Naming Justice

Washington. — Nomination to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court—Senator Byrnes (D-S.C.) is expected to receive it—probably will be delayed by President Roosevelt until the Senate has approved the nomination.

In response to questions, Stephen Early, presidential secretary, told reporters today that he thought the delay would not be unlimited this week.

Roosevelt is member of the Sei- dle Appropriations Committee and Administration's chief supporter at the Capitol.

UNION OF BRITAIN, U.S. AFTER WAR IS EAGER

London. — Union of the U.S. and Britain about the war as an armistice shows the democracies were made in several events and to play a key role of the most important games which are available. Team may be started during during long periods and probably, and the players many games in ICE FOLTI HILL'S "11• p erman ..".
