Mr. Latham on the O. V. Railway.

We are permitted to publish the following private letter written to Judge Landess, by Mr. John C. Latham Jr., concerning the pending proposition of the Ohio Valley Railway Co. We are glad that the proposition has the endorsement of a able, clear-headed, and public-spirited gentleman as Mr. Latham, whose personal and financial interests are so largely identified with those of the people of his native town and county.

NEW YORK, AUG. 8, 1887.

HON. JOS. I. LANDESS.

Hopkinsville, Ky.

Dear Sir:—Your letter enclosing printed copy of proposition from the Ohio Valley Railway Company to extend its line from Princeton to Hopkinsville, has been received.

I have read the proposition very carefully, and consider it unusually favorable in many respects, and believe it would be for the best interest of the city of Hopkinsville to make the subscription of $100,000, without any hesitation whatever. Were I a resident, I would gladly vote for it, for there are in the proposition some safe-guards and guarantees that many railroads would not think of offering. I do not consider it necessary to enter into any discussion about the matter, as the proposition itself is so explicit and comprehensive.

I believe it is a general sentiment of the citizens of Hopkinsville that another railroad is indispensable. The city is not large enough, nor rich enough, to build its own line, and to make each and every connection that it would like; hence, a new line must be built almost wholly by foreign capitalists.

The subscription of $100,000 would not build and equip properly with rolling stock, provisions, depots, etc., more than five or six miles of road, and for this sum if the city of Hopkinsville can have a road built from Hopkinsville to Princeton, some thirty miles, I believe the advantages that will be gained to the city will speedily overcome the expenditure made.

By the new road the city will have an independent connection with the Chesapeake & Ohio at Princeton, and will doubtless, receive a large amount of trade from Caldwell, Trigg, and Lyon counties that it does not now receive. The building of a new road will add importance to the City of Hopkinsville, and when the Ohio Valley System is fully completed, new avenues of business may be opened that are not now considered.

Wills-Buckner.

At the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. C. Buckner, on Maple street, Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, Dr. B. L. Wills, of Paducah, was united in marriage to Miss Jennie C. Buckner. It was a quiet, unostentatious affair, witnessed only by the relatives and immediate friends of the family. The happy couple departed on the 10 o'clock train Thursday for Paducah.

The groom is a promising and rising young physician and a gentleman of fine business qualifications. The bride is a beautiful brunette, bright, vivacious and fascinating, and endowed with rare intellectual attainments. In Hopkinsville's loss, Paducah will gain a bright acquisition to her social circle. The New Era wishes the happy couple a life of unalloyed happiness and prosperity.

We will carry the most extensive line of Men's Furnishing Goods in Kentucky. Gentlemen will always find the latest novelties in our stock.

A New Era reporter wandering around the Temple of Justice Thursday afternoon picked up a scrap of paper on which the following lines were written, evidently by one who is inclined to woo the gentle muse:

"When gaily the thermometer at ninety holds its place,
And with your hat of straw you fan
Our meek purring face
When every stitch of clothes you wear
Is sticking to your form,
How soothing 'tis to have a friend
Inform you 'tis warm."

Not a great while ago Harry Clark, an enterprising stock speculator, drove to town a herd of cattle. At the city scales, on fifth street, the drove stamped; one large, wild bull ran up Webster street and darted into the parlor of Mrs. J. C. Brasher. The children ran frightened from the room and consternation reigned about the premises. Mrs. Brasher, with great presence of mind reached for an old navy pistol to perforate the intrusive bull, who was standing immovable near a mirror, foaming at the mouth, but Mr. Clark arriving at this juncture, she lowered the weapon. Explanations were made and the animal made to vacate.

The True Method

Of curing habitual constipation, and liver and kidney ills is to avoid the use of the bitter drastic liver medicines and cathartics, and to take only the pleasant liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It cleanses as well as strengthens the system, and does not leave the bowels constive, so that regular habits may be formed and the invalid permanently restored to health. It acts promptly and effectively; it is easily taken, and perfectly harmless. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles by H. B. Garner, Hopkinsville, Ky.

"Winfree-Anderson" Again.

Last Thursday, Judge W. P. Winfree died suit in the Circuit Court against Mr. A. H. Anderson for the "salary, fees and emoluments of the County Judge's office, collected by Mr. Anderson during his occupancy of the office. The sum named is $1,350.20; and the petitioner also prays for damages in the sum of $500. This suit is not unexpected and will be the closing chapter in the history of a hot contest, with the past incidents with which our readers are familiar.

Hopkinsville Branch R. R.

A significant meeting was held at the office of Judge R. T. Petree, late yesterday afternoon. It was the first meeting of the incorporators of the "Hopkinsville Branch Railroad Co." They agreed by resolution that there was no immediate necessity for organization, but that if the O. V. proposition is defeated next Saturday, and any feasible and satisfactory proposition to build a road from here to Columbus, should be offered by Jo. F. Ford or others, they would at once organize for that purpose. Mr. C. H. Bush was secretary of the meeting.

Sunday School Workers of the C. P. Church in Kentucky.

We are about to have our fifth annual Convention. Part of the business of Sunday School workers is to take advantage of every opportunity to learn more about how to do Sunday School work, and tell it to others.

The convention, which now may be more properly called an Institute, will hold its next meeting at Mt. Olivet, near Bowling Green, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 30, 31 and September 1, beginning at 8 o'clock Tuesday.

The church which so cordially invites us is located six miles from Bowling Green and four miles from Bristol station. The best arrangements possible will be made for reduced rates on the railroads.

Every Sabbath School and Church should be represented, all of our preachers present, who are in the State, with Bibles and Gospel Hymns, and make this what we expect it to be—the grandest convention of all. The place of meeting is central, and we want every part of the State to receive benefit from this Institute.

Notice the "Cumberland Presbyterian" for announcements.
