Friday, January 2, 1891.

Senator Stanford says he doesn't want to be President.

The engagement with Big Foot's band was not a battle; it was simply a cold-blooded slaughter.

Senator Hoar should go to some dark and lonely spot and have a ghost-dance all by himself.

The censorship of the press by Federal officials is far more dangerous to the welfare of the country than a lottery.

"Remember Custer" was the war-cry of the troops while they were slaughtering the Indians at Wounded Knee last Monday.

The speech which Mr. Wolcott, of Colorado, delivered in the Senate Tuesday is one of the best that has been made against the Force bill.

The break in the Republican ranks over the Force bill is a serious one and leads to the belief that the iniquitous measure will fail to pass.

Some of the best informed soldiers think that the election bills being made use of to delay, and if possible, to defeat silver legislation.

The nomination of Henry B. Brown to the Supreme Bench shatters "Partner" Mills' case and nothing remains to him but the scent of the roses and the thorns.

Now that Big Foot's band has been massacred by Uncle Sam's troops, it is in order for Congress to adopt resolutions censuring the czar for his treatment of the Jews.

Henry Watterson has been chosen to succeed the late Col. Henry D. McKenry as the member of the National Democratic Convention from Kentucky. This is a good selection.

There is a rapidly growing opinion in this country that unnecessary taxation is far from being a blessing which the advocates of the "protective" tariff would have us believe.

The plan of disposing of the Indians by exiling them in the army has been suggested. But if this plan should be adopted what use would "Uncle Sam" have for an army?

There is something in the name of the "Knights of Reciprocity," the new secret political club of Kansas, which suggests the active presence of a candidate of the Plumed Knight of Reciprocity.

It is a singular fact that the women of Ireland are generally very patriotic. It is not to be wondered at, for it can be safely said that they have not a single good word for Mrs. O'Shea. Such is feminine logic for the world.

The Senate continues to waste time. It is clear that nothing can be done until next week. If there are enough Senators present on Tuesday it is thought that Mr. Hoar will attempt to get a vote on the gag rule.

It is a slight for gods and men, this Republican contest of Democratic seats in the Illinois State House of Representatives. It is a notorious fact that the five districts named were dumping grounds for a large part of the Farwell boodle.

Mr. Cummings, of New York, has introduced a resolution in the House of Representatives denouncing Russia's treatment of the Jews. This won't do. Uncle Sam has a skeleton in his own closet. The Red Man is crying for bread and he is getting bullets. We had better get the mote out of our own eye.

From Austria comes diplomatically to Secretary Blaine a request to instruct the merchant marine of the United States to be on the watch for one John Orth, who, two years ago, was an Archduke of Austria, and in direct succession to the throne of Emperor Francis Joseph. He laid aside his title to wed a common girl, and went off with her in a ship of his own, nobody seems to know where.

That is a great trick the Republican papers have played on the public. They have been clipping from foreign papers. They are aware of the fact that their readers never see these foreign papers and therefore can not know that such articles never appear in them. Fully three-fourths of these alleged clippings are written in the editorial rooms of these Republican journals.

The people of Pennsylvania downed two of their political bosses in the November election by defeating Quay's candidate for Governor, but they spared Cameron by electing a Republican Legislature. And now the Administration calls on the Republicans to turn down Senator Cameron in return for his opposition to the infamous Force bill. If Cameron is downed to avenge Delamater's defeat, some other Republican leader will be downed to avenge Cameron's defeat. It is to be hoped that this war will go on until 1892.

Ben Harrison has appointed Judge Henry B. Brown, of Detroit, Michigan, to the vacancy on the Supreme Bench, caused by the death of Justice Miller. About the best thing that can be said about this appointment is that Harrison might have done worse. In the appointment he maintains the promotion idea and gains the privilege of making another appointment. This sound policy and good politics are combined. If Judge Walter G. Gresham had not been such an honest and upright man he might have been a good showing for this appointment, but Ben Harrison wants no man around him whom he knows to be a connoisseur.

Treasurer Hudson had a string tied to his nose.

Senator Lull will have to pull off his socks if he is to have an equal footing with Jerry Simpson.

Senator Plumb says the Republican House "burst" up the Republican party in much legislation in the last session.

John J. McHenry, of Ohio county, will succeed his father, the late Henry D. McKenry, in the Constitution at a Convention. He is a lawyer and is said to be a young man of considerable ability.

We wonder if the pious Wamamaker will permit newspapers to contain notices of the death of the late Dr. M. A. Dauphin, President of the Louisiana Lottery, to pass unheeded through the postoffice?

Senator Edmunds attempts to justify his disregard of public opinion on the ground that the people's ignorance. The Senator may find out some day that the people know more than he has given them credit for.

Mr. Parnell is disposed to lay the cause of the defeat of his candidacy for the Presidency on the inaction of the press, and claims that they not only coerced voters into voting against him, but actually prohibited many from going to the polls.

The Farmers' Alliance and the Democratic party do not agree at all, and the most important points—tariff reform and election reform, the accomplishment of these objects is worth a great deal of sacrifice in other respects.

Nashville American: "Ben Butler says he will never take part in another criminal suit unless he is made a party to it. If the laws of the land had been properly observed Ben would have long ago been practicing in a criminal suit of the black and white variety."

Two boys in Atlanta played Wednesday evening with a pistol which they did not know was loaded. Two families are now in the city, one of the dead boys who can never return, the other for the living boy, who, in the wreckage of grief, cries out: "Go, forgive me! I wish I were dead."

The doctors of Orange, New Jersey, are astounded over a singular birth in that city. On November 15, Mrs. John Sullivan was delivered of a healthy infant which will live and flourish. Last Tuesday this fruitful woman gave birth to a second child, equally healthy and strong as the first.

A new law against the Jews will be promulgated in Russia in a few days. It forbids selling, leasing or mortgaging to a Jew estate within the empire, all privileges which will result in the ownership of real estate are to be canceled; Jewish artists who have been permitted to receive outside the Empire will be obliged to return. The misery consequent upon this new decree can hardly be estimated. Christians siding the Jews to evade the regulations are to be punished.

The Republican scheme to steal the Illinois Senatorship is a gradually being revealed. The seats of six Democrats elected in 1888 are to be contested, the idea being that as the Republicans control the House of Representatives, they can play and as the Democrats control the House of Representatives, they can play and as the Democrats control the House of Representatives, they can play.

It is a singular fact that the women of Ireland are generally very patriotic. It is not to be wondered at, for it can be safely said that they have not a single good word for Mrs. O'Shea. Such is feminine logic for the world.

It is thought that Suckless Simpson stands a good chance of beating Lull out of his boots.

The game of playing the negro against the White Man will engage the attention of the United States Senate next week.

If the planters of the South are to be paid a bounty on the negroes, the next step will be to give the farmers of the West a bounty on their corn.

The Courier-Journal thinks that as high prices for negroes will be paid, the next step will be to give the farmers of the West a bounty on their corn.

The "American Window Glass Company," alias the window glass trust for the territory from Pittsburgh west, had a meeting in Chicago Monday to effect the double purpose of putting up prices and putting down wages in other words, McKinley the business completely.

If the people had a voice in the election of United States Senators, as they should have, we would not hear Senator Edmunds say that the people are ignorant.

The Republicans fear that Associate Justice Bradley and Chief Justice Waite, both of whom are old, might die during the next Democratic administration, thus leaving two vacancies on the Supreme Bench to be filled with Democrats. In order to avoid this, the Republicans are endeavoring to get Harrison to appoint his successors. It is said that "My Partner" Miller hopes to secure one of these places.

Whereas, satisfactory proof has been presented to the effect that provision has been made for adequate grounds and buildings for the use of the World's Columbian Exposition, and that a sum not less
