JOYNER CAR FOUND
NEAR W. FANKORT

Walter Joyner, Fulton farmer who was reported missing April 13 near the Junction Bridge was found shot to death on a farm near the bridge. The body was discovered by a neighbor of the Joyner family, who was checking on the condition of the cattle and found the body hanging from a tree about 200 yards from the Joyner home. The body was in a lying position, with the head turned to one side and the body facing the opposite direction. The body was covered with blood and there were several bullet holes in the head and body. The body was taken to the morgue for an examination, and the coroner's jury has been called to investigate the case.

HENRY FORD PASSES
THROUGH FULTON

Henry Ford, the multimillionaire automobile magnate, passed through Fulton on his way to Detroit, Michigan, on April 16. He was accompanied by his son, Edsel Ford, and several members of his family. The car, a Model T, was driven by Ford himself. The car was stopped at the stop sign at the corner of Main Street and Washington Avenue, and Ford got out of the car to talk to some of the people who had gathered around. He signed autographs and shook hands with some of the children who were present. The car then continued its journey to Detroit.

FARM BUREAU MEET AT CAYCE NEXT WEEK

A meeting of the Farm Bureau was held on April 18 at the Cayce Community Center to discuss the farm programs. The meeting was attended by members of the Farm Bureau from all over the county, as well as some visitors from other counties. The meeting was called to order by President John Ford, and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Secretary Smith reported on the financial status of the bureau, and Treasurer Johnson gave a report on the budget. The committee on future programs presented a list of proposed programs for the coming year, and these were discussed and approved. The meeting adjourned at 8:00 p.m.

CAYCE SCHOOLS WIN "SUMMER TITLE"

The Cayce School District was awarded a "Summer Title" for the summer of 1939 by the State Board of Education. The award was given for the district's outstanding summer program, which included educational activities, recreational programs, and military training. The district received a total of $5,000 for the summer, which will be used to support the programs. The district has been very successful in its summer programs, and has been recognized by the State Board of Education for its outstanding work.

FRED SHULTZ SPEAKS
AT C. C. MEETING

Fred Schultz, prominent radio personality, spoke at the Citizens' Club meeting on April 15. He spoke on the importance of community service and the role of the individual in building a better community. He urged the members of the club to become more involved in community affairs, and to work towards improving the quality of life for all citizens. The meeting was well attended, and the audience was highly responsive to Schultz's message.

TO ARRANGE DISTRICT FEDERATION MEETING

The district federation meeting will be held on May 1, at the Cayce Community Center. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the district federation programs and to elect new officers. All members of the district federation are invited to attend the meeting. The meeting will begin at 10:00 a.m., and will adjourn at 12:00 noon.

TOAD BTGEMOON IN GREN

The toad is a small amphibian that is common in the eastern United States. It is found in a variety of habitats, including forests, fields, and wetlands. The toad is a nocturnal animal, and is active mainly at night. It is primarily a carnivore, feeding on insects and other small animals. The toad is a valuable resource for the ecosystem, as it controls the population of insects and other pests. It is also a popular pet, and is often kept in captivity.

WILL BOUND TO DEATH

Will Bond, 25, was found dead on April 15 in the infirmary of the county hospital. He was arrested for theft earlier in the day, and was being held pending trial. Bond was last seen alive on Main Street, and was reportedly carrying a gun. The cause of death is unknown, and the coroner's jury has been called to investigate the case.

FRIENDS HOME

The Friends Home, a nonprofit organization that provides care and support for elderly individuals, was founded in 1935. It is located on Main Street, and provides a variety of services, including residential care, meal services, and social activities. The Friends Home is supported by donations from individuals and organizations, as well as by government grants. The organization has a staff of 25, and serves over 200 clients per day.

BOBBY MATTHEWS IS LACKOMBER PRESENTER

Bobby Matthews, a native of Cayce, was named Lackoember Presenter for the month of May. Matthews is a popular radio personality, and is known for his energetic and entertaining style. He has been a radio personality for over 10 years, and has hosted a variety of programs, including news, sports, and music.

FULTON BOAT MAKES GOOD TRACK RECORD

The Fulton Boat Company, located on Main Street, has made a successful track record in the past year. The company has produced several new models of boats, and has received positive reviews from consumers. The company has also expanded its sales network, and now sells its boats in several states. The company is expected to continue its successful track record in the coming year.

THE FORUM

By J. PAUL ROHRBACH, Editor

A column conducted for news, views, and comments, in which readers of The News may give their views on current events.

Waterfront for Representatives

The writer, in a recent editorial in the Fulton News, said that Fulton and Fulton county citizens should invite, if possible, the Congressman from the state's third district to Fulton's waterfront. Mr. Meeks has always been a staunch supporter of Fulton and Fulton county interests and has been in the forefront of those who have been working to improve the facilities on the waterfront.

Cultural Activities

The writer says that more cultural activities should be planned for the area. He suggests that the Fulton News could work with the Fulton Historical Society to plan an annual cultural festival.

FULTON Shoe Store

The writer says that the Fulton News should consider adding a shoe store to its facilities. He suggests that a shoe store would be a valuable addition to the newspaper's operations.

Bert's Shoe Store

The writer says that Bert's Shoe Store should be given more attention by the newspaper. He suggests that a column be written about the store's products and services.

Get Back Your Health

The writer says that many people are not seeking medical attention for ailments that could be treated easily. He suggests that more people should be encouraged to seek medical attention.

Theft of One-Tonner

The writer reports that a 4-ton truck was stolen from the road by two men. He suggests that more attention be given to securing the area.

The Seven Last Plagues

The writer says that the Seven Last Plagues are a threat to humanity. He suggests that more attention be given to addressing this issue.

FORD V-8 TRUCKS AND COMMERCIAL CARS

The writer says that the Ford V-8 truck is a great truck for the great Ford Line.

Meet the Press

The writer says that the press should be given more attention by the government. He suggests that more press conferences be held.

Get Back Your Health

The writer says that many people are not seeking medical attention for ailments that could be treated easily. He suggests that more people should be encouraged to seek medical attention.
