SAVING LIVES

In a country where every town has a hospital, there is no greater need than the one which involves all of the people and their families. It is important that we think of all the people and their families and give them the best possible care. The problem is a great one, but we can do much to help solve it. We must all work together to make things better.

---

AROUND TOWN

While looking with Mr. Joe Bowlin on the second floor of the former Dill Co. Store in the East End, we talked of Mr. W. T. Rice, who was a long-time resident of the area. He was one of the most prominent men in the area, and we enjoyed hearing his stories. Mr. Rice passed away last week, and his passing was greatly felt by all.

DOES MUCH DAMAGE

The fire that occurred Saturday morning was a great loss to the community. The damage was estimated at $50,000.
