Encouraged by one of the prettiest general election days in history, spurred by the prize money offered schools and determined to give Democracy a chance to govern Kentucky in the hope of bettering conditions, Calloway county voters thronged the polls in Tuesday's election in record-breaking numbers.

A total of 6,261 ballots were polled in the 22 voting precincts of the county, everyone of them with a single exception showing a material increase over four years ago and some precincts polling twice as many votes as in the 1927 governor's race.

Judge Ruby Laffoon carried the county by a majority of 4,371 over his opponent, Mayor William B. Harrison, of Louisville, a record majority. The Democrats polled 5,266 votes, an increase of 1,759 over the 3,507 given Beckham in 1927 while the Republicans dropped 895 votes in the box for Harrison, 134 less than they gave Sampson four years ago.

The Republicans failed to carry a single precinct. North Brinkley, which gave Sampson a majority of nine in 1927 gave the same majority to Laffoon Tuesday.

Tobacco Growers of Calloway

Do you remember when the tobacco market opened last year you got almost nothing for your tobacco, but had to take just what was offered you, as there was nothing else you could do? That many of you cried like a whipped child when your tobacco was weighed, the floor charges paid and you did not have half enough money left to pay the expenses of growing that crop of tobacco?

That you drove home to carry the story to your wives and children that your tobacco crop brought almost nothing and that it was impossible for you to buy for them the few comforts and bare necessities of life that they had a right to expect?

That more than two hundred and forty places, principally little homes, were advertised for sale for taxes in April of this year in your county paper by the sheriff because you realized so little for your tobacco last year?

That the unprecedented hardships of 1931 were brought upon you largely because of the ruinous prices received for your main money crop, tobacco?

That if opportunity presented you would pool your interest with your fellow tobacco growers to establish a more orderly system of marketing your tobacco?

NOW, do you know:

That a direct appeal was made to the Federal Farm Board for a relief of the situation?

That a survey was made of the conditions by the Federal Farm board who wrote the contract for the organization of farmers into a co-operative marketing association for the sale of their tobacco?

That the Federal Farm board has five hundred millions of dollars in its hands as a revolving fund for the relief of farmers if they organize themselves into marketing associations, but not one dollar can be furnished them by this board until they organize?

That it is believed that the advance on this present crop of tobacco to the farmer when organized will be more than he was able to sell for without an organization?

Mayor Harrison fell far below Republican expectations in the fifth congressional district, composed of Louisville and Jefferson county, and Wednesday night with 76 of the 633 precincts counted had a lead of only 1,299.

To overcome Judge Laffoon's lead the Republicans faced the difficult task of offsetting 1,566 precincts and an accumulated majority of 40,000 with 1935 Republican precincts.

Far Ahead in Sixth
There was positive joy for the Democrats in the Sixth, which looked like a record Democratic vote. With 80 of 310 precincts in the Sixth counted, the vote stood Laffoon 11,066 and Harrison 4,290, or a Democratic majority of 6,776, and 230 precincts yet to be counted.

The Seventh, with less than half the precincts counted had a Democratic lead of nearly 10,000. The vote was Laffoon 20,146 and Harrison 10,449, or a Democratic majority of 9,697.

Finney Appeals to Leaf Growers

That unless we organize and do it quickly we must necessarily go back to the marketing conditions of last year where the farmer has very little to say about the price of his tobacco?

That when this season's market opens with hundreds and maybe thousands of loads of tobacco rushed in at once the market is likely to be even worse demoralized than it was last year?

That it will then be too late to remedy the matter by organization for the sale of this crop?

That the markets in Georgia, the Carolinas and the Virginias have been more ruinous than those of previous years?

That your organization committees have done all in their power to bring about an association for the immediate relief in handling this crop of tobacco, and that without Federal or State aid except the services of men sent to help in the organization?

That it has been quite a burden, financial and otherwise, on your committees to carry the work of organization on?

That each farmer should get in touch with some organization worker, sign the association contract and become a worker at once himself for the organization?

That millions were made last year by the giant tobacco corporations which can be saved to the farmers this time if they organize, but which they must expect to lose as before if they remain unorganized?

The time is short, the emergency great, and the laborers too few to win this time unless you farmers join in the move at once, sign the contract and carry one to your neighbor.

Persons who have not had an opportunity to sign a contract in Calhoun county should get in touch with Senator Turner, county chairman, Delton Furdon, county secretary, W. H. Finney, district chairman, at Murray, or some of the workers throughout the county.

The Federal Farm board sponsors the move, state extension men favor it, your organization committees endorse it, business and professional men heartily approve of the organization as the only hope for orderly disposition of this crop of tobacco for a fair price.

Will you sign? Will you help? And will you do it quickly, for we must know in a very short time how we are to handle this crop.

Yours for co-operative marketing.—W. H. Finney, Chairman of Organization Committee of the Western Dark Fired Tobacco Growers Association.

Thirty-nine Fayette county farm women attended the annual homemakers' camp. One was 78 years old.

MURRAY HIGH TIES FULTON ELEVEN 6-6

Henderson of Fulton Scores in 13 Minutes of Play; Tigers Tally in Third Period.

After being doped to lose to the Fulton Bull Dogs 14-0, on account of their offensive ability, the Murray High School warriors evened the count of the visitors, 6-6, last Friday afternoon. Henderson, Fulton's offensive flash, scored in 13 minutes of play on a series of line plunges and end plays. Dick Martin, Tiger halfback, carried the oval over early in the third period after starting a steady push from mid-field.

Although Fulton holds tenth position in Little Sixteen standings, she has shown a nice fence that has enabled her to score in even conference game played to date, being the only eleven to cross the Blue Tornado's line.

The tilt last Friday proved to be a exciting tussle with both teams showing a good brand of ball. The scoring arc of Fulton was held down after his first marker and never seriously threatened to score during rest of the game.

Murray fans were delighted to see the locals come back after the half in a scoring mood. Dick Martin, who has been showing up extremely well in daily scrimmages, but seemingly to fall short of his ability in games, awoke to his possibilities and played as neat a game as has been seen on the local field this year. His line plunging great but his uncanny ability to gain from end and out-of-the-smashes was outstanding.

James Duguid, backing up the line for the Tigers, showed great strength at his new position and met the line punches nicely. He also plugged consistently through the line for short gains.

V. Wells, although not passing and running up to his standard, kept the half deep in his own territory with his excellent booting. He consistently out-punted the Fulton kicker.

The catching of passes by D. Perkins, Murray end, was the out-standing feature of the day.

For the visitors, the Binkley brothers showed great defensive powers in the line and were main factors in keeping down the Murray score.

Vacant chicken houses, cow sheds and other buildings in Breathitt county were used to store the tobacco crop, which here is the largest in the history of the county.

SPECIAL TRAIN WILL BE RUN FOR MIAMI TEAM

As this paper goes to press it is understood that a special train will be run for the Murray-Miami game which will be played on Keller Field, Paducah, on November 11.

Murray Tigers to Meet Dawson Team

On Friday afternoon, November 6, Coach Huland's Tigers will journey to Dawson Springs to meet O. B. Springer's eleven. According to the old "dope container" the Tigers are due to fetch home the bacon. The Dawson lads have not won a Conference game this year.

"Ty" will leave early in the morning with 16 players to pay the "Spring" boys a visit.

College Colts Invade Fulton Team Friday

The Murray State College Training School Colts will meet Fulton's "B" team Friday afternoon on Fulton ground. The Training School playing its first football in three years, easily defeated Mayfield's "B" team 20-0 and are expected to win over the Fulton aggregation.

Holloway, halfback for the Colts, seems to be the main-cog and is showing nice ability in adding yardage. Crawford, fullback, has an educated toe and will give the Fulton warriors a hard way to go.

Arrangements are being made for the Colts to play the Murray High School "B" team, which is better known as "Sanford's Mindie Men", next Friday afternoon on the High School Athletic Field.

Guerrillas Lead W. K. C. With One Tilt

The Morganfield Guerrillas are heading the Western Kentucky Conference, having won one more game than the Blue Tornado of Paducah.

The Morganfield record is as follows: won six, lost none; have a standing of a 1.000; scored 208 points to their opponents 15. The Tornado standing follows: won 6 games, lost none; have a clean 1.000 per cent; have scored 187 points to opponents 6.

Morganfield and Tichman are the outstanding team in this Conference and are the only undefeated and untied eleven.

The Mayfield Cardinals are looking even better than ever after dropping a tough game to Morganfield. They ran wild over Princeton to run up a score of 47-7.

MURRAY TO CLASH WITH MIAMI TEAM

Game to Be Played on Keller Field, Paducah; Great Crowd Expected on November 11.

On Wednesday afternoon, November 11, on Keller Field, Paducah, the Murray State Thoroughbreds will clash with the strong Miami eleven. A record breaking crowd is expected to see this inter-sectional game.

The Miami eleven proved its strength by holding the powerful Southern team to a 33-20 score. Southern has one of the few undefeated and untied teams in the States and the points made by Miami were the first made against Southern this year.

The Florida aggregation has a passing attack which has worked effectively in its early tilts. Murray also rose to the occasion on last Saturday and displayed an aerial offense which gave the "Horses" a 13-7 victory.

Both teams have scoring qualities and the fans will be satisfied in seeing teams of this nature.

The Cutchmen have proved to their followers and opponents to have one of the gamest teams in the United States. Nothing seems to daunt these plucky gridders. Captain Paul Perdue, Murray, is indeed capable of his position and it can be said that he really captains his team and leads the onslaught himself.

We pay honor to this "little giant" who is wearing the Gold and Blue for the last time this year.

The Lions club of Paducah, who sponsored the Murray-Lambuth game there last year, is leaving nothing undone to make this game the outstanding event in Western Kentucky. Tickets are on sale in numerous Paducah stores, and even in Illinois towns.

Cherry Impressed With Spirit of School

President H. H. Cherry of Western Teachers College, Bowling Green, Ky., was favorably impressed with the conduct and spirit of Murray State students during the football game last October 24, according to a communication received from him by President Rainey T. Wells of Murray College.

His letter follows: "President Rainey T. Wells, 'Murray Teachers College, Murray, Ky. 'My dear President Wells: 'I left the city immediately following the game on last Saturday and this is the first opportunity I have really had to write you. I want you to know how deeply we appreciated the spirit of the day and how the 'community' was impressed with the students from the institution and the spirit of the occasion.

"I desire in this connection to ask you to express to the student body and all concerned my very earnest gratitude for the flowers presented to me.

"Wishing for you the finest things of life, I am, 'Yours very truly, 'H. H. Cherry."

Henry County Cagers To Meet in Murray

The Henry County, Tennessee, basketball team will hold their annual tournament at the Murray College auditorium Friday and Saturday, November 27th and 28th.

This meet of the high schools of that county has been an annual affair at the college for the past few years and much interest has been manifested due to the fact that many of the coaches of the Tennessee teams have been students and athletes of the Murray College.

Outlook for Hazel Netters Is Bright

The basketball team of Hazel High School began the season Friday night and was defeated. But the outlook is the brightest which the team has had in years. Losing only two lettermen last year the squad has plenty of competent material. The last years men back are Underwood, Maddox, Phillips, Kelly, Wilson, and Jones.

"Phillips," who broke his arm playing baseball, and Maddox are out with injuries. As soon as these men are back in the lineup, Hazel will be competent County Tournament contenders.

The next game will be with Paxson Friday night, November 6, in the Hazel gymnasium. Both girls and boys will play.

Tiger Reserves to Meet Groves' "B's"

On Friday afternoon, November 6, the Tiger Reserves will meet the Groves High School, Paris, Tenn., "B" team on the Murray High School Athletic Field at 3:00 o'clock.

The Murray reserves have been under the direction of Principal Ted Sanford and he has whipped into shape a neat clicking machine. In the backfield for a probable lineup we will find Ryan at fullback, Wiley and P. Wear at half positions and Weak at quarter. In the line Dunn, Jim Ed Duguid, Yarbrough, Bakwell, Brumbough, Franklin, Adams, and O. B. Irwin will play.

This is the first game for this group this season and they expect to give the Parisians a hard way to go. About 18 men compose the reserve squad.

Athletic Heads Make Change in Net Rules

In a meeting of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association provisions were made regarding the new division of the state into districts and regions for the holding of the basketball tournaments.

Formerly there were 32 districts and 8 regions in the state. Each region drew the winner of four district meets. There was a champion of each class, A and B, in the districts and both winners went to the regional.

In the coming season, there will be 64 districts and 16 regions, still leaving four districts to each region. However, the A and B classes will be abolished and only one champion will be selected at each place. Therefore, only four boys' teams and four girls' teams will play at Murray in the first region.

The reason for making this change is to improve the general level of play in the state, by tests by cutting out the B teams and allowing neighboring strong teams which are in the same class to be in different regions so that both may go to the state tournament.

Yearlings to Meet Union Pups Sat., 7

The Murray State College Frosh team, which has a perfect record, will meet the Union University, Jackson, Tenn., Saturday afternoon on College Field. The game will be called at 2:30.

The variety opened its grid season with Union's Bulldogs and suffered a 20-0 defeat. The Freshman team will be out in full strength to try to get a small amount of revenge. The Frosh team has easily won all their games except the Western tilt in which they posed out the Bulldogs by 7 points.

The Millermen are in splendid condition and a great game is expected Saturday when these "friendly (?) enemies" meet on the local field.

College Frosh Cagers Face Unusual Season

The freshmen of the Murray State College are facing the brightest prospects of having a great season in basketball since the opening of the college.

A few of the prospective players who come to Murray with top-notch records are: Attila, Marion, Ill.; Kent, King, Tenn.; Shazo, all of Henderson, Tenn.; Ruthford, Baldwin, Miss.; Hook, Kevill, Ky.; Chester, Arlington, Ky.; Craig, Heath, Ky.; Garver, Decatur, Ill.; Watson, Tolu, Ky.; Solomon, Benton, Ky.

MIAMI TEAM USED TO COOL CLIMATE

Every Player on First Team Has Attended Prep School North of Mason-Dixon Line.

Coral Gables, Fla., November 5.—A change in climate from the tropics of South Florida to the chilly weather of Kentucky is not expected to be a handicap to the University of Miami football team in its game Armistice Day with Murray State College at Paducah, Ky.

Although their uniforms are not exactly built for the cold, every player on the so-called first team attended prep school north of the Mason-Dixon line.

In the backfield Downes, the quarter backs from Haverhill, Mass., while the halfbacks, Crowe and Bates, are from West Haven, Conn., and Salem, Mass., respectively. Hansen, fullback, played prep football at Fon du Lac, Wis., and Phillips, fast-stepping reserve back, is from Paterson, N. J.

Middleton at left end is from Youngstown, Ohio, while Lee on the other flank is from Lawrence, Mass. Gracyk and Kozlowski, tackle and center respectively, call Salem, Mass., home, and Puzlisl at the other tackle is a Duluth, Minn., boy. Danksy, Exeter, N. H., and Siler, Chicago, Ill., play guard.

The reserve squad also is composed largely of Northern boys, only five coming from Florida.

Murray State To Meet Cape Friday

The Murray State College Thoroughbreds will journey to Cape Girardeau, Mo., Friday, to meet the fast eleven of the Cape Teachers. This game has always caused plenty of comment and when these two teams meet in any sport a real scrap results.

After turning a seeming defeat into victory with the Middle Tennessee Teachers last Friday, the Thoroughbreds will play the Cape Teachers in the state county 4-H health contests—Sadie Wilgus, home demonstration agent, Calloway county. How to put over the 4-H clothing project—Alda Henning, home demonstration agent, Fulton county. 4-H club competition—J. W. Whitcomb, state 4-H club leader; and a motion picture show, "Partners Three."

The purpose of this meeting is to better prepare community 4-H club leaders in the direction of the years work of their own clubs. It is hoped that about eight or ten of the Calloway county leaders will attend this meeting.

Boone county 4-H club members won $133 in prizes at the State Fair, where they exhibited dairy cattle, poultry and sewing.

"Lest We Forget"

By Mrs. George Hart "In Flanders field the poppies grow between the crosses row on row."

There's an ache in our throats and tears in our eyes as memory carries us back to the Armistice day when we received the message flashed instantly around the world that peace had been declared.

Time may heal all things, but it will require time and time to cure that sorrow that is so closely related to pride. And in millions of hearts today, we would not have it healed so completely as to forget. Those days when our own kin, friends, sweethearts, and loved ones clasped our hands, said goodbye, and went to the nation's call are pictures painted with an indelible brush and hang on memory's wall.

Those days of goodbyes; letters from camp, overseas; then cards, no news—and finally cablegrams—"Dead in action," "Missing from roll call." Who would have us forget. Who could forget?

Some returned. Thousands remained. They are sleeping beneath the soil where they handed us the torch to hold high and to carry on.

Gold stars still hang in mother's rooms. Fathers still roam in silent meditation. Men, once the country's youth, are scarred and carry secretly the experiences of Overthere.

Well do we remember the rejoicing, the shouts, the gun shots, the ringing of bells from every school house and church steeple that proclaimed the declaration of the November day.

Murray's American Legion Post No. 73 is Calloway's living monument to the World War. This post of about 300 members is doing its best to keep alive the spirit of 1914-18. It plans to give a public parade with the entire membership led by the drum and bugle corps. It would be appropriate to honor this group of distinguished Americans with our presence at this parade to close our business at that time, hang out our flags, and stand at silent attention as that body marches by at 11 o'clock of November 11.

It would be a distinctive honor to both the boys and to the college to have them sit in a body in the college chapel hour while the students sing such songs as, "Star Spangled Banner," "America," "Over There," "My Buddy," by the College band.

Winner of Centre-Georgetown Tilt Will Be Favorite

The watchful eyes of Kentucky fans will be centered upon the Centre-Georgetown fray this week-end. The winner of these two teams will be greatly favored to take the State S. I. A. A. headgear and will leave only one sanitary record team in the State, unless the score is tied.

The standings in the Kentucky S. I. A. A. struggle follow: Team W. L. Pct. Georgetown 2 0 1.000 Centre 1 0 1.000 Western 2 1 .666 Louisville 2 1 .666 Murray 0 1 .000 Eastern 0 2 .000 Transylvania 0 2 .000

Centre Holds High Place in Kentucky Gridiron Standings

The little college down at Danville, Ky., Centre, although not the largest school in this section, is the best and only bet for Kentucky to win championship honors in the S. I. A. A. When the University of Kentucky fell before the Crimson tide of Alabama last week it put a different aspect on the subject in ever sense of the meaning.

In Centre lies our only hope. Undeclared in the S. I. A. A., and tied only once this season, she has proven to the fan-world worthy to wear her honors. Last week when Harksdale, Centre end, booted the sphere through the straight and narrow way, he eliminated one of the Colonel's greatest barriers, Mercer College, by a score of 3-0. The Danville lads have the only undefeated team in the state, as Kentucky was strewn by the wayside.

Lynn Grove Wildcats Defeat Hazel Cagers

On last Friday night, October 30, the Lynn Grove High School Wildcats pounced upon the Hazel Eagles and escaped with a 38-9 victory. The games was played before a large crowd following the annual Halloween celebration on the Hazel High School gymnasium.

The first quarter was closely contested with the Hazel Hardwoodmen only one point behind during part of the first frame. The remaining part of the game seemed to belong to the "Cats" and were able to score with ease. Rogers, Poque, and T. Cochrum, of Lynn Grove, successfully hit the basket in the last three periods, while Miller and Sim did great defensive work by keeping down Hazel's scoring.

The lineup follows:
Lynn G. v. P. Hazel
Pgue 12 F Jones 1
Rogers 13 F Miller 1
Miller C Wilson 2
T. Cochrum 11 G Kelley 2
Sims 2 G Underwood
Substitutions: Lynn Grove—Casper, Hall, Hazel—Wilson, Kelley.
