SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1887.

Col. Cardin, the Labor candidate for Governor, was formerly an overseer in this county and is well known to many of our people.

The lightning killed nine negroes under one tree over in Tennessee the other day. Tennessee lightning is the new and improved order.

There are four thousand women at the Teachers Association in Chicago. The taffy men have called for a fresh supply of chewing gum.

The Tennessee Press Association met on Roan Mountain, the highest point east of the Rocky Mountains. As prohibition is soon to obtain in Tenn. the scribbles took an early chance to get on a high.

The rapid increase of weird and phenomenal appearances and visitations in this state is a hint from the other world to the prohibitionists that there is little laid up for them on the first Monday in August.

Six thousand teachers are attending the National Teachers' Association now in session at Chicago. They say the women outnumber the men three to one. Great Scotts, what a volume it will take to record the talk of that meeting!

The Treasurer of Perry county, Ind., who is now in Canada on an indefinite vacation, sent back the keys to his safe which was found to contain a pair of suspenders and three postage stamps. He probably left the stamps that the suspenders might be forwarded to him without public expense.

The Toledo Blade sent inquiries to its subscribers all over the country as to their choice for a Republican candidate for President with the following results:

First choice: Blaine, 11,010; Sherman, 6,084; Lincoln, 2,237; Allison, 384; Edmunds, 117; Ingersoll, 113; Harrison, 101; Ingalls, 95; Gen. Sherman, 94; Knott, 18; Hawley, 97; Dewey, 43; Foraker and other votes, 341. Total, 21,390.

It is the duty of every man to vote at every election. No citizen has the right to withdraw his influence from shaping and controlling our government. It is no use for a man to say "I am disgusted with politics" and quit voting.

It is his duty if politics is wrong and corrupt to right and purify it. More especially is it the duty of Democrats to vote. They believe that this is a government "of the people, by the people, and for the people," and holding such a doctrine they cannot afford to stay at home and leave public affairs to the exclusive control of rings, demagogues and money sharks.

At the approaching August election every Democratic voter in this county should be cast. We need every one of them to assist in calling a constitutional convention. Besides, we have a worthy candidate for the Senate in the person of Zeno Young, of Madisonville. He is the representative of the party and should be solidly supported. If he receives the party vote in this county he will be elected. No Democrat should stay at home, for a vote not cast is just one vote against the success of the party. Mr. Young is doing his best to serve his convictions and his party, and his brethren of like faith, must stand close up to him and work enthusiastically for him.

LUNSFORD AND LABOR.

It is known of all men that the Republican party is the friend and ally of corporations and the rich few. It always sides with capitalists and corporations. This is borne out in the following spicy paragraph from the Madisonville Times:

"The convic labor bill was a Republican measure. It was introduced in the House by Hon. John Feland, sustained in the Senate by Hon. C. J. Pratt, and voted for by 11 out of 15 Republican Members of the Legislature. In the last Legislature Hon. J. H. Lunsford voted for the ten-year convict labor bill. Laboring men of Hopkins county, how do you like the record? Are you going to vote for a man who wants to put convict labor in competition with you, reducing your wages and bringing starvation to you and yours?"

This is a pretty howdy-do. Candidate Lunsford is in favor of pitting convicted felons against the free, honest laborer. Can the fair honest working men of this county vote for a man with such a record? We call the attention of our colored friends to this matter. Convict labor will drive you out of employment in all matters of public improvement where contracts are let, and, it might drive you off of our farms. Think of this. Can you now vote for Lunsford?

JIM JONES.

He will lie, sir, with such volubility, that you would think truth were a fool—Shakespeare.

"Jim Jones," of London, told Col. Bradley that "the recognized Proctor Knott's 'ear-marks' in Gen. Buckner's Lexington speech," and Bradley having unlimited confidence in Jones' unparalleled hypothesis proceeded to tell the people at London and Jackson and throughout the mountains that Governor Knott did write Gen. Buckner's speech.

We do not know "Jim Jones." We never saw any body that knows him. He is a very convenient fellow, however, for he is so given to "ear-marks" that he can penetrate one's consciousness and detect plagiarism without going through the ordinary Socratic method of investigation. "Jim" seems to divine the frauds of this world with a kind of prophetic inspiration, and among the monuments that shall deck the earth in ages to come "Jim's" will rise as a mountain of light. Kentucky is full of Republican "Jim Joneses." Why it is that the Ruler of the universe should have commissioned this brigade of back-washed, "one-galtered" Republicans with a super-sensuous insight into the mysteries of men and creation generally is a problem that will enter the class as the questions of original sin and man's free agency. Why, these fellows, even those who have the least of the divine afflatus, claim to have a peculiar instinctive knowledge of Gov. Knott's literary courtesy to Gen. Buckner. They rehearse the fact which "Jim Jones" rose to glory on with a measure of assurance that admits of no qualification, and their votaries bow assent with as much complacency as the old Israelites followed the directions of Moses.

The pathetic part of this incident is that Col. Bradley has left "Jim" with the bag to hold. We could hardly have imagined that the chivalric chief would have deserted his own in this manner. But he did it, and the whole family of "Jim Jones" will now have to go off and soak their heads in another bucket of inspiration while the modern "Daniel" is working on "the hand-writing on the wall."

This much to introduce the dramatic personae. Now for the facts. It was at Grayson last Tuesday that the gubernatorial candidates met. Bradley led off and Buckner followed. Bradley said his old piece. Then the Democrats in session at Chicago, they say the women outnumber the men three to one. Great Scotts, what a volume it will take to record the talk of that meeting!

THE KENTUCKY PRESS.

THE HON. CASTLE M. CLAY HAS MADE AN ADDRESS before the students of Yale College, in which, among other wise things, he further "fired" his own gun with his husband, her suffrage is fatal to the family. Here is the whole philosophy of the subject heard in suffrage in one sentence. The question is, which is the more important to society, happy homes or women in breeches stirring up things generally?

It is a common thing to hear Republicans in Congress declare that the negro is a failure as a voter, and is unfit to exercise the privilege of the ballot.

What is the logical result of such reasoning? If the negro is a failure as a voter, and is unfit to exercise the privilege of the ballot, then the negro is a failure as a voter, and is unfit to exercise the privilege of the ballot.

DOWN ON THE NEGRO.

Why the Republican Party is Unanimous in Denouncing the Color-Race.

In a recent speech on woman's suffrage Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, said: "I have no hesitancy in saying that the colored race is a failure as a voter, and is unfit to exercise the privilege of the ballot."

Rail Road Meeting.

A citizens meeting to discuss and consider the Ohio Valley proposition will be held at the Court-house to-night. Hon. Jas. F. Clay will address the meeting. Let everybody come out.

Death of Mrs. Abby Brown Perry.

Thursday morning at 4 o'clock Mrs. Abby Brown Perry, relict of the Rev. Gideon Babcock Perry D. D., L. L. D., closed a beautiful life of 82 years, lacking five days, and a residence of 20 years in this city, after an illness of two weeks.

The deceased was born in Brookfield, N. Y., and was married to Rev. Dr. G. B. Perry in 1823. For 57 years she served faithfully with her consecrated husband in the "vineyard of the Lord," doing memorable service at important churches throughout the country, as at New York, New Bedford, N. Y., Philadelphia, Alton, Cleveland, St. Louis, Natchez and other large cities. Since the death of her husband, which occurred in this city in 1879, she has lived the same devoted, consecrated life. She was the mother of four children three of whom are left behind, Miss Emily B. Perry, Rev. Henry G. Perry, of Chicago, Ill., Mr. Willis G. Perry, and an adopted daughter, Miss Maria Elnor. The devotion of these children to the aged mother was beautiful and exemplary and their grief is deep and profound. Mrs. Perry was a lovable character. She was tender, gentle, kind, loving, sympathetic, quiet in her charities and constant in duty serving the Lord. When the news of her illness was reported her home was a scene of grief enacted by a large number of devoted friends who had learned to love her. She was a friend to the young, and the little children swarmed about her bedside to cheer her in her fatal illness. Such indeed is the record of a noble life which is not all gone out and the silent influence of which will be manifest in the gentleness and uprightness of the coming generation.
At 4 o'clock Thursday morning the summons came. Quietly the soul took its flight and the gloom of grief settled thick upon the afflicted family. May Providence as gentle as the mother's love visit and sustain the grief-stricken ones, and may the glories she is now enjoying in the other land be reflected into the saddened hearts of those left behind to comfort and console them.

The funeral services will be held at Grace Episcopal church this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, the interment taking place at the city cemetery. As she is placed in the grave may the angels that do sentinel duty over her tomb lighten the burden of grief of those who had her away to her eternal rest.

While the Ohio Valley proposition is pending and before the court orders the election, we suggest that Col. Clay give us some material guarantee that his company will build the road. You see if the company fails to construct the road we have no recourse and will have been out out of 18 months valuable time. Of course the O. V. would not get our money but our time would be gobbed up.

The Blumenstiel Carriage Co. have purchased from Mr. Andrew Hall his marble works building and are preparing to open up on a big scale. Mr. Hall will occupy an adjacent room temporarily and as soon as possible buy or build another house for his marble works, and also extend his business.

In selecting our State Senator some caution should be exercised as to the qualifications of candidates. We have never yet heard any man accusing Mr. Lunsford of having a corner lot on Parnassus. Zeno Young is well versed in public affairs. He is self-made and has come into his culture by his own exertions. He is in every respect competent to serve the people of this district, and he is in favor of giving the laboring man a chance.

In another column will be found the announcement of Mr. E. G. Sebree, Jr., as the Republican candidate for the Legislature. Mr. Sebree is the nominee of his party and is a gentleman of high talent and social culture. As yet he has but one opponent, who is a Republican running on the Independent Prohibition ticket. Both candidates are Republicans and Democrats are left to choose between the two. Both in the qualifications and in his claims upon the consideration of our people Mr. Sebree is decidedly preferable. While it is to be deplored that a Democrat is not in the field, as the matter now stands it is the duty of Democrats to support the best man.

It is rumored that Esq. Geo. H. Myers, of Stewart's precinct, North Christian, will become a Democratic candidate for the Legislature.

Cowan & Co. are buying, receiving and storing wheat at the Peoples' Warehouse, corner of Railroad and 10th streets. They will be glad to have farmers call and see them before selling.
