A couple of dogwoods with their dawn come in at this particular like it, and pretty soon I rose up, and by turning my head a little I confess that the hospital folks for a long time. That all made the massed wisteria turned the place well, for I lived for many years near of the day I just lay there in the of dark clouds through the trees, a sense of healing in the green of flowers; there was Mimetic bumble bees, flew in and the odor of flowers; there was slapped into a hospital room G. Fifteen Years Ago
(April 20, 1956)

Mrs. W. J. Jones, Sr. died last evening at 7:30 at the family home on Maple Avenue, after a severe illness. She was an old resident of Fulton.

Congressman Alben W. Barkley of the First District today announced an appointment for the United States Senate. Experts say he will have to make a hasty trip to Washington to be sworn into office.

Mrs. Dorem Culley is reported quite ill at her home in Detroit.

Dr. Arthur Freeman, naval officer, is visiting friends and relatives in Fulton this week. He has been on duty during the past two years in China and the Philippine Islands.

Dr. W. T. Lewis, for fifteen years the pastor of Methodist Church and now of Paddocks, returned today at the Rotary Club. Dr. Lewis also addressed the students at Fulton High School this morning.

E. F. Arnold, three years old, died this morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Simpkins. She had been ill for many months.

Mrs. J. E. Kline and Mrs. W. D. Boyd returned today from Henderson, where they attended a W. M. U. Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Battles and son, who have moved to Fulton from Curry, Tenn., and will make their home here.

Mr. A. R. Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville K. Nelson, who has been quite ill, is reported better today.

BRITISH AND GREEK MAKING LAST STAND

Army the mainline of the moutainous Hellenic peninsula—probably along a pre-arranged front extending from Navioi to the Gulf of Aetos—the hard-pressed Greek and British forces are making their last stand against the overwhelming numbers of Nazi Blitzkrieg and Axis tanks, which have in recent months been cleared to the plains of Thessaly, where the retreat began in October. The Greek forces have been forced to abandon the hills and are now on the run, under the constant pressure of the ever-increasing supplies of the German army, which is now in full possession of the plains of Thessaly.

The line is shorter and stronger than any heretofore held. It has fewer gaps and passes than those that fell to the German advance. It is in the vicinity of historic Thermopylae where Leonidas and his 300 held up the entire Persian army. But only 40 miles between Chalcis and Corinth, the Larissa Canal. There can be no retreat except by water to the very center of Peleponnesus or by sea to the island of Crete or to Egypt.

Sir Robert is preparing for the evacuation and evacuation of the British forces. He has frustrated the usual Nazi strategy and caused tremendous losses to the enemy. This is the first time that a battle line with such a barrier has been held by the Allies. It is also the first time that a battle line with such a barrier has been held by the Allies. It is also the first time that a battle line with such a barrier has been held by the Allies. It is also the first time that a battle line with such a barrier has been held by the Allies.

Sir Robert's retreat has prevented the envelopment and annihilation of the British forces. He has frustrated the usual Nazi strategy and caused tremendous losses to the enemy. It is also the first time that a battle line with such a barrier has been held by the Allies.

There is the prospect, however, of further retreating and organizing. The German army is occupied in Greece and cannot be of any further assistance to the Allies. It is also the first time that a battle line with such a barrier has been held by the Allies. It is also the first time that a battle line with such a barrier has been held by the Allies. Among the prospects for the 1941 team are: Larry Bowers, who has been shifted from tackle to right end, proved to be very rugged in the 7-7 tie, and weighs 185 lbs. This is 20 lbs. above his peak weight. Larry Bowers is a junior high school student, who has been working hard on the school's track team and should turn into a first rate tackle.

Jack Wiley, 167 lbs., who holds down the right guard position, has showed little blocking ability in his two years experience at the position, but with some experience, he should within the next few weeks.

Larry Davis, who played center last year, is a 175 lbs., center, who is in very good condition and is ready to go as a first year man.

The center position brings a smile from Jack Moore, a 200 lbs., center, who has not been out for spring practice. He is 10 lbs. above his peak weight which has slowed him down considerably making it difficult for him to start at tackle tomorrow. Has been shifted from tackle to right guard, has been doing a good deal of work in the last two weeks. Tosh, who has had two years experience in both tackle and end, has showed little improvement in his two years experience at the position, but with some experience, he should show marked improvement.

The other center position is held by Bob Aikens, who is a 200 lbs., center, who has shown little blocking ability.

The left guard position is held by Bob Aikens, who is a 200 lbs., center, who has shown little blocking ability.

The left tackle position is held by Robert Whitesell, who is 195 lbs., tackle, who has been doing a great deal of work in the line.

The right guard position is held by Robert Whitesell, who is 195 lbs., tackle, who has been doing a great deal of work in the line.
