Winter Poultry Show For Fulton

By J. T. Walker

Fulton, Ky., Dec. 13—Pat Smith, the poultry showman of this part of the state, has announced that the show will be held at the Fulton High School, December 20th. Pat Smith, who has been the showman of the poultry show for the last five years, has always endeavored to make the show a success, and this year he is determined to make it a better show than ever before.

The show will consist of a large number of birds, and many of them will be of the finest quality. The birds will be judged by a panel of judges, who will be selected from the best poultry breeders in the state. The prize list will be large, and many valuable prizes will be awarded to the birds that are entered.

The show will be open to the public, and all poultry breeders are invited to enter their birds. The entry fees will be small, and the prizes will be worth the entry fees.

High School Notes

R. C. H. Warren, master of the Fulton High School, gave an interview with the press today. He said that the high school is making good progress, and that the students are doing well.

The high school is now in its fourth year, and has a large number of students. The school is well equipped, and has a fine faculty. The high school is one of the finest in the state, and is doing a great work.

Why Did Pugh Shoot Parks?

The recent murder of Mr. Parks by Mr. Pugh has caused great excitement in the city. The murder occurred in the early hours of the morning, and was witnessed by several people.

Mr. Parks, who was a well-known banker, had just left his home when he was shot. Mr. Pugh, who has a bad reputation, was seen in the company of Mr. Parks shortly before the murder.

The police have made several arrests in connection with the case, but it is not yet known whether Mr. Pugh is the guilty person.

Happiness

Does each year find you wishing and hoping for better things in the future—and suffering lack of accomplishment in the past?

There is one sure way to fill your hope of plenty to the brim with all the good things of life. It entails no sacrifice now. It merely means the forming of a good habit.

Sure! That good old formula for success is an ageless one as when it helped build the fortunes

HITS SCHOOL BOY

Student son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Johnson, 200 South Street street, was painfully injured Monday morning about noon, when he was struck by a passing truck while crossing South Street.

The accident occurred near the school grounds, where the boy was always found when crossing the street. Mr. Johnson states that the truck ran out from behind the bus and hit the boy.
What Shall I Give For Christmas?

This very pertinent question is answered—exhaustively, thoroughly, comprehensively, suggestively. We mention gifts appropriate for every member of the family—father, mother, brother, sister, relatives, friends or sweethearts. And with the selection as varied and attractive as it is this year at this store, Christmas shopping and gift selecting is more of a pleasure than a drudgery.

You come into this store and see so many beautiful things that are suitable gifts for the loved ones in mind that you are happily perplexed in not knowing which one of the hundreds to buy. We offer you the result of months of buying and looking around for Christmas goods. While we are always desirous of selling just as low as we possibly can, yet quality is our foundation, and you can rest assured that any article bought for a present will give satisfaction and pleasure to the recipient every time he or she has occasion to use it.

We are mentioning a few of the appropriate articles suitable for Christmas and purposely omitting prices in order that you may forget all about the cost in anticipation of the pleasure of giving.

THE STORY OF GIFTS

The three Must have gifts for any number of the believers in the Messiah have been likened to the three Wise Men of old. The first one was a golden ring. The second, a golden ring which he was to sell for thirty pieces of silver. The third, a golden ring which he was to wear as a sign of repentance. The first lay down his own life here today by drinking carbolic acid after a Christmas day and to have it reviewed with his parents over breakfast. The second, perhaps not more than a day ahead of Christmas but usually TO TAKE OWN LIFE Christmas morning. The third, exchange of these cards has become mechanical, a quid quo ell the people of the city, and sort these messages of good will to his widowed mother, quite a contrast to the fashion there and fatherless brothers. These are those who think Hickman. Ky., Dec. 1st.
