Officers Capture Negro Thieves

The alleged burglars who entered P. H. Weeks' Sons store on Lake street Thursday night, January 9, and carried away more than $300.00 worth of merchandise, consisting of clothing, dresses and other articles, have been captured and all the merchandise recovered except eight fine dresses. The thieves are now in the Fulton jail and officers Harve Hart and Ed Drysdale are to be congratulated on the catch.

Willie Frazier, Lee Brooks and David Burgone, all negroes are the three men captured and charged with the theft.

The officers worked diligently on the case from tips gained here and there and first captured F. J. R. the youngest of the three negroes, in Dyersburg, who squealed on the others. He was taken to Jackson, Tenn., where some of the stolen articles were recovered and identified by Leslie Weeks who accompanied Officer Hart on his rounds. Another Negro was captured in Dyersburg and the last of the trio was captured in Caruthersville, Mo.

This gang of thieves were traveling over the country and no telling what their record may be. Again we say Fulton officers are to be commended on the splendid work of capturing the thieves.

M. S. HALL WILL SOON BE TRIED FOR MURDER

Mrs. Blanche Irene Hall, 26, of 527 East Mallory street, Memphis, Tenn., who killed Herman A. McClain, 29, her erstwhile star boarder, in Memphis, and then attempted suicide, is recovering from self-inflicted gun wounds, and will soon be placed on trial.

Reports from Memphis say the only reason the case has not been tried before this, is Mrs. Hall is still in a comparatively weak condition.

McClain, who formerly lived in the Fulton vicinity, and well known here, was killed last Thanksgiving night. He was found with his jugular vein slashed, an ax wound across his forehead and a pistol bullet through his brain. Mrs. Hall, who shot herself through the breast after writing letters describing the murder, was found on the floor beside him. She was later confined in the Shelby county jail, where she is today awaiting trial.

It is said that Sam O. Bates, her attorney, has not indicated what the defense will be. Mrs. Hall probably will claim she was forced to kill McClain, while the state of Tennessee will attempt to show that jealousy was the motive behind the crime.

MINUTE MEN OF FULTON

The Basket ball team that is being sponsored by the Independent Merchants of Fulton continue to sweep all teams from their path. They have played five games and have won them all by impressive scores. These young local boys are doing a great deal toward putting Fulton on the map in an advertising way, and they are also doing great service for the Independent Merchants who have helped build this town to what it is today.

Saturday night at the South Fulton Gym they will play the Swift Gating Company team of Fulton. The game will start at 8 o'clock. A good game will be played if only the Swift's players are as good as their products that they produce.

On Monday night at the Sci-

Wounded Chief Given Second Transfusion

A second blood transfusion, apparently successful, was given Bailey Huddleston, wounded chief of Fulton police, Monday at the Illinois Central hospital in an effort to save his life. Chief Huddleston has been in a critical condition from injury received at the hands of Roy Springer, tramp and escaped asylum inmate, whom he had arrested for the theft of a box of cigars from a Fulton store. The operation was performed by Dr. E. W. Jackson and Dr. P. H. Stewart and Fred Greenwood, machanic at the Illinois Central shops gave blood for the transfusion. Members of Chief Huddleston's family were with him. The first transfusion of blood was given immediately after he was taken to the hospital following the injury.

once Hall, the Fulton Minute Men will meet the strongest team that has ever been on the local floor. They will play the Bethel College team of McKenzie, Tenn. This is one of the best small college teams in Tennessee and the Minute Men will sure have to play good basket ball to win from them. It will not be Bethel's second team, it will be the best that Bethel has.

On Friday night, the 28th, the Minute Men will wind up their season at the Science Hall. They will meet the much talked of Union City Nite Riders that are undefeated this year and have played every good team in Tennessee. Now several basket ball fans have been asking for this team and now that we have a game with them on our local floor, there should be a large crowd out. The Nite Riders have played the Bethel College team and beat them so without reservation we will state they are the best team that has ever been in Fulton and they claim to be the best independent team in the state of Tennessee. Both the last two games mentioned will be at the science hall, game to start at 8 o'clock. Remember the dates, Monday, 24th and Friday, 28th.

Mr. R. S. Williams,
Fulton, Ky.
Dear Sir:

Many of my nearest and dearest loved ones rest in Fairview cemetery. I am glad to renew my subscription to your paper.

Yours sincerely,
Mrs. Jessie B. Bransford.

Times Have Changed

What Will The Aftermath Be?

Clarence Saunders, Chain Store Wizard, Pays His Respects to W. K. Henderson, Radio Wizard, Station KWKH, Shreveport, La.

Occupying the best part of a page advertisement in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Feb. 18, Clarence Saunders, of chain store fame, humorously pays his respects to W. K. Henderson who has devoted much of his time in recent months broadcasting from his Radio Station KWKH the reasons why the buying public should patronize home owned independent stores instead of chain stores dominated by Wall Street.

The article by Mr. Saunders in part, is as follows:
"Nobody but a fool and a man like Henderson of Radio Station KWKH and his apes of one-horse radio stations would try this kind of bunk on a thinking public, but it's a fact that that not all the people are that thick and reasoning kind and that's my reason for making these remarks."

"If the people want the red terror of Russia to clutch at the throats of the American public—if they want discord and misrepresentation to go unbridled in a mad fury against a fancied money octopus such as old man Henderson describes everybody to be that his slobbering mouth can reach—then let a demagogue like Henderson keep up his tirade and he'll have a multitude of recruits who will join in with him to tear down merely to get the money for their own pockets, while they profess falsely that they are the champions of the people for no profit to themselves."

"Old man Henderson's racket of arousing passions and prejudices is as old as the first man born who undertook to capitalize the ignorance of his fellow men for his own private gain."

"But Mr. Henderson is up-to-date in his method—he's using a powerful radio station—licensed by the federal government to use—a license he got without telling the government to what damnable uses he'd put it to—and after he gets it and is all set for his dirty besmirching of other people he says to hell with the government and anybody else that says nay to

"Old man Henderson says Wall street never sends back to the home town any of the money it collects from the home town."

"I'll bet a persimmon grown on my home place that this so-called champion of the people's rights against Wall Street will not pull as much as a slick penny out of his fat pocket and send it back to the good old home town where it came from to him."

"No! He'll spout his hot air instead and tell the poor misguided one who parted with his money that the sound of his voice is sufficient return for the money that left the home town to go and hide in the pocket of old man Henderson."

"And I say that you who send him money for his hot air ought not to get anything back but hot air, and hot air only will you get."

"I'm going to punch a lot more facts at you, old man Henderson, that will make you madder and madder, and the more madder you get the more foolish will you act."

"That there'll be no mistake as to who wrote this article, I Clarence Saunders, wrote every word of it and I live at Memphis, Tenn.—a short journey from Shreveport to Memphis or from Memphis to Shreveport."

HENDERSON'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Mr. Henderson was at his best Tuesday night and lost no time in telling Mr. Saunders a few things in his characteristic way over Radio Station KWKH. His remarks were sizzling hot and no doubt heard by thousands of interested radio fans.

NINETIETH BIRTHDAY PARTY

A thoroughly interesting and enjoyable event of the week was the birthday tea given Monday at the home of Mrs. Jack Hall on Park avenue, honoring the ninetieth anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Paralee Bard.

The spacious home was filled with beautiful flowers and potted plants, all gifts to the celebrant from her many admiring friends.

The table in the dining room was spread with a handsome lace cloth centered with the beautifully embossed yellow and white birthday cake, with its tiny 90 candles.

Yellow flowers in silver holders and dishes of confections completed the appointments. The charming granddaughters, Mrs. Pearl Bond, Mrs. Bert Smith and great grand daughter, Mrs. Cook Shaw, served tea, and were assisted by Mrs. Lewis Weiss, Mrs. Hendon Wright, Misses Bera Roberts, and Hazel Ridgeway.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. A. L. Martin welcomed the guests, while the honoree, Mrs. Bard, with Mrs. Ben Briggs, and Mrs. Jess Nichols, received in the living room.

Others assisting were Messdames Madge Granberry, W. B. Puckett, Eunice Robinson, C. A. Wright, Carl Croft, Jim Fields, Amos Colley and Walter Wright.

Little Miss Janice Puckett was in charge of the memory book. 69 guests called from 3 to 5 o'clock. Messages of good wishes from friends and relatives from various parts of the state, and numerous gifts were received by the honoree.

FORMER FULTON CITIZEN PASSES AWAY AT RAYMOND, MISS.

The sad news was received by relatives in Fulton several days ago announcing the death of Mr. Steve Hester last Friday at his home in Raymond, Miss.

Mr. Hester was formerly of Fulton, connected with R. N. Phipps in the jewelry business. He left here with his wife for California in search of health, but for some time had made his home in Raymond, Miss.

He was a good man and highly esteemed by a large acquaintance who sincerely sympathize with the bereaved widow and loved ones.

"CORPORAL EGAN" BRILLIANT SUCCESS

"Corporal Egan," comedy with minstrel, presented at Science Hall, sponsored by the local drum and bugle corps, Wednesday and Thursday night, was the best home talent production witnessed here in a long time. Each one played their parts to perfection, from the little tots to the grown-ups. Clarence Pickering and Louis Kasnow kept the audience in an uproar from start to finish. The directors are to be complimented. The production was a brilliant success. The large auditorium and gallery was filled with a well pleased audience. The drum and bugle corps is to be congratulated on the nice sum realized. Their efforts are indeed deserving.

TRINITY GUILD LUNCHEON

Adding pleasantly to the week's list of social affairs, the luncheon of rare beauty in ensemble and unusual in culinary excellence, was enjoyed by quite a large crowd, Wednesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Binford, on Eddings street, when the ladies of the Trinity Episcopal Guild sponsored a benefit luncheon.

The patriotic colors and emblems were featured in the decorations.

Tables placed in the living room and den for the guests were very attractive with pretty covers and George Washington napkins. Tiny hatchet were given as favors.

The ladies assisting Mrs. Binford in the hostess duties were: Mesdames Eugene DeMyer, Thos. Chapman, Rufus Barber, Mack Roach, Ralph Hornbeak, R. B. Beadles, M. B. Abernathy, Misses Phillips and Chapman.

Build a Foundation, Too.

There was a sign in a savings bank window the other day which said: "If you dream castles in the air, save and put a foundation under them."

Once there was a young man who had always dreamed of being wealthy. As a boy he pictured himself dressed in the height of fashion, snappy cut to his clothes and all that, walking down Main Street. People on the sidewalk would point him out, saying, "Yes, there's Sam Green, young fellow, but smart. Yes, sir, smart. Owns that big house on the hill, and has got a good pile salted down already. Must be worth $100,000."

So Sam, as an initial step toward wealth, saved and after a time reached his first goal, the $1,000 goal after which, 'tis said the money just grows.

But about this time Sam got a girl, and then he wanted to make a splurge. He wasn't going to take her into any little two by four house; he was going to have that house on the hill. So Sam began looking around for ways to help that $1,000 grow, and like many a thrifty, but too impatient young man, bought wildcat stock. And the $1,000 was gone and with it Sam's dream of the house on the hill and all the rest.

To return to the ad in the bank window, "If you dream castles in the air, save and put a foundation under them." But be sure that the foundation is a solid one

BLAMES GIRLS FOR DRINK

Catholic Young Women Told They Can Preserve Boys' Ideals.

New Orleans, Feb. 15—Modern girls are responsible for the heavy drinking done by the younger generation, a 20-year-old girl told some 1,800 young Catholic men and women attending the first convention of the sodalities of the Children of Mary ever held in the United States here tonight.

"If drinking were not tolerated by girls, drinking would not be as prevalent as it is today," Miss Claire Donlin, the speaker, told the convention delegates. She is a student at Holy Angels Academy of New Orleans.

"It is up to you girls," she continued, addressing the feminine part of the assemblage. "You alone can raise the standards of the boys with regard to drink; you alone can preserve their ideals. You can wield more influence than all the lecturers from all the older people in the world."

Three Negroes Captured in Hickman Robbery

Hickman, Ky., Feb. 17—The robbery of the Hickman postoffice and three local stores a few days ago was believed cleared up here tonight with the arrest of three negroes by Sheriff Coalder Johnson and Chief of Police A. S. Hamby. They were arrested as the result of a confession made in a St. Louis hospital by Eric Robinson, Hickman, who killed a detective in an East St. Louis railroad yard and was seriously wounded in the fight.

Postoffice Inspector Sides of Paducah, who went to St. Louis today, telephoned local officials that Robinson claimed he robbed the stores and that Aaron Green, one of the men held in jail here, robbed the postoffice, but Sheriff Johnson and Chief Hamby found one of the guns stolen from the postoffice in a pig pen at the home of Robinson's father here.

Much of the loot also was found in other places here. Chief Hamby announced. Robinson quit his job here the day before the robbery and left for Chicago the day after the robbery.

WELL KNOWN CITIZEN DEAD

Lon Gilbert passed away Monday night at 10 o'clock at his home on West State street. Death was due to an acute attack of influenza, following an illness of several days.

He was born April 18th, 1874 near Lynnville, Ky., being 55 years of age at his death. He had made his home in Fulton for the past 20 years, and had many friends who will grieve at his passing. He is survived by his aged mother, Mrs. France Shelby, one sister, Mrs. George Simpson of this city, and one brother, Walter Gilbert of Santa Pita, New Mexico, and a host of friends.

The funeral service was held in the First Christian church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in charge of Rev. Mr. Cloyd. The Fulton Undertaking company had charge of funeral arrangements.

POULTRY

(By J. T. Watkins))

The county agent was out to the Fulton High School and organized some 4-H clubs but he did not stress the chicken project enough to suit me. He got a few boys to sign up for poultry but I want some of the girls who attend the high school to go in for poultry raising. There are several girls attending "High" who live in the country and will make good 4-H poultry raisers.

This old world is not such a big place after all. Today I was agreeably surprised when I walked into the Van Noy for my dinner, by seeing Jerome Leland, one of the best poultry judges in the United States. It is conceded that he is the best Minorca judge. He was on his way to Los Angeles from Bloomington, Ill. I am sorry I couldn't have had him look over the flocks of Lon Jones, Dr. Luten and Sam Holt. He would have found some fine ones in these three flocks.

Last Friday was Valentine Day and I was lucky enough to get a comic. It pictured me laying up against a stump asleep while a snail was passing along the road. I knew I was slow but I didn't know I was that slow. Maybe so, any how, young lady, thanks.

I have had several poultry raisers come in and look over my brooder, have had some comments pro and con. This brooder can be made into one heated by a common kerosene lamp by fastening the stove to the bottom of the brooder instead of the top, and attaching a flue to carry away the oil fumes.

I was out to the Geyer Hatchery last week and they have recently installed a new Smith incubator of 52,000 egg capacity. They also have one of 12,000 capacity which they will use only for White Leghorns. There were about 10,000 baby chicks on the floor at once. I never saw so many at one time before.

Don't forget the big poultry meeting Feb. 25 in the county court room, Fulton. We will have Mr. Humphries of the State Experimental Station, here to give us some lectures on poultry. He is an expert and knows his chickens. Everything is free and we want everybody who are interested in poultry raising to be here.

This summer I am going to try to get a representative from every county in the Jackson Purchase and try to form one large poultry association to take in each county and each year have a large winter show in one of the cities in the purchase. I think this will be a good move and will insure one large winter show for western Kentucky that will boost poultry quite a lot. I would like the opinion of some of the poultry raisers and also some of the business men of Fulton, if they think a winter show that would bring at least 1,000 chickens under one roof, and at least 100 strangers into the city for, at least, four or five days.

There are several hundred poultry raisers in this county who should join the poultry association and help us boost poultry for all it is worth, but last year we had only 23 bonified poultry raisers who thought enough of our efforts to join up and help us. It only costs you $1.00 per year and it is a dollar well spent. We have quite a lot of little expenses connected with putting over this show that we don't feel like asking the Fair Association to assume and it is this membership money we use to defray the little incidentals. So unburden yourself to the tune of one dollar and we will put it to a very good use. Another thing, do not wait until the week of the fair to join. Almost all the expenses come before the fair and we need this money any time after we start our drive. So if you intend joining, do it NOW!

Paducah Machinist Takes Own Life.

O. A. Carlson, 49 years old, machinist at the Illinois Central railroad shops, shot and killed himself at his home, 1118 Jefferson street, Paducah, late Monday afternoon. Melancholia was ascribed by members of his family as the cause of his act.

Returning from his work at the shops, Mr. Carlson went upstairs into a hallway and shot himself through the heart. He used a double barreled shot gun. His family hearing the report of the gun, rushed upstairs, but he was dead when his son, Milton H. Carlson, reached his side. His wife and six children all were at home at the time.

COMFORT
is the new mode

GONE are the days "when grandma was a girl." No longer do we rise to find ice in the pitcher on winter mornings. Bathing does not depend on kettles of hot water from the old stove. Nor light upon kerosene oil lamps.

People's ideas about comfort have changed in the last few years. A house heated evenly and comfortably in winter, a bathroom or two, lots of hot water, light at the turn of a switch—these are in every home today.

Another item in the mode of comfort which is being more and more insistently demanded is—adequate telephones. Americans learned long ago that they couldn't get along without a telephone.

Not merely a telephone, but enough telephones. Not a single instrument, but extension telephones at convenient locations throughout the home—in the living room, in the kitchen, in the bedrooms—to afford the maximum of comfort and the greatest usefulness of this indispensable service.

Boosters Wanted

A town has no place for the knocker; a knocker is hardly a man without a country, but his country, his town, or his community has little use for him.

There are all kinds of boosters—as many as there are kinds of people. The thriving city is filled with boosters—boosters who so outnumber the knockers that their knocking does not count for much.

We like the boosters. Sometimes they are super-enthusiastic or, rather, over-enthusiastic is the better word. But they are always enthusiastic for their home town or the cause in which they are interested, and they are never to be found hanging around somewhere knocking this and knocking that. No, a booster is not built that way.

We must have these boosters; they are just as necessary to the successful enterprise as day light is to the earth.

Knockers are found everywhere just the same as the boosters, but, let us all be thankful for it, the boosters are always far away in the lead; usually, the knocker can be found in the rear, where it is safer for them, perhaps. They flock together, but even then they fail to make a crowd, as a rule.

But the greatest booster is he who converts the knocker into a booster—"makes him see the light"—so that both play the game as team-mates ever after.

A town has no place for the knocker—it matters not whether he knocks the town, its enterprises or its citizens. Show us a man who knocks his fellow-citizens and we will show you the poorest excuse for a citizen extant.

Man: Braggart

Man is an inconsistent animal at best. And he is a large bundle of boasting at all times. Associating the two traits men boast in one breath and call their fellows braggarts in the next. Though our dual standard of human appraisal will not permit of self-praise, the tradesman, the manufacturer and the auctioneer boast of the superiority of their wares and are not charged with complacency even by their competitors in business. Self-praise in individuals is not pardonable even of such individuals who can prove their boastful claims. The business man is never charged with braggadocio but he must make good his claims or bear the indelible stamp of the cheat and fraud. The boasts of men will always find them out.

Continuing the analysis this quality of boasting may be carried to communities, nations, fraternal orders, religions, racial distinctions, automobiles, horses, wives and so on down to pigs and whatnot. Boastful beings brag up their country, town, church, automobiles, and pigs and accuse the other fellow of prejudice and partisanship when he ventures to narrate the fine points of his country, political party and wife. "The faults that men condemn are there own."

There is an ancient fable which contemplates boasting in this manner:

A man walking with that noble animal, the lion, showed the lion in the ostentation of human superiority a sign of a man slaying a lion. Upon which the lion said very justly, we lions are none of us painters, else we could show a hundred men killed by lions for one lion killed by man.

Brieflets

Maybe Fulton women could endure a little more over the passing of winter if it didn't mean the arrival of house-cleaning time.

The dogs have rabies, rabbits have tularemia, parrots have psittacosis, and we'll bet a nickel the goldfish and canaries will be to blame yet for something.

Another thing we are sure of is that if there were an East and West pole Admiral Byrd would fly over them.

Our idea of the world's greatest optimist is the Fulton boy who still thinks that two can live as cheaply as one.

To a hungry husband coming home after a hard day's work a lettuce sandwich looks about as much like something to eat as the hole in a doughnut does.

The air industry rejoices because life insurance will be good if you fall. What we want is insurance that there won't be any falling.

It's a hard world, and many a Fulton lad is considered dumb simply because his dad has forgotten all about arithmetic.

If the next war is conducted by machines we suppose some fellow will invent one to be used in scratching cooties.

Daughter no longer pulls at her skirt to cover her knees, but her hands keep in practice. She can still pull dad's leg.

We've also noticed that by the time a Fulton girl is old enough to make a good wife she's too old to be impressed with the kind of men she knows.

A good memory is the greatest of blessings. For instance, age would seem sweet if you could remember what a fool you were at 20.

Cussing is a silly waste of effort. Just notice how little effect it has on the weather.

The Fulton man who knows all about women should forget it if he values his own peace of mind.

The difference between a modern couple and the Siamese Twins is that nothing is easier than separating a modern couple.

There is no danger nowadays that a girl will catch on fire from an open grate, but there is danger that she may get suddenly chilled if she gets near the Frigidaire.

Many a Fulton man would be better off if he asked his neighbors to forgive him instead of the Lord.

Protecting a man while he frisks others in Chicago is called "racketeering." In Washington it is called tariff making.

OUR MESSAGE OF SERVICE

There is going to be a lot of activity in the building line this year. Architects and contractors, carpenters and masons all, are busily sharpening up their pencils and their tools, and getting set for business. It is not the young married folks alone who are going to build homes—who dream dreams of happiness in homes of their own—but many others who have long, too long, been renting the roofs over their heads are going to try this year to realize their desire to have a home of their own.

Whatever you plan to do by way of
BUILDING — REMODELING
REPAIRING

we want you to feel perfectly free to come in and consult our service department without the slightest obligation. Whether it's a big house or a bungalow, a new garage, new roof or new floor, a sun parlor or a sleeping porch, an alley fence, or built-in fixtures—we are prepared to give you unequalled service and low prices on Quality Material.

LET US HELP YOU MAKE YOUR DREAMS COME TRUE.

DAD JAILED, FAMOUS GALLION BOYS SOUGHT IN FOWL THEFTS

Martin, Tenn., Feb. 15. — Ernest Gallion, Sr., farmer, living near Paris in Henry county, 35 miles from here, who has spent most of the past seven or eight years interceding for his four sons who earned for themselves the title of "Jesse James of the South," today occupied a cell for the first time and his sons are once more fugitives.

The boys once were accused of the $75,000 postoffice robbery at Mayfield, Ky., in 1923; one of them, Ernest, was convicted in Leflore County, Miss., for bootlegging and served time in the Atlanta federal pen for transporting stolen property; Sam, Carl and Ethridge Gallion, his three brothers, figured in other sensational cases.

Father Now Accused
But now they face the ignominious charge of chicken stealing and the elder Gallion, who has been regarded as a highly respectable citizen, is accused by Sheriff R. P. Mayo, of Weakley county, of being a confederate in the theft of 52 blooded and highly prized fowls from the junior college of the University of Tennessee here.

Gallion, Sr., was arrested on the streets of Dresden this afternoon by Sheriff Mayo, who immediately started a search for the boys, whose whereabouts are a complete mystery. They have been seen in the vicinity of their home in recent weeks and Sheriff Mayo believes they were the leaders of the thieves who looted the henery of the junior college.

The college theft occurred early last Thursday morning. The chickens were highly prized Barred Rocks and Wyandottes, some being valued at $25 each. Notice was sent out to all police officers in West Tennessee and through WMC radio station in Memphis. Friday morning Sheriff Wiggins, of Paris, notified Dean C. P. Claxton that he had found chickens in shops at Paris which met the description given through the notice.

Gallions Are Accused
Mr. Claxton immediately went to Paris and merchants informed him that the Gallion boys had sold them the chickens. The chickens had been dressed but the wing and leg bands identified them.

Officers went to the Gallion farm near Paris this morning and found great piles of feathers and found some leg and wing bands from the chickens which had been stolen. The officers further charged that the father of the famous Gallion boys had engaged the chickens early last week and delivery was to be made later.

People of this entire section have been complaining on account of much thievery lately.
