BIG STILL FOUND
ON RIVER ISLANDDaybreak Raid near Blood River Results in Arrest of Three Men

The local sheriff's force caught the fox at day break Tuesday morning in a raid on Blood River Island, sixteen miles east of Murray. They took into their possession a still of sixty gallon capacity and six barrels of mash. No liquor was found.

Three men were taken on the scene: Galen Bray, Melvin Outland and Carlton Roberts. Two of the party made an effort to escape by jumping into the river but decided that the swim was too much and returned to the island. Roberts lives at Pottertown while Outland and Bray live near Pine Bluff.

The three are charged with unlawfully and wilfully having in possession an illicit still. The officers making the arrests were Sheriff Clint Drinkard and deputies, W. B. Parker and J. H. Orr.

They were released here Tuesday morning on $500 bond each. They will await the action of the November grand jury.

On the back of an envelope, Mrs. Mary Council of Columbus, O., wrote her will disposing of an estate in excess of $4,600.

'Jim Jones, the Editor

Jim Jones he was an editor, that is tried to be. He bought himself a hand press and started in to see 'em what there was to editin', but when he'd canvassed 'round some fifteen hundred editors in that same town he found.

They all knew more about it than Jones could hope to know; They told him, "You must run 'er, Jones, jes' so an' so!" He sure an' boom th' Baptists, they're bound to help you out, An' give th' good ol' Methodists a big salvation shout!

"Give every man a notice; be sure an' put it down Whenever Major Jinks is seen to perambulate in town; Put in a few free locals for all th' stores an' give Each man a free subscription, if you want your sheet to live!"

Well, Jones he done jes' as they said, fer fear they'd make a row; But the more he tried to please 'em all, the more they told him how!

Until at last he took his book an' laid it on th' shelf; Then run th' paper in th' ground, an' folloed in hisself!—Newsdom.

JOHNSON ASSERTS
"NOT CANDIDATE"Highway Chairman Denies He Will Ever Be Candidate for Any Office

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 10.—Ben Johnson, Hardtown, chairman of the state highway commission, is not a candidate for any office.

Johnson denied emphatically Friday a statement of John C. Worsham, Henderson, Republican nominee for lieutenant governor, that he was laying his plans to run against Alben W. Barkley, Paducah, next year for the Democratic nomination as United States Senator from Kentucky.

Barkley is expected to run for renomination and re-election in 1932.

Johnson, veteran of many political campaigns, served as a congressman from Kentucky for twenty years.

Worsham, in a campaign speech at Princeton, Ky., Wednesday asserted that Johnson would oppose Barkley for the Democratic nomination for the Senate next year if the Democrats were successful in the present state campaign. He made a similar statement in addresses in other towns.

Barkley ridiculed the statement in an address at Richmond, Remarking he had not seen or talked with Johnson recently.

Barkley said he felt sure Johnson "has no more idea of opposing me than he has that Mayor B. Harrison will be governor."

Johnson, who has been appointed a Textbook Commission, whose resignations were required in advance, is a Democrat.

Grandfather and the Boys

One way to keep the spirit youthful and the outlook on life cheery is to have a daily romp with your grandchildren. At least this recipe seems to work happily for Judge Ruby Laffoon of Madisonville, Democratic candidate for Governor of Kentucky. This picture shows the judge and his two grandsons, the children of Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson of Madisonville. The lad who sits about the pony is "R. W.", aged 10 years. The little fellow seated in the front row is Tommy, the tempestuous, aged 2 years. Judge Laffoon usually starts his day with a 6 o'clock call upon these youngsters at their farm home which is about a mile and a half out of Madisonville.

Ed has to get in the lime-light, or the cigarette pyrammie fire-light or sump'n, as he is to run against Barkley for the U. S. Senate. Further comment is unnecessary, unless "Old Eagle" desires to make a few remarks at this stage of the game.

Republican Nominee Harrison says he thinks the state inspector and examiner should be the budget officer, and that he should work under the direction of the Auditor of Public Accounts.

Words to that effect, Ben Little Boy Blue letting a cog slip somewhere? As a matter of fact, the state inspector and examiner is ALREADY the budget officer. And for his further information it is well known about Frankfort that the only department that has EVER over-run its budget is the Board of Charities and Corrections, which seems to be largely Republican (how about it, or what?) and which ran out of funds and was permitted to overdraw into its next budget, because under Republican rule the institutions ran behind. Little Boy Blue should get himself straight on this because he is likely to run into some mighty deep water, and get his Republican friends, also, in over their heads.

October 6 Rev. W. T. M. Jones and family, together with Paul Jones and wife, drove over to 8 miles northwest of Mayfield to the home of J. T. Jones, father of Rev. Relatives and friends who had not met for many years met and enjoyed themselves together, again.

We are sorry that neither John Mahan nor Walter Crisp, two of our elder and dearly beloved citizens, are showing no signs of improvement. They have been ill for many months.

Do you buy insurance this way?

Do you buy insurance on the strength of friendship by the "glad hand" method?

There is no reason why your insurance agent should not be your friend—and a mighty good friend, but such friendship should be fostered by sound business relations, and not traded upon as the sole excuse of getting your insurance.

The qualified agent has a definite tangible commodity to sell in the form of service. It consists of his technical knowledge and experience applied to the problem of keeping your business protected against loss—at the lowest cost consistent with sound indemnity. It is upon this basis that he gets and holds clients.

The hand-shaking "insurance man" is passing.

A Case of Indigestion

Fundamentally, there's not a thing wrong with the United States of America. The country is just like a strong man, in good health, with a severe case of the tummy-ache.

No one needs a psychologist to tell that most people think with the crowd. When everything is going up everyone is helping push it higher. When everything is going down everyone is throwing a rope over his shoulder and try to drag it a little quicker and faster.

This nation has always had booms and it has always had depression for these simple reasons.

The man who gains, the man who sells ahead in the world is he who holds a firm stand and refuses to be stampeded when the mob breaks for the exits.

The succumbing of the average intelligent man to mob psychology in the securities market during the past several weeks is scored heavily by Standard Statistics Company, New York, in its current bulletin on the outlook for the securities market, which points out that while conditions are undoubtedly bad, never in the long history of mankind have hard times lasted forever.

Salient excerpts from the bulletin follow:
 "The individual investor or business man who, under panicky conditions, takes his cue from the herd rather than from calm reasoning, does himself and his situation an ill service."
 "Panic psychology is normally worse than the facts themselves; the present constitutes no exception."

"Recorded prices in the security markets, at a time like the present, are meaningless. They reflect a panicky psychology and nothing more than that."

"Therefore, the investor who dumps good securities on a market such as now exists is running with the herd rather than standing calmly by with the intelligent men."

intelligent men.
 "In other words, unless America's hour as an economic power has finally and irrevocably struck—the panicky dumping of good securities at this time would seem to be one way of insuring oneself of a permanent loss."

The 1931 Thoroughbreds

There is a disposition on the part of some to lament the poor showing of the 1931 Thoroughbred football team to date and evidence considerable disappointment over prospects for a successful year. It seems that local fans are ready to toss the current season into the scrap heap, turn their attention to the freshmen and talk prospects for a great team in 1932 and 1933.

Not only is that unfair but it is also unjust to that scrapping bunch of youngsters who are carrying the colors of the Gold and Blue this season. Murray State College may have had greater teams, faster eleven, more powerful gridiron outfits than the boys of '31 but she has never had a gamier or harder-fighting aggregation of football players.

It is a young team. Wholesale graduations last year thinned the ranks sharply and only one of two seniors and a few juniors are on the roster. In the main, it is a team of sophomores. To add to the team's woes, Old Man Injury has stalked ruthlessly on the field and some of the most capable players have been kept out of the games to date.

At that, T. P. I. defeated this year's team by a smaller score in Cookeville than she was able to win by on Murray soil last year. The Tennessee players and spectators paid great tribute to the Thoroughbreds' scrap and never-say-die spirit in the game there last Saturday.

A rest this week and the Thoroughbreds go to Bowling Green next Saturday to meet Murray's bitterest rival, Western. Several fans have consigned them to an overwhelming and ignominious defeat in this most important game.

It is a confident belief that the Gold and Blue are going to shame some of us for our lack of confidence. These boys have merited the respect of every foe and every lover of good, clean football with their dauntless courage under difficulties and handicaps.

Let's get behind them with an encouragement that shows we are with them to the last ditch and the last whistle is blown on the 1931 season. They've earned it and we owe them no less.

JUST JOTS

By Joe

The entire staff of this newspaper was deeply touched late Monday night when word came of the sad and untimely death of Mrs. Ralph Wear, wife of one of the most popular members of this organization.

The devotion of Ralph and Mary was a beautiful thing to behold and it is hard to realize that this earthly tie is broken.

There was not a livelier character anywhere on earth than this sweet, attractive, modest young wife and mother and our hearts go out to heart-broken Ralph in his deep hour of sorrow.

This is our honest opinion and we'll stick to it. The most misleading thing on earth is a political cartoon.

Mayor Harrison advocates a bi-partisan highway commission. Proposed as the panacea that would solve the "spoils" system practiced by partisan control, Kentuckians have found bi-partisanship to be the most pernicious octopus ever to be fastened upon a free people and want no more of it.

One reason why there are so many failures is because so many keep their prejudices instead of delivering the goods.

Ben Johnson must know just how the Athletics felt when "Pepper" Martin was at bat.

Joe Costello of the Cynthiana Democrat is the most heartless paragrapher in Kentucky. He wants to know what Hoover can say in his Thanksgiving proclamation.

Edd Morrow is trying to buffalo Lafoon.

A lot of "Peter" Republicans are now trying to deny Flim-Flam-Flam.

Mayor Harrison passed up Calloway county on his speaking tour and the voters of the county will return the compliment on November 2.

Not bad! Lerman Bros. have a sign on their store. "We will not be undersold." Above the entrance to his basement beneath the Lerman store Tom Turner has a sign, "I will sell under them every day."

His name be Galbreath but his odor smells like Galbreath.

Nothing was the matter with

Kentucky's highway testing department for eleven years but it went to the "bad" quickly when Mack Galbreath's buddy got fired and Ben Johnson accused him of playing politics. Then a Republican engineer gets a Hoover inspector down from Washington to "inspect" the Democratic testing laboratory in the middle of a desperate effort to elect a Republican Governor of Kentucky. And all that could be found was that the temperature of the testing room was not maintained at 70 degrees.

Sampson is mired down in concrete unable to help the Republicans and they are leaving him to his fate with a few "condolences" for the Democratic legislature.

Harrison is for free text books because the schools, the blackboards, the chalk and the playground equipment are free. If there's no stop, why not just go on to free clothing, free lunch baskets, free shoes and free pocket money?

Glandi says he will not visit America for fear of ridicule. Well, lots of us Americans have lost our pants and shirts, too, within the past two years.

The scientist who predicts the return of an ice age must have tried to crash a snooty party.

If you don't believe Pepper is hot ask the Philadelphia Athletics.

"More genuine satisfaction than any car I ever owned"

FORD

THE FORD is good-looking. It is safe. Comfortable. Speedy. Reliable. Long-lived. Economical. Everything a good car should be.

There is, too, an added something about it that brings enthusiastic comments from every one who has ever driven a Ford . . . the joy it puts in motoring.

"I have been a car owner continuously for nearly 20 years," writes a motorist connected with a leading university. "During this period I have bought eleven new automobiles. Eight of the eleven were in the middle-price field, one cost three thousand dollars, and the last is a Ford I purchased thirteen months ago."

"In the light of this experience I can say in all sincerity that I have derived more genuine satisfaction from the Ford than any car I ever owned. In saying this, I am thinking in terms of comfort, safety, driving pleasure, ease of control and economy. My next car will also be a Ford because it will give me what I want at a price I can afford to pay."

When you get behind the wheel of the Ford and drive it yourself you will know it is a truly remarkable car at a low price. You will like it when you first buy it. You will become more and more enthusiastic the longer you drive it. After thousands of miles of driving you will say "it's a great car." Its economy will save you many dollars.

OUT OF PLACE IN YOUR ENGINE!

Petroleum jelly—an honored friend in every family medicine cabinet—but what a trouble-maker in your motor oil! Motor oils containing this thick, jelly-like substance have a heavy body when cold—but turn water-thin in engine heat. Sinclair dealers selling Opaline can guarantee a rich, enduring body because petroleum jelly is removed at as low as 60° F. below zero—a temperature much lower than required for just removing wax. Ask the Sinclair dealer.

WORK RESUMED ON COUNTY'S HISTORY

Many Orders Are Pouring in for Complete Record from Beginning to Date

After an absence of several weeks, E. A. Johnston, of Mayfield, has resumed this work on compiling the history of Calloway county to be published by the Ledger & Times as soon as this fall as practical.

Mr. Johnston is being assisted by E. D. Fristoe, who has also had considerable experience in this character.

Quite a large number of orders have already been received for the history and those who sent in coupons, together with the 50 cents remittance, are sure of receiving a book.

Almost every edition of the Ledger & Times contains the coupon. Those who want to be sure to get a copy of the history should reserve it without further delay.
