at Brooklyn Wednesday.

The woman who conducted a gambling game Saturday at Fourth and Broadway was stopped Saturday night by Marshal James Crow. He told her if she did not cease that he would warrant her for setting up and conducting a game of chance. The woman at once closed up the business and it is supposed she will leave the city. The manner in which she carried on the game kept the police from arresting her, because there was a question in their mind as to whether or not the law would construe it as a game of gambling. She had many patrons during the day and it is safe to say that she realized a nice profit. Seven pencils accompanied by as many cards containing twelve numbers each were sold for 10 cents each, making a total of 70 cents in each round. A canary bird then drew a number from a box and the woman called out the number, the lucky number drew a locket. The holder holding the card with purchased for 50 cents. This made her a profit of 20 cents on every round and there were many rounds played during the day. It is also said that a number of "cappers" were connected with the outfit and did the bulk of the winning.—News-Democrat.
The same people were here last week. They came here and took out license to sell notions on the street. They set up their little game, but it did not take Chief of Police McNutt but about five minutes to decide that the game should not go and so notified them to haul out. Why it should take the policemen of Paducah so long we cannot see.

The deceased leaves a wife and three children to mourn their loss.

NEW YORK'S TELEPHONES.

There are more telephones in Manhattan alone than there are in the whole of France.

There are in Greater New York and the immediate suburban region, which really forms part of the city, 120,000 telephones.

There are in Manhattan and the Bronx about 76,000 telephones. This system is bigger than any other two combined systems in the world.

About the longest telephoning distance used to any extent is practically that from Boston Memphis. People have been using telephones between New York and Chicago for ten years.

There were in the whole United States a year ago only something like 800,000 subscribers, according to the statisticians.

The telephone systems abroad are largely run as younger sisters of the telegraph systems and the men in charge of them, being largely old telegraph men, find it hard to get away from their old loves.

The main point in long distance telephoning is the line; the wire should be insensitive to other noises and to wires on which rapid currents are running.

A Noted Knight Templar Owe's His Health to Peruna.

Colonel T. P. Moody, a prominent Knight Templar, is well known in every city in the United States west of Buffalo, N. Y., as a Jeweler's Auctioneer.

Colonel T. P. Moody, of Chicago, Had Catarrh Twenty-five Years and Was Cured by Peruna.

"For over twenty-five years I suffered from catarrh, and for over ten years I suffered from catarrh of the stomach terribly.

"I have taken all kinds of medicines and have been treated by all kinds of doctors, as thousands of my acquaintances are aware in different parts of the United States, where I have traveled, but my relief was only temporary, until a little over a year ago I started to take Peruna, and at the present time I am better than I have been for twenty years.

"The soreness has left my stomach entirely and I am free from indigestion and dyspepsia and will say to all who are troubled with catarrh or stomach trouble of any kind, don't put it off and suffer, but begin to take Peruna right away, and keep it up until you are cured, as you surely will be if you persevere.

"My wife, as many in the southwest can say, was troubled with a bad cough and bronchial trouble, and doctors all over the country gave her up to die, as they could do nothing more for her. She began taking Peruna with the result that she is better now than she has been in years, and her cough has almost left her entirely. The soreness has left her lungs and she is as well as she ever was in her life, with thanks, as she says, to Peruna. Yours very truly, T. P. Moody.

Catarrh in its various forms is rapidly becoming a general curse. An undoubted remedy has been discovered by Dr. Hartman. This remedy has been thoroughly tested during the past forty years. Prominent men have come to know of its virtues, and are making public utterances on the subject. To save the country we must save the people. To save the people we must protect them from disease. The disease that is at once the most prevalent and stubborn of cure is catarrh.

If one were to make a list of the different names that have been applied to catarrh in different locations and organs, the result would be astonishing. We have often published a partial list of these names, and the surprise caused by the first publication of it to all people, both professional and non-professional, was amusing. And yet we have never enumerated all of the diseases which are classed as catarrh. It must be confessed, however, to us even this partial list drawn up in battle array is rather appalling. If the reader desires to see this list, together with a short exposition of each one, send for our free catarrh book. Address: The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

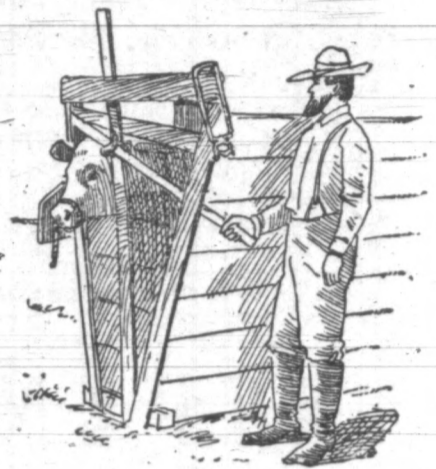

DEHORNING CATTLE.

How to Construct a Cage in Which the Operation Can Be Performed Without Trouble.

In response to inquiry the National Stockman republishes the subjoined description of a dehorning cage:

Dimensions, 6 feet long, 6 feet high, 3 1/2 feet wide at top in front and 4 1/2 feet wide at top at back end; bottom or foot board a foot wide, with seven cleats 1 1/2 inch thick, a foot long, nailed across it to keep cattle from slipping; footboard 2 inches thick and rests on three 2 by 4 cross-pieces 4 feet long. To these are bolted upright pieces 7 feet long, 2 by 4 inches, for nailers for sides of cage. Across the top cage are used two strips 1 by 4 inches for each set of uprights, bolted one on each side of upright. The inside of this frame is boarded up with inch plank of convenient widths. The lower 2 1/2 feet should close enough to prevent animals putting their feet through the cracks.

THE CAGE IN USE.

On left side, 3 1/2 feet from bottom, should be used a board a foot wide and a foot longer than the cage. In this bore two-inch holes four inches from sides of board. Through these put a piece of rope and tie on outside. This loop is put over the animal's nose and drawn tight by the use of a hand spike. An upright lever is used to catch the back of the head and draw it to the left side of the cage. This upright should be a strong 2 by 4 inch, long, bolted to bottom crosspiece that holds the tops of the two front uprights in place. This lever is thrown to the right when open for the animal to enter. As soon as the head passes it is pushed to the left side and fastened as tight as required by a small iron pin slipped through the crosspiece at top back of it.

As soon as the head is fastened a handspike is slipped through the cage back of the animal and another over the neck to hold the head down. These remain in place usually without holding, the operator standing in front while taking off the horns. The smallest animal having horns up to a bull weighing 1,300 pounds has been dehorned in this cage. Animals weighing up to 1,200 pounds pass right through the cage when the holding lever is thrown back against the right side. Cows heavy with calf and larger animals back out of the cage.

PURE MILK SUPPLY.

Upon It, Say Sanitary Authorities, Depends the Health of Entire Communities.

In nothing that is bought for human food is the necessity of cleanliness and purity more manifest than in milk. Meats and vegetables are for the most part thoroughly cooked before they are eaten, fruits are peeled and nuts are shelled; but milk is more or less injured in flavor and in nutritive properties by being, and has no protective cover to keep it clean. It is therefore essential for the consumer to know the history of the milk he gets.

In view of the importance of this question the provider for the family should if possible himself inspect the dairy his milk comes from, and should satisfy himself that perfect cleanliness is the rule in every stage. The cow barn should be well ventilated and sunny, the cows should be healthy and clean, the milker should have well-washed hands, and the udder should be washed before each milking.

In many dairies and farms all these essentials are now strictly observed, and if the milk is then bottled at once and the bottle is kept sealed until delivered, one may feel reasonably certain that the milk is fit to drink. If this certainty is denied one, especially if there are young children in the family, the only recourse is sterilization. Boiling for a few minutes will kill all germs, but at the same time it kills the milk, which becomes a different fluid and, as many physicians believe, less nutritive than raw milk. Another and less objectionable process is what is called "Pasteurization," by which is meant keeping the milk at a temperature of about 170 degrees for 20 minutes, but never letting it come to a boil.

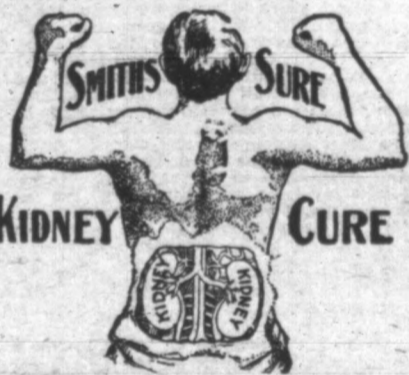

Either boiling or Pasteurization will destroy the germs which cause acid fermentation or putrefaction, as well as the germs of tuberculosis; but if these changes have occurred, boiling will not annihilate the poisonous products already formed; it will not make bad milk good.

The addition of any of the various "preservatives" to milk is only an exchange of one poison for another, and should be condemned.—Youth's Companion.

Crossland of Graves county, a candidate for Congress from the First Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. THOSE I LOVE. My friends are those who love me. Who seek to do me good. Make bright the skies above me. And claim my gratitude. But it should be my pleasure, If I such love receive, The fullest deep measure Of gratitude to give. Herein is friendship perfect - And this a truth quite plain: Two hearts work ever on the links That form the golden chain. McCracken county is getting to be very strong for Sam Crossland for congress. The congressional committee wanted to set the primary for May 1st, but it became scared and refused to do so. Why don't that great advocate of "ring rule," Carlisle County News, advocate the locking out of democrats by the congressional committee. Let it sail in and see what he can make of it. The appellate district committee meets in Paducah tomorrow for the purpose of fixing the time and manner of holding a convention to nominate a candidate for appellate judge. This committee should fix Paducah as the place of holding this convention. Wonder if this committee will hold its meeting behind closed doors? AT MURRAY TODAY. The candidates for congress spoke today at Murray. Interest in this race is increasing very much among the people of Calloway county, and more especially after today. The fight for the nomination is growing warmer each day in that county. Mr. James was very strong in that county at first, but since the people are finding out how undemocratic the committee acted, they are turning over to Crossland in great number. The people are opposed to ring rule as Mr. James will find out before he is done with this campaign. New Bank at Murray. Frankfort, Ky., April 14 - Incorporation articles were filed in the office of the Secretary of State last week by the citizens' Bank of Murray. It has $20,000 capital stock. F. P. Glenn, of Sacramento, and Martin Dale, of Murray, are the chief incorporators. One Cent a Mile. STRAY CHILD. Son of Sam Flack, Conductor on I. C. Left Here this Morning.

As the north bound passenger train due here at 12:40 a. m. arrived this morning, Billie, the little son of Conductor Sam Flack alighted upon the platform and was left here. The little fellow was a stranger in the city, being only about 3 years old and as the train sped out attempted to follow same, yelling at the top of his voice. His cries attracted the attention of Policeman Webb and the little one was captured and taken care of during the night by the policeman. It seems that the boy and mother had been on a visit to relatives in Tennessee and were returning home, and while the mother was sleeping, the little one strolled to the door and was ushered off by some passenger alighting at this place. After alighting, the child discovered his mistake and became frantic. The mother in a short while missed her boy and 'tis useless to state that passengers in both sleepers and day coaches were aroused. The mother was notified of the find upon arrival of the train at Paducah, and Officer Webb escorted the lad home this morning. The little man is a versatile lad, bright for one of his years and not at all backward. In conversation with certain parties he said "My name is James Billie Bobe Flack" and "if you are a friend to little boys, it is more than the policemen are at home. Wonder if my mama will know where I am?" "I walked off the train while asleep and am about half asleep now." Don't know my age, but think I am about 18 years old." Want my shoes blacked before I go home, dont want to go home this way." To say that the reunion at Paducah this morning, after the little man's visit of a few hours in the city, was a pleasant sight, is but tame and we hope the visit will be a pleasant reminder to him and a profitable one to Mayfield many years hence.

Neglect Means Danger. Don't neglect biliousness and constipation. Your health will suffer permanently if you do. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cure such cases. M. J. Smith, Butter-nut, Mich., says "DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the most satisfactory pills I ever took. Never gripe or cause nausea."

Baby's Coming. I advise every suffering woman to take Wine of Cardui. While I was going with my other children I was compelled to stay in bed for days at a time, but this time I have taken Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught and have been able to do all my household work without any trouble. I am expecting every day to be confined. My husband thinks Wine of Cardui is the best medicine in the world. He takes a dose of Theodor's Black-Draught every night and gives some to the children. He has not lost a day from work this year. He tells his friends about your wonderful medicines and I tell my lady friends to use your Wine of Cardui. MRS. GEORGIA LEE. WINE OF CARDUI. There are thousands of women who shrink in terror at the thought of the baby's coming, and at childbirth has usually, by some indirect means, injured the organs which make her a woman. Neglect of menstrual irregularities leads to ovarian pain, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and the period of pregnancy is necessarily distressing under those conditions. Wine of Cardui will regulate the menstrual function perfectly and eventually make the generative organs strong and healthy. Pregnancy and childbirth have no terrors for the woman who takes this pure Wine. A strong healthy womb will bring its precious burden to maturity with little or no pain. A healthy woman need not fear childbirth. Wine of Cardui completely cures all these troubles familiarly known as "female diseases" and equips the sensitive generative organs for pregnancy and childbirth. It will save any mother much pain and suffering. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles.
