FARMERS TO MEET AT PRINCETON 23RD

Farmers in this part of the state have been invited to attend the eighth annual short course at the Western Kentucky Experiment Station at Princeton, Feb. 23-24.

Many subjects of special interest in this part of the state will be discussed, including tobacco growing, cattle feeding, the growing of grass and clover, the use of limestone and phosphate, straw berry growing, orchard management, control of fruit diseases, and the outlook for this year.

Among the speakers will be Ben Kilgore, executive secretary of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation; Dean Thomas P. Cooper of the College of Agriculture at Lexington; O. M. Farrington, state executive officer of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration; S. J. Lowry, superintendent of the Experiment Sub-station at Princeton, and several members of the faculty of the College of Agriculture and Experiment Station.

S. V. Foy Succeeds Williams As Agent

S. V. Foy, who has ably served as assistant Fulton county farm agent, has been named to succeed J. B. Williams as agent. Mr. Williams recently resigned to accept a position in another locality. In a statement issued this week Mr. Foy states:

"I regret very much that Mr. Williams has left us, but as he has resigned due to his own wishes, I am glad to have gained the confidence of the people of Fulton county to the extent that they feel I can make them a county agent. Many farmers have expressed their interest in my appointment and I wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the people. I have one motive in mind and that is to do my best to render a service to the county that will be beneficial as well as satisfactory to all.

"I want you to feel free to call at my office any time you feel that I can assist you in any way. I am placed in the county to work with rural problems, but unless I have your co-operation, I will be unable to render the desired service.

"I wish to announce the appointment of J. Homer Miller as assistant county agent and to enlist your cooperation with Mr. Miller in the efforts he will put forth in his line of duty. He comes to us well prepared and with your assistance will be an invaluable aid in our work. Mr. Miller is a former resident of Calloway county."

We feel confident that they can appreciate the values offered in our new spring line which is arriving daily."

Youths Hold Up Riceville Station

Two young men walked into the Standard Service Station in Riceville, suburb of Fulton, about 4:30 a. m. INTERESTS GROWS IN ATHLETIC CLUB HERE

Interest continues to grow in the Fulton Athletic Club, sponsored by the American Legion under the management of Bobby Matthews, former mid-south middleweight champion. Twenty-one youths of this section have registered, and eleven of that number reported for training and work-outs Wednesday of this week.

This club is being operated solely for amateur boxers, and any body desiring to learn the ring game should report to Bobby Matthews or the sports department of The News.

Neil Looney, who participated in the Tri-State Tournament two years ago at Paducah, as well as Jack Davania, for Tri-State star, worked out several rounds Wednesday. These boys looked good, and can sling leather with either hand.

Harry Freeman, a local 155 pounder, showed up well, and he has a first-class left. With proper handling and development he should prove tough competition.

Bill Hogue, an ex-navy heavyweight, was on hand, and is looking for some one in his division to give him a real workout.

Herschel Matheny, a young welterweight, seems to be one of the outstanding prospects to show up at the local club to date. He is a natural counter-puncher and should develop into a real fighter with proper training.

R. C. Ware, an experienced light heavyweight colored fighter, and "Eight Ball" Beal, a comic kid fighter, both colored boys, worked out this week at the gym.

Four youths of the Cayce community signed up this week: Robert Adams, 19; Ober Lee Burns, 19; James H. Owens, 19; Jerry Johnson, 21. It is expected that Curly Joe Frank, Weakley county champion, will join the local club, and Odell Sharon, 150-pounder of near Latham, Tenn.

Millard Luther, who was beaten by Walter Pryor, the Tri-State finalist several weeks ago at Paducah, worked out this week. This boy should go forward with the right training and coaching.

Plans are being made now for staging weekly fights to give the boys experience, these shows to be held each Friday night. As soon as arrangements have been completed announcement will be made of the matches.

KITTY PRESIDENTS MET AT PADUCAH

Presidents of the various Kitty League clubs met Sunday at the Irvin Cobb Hotel in Paducah, when a 126-game season was adopted. A schedule is being prepared this week by Hugh Wise, manager of the Owensboro team, and will be submitted to officials for their approval by mail. Until a schedule has been approved, the exact opening date is unknown, but the 1939 season will close on Labor Day, September 4, according to K. P. Dalton, president of the Fulton Baseball Association.

Bowling Green was unanimously accepted by the league members to replace Lexington, Tenn., whose franchise the former has purchased. Mr. Richardson of Bowling Green represented his club, and stated that Rip Fanning of Lexington will remain as manager. No connection will be sought with a major league, and plans are being made for night baseball at the Bowling Green park.

The Shaughnessy play-off system was adopted, with Hopkinsville being the only dissenting vote. The class rule was retained, providing that not more than three players having experience in leagues of higher classification than D, may be used by each club.

It was decided that 18 men may be listed for the first twenty days, then the player limit shall be fifteen, with a salary limit of $1,075 to be maintained. The gate guarantee was raised from $40 to $50 per game.

Kitty League clubs will be linked with the following teams this season: Paducah with Brooklyn, Mayfield with the St. Louis Browns, Union City with the St. Louis Cardinals, Hopkinsville with Milwaukee, Owensboro with the Boston Bees, Fulton with the Detroit Tigers, while Jackson and Bowling Green will operate independently.

Clardie Holland Will Be In Fulton Feb. 28

February 28 ends the grace period for obtaining new licenses for motor cars and trucks. C. N. Holland, Fulton county clerk, will be at the office of Fall & Fall in Fulton to serve motorists. Everyone is urged to apply, who have not already done so.

Some drivers feel that their ability to get out of a tight spot is a demonstration of skill. They drive recklessly, heedless of traffic rules, feeling secure in the knowledge that they know how to handle a car.

A driver may get a thrill from getting out of a tight spot by quick and expert handling of his car, but he should not boast about it or get "cocky," because a good driver rarely gets into a tight spot. He is always careful on the approach to intersections, schools, crossroads, and other places where there is a possibility of his meeting other drivers.

The anticipation of an accident at these spots is the practice of all good drivers.

It's smart to drive carefully.

MORE TIRE MILEAGE—GREATER SAFETY
NEON EYE SOLVES PROBLEM THAT HAS VEXED ALL MOTORISTS!

From 50 miles an hour up, does your car handle as easily as at lower speeds? Or, do you unconsciously tighten your grip on the steering wheel and your nerves become more tense? At those higher speeds does your car tramp, shimmy or jiggle?

Unbalanced wheels are the cause! Now the new BEAR DY-NAM-IC Wheel Balancer solves the problem by not only balancing the wheels statically, but also dynamically with the NEON EYE. On this machine each wheel is revolved at high speed and the NEON EYE positively detects every spot on the wheel which is out of balance!

Unbalanced wheels are dangerous to safety—cause tires to wear out 20-50% quicker. That's why we now offer car owners this latest service, Bear Dy-nam-ic Wheel Balancing—it's MORE PROOF that—

"Jesse James" Announced As Epic of A Lawless Era, Greatest Of Zanuck Hits

The most romantic outlaw in the history of America, the desperado whose daring colored a whole era and endowed it with the title of the "Serious Seventies"—the man who invented bank holdups and introduced train robberies—has been brought to the screen at last in Darryl F. Zanuck's production, "Jesse James," the 20th Century-Fox Technicolor epic, starring Tyrone Power, Henry Fonda, Nancy Kelly and Randolph Scott, which opens at the Fulton Theatre on Sunday.

One of the most difficult problems facing producer Darryl F. Zanuck, who had already shown his good judgment by casting Tyrone Power in the title role, was to ascertain a fairly accurate picture of what Jesse James was really like, and then to present that picture with as much authenticity as possible, taking care neither to whitewash nor blacken the character of the man.

Two years of research into the life and times of this fascinating character before the actual production of the film was begun.

Henry King, the distinguished director of such Zanuck hits as "Lloyds of London," "In Old Chicago" and "Alexander's Ragtime Band," was entrusted with the megaphone, and made a trip into the Ozark region to select actual locales. The little town of Pineville, Missouri, was finally chosen, and it was here that a vast company, including, besides Power, Fonda, Miss Kelly and Scott, Henry Hull, Slim Summerville, J. Edward Bromberg, Brian Donlevy, John Carradine, Donald Meek, John Russell and Jane Darwell, traveled to shoot this gripping photoplay.

Nunnally Johnson, the author of some of the screen's greatest successes, was selected to weld this colorful mass of story material into a screen play that throbbled with life. Johnson also acted as associate producer on the production.

"Jesse James" opens with the introduction of the "Iron Horse" in its journey through the old West, cutting ruthlessly across the farms of the simple, hardy pioneers.

It shows how Jesse James and his equally notorious brother, Frank (Henry Fonda), began their career of crime as a direct result of the murder of their mother by an unscrupulous hireling of the St. Louis Midland railroad, in the person of one Barshee, played by Brian Donlevy.

Jesse shoots Barshee and swears to avenge his mother's death. A murderer with an ever-increasing price on his head, he goes from raid to raid.

Love comes to Jesse in the person of Zerelda, better known as Zee, played by Nancy Kelly, a gently nurtured girl who gave up a life of ease to share the wild, reckless life of this hunted outlaw as his wife, and to bear his son alone in the hills.

When Zee finally leaves him, Jesse becomes a cold and ruthless desperado, and the film follows his reckless deeds across five states, climaxing in his betrayal and death at the hands of Bob Ford, the "dirty little coward" of song and story, who sold him out to the law.

Perhaps the best picture of this good bad man is contained in the words of the mayor of his home town of Sedalia, uttered months after Jesse James had died in the arms of his beloved bride.

The occasion was the dedication of an abbey on the old James farm. "Jesse was an outlaw, a bandit, a criminal," said the Mayor, "but we aren't ashamed of him. Maybe it's because we understand a little that he wasn't to blame for what his times made him. All I know is, he was the doggedest, dadblamedest buckaroo that ever rode across the United States of America!"

Trade Continues On Par With Last Year

The opening week in February was marked by no decided changes from the recent fairly satisfactory pace maintained by business, according to reports to the Department of Commerce from 36 key cities, just received by the Louisville District Office. Sentiment was moderately encouraging and prospects for the early Spring months reasonably favorable. Retail trade in most sections continued on a par or slightly ahead of last year's comparative; and wholesale business was again favorably influenced by various trade shows. Industrial activity indicated no definite variation, though in some sections there were individual evidences of expansion. Agriculture continued to be one of the less satisfactory elements in the general picture. Reports from some of the larger cities disclosed unfavorable retail comparisons, in contrast with conditions in other sections of the country, notably New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Cincinnati, where the decreases were attributed chiefly to adverse weather conditions. Wholesale trade generally ran slightly ahead of retail, and though evi-

AMERICAN BOY MAGAZINE COMPANION TO THOUSANDS

Hundreds of thousands of boys and young men read THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine every month and consider it more as a living companion than as a magazine.

"It's as much a buddy to me as my neighborhood chum," writes one high school senior. "THE AMERICAN BOY seems to understand a boy's problems and considers them in such a sympathetic and helpful way. It gives advice and entertaining reading on every subject in which a young fellow is interested. It is particularly helpful in sports. I made our school basketball team because of playing tips I read in THE AMERICAN BOY."

Many famous athletes in all sports credit much of their success to helpful suggestions received from sports articles carried in THE AMERICAN BOY Magazine. Virtually every issue offers advice from a famous coach or player. Football, basketball, track, tennis, in fact every major sport is covered in fiction and fact articles.

Teachers, librarians, parents and leaders of boys clubs also recommend THE AMERICAN BOY enthusiastically. They have found that as a general rule regular readers of THE AMERICAN BOY advance more rapidly and develop more worthwhile characteristics than do boys who do not read it.

Trained writers and artists, famous coaches and athletes, explorers, scientists and men successful in business and industry join with an experienced staff to produce in THE AMERICAN BOY, the sort of reading matter boys like best.

THE AMERICAN BOY sells on most newsstands at 15c a copy. Subscription prices are $1.50 for one year or $3.00 for three years. Foreign rates 50c a year extra. To subscribe simply send your name, address and remittance direct to THE AMERICAN BOY, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Mich.

lences of cautious buying were noted, in some centers there was an increased demand for higher priced and luxury items.

Louisville reported that after extensive clearance sales, retail trade settled down to a level about even with last year. Men's furnishings, however, moved slowly and volume was below the 1933 level. In wholesale divisions, orders for dry goods, notions and electrical appliances were about the same as last year. Little change was noted in industrial activity.

Many roads blocked and train service suspended in some areas because of high waters; 30 counties in Eastern Kentucky hard hit by "flash" flood waters, most damage being in mountainous section. Kentucky River valley property loss from flood estimated at $5,000,000.

Louisville bank clearings increased 3.3 per cent over last year.

HOG FEEDING ECONOMY

In recent years the scientific feeding of livestock has become increasingly important in farm production costs, and it is encouraging to observe that the Bureau of Agriculture in its annual outlook report says that farm production expenses in 1939 will be somewhat lower than last year.

Among hog feeders there has been a steadily broadening use of soybean oil meal, America's new high protein feed ingredient. More thorough experimental work on this product has been done by colleges and experiment stations during the last few years than upon any new feed ingredient in history. It has proved its value for all classes of livestock, and poultry wherever tried, and due to its palatability and high digestibility it has been used to the feeder's financial advantage.

Hog feeders and breeders were among the first to recognize the value of soybean oil meal. This is perhaps partly due to the fact that the beans are grown and the meal processed in near proximity to the hog growing sections of the country. The feeding of oil meal is also favored because it does not produce soft pork, which results from the feeding of whole soybeans. This point can not be too strongly emphasized, and it should constantly be kept in mind.

One of the country's leading hog feeders recently referred to soybean oil meal as "the hog feeder's friend." Besides, it has helped to create a new major cash crop for the American farmer.

SHOW YO' RAISIN'

The best sermon I ever heard was not intended as such, but, by accident, it was given by a preacher, to be more exact, a colored preacher, some forty years ago. It was summer in the Fidelity neighborhood. For weeks a protracted meeting had been going on at Mt. Zion, where the numerous Negroes that worked in Marse Jeffy's tobacco factory and the other farm hands belonged. Several visiting preachers aided the regular pastor, and some thirty-six additions to the church rewarded their efforts. Since Mt. Zion is true to its name and stands on a high, dry hill, it was necessary to bring the converts to the creek in our neighborhood for the baptizing. All the colored people for miles around and fully as many white people were there, the colored ones on the side where there was a sandbar and hence easy access to the water, the whites on the steep bank among the trees. Just why all the white people went I cannot recall, for it was not often that so many would steal away to Negro meetings.

Since so many converts were to be baptised, it took some planning, in order not to rush things but still give dignity to the whole event. One preacher stood in the middle of the creek and performed the rites, another stood half-way to the sandbar, and another stood at the edge of the water to pass the candidates for baptism in and out. Massed on the sandbar stood the others, led in song by Bill Palmer, a local preacher and exhorter. Bill would line the hymns in the old fashion, often inserting lines of his own coining. For example, when a particularly large girl gave a shout just as she reached the sandbar and fell with a flop, Bill appropriately intoned, "And heal my broken bones." Sounds of suppressed laughter came from the steep bank, laughter reproved by glances from the older people. Curt, the colored boy who worked on the farm next to ours, pretended to be afraid of the water, in spite of the fact that he had been in a-washing in that hole every day since early spring. He apparently tried to climb preacher. Actual laughing broke out at this, but the singing and shouting continued unchecked. One funny thing followed another until the whole group of white people, young and old, were actually laughing without any restraint. Then came the sermon. The preacher out in the middle of the stream held up a long, bony finger and in the deep-voiced tones of one of the major prophets said, "Show yo' raisin', white folks; show yo' raisin'."

And then the noise on that bank subsided. If there had been anything to drop a pin on, one could have heard it. The people on the other bank, unruffled by the rudeness of the visitors, kept on their way, singing, moaning, shouting, gesticulating, clapping their hands, until all the thirty-six candidates had been properly inducted into the rites of the church. From then on we who were there have remembered the unexpected sermon of the colored preacher, a sermon that I have wanted to hear many times when so-called superiority is acting in a very inferior way. I have repeated Brother Blanton's sermon to hundreds of highly-favored students in college, hoping that the stinging words might find lodgment and make a part of the impression that we of old Fidelity experienced on that summer day in the woods by the creek.

February 17 To Be Temperance Day

Solution of ancient social problems through research and education in the effects of narcotics on human beings is the goal which will be before women of Kentucky during national. Frances E. Willard week, Feb. 17 to 24.

Four years ago the Kentucky Woman's Christian Temperance Union set $9,000 as its quota toward a national million-dollar Scientific Temperance Education fund to be used exclusively on research into scientific facts concerning narcotics and on widespread distribution of these facts to the public.

The Kentucky union now is over the halfway mark, having totaled $5,350.50 or 59 per cent of its quota. Mrs. Lucie Day Pickett of Wilmore, state president, hopes to see much of the remainder pledged during Willard week.

February 17 is observed annually by W. C. T. U. members as Temperance day, marking the death of Miss Willard in 1905. As 1939 is being observed internationally as the Centenary of Miss Willard's birth, the week's observance are to commemorate her work.

Beginning with statewide luncheon or time on Friday, Feb. 17, observances are expected to continue throughout the week. Many Protestant ministers will preach of Miss Willard or devote their entire sermon to her on Sunday, Feb. 19.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Mind" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, February 19.

The Golden Text is: "Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous." (1 Peter 3:8.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 2:5.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Having no other gods, turning to no other but the one perfect Mind to guide him, man is the likeness of God, pure and eternal, having that Mind which was also in Christ." (p. 467.)

LOCATING ROOF LEAKS

Just as every automobile eventually needs repairing so will every roof eventually leak. Many leaks can be prevented, however, by the exercise of a little foresight. Typical roof danger signals are: missing shingles; warped, curled or split shingles; choked gutters and downspouts; damaged flashings and defective mortar joints of chimneys, parapets and copings. Such defects demand immediate attention.

If a roof does leak, the drip may not occur directly under the actual leak, particularly on a sloping roof. When investigating, first check all of the above points that fall in a line running from the drip to the ridge, paying particular attention to valley flashings, flashing around vent pipes, dormers and chimneys. A deep accumulation of melting snow in a roof valley or against a chimney may overflow the flashing and cause a leak.

•READ - REMEMBER

The primary pin, so commonly used today, were once an expensive that only the wealthy people could afford them. The term "pin money" dates from that time, referring to the allowance a husband gave his wife to purchase pins.

The highest and the lowest places in the United States are both in California, and only eighty-six miles apart. Mr. Whitbey is 14,496 feet above sea level; Death Valley is 276 feet below sea level.

It has been estimated that in a day the average farmer walks 26 miles, a letter carrier 22, policeman 14, boys 15, girls eleven and half and housewives eight.

SCHOOL NEWS

Fulton High

As an innovation for a future chapel program, a spelling match will be held at that hour. The students in each of the eight home rooms have selected five persons to represent them in the match and a battle of wits is assured. This plan has met with much enthusiasm from the students as no definite time has ever been devoted to spelling and the practice is needed by all.

Arlington has been selected as the place for the First District Tournament. The first games will be played on the night of February 27 and the finals will be held on March 4. Fulton drew a bye and its first opponent will be the winner of the Columbus-Cayce affair. This encounter will come on Thursday night, March 2.

In the most thrilling game of the season, the Bulldogs broke the glory line when they defeated the South Fulton Red Devils 41 to 39 in an overtime period. At first it looked like an easy win for the Bulldogs, but when the South Fulton team added Sam Omar to its line up, the Bulldogs had a struggle to keep up with the rapid pace that the Tennessee boys set. With the regular time ending with a 39-39 tie, both teams entered the extra period determined to get the extra goal necessary to win the game by any way possible. Looney, however, was the first successful shooter. Omar and Batts led the scoring with 17 and 16 points respectively.

Line-up:
FULTON Pos. S. FULTON
McAllister (6) G. McKinney
Batts (16) G. Frankum (12)
Brady (5) C. Edwards (2)
Thomas (9) F. Frazier (7)
Williams (1) F. Faulkner (1)
Substitutions—For Fulton: Burton, Dalton, Laine, and Looney (4).
For South Fulton: Omar (17).

South Fulton
Miss McFee, state PTA officer from Martin, is meeting the members of the PTA and visitors from the Kentucky school in weekly classes. The topic is "The Child and Its Needs." This class which meets each Wednesday in the Home Economics room is sponsored by the local PTA.

The South Fulton Red Devils lost to the Fulton High Bulldogs Friday night in an overtime play-off by two points—a score of 41-39. South Fulton's team was fortunate in having Omar back in the line-up. However, the regular center, Allen, was out because of illness.

The South Fulton Angels won a game over an alumni team by a score of 19-8. The alumni line-up was: Scott and Bell, forwards; Gafford and Williams, guards; Terrell and F. Pickle, centers. Substitutes: S. Pickle and H. Moore.

The second team defeated the Fulton second team by a score of 16-13.

Kathleen Harwood, a senior and center on the basketball team, was crowned "Queen of Basketball" at the Fulton High-South Fulton game, Friday night. Her attendant was Edna Earle Midyett as maid of honor, and the court consisted of the losing candidates, Charlene Sanford, Opal Lancaster, Elizabeth Valentine, and Alice Allen, with the cheerleaders and players of both the boys and girls team. The queen was escorted in by the captain of the boys' team, Harold Frankum, and the maid of honor by Tommy Edwards. The pages were Barbara Ann Roberts and Gene McKinney.

To continue the basketball interviews, we give the following:

MARGAREE TERRELL Number 33

Margaree Terrell, a senior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Terrell of Route 5. She started playing basketball in the seventh grade. She has played the position of forward, center, and guard. She came here as a Junior from Welch and played center on the 1937-38 team and plays forward on this year's squad. She has 113 points to her credit in 18 games. Basketball to her is the "best sport out" and "men are something we just can't do without." Margaree plans to continue her business course after graduation.

CARRIE LEE REED Number 11

Carrie Lee Reed, a Junior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reed of 202 Bates Street. Carrie Lee is substitute to the first team at guard position this year. She has played ball only two years and has occupied both guard and center positions. Carrie Lee thinks that basketball makes school more enjoyable, and she would like to attend college and take an active part in athletics. "As for men," said Carrie Lee, "you can't get along with 'em or without 'em."

JAMES MCKINNEY Number 11

James McKinney, a Sophomore, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McKinney of Route 1. He has always attended school at South Fulton and has been playing basketball for about two years. He has played forward and guard, but this year is a first team forward. James likes basketball better than any other game but is not so sure about women—"some are alright and some are not."

Bronchial Coughs Need Creomulsion

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling germ-laden phlegm. The Medical Profession has for generations recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Creosote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Creosote with other ingredients so that now in Creomulsion you get a good dose of genuine Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and may be taken frequently by both adults and children. Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles due to common colds hang on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund your money. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)
