NUMBER FIFTY-ONE

FULTON EAGLES TO TIE UP WITH DETROIT

An agreement has been signed between the Fulton Baseball Association and the Detroit Tigers, according to K. P. Dalton, president of the Fulton club, which is a member of the Kitty League circuit. A tentative understanding was first reached at New Orleans several weeks ago when local officials attended a meeting of major and minor league officials.

It has been suggested that Charles Eckert, who has been a pitcher and coach with various clubs, be named manager of the Fulton Eagles. During 1938 he was manager of the Tiffin, Ohio club and Detroit officials believe that he would be a good man for the local berth.

President Dalton called a meeting of the Fulton Baseball Association at the City Hall Monday night to consider the agreement and the proposal that Eckert be made manager of the Eagles.

All members of the board of directors were present, with the exception of R. C. Reed and K. R. Lowe. W. W. Evans was elected as secretary-treasurer of the association, and the board authorized the president to sign the agreement with Detroit, which was signed and sent off Tuesday.

Bailey Huddleston, R. E. Sanford and H. H. Bugg were named as a sub-committee to arrange for transportation for the team this season. The board made the following appointments:

Nola Mae Weaver, scorekeeper; Mrs. James Warren in charge of reserve seats; L. S. Phillips, box office; Pat Smith, ticket taker; Lynn Taylor, grandstand ticket taker.

The board accepted the release of Johnny Long, pitcher for the past few seasons with the Eagles. Release of other players is pending.

Dr. M. W. Haws and H. H. Bugg were named as the grounds committee. Mr. Ferguson will be in charge of the park.

It was decided to begin the annual drive for subscriptions about March 15, and all firms making a donation of $25 or more will be permitted to put a sign on the fence free of charge.

100 MORE WORKERS FOR FULTON PLANT

Plans were made here this week for the addition of some 100 more employees at the local factory of the Henry I. Seigel Company, according to Leo Greengrass, manager. Mr. Seigel, president of the company, was in Fulton Tuesday inspecting the local plant and arranging preliminary plans for starting two more units of workers in the next few weeks, with the first unit beginning work next week.

It is estimated that the increase in the number of employees will bring the total number of workers to about 275, and will double the present payroll. Full compliance with the wage and hour law is being carried out, and every effort is being made toward bringing the plant up to full capacity. The 44-hour week, 9 hours four days and 8 hours on Fridays, is being used.

Since the plant has been in operation in Fulton, CIO agitators have visited here but as yet no labor difficulties have been encountered. Local citizens have been urged by Mr. Seigel to help prevent labor troubles here such as have occurred in some sections of the country.

KITTY PRESIDENTS MET AT PADUCAH

Presidents of the various Kitty League Clubs met at Paducah Sunday, but failed to agree on a schedule for the season. Hopkinsville delegates objected to the 132-game schedule as submitted by Hugh Wise of the Owensboro Club, contending that it provided them with too many long stays at home.

It was decided that the schedule was unsuitable for Hopkinsville and it was agreed that Wise's 140-game schedule should be studied, and each club vote their choice by mail not later than February 1. The 140-game schedule opens April 25, and closes September 10, six days later than the league presidents had voted to wind up their schedule at a previous meeting.

Both schedules put natural rivals against each other for opening games and on holidays. Natural opponents are Paducah and Mayfield, Fulton and Union City, Hopkinsville and Owensboro, Jackson and Lexington.

J. P. Friend of Blytheville, Ark., was elected league statistician. President Howard told club owners that he had instructions from Judge Brannan to enforce the rule this year requiring each club to carry six players without previous experience in Class D ball. The league directors voted to carry a maximum of three class men.

The 15-player and $1,075-salary limit observed last year were retained.

Auto Sales Company Has Attractive Home

Auto Sales Company, now located in its spacious new home on the Mayfield highway near the city limits, is one of the best arranged and most convenient buildings of its type in this section. The business, operated by Bailey Huddleston, James Willingham and Mel Simon, has made steady progress since its organization here. They are Ford dealers as well as for Fordson tractors.

Chas. Holloway, Bill Elliott, Jarvis Pierce are connected with the sales department; Ann Kupfer is bookkeeper-stenographer; and in the service department are Jess Jordan, Donald Andrews and Paul Counts. This garage is well equipped and the staff of workmen are experienced mechanics who are thoroughly capable of taking care of motor and chassis ailments of automobiles, trucks and tractors.

Motorists of this section are invited to visit the new home of the Auto Sales Company.

Work Moves Ahead On S. Fulton Water Works

Steady progress is being made on the new water works system being installed in South Fulton, with work on the wells now complete. Construction of the plant has been started by Taylor Iron Works of Macon, Ga., and the plant is located on the southeast corner of the South Fulton school grounds. Concrete piers are being installed on which will be erected the water tower. This concrete work is in charge of W. M. Hill & Sons, local contractors.

The Voles Construction Company of Ripley, Tenn., has started work on the laying of the water mains for the distribution system.

School Board Discusses New School Building

Members of the Fulton Board of Education held a special meeting Tuesday night, with W. C. Thomason, district supervisor of WPA, and Mr. Vaughan, supervisor for Fulton and Hickman counties, to discuss plans for a WPA project seeking the construction of a new grammar school building here to replace Carr-Institute.

It was decided to make a thorough investigation of the WPA set up and prepare necessary papers to be sent to the district office at Madisonville. This will require several weeks, but until after July 1 it will not be known whether the money will be available. It is planned to use WPA if Congress appropriates funds for that division and PWA if the government provides funds through that unit.

Meanwhile, other school buildings in this area that have been erected under WPA will be investigated by board members.

Scout Activities Show Progress In Fulton

Scout activities in Fulton are again making steady headway, according to William Henry Edwards and Billy Blackstone who are directing this phase of work for the Young Business Men's Club. Roy C. Manchester, of Paducah, Scout Executive and director of this area, attended the regular meeting of YBMC Tuesday night, and assisted in installing 22 Boy Scouts in the newly-organized troop. Ten Tenderfoot badges were awarded to members of the local organization. Among those receiving badges were: Fred Campbell, Don Singers, Virgil King, Joe Armstrong, Jr., Bob Parham, Stanley Parham, Johnnie Sharpe.

Bulldogs Nose Out South Fulton 28-26

The Bulldogs emerged victorious Tuesday night from a close battle with the South Fulton Red Devils with the southside cagers making a goal which would have tied the score only a split second too late. The entire game was a closely-matched affair. Looney, Williams and Brady began the scoring in the first period each making field goals. McKinney and Frazier then made foul shots. Towering Batts McAlister and Looney followed with field goals for Fulton, and Frazier of South Fulton again scored a foul shot. The first period ended with Fulton's Bulldogs on the larger end of a 12-3 score.

The second period was filled with speedy shifting of the ball and numerous shots at the basket. Burton, Laine, Thomas, Gossom and Dalton entered the game in the latter part of the period. The half found the Bulldogs ahead 21-14.

The South Fulton Devils entered the second half with more fight and determination and in a short time brought the score to a 20-21 stand. Batts then eased the tension of the moment by tipping the ball into the basket. With several quick shots the score was again brought to a close 25-24 stand, with Fulton still leading, when Batts again tipped in another field goal to bring the quarter to a close 27-24.

In the last quarter the Devils scored two foul shots and Williams one for the Bulldogs and for the greater part of the time the score remained 28-26 with both teams shooting desperately at the basket. The Devils were in possession of the ball more than the Bulldogs but were unable to hit the basket until only a second after the game ended, too late to be counted on the official score book.

The Bulldogs defeated the South Fulton second team by another tight score 24-22. This game was also filled with excitement and rapid-fire shooting. The half ended with the Paps leading 14-8. In the fourth quarter, with the Fulton quintet leading 22-20, a battle ensued and for a while it looked as if the South Fulton seconds might overcome the Bulldogs; nevertheless the Fulton team held on and came out on top winning by a two point margin.

SECOND WEEK OF CIRCUIT COURT HERE

ELECTRICAL PROGRESS

In spite of special handicaps, in addition to the general low level of business during most of the year, the electrical industry as a whole made considerable progress during 1933. For while the industry's net income dropped sharply, it improved and extended its service to the public.

Electric service was brought to approximately 600,000 new customers, of which about 168,000 were on the farms of the country. Generating capacity was increased by a million kilowatts, and almost $500,000,000 was spent for construction. At the same time the cost of household electricity was further reduced to the lowest figure on record.

These accomplishments were made possible by the high efficiency of management and operating personnel in the face of excessive and rising taxation, subsidized government competition, and violent attacks by political demagogues.

If these unjust handicaps could be removed, the electrical industry would be able to spend billions for new construction and extensions of service, thus contributing tremendously toward a sound and permanent national recovery.

THE 1933 OUTLOOK

Nearly all economists agree that unless some unforeseen upset occurs there will be at least a moderate improvement in business during 1933, although the first three months are likely to remain about stationary.

While government spending of borrowed money will continue to stimulate business, the national debt will reach more than 44 billion dollars during the next fiscal year. The number of unemployed, now still about 10 million, will show some decrease during 1933, but will remain a most serious problem. Unemployment relief will continue to be the greatest single item of expense.

The United States News predicts that strikes will increase in number compared with last year, and that the farm problem will continue to be unsolved, although farmers will receive "bigger and better subsidies."

a European war this year, but Germany and Italy will continue to press for further territory, and may obtain added concessions without fighting for them.

Stormy debates are expected in Congress over government spending, national defense and a wide range of domestic and foreign questions, but it is too early to predict the outcome of these important controversies.

LAME DUCK FOR TVA

Among recent appointments by President Roosevelt to important posts was that of former Senator James P. Pope of Idaho to be a member of the board of directors of the Tennessee Valley Authority to fill the vacancy caused by the ouster of the former chairman, Dr. Arthur E. Morgan.

Dr. Morgan is contesting in the courts the President's right to remove him as a result of differences with Harcourt A. Morgan and David E. Lilienthal, the other directors, which led to a Congressional investigation of the TVA.

Mr. Pope served one term in the United States Senate as a Democrat, being identified with the more radical group. His party in Idaho repudiated him for renomination in last year's primary.

Several senators have given notice that they will oppose Pope's confirmation, on the ground that there is no vacancy, contending that a member of the TVA board can not legally be removed except by a concurrent resolution of Congress, as specified in the TVA act. The act provides that the President may remove a director for appointing employees through political considerations, but no such charge was made against Dr. Morgan.

The appointment of Mr. Pope himself is purely political, as he has had no executive or other experience to fit him for the directorship of a $500,000,000 government power experiment, such as the TVA.

FACTS ABOUT WOMEN

They always make interesting reading, probably because no two people are impressed in the same manner by the same sets of facts, or by the same woman. Therefore, a new book called, "The Woman's Almanac," edited by women and published by the Oquaga Press, Inc., New York, strikes a new note. The old World Almanac had facts on everything from soup to nuts, including something on women, but the Woman's Almanac confines itself to women.

So if anybody is interested in knowing something about women; their tastes, their activities, their accomplishments, their looks, their beauty secrets, why they do this and why they do that, this new book will satisfy a lot of curiosity, even if it doesn't answer the particular question you would like to ask about our particular woman.

• AROUND TOWN

One day last week, Allen Gillum accompanied his wife to Memphis. He then came back home. What happened in his wife's absence, remains unexplained. He claims that he went home and went to bed. Sometime during the night the trousers of his new suit, with $30 in the pockets, disappeared. The pants were later found in the Harris Fork Creek, minus the money. Some believe that he pitched a party and threw his trousers in the creek, hatched up a tall tale to throw his wife off the track. It is not known what Mrs. Gillum thinks about the matter, but some of his friends swallowed the story with a grain of salt.

Paul Bushart, editor of The News must be seeing things. Recently the big silver hub cap off the left front wheel of his car mysteriously disappeared. About a week later he parked his car near the Fulton theatre and went inside. A short time later, when he came out accompanied by the manager, the hub cap was lying on the right running board. Meanwhile, he had visited the Western Auto Associate Store to obtain a new cap—but as it happened they had none on hand. The boys at the store and the manager of the theatre contend that he has been merely seeing things—and the cap was never missing after all. For why would anyone want to swipe a hub cap so short a time and then return it in such an unexpected manner?

Sugar Cured Meat

At two meetings last week 38 people attended two meat cutting demonstrations and saw Grady Sellards illustrate how to cut meat as it is cut at the packing house. Mr. Sellards illustrated how pork chops should be made and explained the procedure for curing breakfast bacon on the farm. The method of sugar curing hams and shoulders was also explained at these meetings.

J. M. Roper secured a box and is sugar curing some bacon for the first time. There are several farmers who have been using this method for a number of years and have been well pleased with the quality bacon that has been made. Farm and Home Week.

The programs for Tuesday and Wednesday are of much interest to all of these men, since soils, crops and livestock production are the chief subjects for discussion.

February Month of Outstanding Pictures Here

H. M. Weeks, new manager of the Fulton and Strand Theatre, announces that February will be a month of outstanding pictures for local theatres. He has just received booking for many new productions, which are showing in Fulton well in advance of most houses in this territory.

Starting this Sunday, the Major Fulton Theatre is bringing theatre-goers of this section, top-notch screen entertainment, beginning with "Dawn Patrol," with Errol Flynn. Following Wednesday and Thursday will be Franchot Tone and Franiska Gadi in "The Girl Downstairs," and Friday and Saturday, Bing Crosby's new picture, "Paris Honeymoon."

Also booked for the month of February Robert Taylor and Wallace Beery in "Stand Up and Fight," Constance Bennett in "Topper Takes A Trip," Clark Gable and Norma Shearer in "Idiot's Delight," Tyrone Power in "Jesse James," Alice Faye in "Tailspin," Bobby Breen in "Fisherman's Wharf," and many more hits that promise to be one of the most delightful months of screen entertainment offered in this territory for some time.

FEED FOR DAIRY COWS

In view of its established popularity and availability, soybean oil meal is destined to be used in the future in ever-increasing amounts as a practical and profitable protein feed for dairy cattle, according to J. W. Hayward, expert in livestock nutrition.

This popularity is justly deserved, he says, because it is unusually palatable, and supplies a protein of high digestibility at lowest cost. In addition to its high digestibility, the protein of soybean oil meal is more complete than that of other concentrates of vegetable origin in its content of the amino acids essential for growth, milk production and body repair. Its effect upon dairy cattle is wholly beneficial.

The increasing use of soybean oil meal in livestock feeds has caused a corresponding increase in soybean acreage to supply the demand. While only about seven million bushels of soybeans were harvested in the United States in 1927, the final figures for the 1933 crop will exceed 57 million bushels. During the same period the production of oil meal has increased about 63 times, and will exceed 950,000 tons for the current year, of which about one-half will be used in feeds for dairy cattle.

This new cash crop is bringing good profits to farmers of the leading producing states, principally in the middle west, and there is no surplus problem.

There are three kinds of men in this world. First, the kind you have to tell once to do a thing and you can bet it will be done. Second, is the kind you have to tell three or four times. And third, is that great business producing, creative lot of men who don't have to be told at all.

Do your work with your whole heart and you will succeed, because there is so little competition in this kind of work.

Air Map of Manhattan and New York World's Fair Grounds

NEW YORK—An aerial photograph recently obtained this remarkable picture showing the skyline of New York with its relation to the grounds of the New York World's Fair 1939. An artist has pointed on lines indicating distances from certain points in Manhattan to the Fair grounds. These distances, and other facts concerning road and bridge approaches to the exposition which is preparing to handle 60,000,000 visitors, are: (1) From Empire State at Fifth Avenue and 34th Street, in the heart of the retail shopping district, to the Fair grounds, 7 miles. (2) From Wall Street, in lower Manhattan, to the Fair grounds, 8½ miles. (3) From the entrance to the Triborough Bridge, 5½ miles. (Motorists can make this trip without encountering a single traffic light). (4) Holland Tunnel from New Jersey, showing route through lower Manhattan across Williamsburg Bridge (No. 9) to roads leading to the Fair. (5) The Battery. (6) Brooklyn Bridge. (7)

Manhattan Bridge. (8) Brooklyn Navy Yard. (9) Williamsburg Bridge. (10) Queensboro (59th St.) Bridge. (11) Grand Central Parkway. (12) North Beach Airport (now being enlarged at a cost of $30,000,000). (13) New Whitestone Bridge, furnishing direct gateway from New England and Canada.

Steve Jancoff of Toledo, O., was robbed of his door key. Later thieves entered his home and stole $50 worth of money and property.

George Faucher of Sanford, Me., thought his appendix was infected, but an X-ray picture showed that a half-dollar Faucher had swallowed 10 years before was still in his stomach.

A Guernsey cow owned by John F. Maley of East Putney, Vt., gave birth to quadruplets. Three were females and the other a male.

Rev. Murrell Sulzman, Catholic priest of Matanuska, Alaska, besides attending to the spiritual needs of the settlement, also acts as fire chief of the nine valley camps.

Reuben Bement turned a flock of chickens loose in his barnyard at St. Petersburg, Ind. When the chickens failed to go to roost that night he investigated and found them all stuck fast in the mud.

Herbert Ohrenberger of Dedham, Mass., received a lifetime pass from the manager of a theatre because he became so tickled while watching a comedy that everyone else caught the spirit.

Considered a poor man, William Richardson, a retired miner of St. Thomas, Canada, was revealed to have left $128,000 upon his death. By his will the Red Cross received $100,000.

GREEN AND YELLOW VEGETABLES ARE HEALTHY

Eat lots of green and yellow vegetables if you are short on vitamin A, says Miss Maude Guthrie, U-T Extension nutritionist.

In green leaves and stems of plants and in the yellow roots and fruits is a yellow pigment called carotene. In the animal body, carotene turns to vitamin A. Cows that have had good green pasture and good hay give milk rich in vitamin A. Egg yolks are richer in vitamin A when hens have plenty of green foods. When human beings eat green or yellow vegetables and certain red ones, they get carotene which is changed to vitamin A in the liver. When they drink milk or eat eggs or butter or liver they get vitamin A made from the green food eaten by the animal, states Miss Guthrie.

The green and yellow vegetables also furnish other vitamins, several minerals, and bulk. They are for the most part alkaline forming. One of their important functions is to supply vitamin A. Carrots are among the best of all the yellow vegetables for carotene and hence vitamin A. Squash comes next, then pumpkin and yellow turnips. Among the leafy vegetables, the greener they are, the more carotene. New green cabbage, collards, turnip greens, and the peppers are all good vegetables for vitamin A. In Tennessee with good management on a good garden plan, storage or year-round gardening will assure a good supply of these products for most of the winter, Miss Guthrie states.

STOP IT WITH ALKA-SELTZER

Does Headache "slow you down?" You are a rare exception if it does not.

One or two tablets of ALKA-SELTZER in a glass of water makes a pleasant alkalinizing solution that usually brings relief in just a few minutes. ALKA-SELTZER is also recommended for:

Gas on Stomach, "Morning After", Acid Indigestion, Colds, and Muscular Pains. You will like the tangy flavor and the results when you take Alka-Seltzer. Alka-Seltzer, when dissolved in water, contains an analgesic (Sodium Acetyl-Salicylate). In addition, the alkalinizing agents in Alka-Seltzer help to relieve those everyday disorders associated with hyperacidity. Small package 30c. Large package 60c.

UNCLE JIM

It's time for us to get out in the woods regarding farm forestry management.

More land is in farm woodland than in any other single crop on American farms.

The farm woodland must receive attention just as any other crop if it is expected to yield its best returns.

If you want to lose two ways, turn the stock in your woodlot—they damage stands of young timber and don't get very good grazing either.

Here's good news! According to the outlook, farm families are expected to have more cash to spend in 1939 than was available in 1938.

Farmers like baseball players should check upon their batting averages occasionally—well kept records show the hits and errors in the business.

Breeding turkeys should be fed liberally during the winter so as to have them in prime condition when the laying season starts next spring.

Color in foods is just as desirable as color in clothing. For example, green and yellow vegetables are known to supply the very essential vitamin A.

Keep your seed corn dry! Place the ears selected in a dry, well ventilated room. A satisfactory hanger may be made from small mesh woven wire and two-by-four uprights.

Still Coughing?

Remember how many medicines you tried for your chronic cough. Did you find it successful? If not, you may get relief now with Cremonium. Cremonium is a natural and you are assured to take a change with any remedy less potent than Cremonium. It is a natural product of the sea and its nature is to soothe and heal the inflamed membrane of the throat and lungs and germ-borne poisons.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Cremonium. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained. Cremonium is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Cremonium, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want.

THE AWFUL PRICE YOU PAY FOR BEING NERVOUS

Curling nerves can make you old and haggard looking, cranky and hard to live with—don't have your nerve rights and rob you of good health, good times and joy.

What you may need is a particularly good women's tonic—and could you ask for anything better? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound! Let its wholesome herbs and roots help Nature build up more physical resistance and thus help calm your thinking nerves, give more energy and make life worth living again.

More than a million women have reported benefit—why not let Pinkham's Compound help YOU, too, to get "nervous" trying times like it has other grateful women for the past 3 generations? IT MUST BE GOOD!

TIMELY TOPICS

O. O. McIntyre, reputed to have been the highest paid writer in the world at the time of his death, left a net estate of only $72,456, for less than a single year's income. But the small town reporter who became a noted columnist packed a lot of fun and rich experience into his 54 years of life.

According to the Keely Institute, which for 60 years has been treating habitual drunkards with its "cure", women alcoholic patients have increased 42 per cent in the last five years, and 80 per cent of these are married.

Three applicants for police jobs at Newark, N. J., who had been rejected because of flat feet, protested that the flat-foot test was the "floocy". In support of their argument they brought before the board Eugene Peacock, star sprinter and twice winner of the national pentathlon, whose feet are flat as a pancake.

In a recent article on famed San Quentin prison it was revealed that California's first jail was located in that vicinity in 1852. It was a small ship, anchored off Point San Quentin, which could take care of about 50 men, and was used to incarcerate unruly old-timers of the early gold rush days.

A rural jury in Coosa county, Alabama, returned a verdict which was anything but a model, but it was anything but a model, but it appeals. It read: "We the jury find the defendant guilty of an attempt to commit petty larceny and fix the fine at one cent."

DOWN THE MISSISSIPPI

The popular song of recent years invites the listener to come with the singer down the Mississippi; that is what I want you to do today, while we view a long-past institution, the flatboat. In its day the flatboat was an institution that seemed as permanent as the later "floating palaces," also now largely a memory.

When the Mississippi was the great avenue of travel and trade, the flatboat procession down to New Orleans was an annual event like the migration of the ducks and geese in spring and fall. People at the upper reaches of the river loaded their boats with all sorts of things to sell and set out, with the current of the river as their chief motive force. These boats bore many names: rafts, jibs.

Many names: arks, flatboats, Kentucky boats. Alexander Wilson, the great ornithologist, who visited Kentucky in 1810, having paddled a skiff down from Pittsburgh to Louisville, thus describes the arks:

"In the course of the day I passed a number of arks, or, as they are usually called, Kentucky boats, loaded with what it must be acknowledged are the most valuable commodities of a country; viz., men, women, and children, horses and ploughs, flour, millstones, etc. Several of these floating caravans were loaded with store goods for the supply of the settlements through which they passed, having a counter erected, shawls, muslins, etc., displayed, and everything ready for transacting business. On approaching a settlement they blow a horn or tin trumpet, which announces to the inhabitants their arrival. The arks are built in the form of a parallelogram, being from twelve to fourteen feet wide and from forty to seventy feet long, covered above, rowed only occasionally by two oars before, and steered by a long and powerful one fixed above. The arks cost about one hundred and fifty cents per foot, according to their length; and when they reach their places of destination, seldom bring more than one-sixth their original cost."

The flatboatman became a sort of professional. All the daring youths wanted to go down the river to the glamorous New Orleans; Lincoln, as you know, made a trip or two. Even whole families were known to go, though this was hardly the rule. After the long journey down the Mississippi came the long trek homeward, up the historic Natchez Trace, infested often with highwaymen, who fed fat on the poor flatboatman. As for that, the river pirates did a thriving business in this same period, some of them, as Otto Rother, secretary of the Wilson Club, of Louisville, has shown, becoming rich with the spoils of the flatboats.

The whole experience was an adventure, calculated to rouse the imagination of the young bloods. To outwit the wiles of the river itself, "Ol' Man River," was not an easy thing, with no government lights, no surveyed channel, no protection against drifts and sandbars. The appeal of this early trade or profession has not wholly died: since this column began, I have seen large rafts in a Kentucky stream, one of them manned by a patriarch who has made dozens of trips of a hundred miles or more. When I last saw him, he was floating around a bend in a heavy snowstorm with the temperature dropping toward one of the coldest nights of the winter. I saw him and all his predecessors in the brief moment I ran along the bank and questioned him.

SCHOOL NEWS

FULTON HIGH SCHOOL

With the beginning of the new semester, the enrollment of the High School has been increased by the incoming Freshmen. In this new group there are seven boys and eight girls. Fulton High had only one student, Dorothy Swigart, by mid-semester graduation.

The students have begun the new semester with a clean record, and all are striving to make their records better than those of last semester.

The Seniors are beginning to receive samples of graduation invitations and cards. No decision will be made until February 3.

The Glee Club presented the musical portion of the P. T. A. meeting which was held Tuesday afternoon at Carr Institute.

The Bulldogs met their strongest opposition last Friday night when they opposed the Calvert City five on the local court, bowing in defeat to the visitors by the score of 61 to 30. Their strong offense and deadly aim was more than the Bulldogs could overcome. The Bulldogs seemed not to be able to show their best playing ability and lacked the co-ordination they formerly possessed. The first half ended with the score 23 to 12, with Calvert City holding the lead as they did during the entire game.

The line-up for the game was:
Fulton Pos. Cal. City
McAlister 9 F Pace 2
Looney 4 F C. Norman 9
Brady 6 C Salmon 8
Thomas 8 G Little 16
Williams G Hurley 21

Substitutions for Fulton—Lane 1, Batts 2, Gossum, Dalton and Burton. For Calvert City—M. Norman 4, Hamm 1, Watkins and Clark.

Miss Jean Jolley, Freshman candidate, reigned during the evening as queen of basketball. She was crowned by the captain of the Bulldogs, Glen McAlister. For the festive occasion the Bulldogs were wearing their new uniforms of blue and white satin.

SOUTH FULTON SCHOOL

The South Fulton Basketball teams lost a doubleheader to Martin Friday night, January 20. The Red Devils lost 23-43, while the Red Angels lost 15-64.

The schedule for the remainder of the season is as follows: Jan. 27, Dresden here; Jan. 31, Union City there; Feb. 3, Troy here; Feb. 7, Obion there; Feb. 10, Fulton Hi here.

Mrs. L. M. Jones and Mrs. R. E. Sanford were joint hostesses to a P. T. A. Benefit Party Monday night, January 23, at the home of Mrs. Jones on Central Avenue. Games of bridge and Chinese Checkers were enjoyed during the evening. The proceeds are to be used to help purchase two new complete sets of encyclopedias for the school library. At the conclusion of the games, the hostesses served delicious refreshments to about forty ladies.

Miss Christine Johnson was out of school Monday because of illness.

CAYCE DEFEATS
COUNTY SCHOOLS

Cayce, Ky. (Jan. 25, 1939)—In recent contests the Cayce Tigers defeated both the other county schools, Sylvan Shade and Sassafras Ridge, to emerge the undisputed champions of the county system. Friday night they won over Sylvan Shade, 35-16, and the following Tuesday night continued their scoring spree to win over Western of Sassafras Ridge, 59-25. The B team also won Friday night, 34-3, and Tuesday night, 28-9.

If a business is worth any of your time it is worth all of it—Andrew Carnegie.

Get your happiness out of your work—or you will never know what happiness is.

Leisure is sweet when it follows work well done.

It is better to think a good thought about a bad man than to think an evil thought about a good man.

Back of every establishment that keeps abreast of the times is an individual who keeps ahead of them.

A wrong door is often a man who has left something undone, not always a man who has done something.

The easiest person to deceive is one's self.

As a man grows wiser, he talks less and says more.

Only the government can make money without advertising.

It is an honor to be successful only if you do it without mis-using anyone.

When wishing won't work, work.

If no effort is made to get business there will not be any business—this is true no matter what year it is. We know of a lot of Fulton firms that made money during 1938, and these same firms will make money during 1939. Every one of them has "invited" business and proved to their customers that they deserved it. The Fulton County News offers the best medium of "inviting" business—It is—
