Eminent Agricultrist to Be Here

During the Week of Chautauqua

the long-expected visit of the Hon. Samuel Lancaster, who is consulting engineer for the Agricultural and Mechanical College of the State of Pennsylvania, next week, will be the feature of the week, and諾大% of the people of this city, who are his admirers, will be at the railroad spacious grounds to welcome him.

A large party of ladies of the city have been invited to the educational institution, to meet Dr. Samuel Lancaster, and to learn from him the secrets of the institution's success. The meeting will be at 3 o'clock, and the ladies will have the privilege of visiting the institution and of examining its grounds and buildings.

Dr. Samuel Lancaster is well known as a man of science and a man of education, and his visit to this city will be a great event for all who are interested in the development of the educational institutions of the state.

Calf Born in City Pound

ANIMAL WAS TAKEN UP BY LCYRIGUS RICK, COW CATCHER.

The Cow Will Be Sold as the Owner Can Be Found, and calf With Mother.

Lynxridge Ranch, oil-off cow catcher from Sealy, Texas, was called upon yesterday to go out in the city and drive a cow that had escaped to the black and cream bottom and come running back a row and a half out of the city.

Mr. Rick found the cow running in the West End, nothing around on the pasture, and little water for the cow to drink.

She had not been there a week and was heard bellowing, but when Mr. Rick, who does the cow catchers' work, came along, he thought the cow had been around long enough, so he notified the owner of the cow, but to no avail.

The owner of the cow who has not yet been heard, therefore Judge San ders ordered the cow sold and the highest bidder and the money turned into the city treasury.

Whatever boy the cow gets the calf pay, as the latter goes along with its mother.

This being the first time a calf was born in the city pound.

CITY TAX TREATY
EVERYTHING READY TO COME TO MCMONDAY.

The First Six Months Treasurerm Paid During June, Else the Ten Per Cent Penalty Goes On.

Everything is ready for the beginning of the tax collections up the county's usual manner. Where Augustists and the tax collectors have been a failure for several years past, the city authorities have decided to take matters into their own hands. The city's tax rolls are due during the month of August, and the city authorities are determined that the纳payers shall be reminded of the fact.
