A war story is revived by Don Ameche of the Jimmy Durante programs on NBC. The Sergeant cried: "Halt!"—and every member of the squad stopped short except Jones, who marched a few steps further before coming to a stop. Snorting slightly, the sergeant cried: "Forward march!" and the squad marched. Then the sergeant again halted the squad and again Jones failed to stop with it.

"Jones," the sergeant yelled, "what were you in civilian life?" "A milkman," said Jones unapologetically. "I drove a horse and wagon."

The sergeant bit off a large, coarse word and resumed drill. Suddenly he bawled: "Squad halt! Jones, whoa!"

A laboratory for testing and analyzing the soil on Fulton County farms is soon to be established in Fulton County, according to County Agent John Watts. This forward-looking step will greatly aid farmers in knowing deficiencies in their soil, and just what needs be added for greater production.

Ed Gardner of "Duffy's Tavern" tells about the humane society that has secured a downtown show window and filled it with attractive pictures of wild animals in their native haunts. A placard in the middle of the exhibit read: "We were skinned to provide women with fashionable furs."

A man paused before the window and his harassed expression for moment gave place to one of sympathy. "I know just how you feel, old tops," he muttered. "So was I."

He insisted that each eligible voter study this carefully so that he might cast his vote more intelligently.

A vote of "yes" is asking for a support price of 90% of parity; a vote of "no" is voting for only 50% of parity.

Local Druggists Face Problem; Government Agents Investigate

Bulldogs Make Basket Goals, But Fail On Fund Goal

Still far short of their goal of $750 and below last year's total receipts of $450, members of the Fulton High School basketball are urging their loyal friends to buy season tickets to this season's basketball games. Tickets are for ten home games.

With a more seasoned squad returning for this year's schedule, Coach Hogg's Bulldogs have won two practice games with Martin, Tenn., this season. The season opener was scheduled for Tuesday night, when the Bulldogs oppose a squad of former outstanding players, who are now living in Fulton.

The Bulldogs won the game over the Alumni, but the Faculty won the fray from the Pups.

Re-Fill of Barbiturates (Sleeping Pills, etc) Need To Be Referred to Physician; Several Are Apprehended by U. S. Investigators

Fulton druggists, in an attempt to be accommodating, find themselves in a harassing predicament this holiday season on two scores.

1. Many customers, users of barbiturates (sleeping and nerve pills, etc.) are finding it imperative to get a new prescription from their physician when purchasing a new supply of barbiturates from their druggist, since it is a violation of the Federal Pure Food and Drug Act to re-fill such prescriptions without the written permission of a medical doctor.

2. In an under cover investigation of local druggists by Federal agents seeking violations of the law, several local druggists were found guilty of violations of the Federal Act and must appear at an early date in St. Louis for a hearing of the violation.

HOLLAND ELECTED FDEA PRESIDENT

An invitation was recently extended by Supt. W. L. Holland, newly elected president of the First District Education Association to all State Senators, representatives, school administrators and interested citizens to attend a meeting at Murray State College on Thursday night. Purpose of the meeting is to present plans to the West Kentucky Conference of the KEA to influence Governor Clements and members of the General Assembly to increase the State school appropriation to $34,500,000.

At a meeting held at Mayfield Monday night members of a First District KEA group formulated plans for concerted action the State in their attempt to increase school funds nearly $13,000,000. Present appropriation for school funds on a State basis is $21,500,000. Monday's plan of action was presented to the largest group meeting on Thursday night, at Wells Cafeteria on the Murray State College campus.

Mr. Holland was re-elected president of the First District KEA group at a meeting held at Princeton, Ky. Other officers elected are: W. B. Gray, Bowling Green, vice-president; J. O. Lewis Mayfield, who has been secretary of the conference since its organization was re-elected to that office.

FULTON FARMERS NAMED TO P. M. A.

The delegates are: Charles E. Wright, chairman; W. H. Harrison, vice-chairman; O. L. Sutton, regular member; E. Y. Yates, first alternate and C. A. Binford, second alternate.

Immediately following this convention the county committee assembled and hired the following employees: Samuel E. Holly, chief clerk and Treasurer, Kathryn Adams, Secretary; Louise Maddox and Mrs. John Wilson, Clerk.

HOMEMAKERS MEET IN HICKMAN FOR ALL DAY MEETING

The food leaders of the Fulton County Homemakers Club met in Hickman Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock for an all day meeting. There were twenty four present.

The theme of the month is Holiday Hospitality and Mrs. Bertha McLeod, Home Agent, made a most interesting and instructive talk on table setting, decoration and meal planning.

She suggested buffet lunches, suppers and dinners as the easiest way of Christmas serving as there are so many different kinds of food that can be prepared in advance. She also illustrated attractive ways of serving and attractive Christmas center arrangements for the table.

Those attending from the Fulton Homemakers were: Mrs. Wallace Shankle and Miss Elizabeth Witty. Mrs. Smith Brown and Mrs. Bill Holland from the Bennett Homemakers.

The druggist finds himself penalized on both issues. Irate customers are failing to see the importance and necessity for the refusal by their druggist to re-fill prescriptions for barbiturates, and are taking their drug business to other druggists, either in town or out, all of whom are under the jurisdiction of the Federal Pure Food and Drug Act. The druggist probably will be further penalized by the Government for the "indiscriminate" dispensing of drugs that have a tendency to develop addicts.

According to Dr. Peter J. Trinca, president of the Fulton-Hickman Counties Medical Association, the strict adherence to the law by the druggists is heartily endorsed by the medical group. He told the News: "The necessity of having a prescription for a barbiturate rewritten each time a new supply is needed is a move in the interest of the welfare of the patient and the druggist. To have a new prescription written makes it necessary for the patient to see the doctor again, who must determine the necessity for further use of barbiturates. This action is a barrier toward the sale of drugs by unscrupulous persons and is a preventative toward developing 'drug addicts,' he said.

Meanwhile Dr. Bruce Underwood, State Health Commissioner said today that the State Department of Health plans to introduce a bill at the next session of the State Legislature to control the sale of barbiturates.

Dr. Underwood said that the bill for control of the sale of barbiturates is a very important one. According to one recent newspaper report, 1,000 people a year die in the United States from sleeping pills taken without the advice of a physician. If this bill is passed, it will make such control possible without the keeping of elaborate records by physicians and pharmacists.

K. M., what was it that you, R. W. and P. G. got so tickled about Monday night?

Is C. P. going to the football banquet? Come on C. tell us who it is that is just dying to ask you. B. P. I hear you didn't go to the show Sunday night. Have you decided you don't like one of the employees or something? She certainly hopes not.

What is it we hear? B. S. C. and B. S. J. are back together again. We hope it is here to stay for awhile.

We hope we will be seeing T. and B. S. J. are back together ten after Friday night.

Which one is going to be the lucky guy to get N. B.

What was it at B. W.'s house that everyone was looking at Saturday night. Can you explain that one B?

P. M. says she strictly had fun Saturday night at the Strata Club. Let me see, I believe it was that cute R. H. she was with.

Speaking of the Strata Club, I believe B. L. B. went too and you couldn't guess who she went with. Yes, that is right, T. W. from Lexington.

Boy, the sale of papers were big last week. Reckon it is because T. G. bought them, all. Couldn't be because R. F. H.'s picture was in there.

G. Mc. seems like you like the way B. S. W. skates or could it be that you just like her, period.

Ask B. M. who is the most beautiful girl in F. H. S. and he automatically says B. G. B. We think she has him trained. I'd hate to see him if he ever said anybody else. Poor boy!

Hey, P. McK. did you say B. J. G. was going to eat with you one night this week. Oh, well, that is cousin love for you.

H. S. we hope you and P. C. will have a good time Friday night but if I know you, you will. Why is it B. P. and D. G. have to stay in for Mrs. Hill every afternoon?

What is the matter with E. M? She seems to have had a little trouble with B. W. the other night, but as usual they have made up.

S. E. that sure is a pretty blue sweater you wore Tuesday. Say how do you write words with the o and oo sound in short-hand?

Excuse me, but we think M. Y. better watch what she tells people. J. H. asked her for a date before he did a certain other girl.

B. R. how come you didn't tell Coach H. all you knew about D. R. when he was talking about South Fulton ballgame. Speak up!

A certain Junior girl has her eye on T. S. but can't get up the nerve to speak to him. That won't ever work.

Who was that cute boy from South Fulton that C. P. had a date with Wednesday night? Couldn't be B. V. could it?

I thought it said in the paper last week that D. L. P. had settled down to one girl. That is not how I hear it.

Guess who we saw R. A. with over at Ray's Wednesday night. I think his name is M. B.

Who was that prominent lawyer J. W. went to the dance with? Could it be J. K.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Davis have returned from a visit with their son, Joe, in St. Louis.

DAILY PRAYER FOR WORLD PEACE ASKED BY LEGION

At its meeting at Indianapolis, on November 6th, the National Executive Committee adopted a resolution calling for a noon-time daily moment of prayer for world peace, and asked that all officers of the Legion "seek to have this Moment of Prayer observed by Legionnaires as an example and an encouragement to all citizens in furtherance of a common aspiration."

"Having complete confidence in the ability of our fellow men, with the aid of Almighty God, to establish a just and enduring peace in the world," the resolution recites in calling for the Daily Prayer. "It is recommended that all Legionnaires everywhere pause for one minute in each day at noontime in their employments of whatever kind to raise their hearts and minds to God asking that He help us to so adjust our differences among men as to enable the nations of this world to secure an equitable and abiding peace."

Originating in Henry J. Sweeney Post, Manchester, New Hampshire, the resolution was presented by Reverend Father Edward J. Carney, O. S. A., National Chaplain.

Mississippi Plantation Life: The Writings Of Mattie Dear

I thank the Lord Jesus I am yet alive. My health is fine only I have no appetite at all, but I went to the Haggard Drug Store I think I found something to give me an appetite. Other wise I am alright.

I made my way over to the Travels Rest M. B. C. pastored by the Rev. W. B. Barnes. Good service was rendered and Sister Missouri Taylor sang a solo title "Mother Loves Her Children all the Time." I think that is a wonderful song because mothers sure loves their children. Rev. Barnes subject was "A Fixed Mind."

I guess my husband mind was fixed when he quit me. He move from me that Thursday and married that in coming Saturday night, so I was told. So now I am a widow again. Some of the men don't mean you no good no how. But nothing don't surprise me of a man only when he does something good.

My name is Perry Wade and I will ware that name until he die if he should die first.

Glad that Mrs. Johanna is raising a family. We are yet having some good weather here, dry and cold. But Lord knows best, praise his Holy name. I desire prayer from Sister Mattie Bernhard, I believe she is a Christian woman. I want her to pray that the Lord will send my husband back to me. It is a find thing to be raised up in Christ. So be of good cheer, God is in the plan.

2 NEGROES KILLED ON U. C. HIGHWAY

Robinson said that the accident occurred when he was blinded by the lights of an approaching transport truck and lost control of the vehicle. The group was enroute home from Fulton when the accident occurred.

SENIOR NEWS

Don't anyone mention a certain Hickman redhead to A. P. any time soon because you'll be standing on dangerous grounds if you do.

G. R. P. and A. P. had big troubles concerning Hickman last week but they got things patched up alright.

J. N.'s heart throb these days is D. W. from Martin. Good luck, Joan.

The newest dating couple around F. H. S. is C. M. and J. F. Keep it up, you all, we are all for you.

B. C. still has his eyes on N. B. You had better watch out B. C. because I hear D. M. is in the picture, too.

J. A. E. has recently added her name to the "steady" list. Good luck, J. A.

M. A. B. has been getting letters from a sailor in California. I believe somebody told me this sailor was B. J. S.

A. M. and D. C. has been on and off lately. We never can tell which it is going to be next.

B. H. isn't wearing his class ring any more. At first I thought maybe he lost it, but later I saw that B. J. G. was wearing it.

FRESHMAN NEWS

Looks like B. P. is keeping his lover a secret. Billy, tell us who the luck one is.

Miss Martha Sue Holland, who is a member of the Freshman class, had an operation. We are very glad to have her back with us.

Well, M. Y. has made up her mind about T. R. and B. H. It is B. H. isn't it, Martha?

Flash! D. H. has finally got another interest besides football. Could it be V. F. Dawson?

M. D. W. has her eyes on a certain Junior boy. What about that W. N. we saw you Mary?

Is the love light still burning between J. P. and B. S.? Come on, kids, give us a hint.

R. C. has some other interest besides fun. F. G. has become a heart throb to him.

We sure wish E. L. S. would make up her mind. First it was B. P., then D. G., then J. P. and now it is M. W. of South Fulton. Good luck, Emma.

If V. A. M. wants to keep C. S. she had better get busy for C. S. sure is looking toward the William Holland residence on Thedford street.

Wonder who V. M. was out with Saturday night? Couldn't possibly be C. K. from Cayce.

Well, well D. J. P. is still our man. Seems he and P. H. of Carr Institute has started up a little affair.

Has F. G. really got her eyes on D. J. P. or is that just a cover up.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

Who was that cute boy P. M. was with at the ball game Tuesday night?

Don't tell us L. E. that you let L. H. go with your man the other night.

We all hear that J. W. is going to California over the Christmas holidays. We will miss her here.

What has happened to D. L. P. and all his girl friends. We don't see him with anyone but P. G. Is that serious D. L? We hope not.

Did M. D. really go to Memphis to get her hair cut?

A. P. had a date with her old flame Tuesday night. Big time, Alma? By Merryman.

It seems that all the boys in the Sophomore class are saying what has D. M. got that we haven't or where can we get it?

We sure would like to know where S. M. is keeping her man. Everyone knows she has one so won't you tell us, S?

It seems that H. W. had fun about a week ago because his girl friend from way back was home. Isn't that true H?

P. C. is getting to be very popular with a certain Senior boy. Good luck you two.

Is it true that J. A. L. stood up a cute little South Fulton boy Sunday night or was it really what she said. You had better talk quick, A.

We wonder if M. S. S. is getting those letters saying, "I'll be Home for Christmas."

D. P. B. really goes in for those boys from Union City and we think she has got M. Y. interested in them too.

DEAR JANE:

Did you say you needed a few things to go on your Christmas tree? Or was it paper, tags or ribbon? I can't recall just what you did say, but Mary said you wanted a gift for John but that you didn't have much money and couldn't find him a gift for the amount of money you had.

I want to tell you something. The other day while out driving I ran across a little place on the corner of East State Line and Jackson Street and gosh! I wish you had been along. They had everything for a Christmas tree and all kinds of paper, tags, ribbon, gifts for young and old, girls or boys, and they were inexpensive, too.

I just thought I'd tell you so you could go by and see for yourself. It's the place where Alice's snowball stand was, at the Coleman Service Station.

Love,

FLAME.

G. Y. why is it that you keep writing that certain boy's name on your books?

Why is it that Mr. Jacob is always on to J. B. and G. B. in fourth hour study hall.

What has happened to R. B. this week? Is it that she is sick or just love sick?

J. H. tell us why you wouldn't hand that paper in the other day in health?

M. R. please tell us who your boy friend is. We know you have one because a cute girl like you should be able to get them all.

U. F. where have you been keeping yourself? We don't even see you out anyplace.

No gift is finer, more enduring, or will be more greatly appreciated throughout the years ahead by husband, brother, son and the entire family than a Woodmen membership certificate.

Nothing better expresses a man's love for his family than the security it provides while he also enjoys the many "plus" benefits derived from Woodcraft's fraternal and social activities.

In your plans for the New Year ask the local Woodmen representative to help you select the type of Woodmen life insurance certificate that will give you and your family enduring protection against want in event of your disability, old age or earlier death.

NEW YORK, N.Y.—Fall and Winter fashions for 1950 are increasingly feminine, following natural and unbroken body lines. The absence of shoulder padding calls for a new natural silhouette, and foundations that mould soft curves and permit graceful movement are enjoying wide popularity.
Pictured with the ever-popular wool jersey blouse is Peter Pan's newest circular stitched Merry-Go-Round bra, designed to meet current figure requirements. An elastic panel band adds extra comfort to these fashion-right naturally rounded lines.

Recently I heard a director of a state department of conservation remark that all of us are partly to blame for the deplorable situation existing in most states regarding violations of the codes established to guard our wildlife resources.

He pointed out that too many sportsmen refuse to notify proper authorities about known violators. Sportsmen don't like being stool pigeons. Then, too, it was stressed that our game wardens are not all the best and devoted to duty. And, finally, the problem of just punishment for violators was injected into the discussion.

I believe the punishment angle is one of the most vital phases of guarding our outdoor resources from those who are wasting wildlife at an unmerciful pace.

For instance, a man is arrested for killing 10 ducks — when the limit is four and hauled before some justice of the peace for a hearing. In most cases the violator will get off with a fine of a few dollars — and in many states this fine seldom exceeds $25.00.

That's not a stiff enough penalty to stop violations. In fact, boys with a lot of folding money probably would fork over $25 fine every day for the opportunity of getting double limits.

But if game code violations, at least for second or third offenders, carried a jail sentence it would be an entirely different story. No gunner or fisherman would risk having to spend a month or two behind bars for a few extra birds or animals.

So as the hunting seasons move along, let's all think a bit more about bringing the game code violations under hand. Let's enforce the laws — and gave game a break.

Dr. Henry Alexander has returned to his home in Crestwood, Ky., after a weekend visit with his sister, Mrs. J. E. Fall, Sr., and Mr. Fall on Vine street.

Be there an odor so irresistible as the heady fragrance of hickory smoke curing fine Kentucky hams? No, Kentuckians everywhere will agree, as they recall the delightful twang of the hickory smoke which cures one of their state's most traditional and best-known products, a Kentucky ham!

Yes, and beer is a tradition in Kentucky, too!

Like Smoking Hams, BEER BELONGS in Kentucky. Together they greet the hungry wayfarer and welcome him to a repast that has no equal, for beer is the beverage of moderation, and an excellent companion to a slice of hickory-cured ham.

TEEN-AGE TATLER

by the
"Walkie-Talkie"

S. E. and C. P. were driving all alone Friday night. They stopped at Ray's and had a Dr. Pepper and Grapette, cheese crisp and cigarettes. Sure did look lonesome.

Gosh, it was enough to wake the dead, the noise that P. H. and D. T. made the other night at 12:40 a. m. when they came home. D. T. was spending the night with P. H. and they had dates with some boys from UT Junior College at Martin.

A. C.—poor thing I don't think she really does know who she's in love with. She talks about J. W. at Jackson, P. H. at McConnell and T. S. at UT Junior College at Martin. I wish she would make up her mind.

A. L. and A. M.—Girls be careful. Little things like that can get you in trouble with J.

Poor E. P., I believe she would agree that a little face-lifting would help the boy she was with recently.

Is B. F. and B. A. really going to be married Christmas Eve, as planned. I wonder.

Was E. M. just kidding when she said she was going to slip off and get married in the near future. Who could it be?

Why was J. W. crying in the rest room Monday. Was it over a note she got in the Hall at the end of the second period.

J. V. was talking about a new heart throb in the rest room Monday. Wonder who she is.

P. G. is a cute girl, but it would be nice to have it come from other sources.

K. M.—We all will be glad when you marry the Navy. The constant talk of it is getting tiresome.

J. N. is a darling girl and we all are just crazy about her. It would add so much to her popularity if she would take her nose out of the clouds.

I see W. R. coming to school every morning looking real cute with her lipstick and rouge on. I wonder if its B. C?

Who is M. A. in love with? Is it D. W.

C. G. is still trying to get a date with L. M. I don't think he will get it though.

L. B. is courting B. B. I hear. What is wrong with B. T. and L. H. these days. It was so at one time where you saw one you the other. I had started calling them the T. and H. twins.

I will walk and talk again next week with my friend, whose name is "The News."

The General meeting of the Woman's Club was held Friday at the Club Home.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Eldridge Grymes, chairman, Mrs. David Sundwick, chairman of the Music Department and Mrs. H. N. Strong who were pages for the afternoon.

The meeting opened with the repetition of the Lord's Prayer by the group, after which the club president, Mrs. Grymes, presided over the business session and expressed her appreciation to Mrs. Fred Homra, general chairman of the Thanksgiving Benefit Party, and her committee for making the party a huge success. She also thanked the Leader and the News for the publicity given the party.

Reports were given by the secretary, Mrs. Milton Callahan, and the librarian, Mrs. John Daniels, Mrs. R. S. Matthews, Mrs. Ed Engel and Mrs. Bill Stoker were welcomed as new members.

All members were urged to write Governor Clements in regard to his campaign pledge in the educational program.

Following the business an Old English Christmas Program was presented by Joseph Golz and students of Murray State College sponsored by the Music Department.

Mrs. David Sundwick, chairman, made a brief talk and presented Mrs. M. W. Haws, program leader, who in turn presented the Madrigal Singers, who presented an "Old English Christmas Program." The stage setting was an old English scene lighted only by candles and with the Singers sitting around a table dressed in beautiful colorful costumes. Ann Lowery was the narrator for the group which included eight singers, Nora Waterstreet, Mary Alice Opyke, Dorris Ryan, Gaila McClintock, Roy Hines, Warren Slocum, Robert Creamer and Rupert Beltz.

HOMEMAKERS HAVE POT LUCK SUPPER

Thirty men, women, boys and girls gathered at Lodgeston school Friday evening to enjoy a pot-luck supper given by the Victory Homemakers Club.

The Colliers brought their long collapsible table to spread the food on, and there was fried chicken, baked chicken, baked goose, meat loaves, sausages, fruit salads, vegetable salads, cakes and pies spread all over that table.

The people passed around in cafeteria order filling their plates to the brim, and took them to card tables where groups of four or more enjoyed friendships together while they ate.

Members of the P.-T. A. poured hot coffee.

After supper some played cards while others continued to chat about their past, present and future interests.

The Christmas spirit was at a high peak as the congenial members of the Victory Club and their guests disbanded.
